

THE DAILY BEE
E. ROSEWATER Editor
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily Bee without Sunday Post, $4.00
Daily and Sunday Post Year, $7.50

OFFICE:
Omaha, The Bee Building
South Omaha, 207 1/2 and 208 1/2 Streets
Central Omaha, 217 and 218 1/2 Streets

ADVERTISING:
All communications relating to news and editorial matters should be addressed to the editorial department.

BUSINESS LETTERS:
All business letters and communications should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha.

THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETORS
THE BEE BUILDING

SWORN STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION
STATE OF NEBRASKA, ss
County of Douglas, ss

George H. Tschick, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, do hereby certify that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending March 9, 1891, was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Date, Circulation. Rows for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Average.

WE are to have a union depot—some day.

CARTER HARRISON has at last found a party that will run him for mayor of Chicago.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER has endowed another Baptist college. Thus do oil and water combine.

OMAHA ministers are of the opinion that religious revivals have a tendency to encourage high-five parties.

IF CANADA banishes the annexationists the dominion will be depopulated and there will be nobody to annex.

MONDAY'S Kansas City Times contains 22 columns of advertisements of foreclosure proceedings. This is a gloomy fact.

LOVE goes to San Salvador; McGraw to the agricultural department at Washington and the Nebraska delegation are at rest.

THE lengthy serial, called "The Gubernatorial Contest," evidently intends to conical its plot up to the very end of the last chapter.

THE lengthy contest in the California legislature indicates that the price of senatorships has gone up since the passage of the McKinley bill.

JUST why an irate legislator found it necessary to kick the colored porter off the Denver junket train about midnight on the first night out is not stated.

GUATEMALA promises to come to the west side of her Central American wars alongside of Buffalo Bill's wild west show.

COUNTY RECORDER MCGRATH can save the county the cost of the additional deputy he asks for by getting down to business himself about eight hours a day.

ALTHOUGH the railway rate bills are kept in the background it is refreshing to note that the senate has passed an act making it a misdemeanor to interfere with the personal liberty of any dog.

NOTHING seriously injurious has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

IF SENATOR PIERCE declines an editorship for the mission to Japan he lacks the inspiration essential to success in journalism. The Japanese mission is simply an elaborate sleeping apartment.

MAYOR CUSHING will be home today. He should signalize his return by a refusal to sanction the new boiler ordinance. It is a plain scheme for foisting a patent appliance upon boiler-owners of Omaha.

THE discovery of Poor's murderer has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

HARDLY 5 per cent of the real estate tax of Douglas county for the past year has yet been paid, though it will be delinquent May 1, and yet the Nebraska senate has passed a bill abolishing the 5 per cent penalty. The house should kill senate file No. 23.

THE new board of police commissioners in Leavenworth, Kan., signaled its advent to power by closing all saloons on Sunday. It is hardly necessary to remind some of THE BEE's prohibitionist friends that Leavenworth is in Kansas and that Kansas is a prohibitory state.

The irrigation bill has been out and slashed in the house until its friends no longer know it. As it now stands, it embodies all the mistakes of other states without the corrections of their experience. Nebraska had better wait for a good law than begin with a very bad one.

NEW SETTLERS FOR NEBRASKA.

Two or three interior cities have organized associations to engage in the work of attracting new settlers to the farm lands of Nebraska.

Good farms can be bought cheaper at this time than ever before, and far cheaper than they can ever be bought again, in all probability.

The first class of study new states are generally a class of sturdy pioneers, who have nothing to invest but their energy and labor.

This is the theory on which some of the associations are working to secure a new and thrifty class of settlers in the territory immediately tributary to the cities which they represent.

One enterprising interior town has sent committees to Illinois and West Virginia to lay these facts before farmers in those states and endeavor to induce them to come west.

There is another very promising source of development quietly working in the interest of Nebraska. The public has little knowledge of the plans which are now being made for the reclaiming of arid land in the western part of the state.

SUGAR BOUQUETS ELSEWHERE.

Wherever the sugar beet industry has taken deep root, in England or America, it has had the encouragement of a reasonable amount of bounty from state or nation.

Germany makes more beet sugar than any other nation. She consumes less to the population than any other, and for that reason the government has made a special effort to encourage its manufacture for export.

