COLD COMFORT.

The Ice Dealers are Getting Altogether too Much of it.

The ice dealers of the city are on the anx-lous seat at the prospect of a short crop and many of them have been doing some fadus-

trious figuring with the ides of shipping ace

At the opening of the winter season a year

ngo there were about two thousand tons of ice on hand in the various ice houses which had been carried over from the previous year.

This year, however, the houses of all dealers in the city are entirely empty and it is this fact which causes anxiety on the part of deal-fact which causes abxiety on the part of dealers in congealed aqua pura.

Some dealers have been supplying their winter customers with ice obtained from dealers in Council Bluffs while others have been compelled to cut ice from the reservoirs and lakes. This latter is not suitable for storing, being only four inches in thickness.

All the ice used last year was cut from the reservoirs, Florence lake and Cut-Off lake. The season for cutting cid not open until January 15, but with the amount on hand there was no difficulty in storing enough to supply the trade.

Local dealers have been haunting the office

Local dealers have been haunting the office of the signal service observer looking for statistics of previous years and endeavoring to forecast the weather.

One of these gentlemen remarked to a reporter for The Bee that he had been negotiating with parties in Minnesota for ice, but had been unable to make terms which would enable him to compete with the home product, providing any of the latter material.

duct, providing any of the latter materialized.

"If we do not have 'cutting' weather pretty soon," said he, "all dealers will be compelled to ship ice or quit the business, and that means that the price of ice will be higher than ever."

than ever."

Observer Welch, the clerk of the weather, was of the spinion yesterday that the indications were very good for a cold snap sufficient to make ice, with but little snow. The cient to make ice, with but little snow. The reports from signal service stations in the west and northwest showed a large area of low temperature, ranging from 5° to 10° above zero, accompanied by light flurries of snow. An area of high barometer was central in Idaho and moving eastward, the barometer at the local signal office showing a rharked rise.

The best anodyne and expectorant for the cure of colds and coughs and all throat, lung and bronchial troubles is undoubtedly Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral. Ask your druggist for it, and at the same time for Ayer's almanac, which is free to all.

Weather Indices.

Up to this date our monthly prognestications have been fully as reliable as the prophesics of the late lamented Wiggins, but at the beginning of a new year we resolve to do still better. The customary Roseland Gaston, a young farmer's lad, out of a watch and $\mathbb{Z}$ in money, was arraigned before Judge Helsley and had his case continued. Gaston gave up his wealth to Burton, who was to get him a place as newsboy. Burton acknowledged receiving the property, but said that the crime was committed in Iowa, and hence ontside the jurisdiction of the Omaha court. He finally acknowledged to Sergeant Whalen that the watch was given to him this side of Pacific Junction, and he received the $\mathbb{Z}$ after he reached the union depot in this city. When the depot policeman attempted to place Burton under arrest, he was concealed on the train until it had started. The conductor received a telegram before he reached Lincoln, and when the train arrived there, he locked Burton in the bargage car and held him until an officer arrived.
