

THE OMAHA BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE: NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier in any part of the city.

H. W. THOMPSON, MANAGER.

TELEPHONE: 11.

Business Office, No. 43.

Night Editor, No. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

N. V. P. Co. Council Bluffs, Lauder Co. coal.

Crane's chaffed linen, 34 1/2 inch black.

Genette Rock Spring coat, Chester, 16.

Main Unity Guild meets in regular session, tomorrow evening with Mrs. G. H. Jackson, 517 First street.

Regular meeting of Harmon chapter No. 25, Order of Eastern Star this evening in Masonic hall.

The Sacred Ladies Social society will meet this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Van Brunt, 707 Myrtle street.

The traveling men will hold a business meeting at the Masons' hall, 546 Broadway, Saturday, March 24, at 10 a. m. All travelers are requested to attend.

The Faithful Workers will give a basket supper in the Roman Catholic church this evening, Friday, March 23, from 7 to 10, to bring a basket of pay 15 cents admission.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the county recorder by the Dresden Roman church of St. Francis, Holman, Iowa. The trustees are Joseph Miller, and Gehrmann and J. H. Short.

James O'Brien, who was found guilty of larceny in district court a few days ago, has been fined $100 and sentenced to a term of thirty days in the county jail. Joe Taylor, who burglarized Louise McLaughlin's restaurant, was given a similar sentence.

Miss DeLoe entertained the teachers of the Hill school Tuesday night at her residence, 232 Lincoln avenue. After the meals had been served and the guests were having a good time the storm came up and it seemed to grow worse instead of better as the evening wore away. They decided to stay all night, for with the wind blowing against the boys were busy bustling to and fro, notifying the friends of the teachers as to their whereabouts.

Strand, S. Strand and C. H. Thompson came to the Bluffs from Omaha eight before last and hired a hack driver for William Martin to take them across the city. They were drunk when they were asked to pay their fare, they refused to pay. Martin's man at once locked them in the vehicle and took them to the police station, where they swore out an information charging them with drunkenness and refusing to pay back hire. They were fined $100 in each case yesterday morning.

Joseph Welch, of Welch's hack line, went on a drunk last evening. He started on the occasion by trying to stand on his head in a mud puddle at the corner of Eighth street and Broadway. He was arrested and taken to the police station, where he was released by a constable who had come along and interrupted his little diversion. Fred Hesse, who works in John Evers' butcher shop, went to the station yesterday to prevent the officer from making the arrest, whereupon McDonald took him along to Welch's house. Welch and Hesse were both in the discharge of their duty. Both men will answer to their respective charges this morning in police court.

The Methodist ladies have a fine display of fancy articles in their store today, Monday, a musical programme in the evening. Admission free.

Teaching the Young Idea. The new street school was opened yesterday morning under the direction of Superintendent Sawyer and Director Scholten. For various reasons the attendance was not large chiefly on account of the weather and the measles. There were about one hundred and twenty-five pupils enrolled, and these were divided into five grades according to their qualifications. It is thought the enrollment will be considerably larger than that before the week is up. It has been found advisable to extend the boundaries of the district to be covered by the new building by the addition of that portion of the city bounded by Eighteenth and Twenty-third streets and avenues B and K to the territory already defined some days ago. This, it is thought, will give the teachers plenty of pupils to take care of in the new school. The work of grading the school will probably not be entirely completed before the end of the week.

The residence of Streetsville are very much pleased with their new building. It was at first feared that the building would not be large enough to accommodate all the pupils who might have to attend there, but present indications it looks as though the building would be large enough, not only for present needs, but for some years to come. The building is a model so far as architecture and general appearance are concerned. The building is a model so far as architecture and general appearance are concerned.

The New Pacific is the most centrally located hotel in Council Bluffs. The Manhattan, sporting headquarters, N. O'Brien. Fruit farm for sale on reasonable terms: within one and one-half miles of the P. O. all in bearing; good buildings; possession given at once. Call on D. J. Hutchinson, A. Co. 617 Broadway.

Fired For Illegal Voting. J. C. Boyd was on trial yesterday morning before Judge McGee on the charge of voting illegally. The crime is alleged to have been committed on March 9, when the election of school directors was held. Boyd was arrested on that day on an information filed by W. H. Knepper, who was at the polls when Boyd voted, and charged with illegal voting. The circumstances out of which the trouble grew are as follows: Boyd went to the Second ward polls and presented his ballot. He was informed that his name was not on the register and that he had better go to the registration place on Saturday evening for the purpose of having his name changed from the Sixth to the Second. He was told that he would have to go to the Sixth ward and have a transfer of his name made. His name could be transferred. He accordingly went to the place of registration in the Sixth ward, but it was closed. Some one told him that he would not have any trouble in voting, so he thought no more about it until election day, when he swore in his vote and was arrested as charged.