France is the European rival of Germany in the production of beet sugar. She has dealt liberally with it from the first, but has recently revised her laws to favor the exportation of the product of French factories and thus prevent the loss of the American market by the stimulation of the industry in Nebraska and California.

California is counting upon a rapid development of her sugar industry as the result of the national bounty. She already has two factories and is planning for more.

In order to supply the home demand for sugar in our own country it would require 700 establishments similar to those now in operation at Grand Island, Neb., and at Alvarado and Waterville in this state.

The average capital invested in a factory capable of handling 300 tons of beets daily is $200,000. For a 100-day campaign 30,000 tons of beets would be needed at a cost of about $100,000.

For fuel 5,000 tons of coal would cost at least $25,000, and other working expenses would bring the total outlay up to $150,000. For each establishment at least 3,000 acres of land and 500 men would be needed.

If SENATOR PIERCE declines an editorship for the mission to Japan he lacks the inspiration essential to success in journalism. The Japanese mission is simply an elaborate sleeping apartment.

MAYOR CUSHING will be home today. He should signalize his return by a refusal to sanction the new boiler ordinance. It is a plain scheme for foisting a patent appliance upon boiler-owners of Omaha.

ALTHOUGH the railway rate bills are kept in the background it is refreshing to note that the senate has passed an act making it a misdemeanor to interfere with the personal liberty of any dog.

NOTHING seriously injurious has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

IF SENATOR PIERCE declines an editorship for the mission to Japan he lacks the inspiration essential to success in journalism. The Japanese mission is simply an elaborate sleeping apartment.

MAYOR CUSHING will be home today. He should signalize his return by a refusal to sanction the new boiler ordinance. It is a plain scheme for foisting a patent appliance upon boiler-owners of Omaha.

THE discovery of Poor's murderer has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

HARDLY 5 per cent of the real estate tax of Douglas county for the past year has yet been paid, though it will be delinquent May 1, and yet the Nebraska senate has passed a bill abolishing the 5 per cent penalty. The house should kill senate file No. 23.

THE new board of police commissioners in Leavenworth, Kan., signaled its advent to power by closing all saloons on Sunday. It is hardly necessary to remind some of THE BEE's prohibitionist friends that Leavenworth is in Kansas and that Kansas is a prohibitory state.

The irrigation bill has been out and slashed in the house until its friends no longer know it. As it now stands, it embodies all the mistakes of other states without the corrections of their experience. Nebraska had better wait for a good law than begin with a very bad one.

IT MAY DECIDE TO ASK INDEMNITY FOR THE FAMILIES OF SUCH OF THE MEN KILLED AS WERE ITALIAN SUBJECTS, IF ANY OF THEM WERE SO.

Such a request would doubtless receive the consideration from our government to international comity, but it is safe to predict that there will be nothing beyond this.

There is no question of international law involved in this occurrence. In his dispatch to Governor Nichols, Secretary Blaine informed him that our treaty with Italy guaranteed to the Italian subjects domiciled in the United States the most constant protection and security for their persons and property.

The federal government is bound to insist upon the fulfillment of this obligation, and when it has exerted its authority to do this its responsibility is ended. The government has never acknowledged any legal claim against it for indemnity in the case of aliens who lose life or property through violence.

Secretary Bayard, in paying an indemnity to relatives of the Chinese massacred in Wyoming, upon an urgent demand of the Chinese minister for reparation, stated to the minister that he did so purely as a friendly act and that the government denied the existence of any other than a merely equitable obligation in the matter.

There is nothing incredible in this last report as to the sentiment in Canadian government circles. On the contrary it is quite what was to have been expected.

Two north Omaha streets paved at great expense have been ruined by the neglect of the council committee, or the chairman of the board of public works, or both.

TO BE RIGOROUSLY ENFORCED.

It is the intention of the administration to rigorously enforce the new immigration law which provides some additional restrictions upon the admission of foreigners.

Every law should be enforced, and if this principle had been observed with respect to immigration in the past there would have been less ground for the clamor that has been raised in favor of an extreme policy of restriction during the last year or two.

The only way to determine whether a law is wise and ought to stand, or in what particular it may require to be changed and modified to render it unobjectionable and useful, is by enforcing it.

France is the European rival of Germany in the production of beet sugar. She has dealt liberally with it from the first, but has recently revised her laws to favor the exportation of the product of French factories and thus prevent the loss of the American market by the stimulation of the industry in Nebraska and California.

