Mr. McKee Rankin, the well-known and popular actor, supported by a poweral company, will open a two nights' engagement at the Grand on Saturday evening in "The Canuck." The character is that of a French Canadian, a type of character found along the southern border of Canada. It is an en-tirely new creation and should be an exact reproduction of a "Canuck," as the actor's early life was spent among that class of peo-

Mark Smith, the wonderful baritone with "The Sea King," for years was a Boston oratorio singer, and afterward drifted into opera. He was here in 1883 with the Fay Templeton opera company, and shortly after joined the Casino forces in New York. There his magnificent voice and splendid presence made him a great favorite. Mark Smith inherited his vocal powers, for his father was a great baritone singer before him.

Commencing Sunday evening next, and continuing four nights, the Boston Howard Athenaeum specialty company will occupy the stage of the Boyd. This season it will present the great Cinquevalli, the wonderful juggler; the five Bolsettes, horizontal bar performers; Miss Kate Davis, imitator, with five distinct voices; Dutch Daly, Pritz and Webster, the Howard quartette, the Poluskis, Miss Marion Hayman and the Salambos.

On the four nights following the Howard Athenaeum company Mr. Joseph Murphy, the legitimate frish comedian, will be the attraction at the Boyd, presenting the following repertoire: Thursday and Friday evenings, "The Shaun Rhue;" Saturday evening, "The Kerry Gow," and Sunday evening, "The Donagh."

A STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Physicians of all schools Will Support a Bill for a New Law.

Leading physicians of the state have prepared a bill to establish a state board of health and regulate the practice of medicine. One of their number has requested THE BEE to publish the following copy of the proposed act for the information of physicians of all schools throughout the state:

Abill for an act to establish a state board of health and to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of Nebraska, and to repeal the act entitled, "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of Nebraska." approved March 3, 1881, and sections 1 to 11 inclusive, of chapter 55 of the compiled statutes of the state of Nebraska.

Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska:
Section 1. There shall be established in the state of Nebraska a board to be styled the State Board of Health, Said board shall consist of the governor, attorney general and superintendent of public instruction, and the governor shall be ex-officio chairman of said board.

Sec. 2. Said board shall meet upon the call of the governor within thirty days after the approval of this act and shall meet thereafter as often and at such times as the governor may from time to time designate.

Sec. 3. Said board shall within sixty days after the approval of this act appoint three secretaries who shall begraduated physicians of at least seven years consecutive practice. of at least seven years consecutive practice, and who shall be at the time of their appointment actually engaged in practice in the state of Nebraska. One of whom shall be appointed for the term of two years; one for the term of four years, and one for the term of six years, and thereafter it shall be the duty of said board to appoint, or re-appoint, one secretary every two years, as the terms of those heretofore appointed shall expire, but each secretary shall continue in office until his successor shall have been so appointed. Said appointment shall be so that one shall always be a physician of the so-called regular school; one of the so-called homeopathic school; provided, that no secretary shall be a member of the faculty or staff of any medical school or university.

or staff of any medical school or university.

SEC. 4. Said secretaries shall have the power and it shall be their duty to assist and advise said board in the performance of its duties as prescribed by this act; to summon witnesses and to take testimony in the same manner as witnesses are summoned and depositions taken under the code of civil procedure, and to report said testimoney to the beard testimoney with their finglings of fact. ure, and to report said testimoney to the and recommendations on all matters coming before said board requiring evidence for their determination, except as hereinafter provided. Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of said board to sec. 5.