Standard Oil Sinner. New York, March 18.—J. D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil trust, and S. C. Dodd, counsel, declined to say anything today about the petition filed with the attorney general by Roger A. Pryor, jr., in behalf of a number of oil companies in Indiana, asking him to bring suit in the name of the state against the Standard Oil company to have its charter annulled on the grounds that it is one of the constituent companies in the trust. This is the same matter as the proceedings against the North River sugar refining company.

Holding a Jubilee. St. Paul, Minn., March 18.—Special Telegram to THE BEE.—A disaster has been averted here by the fact that a building is being held here on account of the opening of the Wahpeton and Sisseton Indian reservations. It is a very desirable body of land, representing 10,000 acres, which has been reserved to the famous Red river valley, which is really a part of the reservation now being sold by the state and is directed to be sold by the Browns Valley line of the Great Northern railroad from this city.

The Death Roll. Chicago, March 18.—Jerome Beecher, a well known pioneer merchant of Chicago, died here last night, aged seventy-three. He leaves a fortune of $200,000. Seward, Ill., March 18.—William H. Berdon, Abraham Lincoln's law partner and owner of "A Life of Lincoln," died today at his residence here, aged seventy-two. His youngest son, Will, died six hours before.

Severely on Live Stock Exchanges. Savannah, Ill., March 18.—Representative Dixon of Warren today introduced a bill, which, if passed, will seriously embarrass the Chicago live stock exchange. Its aim is to prohibit combinations to prevent competition among persons engaged in buying and selling live stock. It is similar to the Kansas law already enacted on that subject.

Steamship Arrivals. At Mexico by the Albatross from New York. At London by the Lahn from New York. At New York by the Magpie from Liverpool and the Waesland from Antwerp.

Suspected of Burglary. Detective Hayes last night arrested Art Pierson, a "husher," who is suspected of being connected with the Norris & Wilcox burglary last week.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

The Fight Over Taxes Between the Railroads and the County.

FIRE DESTROYS THE MARCUS BLOCK.

Sawyer's Reply to Mrs. Steadman—Buried Denton Street Preparing For Spring Hunting—Fired For Illegal Voting.

County Supervisor A. C. Graham returned yesterday from Des Moines, where he and Auditor Hendricks went on Monday to appear before the state executive council with reference to the taxation of the railroad property within the city limits. The statement provided that all property that is not exclusively in the operation of railroads shall be assessed by the executive council. Taking refuge under this provision the companies have been returning large quantities of land to the state for taxation which were not used even on remote for railroad purposes.

The matter was taken up by the state executive council on Tuesday night. The state auditor and Messrs. Graham and Hendricks were appointed members to present the claims of Polk and Yankton county before the council.

These gentlemen on Tuesday met the council, which consists of the governor, state auditor and secretary of state. Their side of the case was favored by the members of the council after which the law was explained by Governor Davis. He stated that the law provided distinctly that all property that is not exclusively in the operation of the railroads was subject to taxation by the council, but all other property was assessable by the county assessor like that of private individuals. This means that the construction of the law that the committee had wanted. They asked what would be done in case the railroads kept on sending their property into the counties before. The reply was that it made no difference; if they sent their property into the counties they would be assessed there and they must bear the consequences.

During the conference some insight was gained as to the way in which the railroad property in this county should be assessed. The state auditor stated that the railroad companies had been sending their property in to the counties and that the counties were not to be assessed. He said that the railroads were to be assessed by the county assessor like that of private individuals. This means that the construction of the law that the committee had wanted.

Mr. Graham has no doubt, however, as to the outcome. It is only natural that the companies should object to the proposed change in the way as the change contemplated will lose them a cool $200 a year in this county alone, and in the same proportion all over the state.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. The people of Council Bluffs are ever shown anywhere is to be found at the Boston store. Council Bluffs. The prices, some of them are low. A beautiful dress, a good fast black station for 125c; a better for 140c; a better still for 160c and 30c; and a beautiful, fine muslin dress, 35c. The Boston store is a first class store and is the longest and largest of the kind in Council Bluffs. J. B. Atkins, western agent for DePau's plate glass company, will give estimates on plate glass delivery in Iowa and Nebraska.

THE MARCUS BLOCK VANISHES IN SMOKE. "Fire!" "Fire!" was the cry that startled the passers by on Middle Broadway last night at 11 o'clock. An investigation showed that the Marcus block, on Broadway between Scott and Sixth streets, was on fire. When first discovered the flames were burning brightly in the center of the store, though a view from the outside would not allow to be seen what it was that was burning. The stock of clothing and dry goods with which the store was filled had been piled up in such a way as to shut off the view largely from the street.