California is counting upon a rapid development of her sugar industry as the result of the national bounty. She already has two factories and is planning for more.

In order to supply the home demand for sugar in our own country it would require 700 establishments similar to those now in operation at Grand Island, Neb., and at Alvarado and Waterville in this state.

The average capital invested in a factory capable of handling 300 tons of beets daily is $200,000. For a 100-day campaign 30,000 tons of beets would be needed at a cost of about $100,000.

For fuel 5,000 tons of coal would cost at least $25,000, and other working expenses would bring the total outlay up to $150,000. For each establishment at least 3,000 acres of land and 500 men would be needed.

IF SENATOR PIERCE declines an editorship for the mission to Japan he lacks the inspiration essential to success in journalism. The Japanese mission is simply an elaborate sleeping apartment.

MAYOR CUSHING will be home today. He should signalize his return by a refusal to sanction the new boiler ordinance. It is a plain scheme for foisting a patent appliance upon boiler-owners of Omaha.

ALTHOUGH the railway rate bills are kept in the background it is refreshing to note that the senate has passed an act making it a misdemeanor to interfere with the personal liberty of any dog.

NOTHING seriously injurious has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

IF SENATOR PIERCE declines an editorship for the mission to Japan he lacks the inspiration essential to success in journalism. The Japanese mission is simply an elaborate sleeping apartment.

MAYOR CUSHING will be home today. He should signalize his return by a refusal to sanction the new boiler ordinance. It is a plain scheme for foisting a patent appliance upon boiler-owners of Omaha.

THE discovery of Poor's murderer has thus far resulted from the footing of the Nebraska legislature. Let us hope it will adjourn without doing the state any good even if it accomplish no good.

HARDLY 5 per cent of the real estate tax of Douglas county for the past year has yet been paid, though it will be delinquent May 1, and yet the Nebraska senate has passed a bill abolishing the 5 per cent penalty. The house should kill senate file No. 23.

THE new board of police commissioners in Leavenworth, Kan., signaled its advent to power by closing all saloons on Sunday. It is hardly necessary to remind some of THE BEE's prohibitionist friends that Leavenworth is in Kansas and that Kansas is a prohibitory state.

The irrigation bill has been out and slashed in the house until its friends no longer know it. As it now stands, it embodies all the mistakes of other states without the corrections of their experience. Nebraska had better wait for a good law than begin with a very bad one.

HE HAD HOPES OF SOMETIMES MOUNTING THE throne of France, but in his old age he clearly saw that the monarchy had perished forever and that France was firmly grounded as a republic.

Born in Haiti, he was an American mother, he was a man of some merit, but his life was stained by gross immorality.

The board of appraisers have completed their report upon the damages which will be occasioned by the proposed change of grade on St. Mary's avenue, and will report to the council tonight.

Good reasons should be shown before the city gives any transfer and has company a monopoly of the carriage and omnibus business of the union depot platform.

Omaha and Douglas county contain more than one-seventh of the population of the state, Omaha is very material and important part of Nebraska, yet one would hardly suspect it from the manner in which her interests are neglected by the legislature.

A BOILER THAT IS NEVER FULL.

Wanted—Man with experience in running a boiler that does not use noxious. Apply to—

COLORADO DRAMAIC CRITICISM.

The drama "Above the Clouds" and the farce "Brother Bill and Me" was monkeyed with an advertised last Friday and Saturday evenings.

TOO MANY PARTIES.

Rhode Island will have four parties in the field this year, the Bellamyites being the latest accession to the show.

MONKEYING WITH THE CONSTITUTION.

Constitutional conventions are not as popular as the word would seem to indicate.

NEW FUNCTION OF CUBS.

The question has come up in the Union League club whether a member should be expelled because he has been unfaithful to his marriage obligations and has corrupted his children.

PASSING JENIS.

Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

WOMAN OF THE WEAPONS.

Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

THE DEADLY MAFIA.

How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Vengeance is the earliest sword thrust to the Sicilian. To right what he deems his wrongs; to correct his griefs in blood and exact from his enemy a sanguinary recompense for every injury, is part of his religion.

Washington Post: "There's no use trying to elygate the seven," said Patrolman Flynn. "They don't even know their own language. O'aked wags of them phuat the world for St. Patrick's day was in Chicago, and he be saints he eads' tall me."

