This service is in addition to the dining car running on number two, the Pennsylvania Limited, a solid Pullman vestibule train, composed of dining, sleeping, smoking and observation cars, on which an extra fare is charged.

No more brief stops for indifferent meals! You can "fare sumptuously every day" at your leisure and in comfort while rolling across the country at forty miles an hour upon the vestibule trains of the Pennsylvania Lines in the new and luxurious dining cars of the Pullman company.

By recent decision of the United States court, the patent vestibule cannot be used on other than Pullman cars. Particular attention is therefore invited to the fact that the Pennsylvania lines are operating Pullman sleeping and dining cars which are properly fitted with that convenient and appreciable device—the Pullman perfected safety vestibule.

The Best in the World. J. B. Leitch, ex-mayor of North Des Moines, and the Locust street manufacturer of steam engines and boilers, said: "I had a severe attack of the grippe. I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm to my breast. These remedies were just the thing in my case. My child had a cold and cough, and I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with perfect success; since then we have never been without these medicines in our house. I had a cousin who was a printer and was employed in this city, where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep-seated cold and a terrible cough, and while setting up the copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured his cough, and that was the first time I ever knew anything of Chamberlain's remedies. I have been strongly in their favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convince me that these remedies are the best in the world. I can not speak in strong language, but that is what I think."

THE MARTYRS' MEMORY.

South Omaha Irishmen Honor the Patriots Allen, Larkin and O'Brien. Blum's opera house had as the grand and appreciative audience Monday night an array of the Irish country could desire to attend. While the Hibernian cornet band filled the house with sweet and stirring music, the seats were filled with representative citizens, ladies in particular attending in numbers.

On the platform were Benjamin S. Adams, the chairman; the Rev. Fathers D. W. Moriarty and Charles Mangan of St. Agnes'; St. Bridget's of this city; and the Rev. Father J. R. McGrath, and Hon. T. F. Minahan of Omaha, orators of the occasion, County Commissioners Corrigan and O'Keefe, Judges Patrick J. King, and Joseph J. Green, Councilman James J. Dougherty, Jeremiah Howard, Thomas J. O'Neil, of this city, Patrick C. Healey, Mr. Murphy, and others of Omaha.

In a short and happy address, showing his heart was full of the spirit of the meeting, Mr. Adams welcomed the large audience, and feelingly referred to the martyrdom of the three noble martyrs whose blood had brought them together, praised the national trait and character that was so fully developed in all sons of Erin, and the noble and heroic deeds of our countrymen, remember their virtues and commemorate their valorous deeds, and keep fresh in their minds and the minds of their fellow men, the fate of the sons of the Island of Martyrs.

Miss Rose Flannery of Omaha turned every heart for the good things coming by singing in a very acceptable manner "Devoted Father," with Miss Maggie Swift of Omaha as accompanist.

A very enjoyable evening was followed by Hon. T. F. Minahan of Omaha, who graphically pictured the causes that had brought them together, paid a merited compliment to the national character of the Irish, and stands the pre-eminent in Ireland and was carried with her sons and daughters wherever they may be, the world over as they are taught to honor and revere the glorious deeds of her sons as are the fields of the Emerald Isle.

Mr. James P. Murphy sang "Dublin Bay," rendering a piano solo after which Rev. Father J. R. McGrath of Omaha delivered a stirring address, and the sons of Erin, after some happy compliments to the magnificent audience, the successful management, the success of the meeting, the fitting and solemn occasion for such an interest, the reverend father roused his audience to the applauding mood. "The patriotism and sacrificing devotion of Irishmen is proverbial the world over," said the speaker, "and go where you will if you find a son of the Emerald Isle, you will find the same evidence of loyalty and the same spirit of religious and national patriotism that I see here tonight. Nursing her imported sorrows and mourning her past and departed ones, the sons of Erin know how to sympathize with the sufferers and oppressed in all lands. Appealing as Ireland always has done and is doing today to the intelligence and goodness of the peoples of the world, on by one the bulwarks of her oppressors have been assailed with more or less success till today, backed up by the fair-minded men of the world, as evidenced by the reception of her representatives in this country by a powerful and respectful following through the aid of our friends and a solid people at home, she promises soon to fulfill the expectations and the prayers of every true-hearted and loyal son of Ireland and become one of the nations of the earth."

The audience, amidst cheers and music, adjourned to a banquet at the Hotel Deane.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in diseases of the throat and lungs.

"Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. I employed a physician most of the time, who finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and before I had finished taking the first bottle was able to sit up all the time, and to go out.