No one seemed to know where to go to turn in an alarm, and the result was that it was several minutes before the fire department arrived on the scene. After the connection had been made and the water had been turned on, the fire was not so readily controlled. Several more minutes were consumed in replacing the broken glass, and the fire department was ready for work and then it was almost impossible to get the front door open on account of the bolts and bars which fastened it. Apparently for the purpose of keeping out others out, no matter what their object was in wanting to enter. The plate glass windows in the front of the store were literally broken in and through the holes a steady stream of water was thrown into the interior of the building on the flames, which after a time died away.

During the progress of the fire some one asked whether any one roomed in the burning building. As it happens to the question, an apartment, situated at the entrance to the office, was discovered to be occupied by a woman and her child. The apartment was discovered to be occupied by a woman and her child. The apartment was discovered to be occupied by a woman and her child.

How the fire originated is unknown. The only thing that would tend to throw any light on the subject is the statement of an agent for the North-Western insurance company who is stopping at the Klondike hotel. He stated that he was standing in front of the Revenue house, across the street from the burning block, immediately after the alarm of fire had been sounded and that on looking into the building, which was already lighted up, he saw a man standing in the middle of the street. The man was carrying a lantern and was talking to a woman who was carrying a child. The man was talking to a woman who was carrying a child.

It was not until after the fire had been extinguished that the man was identified as being the owner of the block. He stated that he had started from a defective fire, a small crevice having been left in the chimney, through which the flame had been coming. He stated that he had been working on the chimney when the fire broke out and that he had been unable to get the fire out. He stated that he had been working on the chimney when the fire broke out and that he had been unable to get the fire out.

The fire department was called out yesterday at a quarter of seven from a house at box 43, at the corner of Twenty-third street and Broadway. The call was responded to by the North-Western and Lower Broadway companies. The fire was in a house occupied by a man named Quirk, situated at the corner of Avenue I and Twenty-second street. It had started from a defective fire, a small crevice having been left in the chimney, through which the flame had been coming. He stated that he had been working on the chimney when the fire broke out and that he had been unable to get the fire out.

The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club held a meeting Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing whether they should place a man in charge of their hunting grounds south of the city, so as to have the place always in readiness for the members when they wish to enjoy a hunting or fishing excursion. After some discussion it was decided to appoint a special policeman, who should be in charge of the grounds and the cabin, to attend to the wants of the members when they visit the place and to keep the grounds away. The grounds will be opened for the use of members in a short time.

Peak Sisters, Trinity church, Friday eve.

Evens Laundry Co., 530 Pearl street. Telephone 230. Goods called for and delivered.

J. C. Blevy, steam heating sanitary engineer, 83 Morrison block, Council Bluffs.

Spring Hunting. The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club held a meeting Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing whether they should place a man in charge of their hunting grounds south of the city, so as to have the place always in readiness for the members when they wish to enjoy a hunting or fishing excursion.

After some discussion it was decided to appoint a special policeman, who should be in charge of the grounds and the cabin, to attend to the wants of the members when they visit the place and to keep the grounds away. The grounds will be opened for the use of members in a short time.

Peak Sisters, Trinity church, Friday eve. Evens Laundry Co., 530 Pearl street. Telephone 230. Goods called for and delivered. J. C. Blevy, steam heating sanitary engineer, 83 Morrison block, Council Bluffs.

Spring Hunting. The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club held a meeting Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing whether they should place a man in charge of their hunting grounds south of the city, so as to have the place always in readiness for the members when they wish to enjoy a hunting or fishing excursion.

After some discussion it was decided to appoint a special policeman, who should be in charge of the grounds and the cabin, to attend to the wants of the members when they visit the place and to keep the grounds away. The grounds will be opened for the use of members in a short time.

Peak Sisters, Trinity church, Friday eve. Evens Laundry Co., 530 Pearl street. Telephone 230. Goods called for and delivered. J. C. Blevy, steam heating sanitary engineer, 83 Morrison block, Council Bluffs.

Spring Hunting. The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club held a meeting Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing whether they should place a man in charge of their hunting grounds south of the city, so as to have the place always in readiness for the members when they wish to enjoy a hunting or fishing excursion.

After some discussion it was decided to appoint a special policeman, who should be in charge of the grounds and the cabin, to attend to the wants of the members when they visit the place and to keep the grounds away. The grounds will be opened for the use of members in a short time.

Peak Sisters, Trinity church, Friday eve. Evens Laundry Co., 530 Pearl street. Telephone 230. Goods called for and delivered. J. C. Blevy, steam heating sanitary engineer, 83 Morrison block, Council Bluffs.

Spring Hunting. The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club held a meeting Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing whether they should place a man in charge of their hunting grounds south of the city, so as to have the place always in readiness for the members when they wish to enjoy a hunting or fishing excursion.

which was more or less scorched. Some damage was also done to the other household furniture. It is thought the loss will not exceed $50, all of which is covered by insurance.