WHO CAN TELL?

"I wonder," said sweet Margery, "to the robin on the wall, 'I wonder why the flowers are short, and why the trees are tall? And why the grass is green, and why the sky is blue? I wonder, Robin, why I'm I, instead of being you?'"

Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Vengeance is the earliest sword thrust to the Sicilian. To right what he deems his wrongs; to correct his griefs in blood and exact from his enemy a sanguinary recompense for every injury, is part of his religion.

Washington Post: "There's no use trying to elygate the seven," said Patrolman Flynn. "They don't even know their own language. O'aked wags of them phuat the world for St. Patrick's day was in Chicago, and he be saints he eads' tall me."

SENATOR GORMAN who comes very near speaking by the card for the democracy of the nation is credited with the statement that the next congress will not go before the country with a tariff bill. It will content itself by hucking down a few of the McKinley trees here and there by separate bills, and leave the forest and underbrush until after the next presidential election.

Jerome Bonaparte, who by courtesy was called "the Prince Napoleon," has passed away at Rome. In his youth

ST. PATRICK'S ANNIVERSARY.

Nebraska Irishmen Celebrate in Grand Style at the Capital City.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE PARADERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Cathedral—Mrs. Morrow's Gift to the State Library—Odds and Ends.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10.—[Special to THE BEE].—Today is St. Patrick's birthday, and were it not for the predominance of green

The parade formed on J. and Thirtieth streets immediately after 10 o'clock. Following this was the Ancient Order of Hibernians' band

Colorado Dramatic Criticism. The drama "Above the Clouds" and the farce "Brother Bill and Me" was monkeyed with an advertised last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Too Many Parties. Rhode Island will have four parties in the field this year, the Bellamyites being the latest accession to the show.

Monkeying with the Constitution. Constitutional conventions are not as popular as the word would seem to indicate.

New Function of Cubs. The question has come up in the Union League club whether a member should be expelled because he has been unfaithful to his marriage obligations and has corrupted his children.

Passing Jenis. Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

Woman of the Weapons. Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

The Deadly Mafia. How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Who Can Tell? "I wonder," said sweet Margery, "to the robin on the wall, 'I wonder why the flowers are short, and why the trees are tall? And why the grass is green, and why the sky is blue? I wonder, Robin, why I'm I, instead of being you?'"

Senator Gorman who comes very near speaking by the card for the democracy of the nation is credited with the statement that the next congress will not go before the country with a tariff bill. It will content itself by hucking down a few of the McKinley trees here and there by separate bills, and leave the forest and underbrush until after the next presidential election.

Jerome Bonaparte, who by courtesy was called "the Prince Napoleon," has passed away at Rome. In his youth

THE BEE'S ANNIVERSARY.

Nebraska Irishmen Celebrate in Grand Style at the Capital City.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE PARADERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Cathedral—Mrs. Morrow's Gift to the State Library—Odds and Ends.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10.—[Special to THE BEE].—Today is St. Patrick's birthday, and were it not for the predominance of green

The parade formed on J. and Thirtieth streets immediately after 10 o'clock. Following this was the Ancient Order of Hibernians' band

Colorado Dramatic Criticism. The drama "Above the Clouds" and the farce "Brother Bill and Me" was monkeyed with an advertised last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Too Many Parties. Rhode Island will have four parties in the field this year, the Bellamyites being the latest accession to the show.

Monkeying with the Constitution. Constitutional conventions are not as popular as the word would seem to indicate.

New Function of Cubs. The question has come up in the Union League club whether a member should be expelled because he has been unfaithful to his marriage obligations and has corrupted his children.

Passing Jenis. Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

Woman of the Weapons. Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

The Deadly Mafia. How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Who Can Tell? "I wonder," said sweet Margery, "to the robin on the wall, 'I wonder why the flowers are short, and why the trees are tall? And why the grass is green, and why the sky is blue? I wonder, Robin, why I'm I, instead of being you?'"

Senator Gorman who comes very near speaking by the card for the democracy of the nation is credited with the statement that the next congress will not go before the country with a tariff bill. It will content itself by hucking down a few of the McKinley trees here and there by separate bills, and leave the forest and underbrush until after the next presidential election.

