Notary Public. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 31st day of January, A. D. 1891.

The subject of the next contest relates to the payment of bills of the last.

REGISTER MERTHATH has finally come down with the cash and saved his job.

It is odd that while the last of the great commanders on land and sea are passing away the pension list continues to increase.

Cuba says she will be ruined if reciprocity is not obtained. Then by all means let Cuba hurry up and strike the Blaine gait.

The friends of suicidal legislation are becoming very scarce in Nebraska. It is one of those things of which it is well to have a drouth.

With the interstate bridge charter a law and two more advancing favorably, there is a possibility of bridges becoming a drug in this market.

If the Omaha baseball club is determined to capture the scalp of the Western association no time should be lost in reserving Mr. Two Strikes.

The movement to abolish the code in Europe receives a fresh impetus from the fact that blood was actually spilt at a recent meeting of duellists.

AGITATION pays. The county treasury is $9,600 better off, as a result of THE BEE's persistent demand for an annual settlement of fees received by county officers.

The admirers of the late General Spinner propose to honor his memory with a monument. The fact that the movement did not originate in New York strengthens its chances of success.

WHAT Cleveland loses by his silver letter is in a measure atoned for by the fact that Springer goes back on him and will no longer make foolish speeches of nomination years before the opening of the campaign.

The superintendents of public institutions have no reason to complain at the prospect of economy this year. They have laid in ample supplies in the way of previous appropriations against the rainy day of a reform legislature.

RAILROADS are paying handsomely for their opposition to the general use of safety couplings. Acting on the principle that corporations maintaining man-killers should pay for the luxury, eastern juries are assessing damages ranging from $10,000 to $30,000 for lost arms and limbs.

A NEW woman's council has been organized by Frances Willard, with which she proposes to "overthrow all forms of ignorance and injustice and apply the golden rule to society, custom and law."

It is observed that the people are beginning to pass resolutions to the effect that Nebraska is able to take care of her own people. That is true, and it is also true that she could expect no help from the government.

The recent acquisitions of stars to the dramatic firmament, coupled with the remarkable financial success of their debut, leaves no doubt that the prize ring and the divorce court are the principal doors to success on the stage.

The vigorous action of the commissioners in the Mogenst case produced the desired result. A settlement has been effected by which the register starts the 1891 with a clean balance sheet.

In his social and personal relations General Sherman was an ideal gentleman. He was everywhere a welcome guest, and wherever he went he contributed interest and pleasure.

General Sherman was not only one of the great men of his time. He was one of the greatest in his sphere that this country has produced.

GENERAL WILLIAM T. SHERMAN. The last of that illustrious triumvirate of soldiers whose genius shed imperishable glory upon the military history of their country is dead.

General Sherman was not only one of the great men of his time. He was one of the greatest in his sphere that this country has produced.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL SHERMAN. The name of Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard university, has in the past few years become a familiar one through his contributions to the leading magazines.

THE OPPORTUNITY OF MEETING A MAN eminent as a successful educator and the representative of the first university of the land will be gratifying to many of our citizens.

THE CONVENTION WAS SO FORTUNATE as to amicably arrange the only difficulty which threatened the success of the movement. This was the provision of the bill first introduced by Representative Purnell.

THE FRIENDS OF IRRIGATION entertain no doubt as to the success of the measure in the legislature. Drafted by the representatives of all portions of the state, founded upon the experience of California, Wyoming and Colorado, and enthusiastically endorsed by all elements in the movement, it ought, in the hands of Representative Purnell, to speedily become a law.

ON THE ROLL OF THE WORLD'S GREAT philanthropists the name of Baron Hirsch must hereafter occupy a prominent and honorable place. Long known for his generous benefactions, he has recently challenged the admiration of the world by his splendid munificence in behalf of the persecuted Jews in Russia.

THE ANNUAL REPORTS OF HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS are on record, the tax assessment and levy completed, the apportionment of revenue made and the municipal desks cleared for the work of the current year.

THE CONSIDERATIONS ARE SUFFICIENTLY weighty to rouse the city officials from their lethargy and spur them to action. There is no time to be lost in making preparations for the inauguration of public work.

Activity in public works not only stimulates private enterprise, but furnishes employment to large numbers of workmen.

IN SUGGESTION AND often brilliant in epigram, were prominent features of such occasions. At the soldiers' reunions, where for years he was a prominent figure, his addresses were models of wise and patriotic counsel.

THE PROPOSED IRRIGATION LAW. The bill finally drafted by the state irrigation convention at Lincoln for presentation to the legislature provides for a system as complete as that enjoyed by any state in the west.