Jerome Bonaparte, who by courtesy was called "the Prince Napoleon," has passed away at Rome. In his youth

THE BEE'S ANNIVERSARY.

Nebraska Irishmen Celebrate in Grand Style at the Capital City.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE PARADERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Cathedral—Mrs. Morrow's Gift to the State Library—Odds and Ends.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10.—[Special to THE BEE].—Today is St. Patrick's birthday, and were it not for the predominance of green

The parade formed on J. and Thirtieth streets immediately after 10 o'clock. Following this was the Ancient Order of Hibernians' band

Colorado Dramatic Criticism. The drama "Above the Clouds" and the farce "Brother Bill and Me" was monkeyed with an advertised last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Too Many Parties. Rhode Island will have four parties in the field this year, the Bellamyites being the latest accession to the show.

Monkeying with the Constitution. Constitutional conventions are not as popular as the word would seem to indicate.

New Function of Cubs. The question has come up in the Union League club whether a member should be expelled because he has been unfaithful to his marriage obligations and has corrupted his children.

Passing Jenis. Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

Woman of the Weapons. Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

The Deadly Mafia. How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Who Can Tell? "I wonder," said sweet Margery, "to the robin on the wall, 'I wonder why the flowers are short, and why the trees are tall? And why the grass is green, and why the sky is blue? I wonder, Robin, why I'm I, instead of being you?'"

Senator Gorman who comes very near speaking by the card for the democracy of the nation is credited with the statement that the next congress will not go before the country with a tariff bill. It will content itself by hucking down a few of the McKinley trees here and there by separate bills, and leave the forest and underbrush until after the next presidential election.

Jerome Bonaparte, who by courtesy was called "the Prince Napoleon," has passed away at Rome. In his youth

HIGHEST OF ALL IN LEVENING POWER.—U. S. GOV'T REPORT, Aug. 17, 1889.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE BEE'S ANNIVERSARY.

Nebraska Irishmen Celebrate in Grand Style at the Capital City.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE PARADERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Cathedral—Mrs. Morrow's Gift to the State Library—Odds and Ends.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10.—[Special to THE BEE].—Today is St. Patrick's birthday, and were it not for the predominance of green

The parade formed on J. and Thirtieth streets immediately after 10 o'clock. Following this was the Ancient Order of Hibernians' band

Colorado Dramatic Criticism. The drama "Above the Clouds" and the farce "Brother Bill and Me" was monkeyed with an advertised last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Too Many Parties. Rhode Island will have four parties in the field this year, the Bellamyites being the latest accession to the show.

Monkeying with the Constitution. Constitutional conventions are not as popular as the word would seem to indicate.

New Function of Cubs. The question has come up in the Union League club whether a member should be expelled because he has been unfaithful to his marriage obligations and has corrupted his children.

Passing Jenis. Washington Post: "I can command my salary," said the President in reply to the remarks of an envious rival.

Woman of the Weapons. Mrs. H. A. Morrow, wife of General Morrow, who died recently at Fort Snare, has presented twenty-nine books from her late husband's collection to the city library of Nebraska.

The Deadly Mafia. How the Terrible Society was Founded and How it is Being Organized in Sicily.

Who Can Tell? "I wonder," said sweet Margery, "to the robin on the wall, 'I wonder why the flowers are short, and why the trees are tall? And why the grass is green, and why the sky is blue? I wonder, Robin, why I'm I, instead of being you?'"

Senator Gorman who comes very near speaking by the card for the democracy of the nation is credited with the statement that the next congress will not go before the country with a tariff bill. It will content itself by hucking down a few of the McKinley trees here and there by separate bills, and leave the forest and underbrush until after the next presidential election.

Jerome Bonaparte, who by courtesy was called "the Prince Napoleon," has passed away at Rome. In his youth

HIGHEST OF ALL IN LEVENING POWER.—U. S. GOV'T REPORT, Aug. 17, 1889.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE BEE'S ANNIVERSARY.

Nebraska Irishmen Celebrate in Grand Style at the Capital City.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE PARADERS.

Interesting Exercises at the Cathedral—Mrs. Morrow's Gift to the State Library—Odds and Ends.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10.—[Special to THE BEE].—Today is St. Patrick's birthday, and were it not for the predominance of green

The parade formed on J. and Thirtieth streets immediately after 10 o'clock. Following this was the Ancient Order of Hibernians' band