Trouble Over a Paper. An answer, containing and cross-petition was filed yesterday by the defendant in the case of M. M. Steadman against C. W. Sawyer, in which several thousand dollars worth of stock in the Daily Nonpareil is at stake.

The suit was commenced some time ago upon complaint by Steadman, claiming that three copies of $1000 each, which had been given by Sawyer when he purchased a half interest in the Nonpareil. The allegation of the petition was that the interest on the notes had not been kept up, and that one of the notes themselves was due and unpaid.

The answer was filed by the defendant yesterday through his attorneys, Messrs. Shook & Gavitt, claiming that neither the notes nor interest were due, and that the defendant is not indebted in any sum to the plaintiff. It alleges that Steadman offered to sell the stock to Sawyer, and in order to induce him to buy, represented that the value of the paper had been $7,500. When in fact they had been only $5,000. He also represented that there were no outstanding debts against the company, which were in fact $10,000. He also said that there was due on book accounts more than $13,000, while the book accounts that were really due consisted merely of old and almost worthless accounts that had accumulated as the result of years of business and were worthless for the most part.

Another claim which Steadman made, according to the allegations of the defendant, was that Steadman had bought ready-made stock for $18,000, which in fact he had paid for $10,000, when in fact the Globe was worth only $2,000. The defendant claims that the stock which he bought and paid for with his cash and property for that or any sum not worth the price he had paid for at least $10,000. He also claims that he suffered $10,000 damages by being compelled to move to this city and to the expense of carrying on trying to make a paper out of the Nonpareil. He demands that he be awarded a judgment against the plaintiff for the balance of the stock sold and delivered over to him.

Dr. Woodbury, dentist, 20 Pearl street, telephone 114, Telephone 114. High grade work a specialty.

Calamity assembly gave their social Wednesday evening, March 14, at Knights of Pythias hall for the benefit of the home for the inebriates. Admission 25 cents.

Smagat & Co carry largest stock of bulk field, garden and flower seeds in the city. Catalogue and samples by mail.

Cutting Down Expenses. Allenman J. H. Pace believes in cutting down the city expenses. Although he has but just taken his seat in the council, he is already giving notice to the city clerk that he is ready to take the reins in his own hands. He is already giving notice to the city clerk that he is ready to take the reins in his own hands.

Another place where we are going to cut down the expenses is in the matter of salaries. The ordinance that was brought up the other night for the purpose of increasing the salaries of the city officers and employees is now being passed without a word. So far as the salaries of the day and night policemen are concerned, as to the chief of police, I would like to see a man who would take the salary of $1000 a month. I believe we can get lots of men who would take the salary of $800 a month, and who would do all the duties of the chief of police, just as well as the man who has got. But then, Smith is the only man in the council who thinks as I do, so there is no use of talking about it.

Mr. Graham has no doubt, however, as to the outcome. It is only natural that the companies should object to the proposed change in the way as the change contemplated will lose them a cool $200 a year in this county alone, and in the same proportion all over the state.

THE INDIAN MURDERERS. Ordered to Be De-livered to the Civil Authorities for Trial. Deadwood, S. D., March 18.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—An order came today from the secretary of war to Colonel Summer, in command of the post at Fort Meade, to deliver to the civil authorities Tassamattana, alias Plenty Horses, indicted at the last term of the United States court held in Deadwood for the murder of Lieutenant Casey and Welpheya, indicted at the same time for the murder of Runchman Miller during the recent Sioux rebellion. The order is in part as follows: "You are to deliver to the civil authorities for trial and confinement in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, the following named persons, who are now in the Fort Meade guard house, the military having refused to surrender them to the civil authorities: Tassamattana, alias Plenty Horses, and Welpheya, alias Little Soldier. You are to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Lieutenant Casey and Welpheya, and to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Runchman Miller and the bodies of the late Tassamattana and Welpheya, for trial and confinement in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas. You are to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Lieutenant Casey and Welpheya, and to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Runchman Miller and the bodies of the late Tassamattana and Welpheya, for trial and confinement in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas. You are to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Lieutenant Casey and Welpheya, and to deliver to the civil authorities the bodies of the late Runchman Miller and the bodies of the late Tassamattana and Welpheya, for trial and confinement in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

On Trial for Murder. Hertz, S. D., March 18.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The trial of Fred Hertz for the murder of his father, Hon. Zac T. Hertz, here last June, is in progress here. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, making a strong case against young Hertz. The trial will not likely conclude this week.

Disgrace to Unionism. Rochester, N. Y., March 18.—At the investigation of the clothing cutters' lock out here by the state board of arbitration a number of witnesses were called. One of the witnesses was a man named Johnson, who was shown by voluminous correspondence between manufacturers in this city and Walter Westcott, secretary of the cutters' union, and James T. Quinn, secretary of the executive board of the union. Westcott had been arrested in New York for the purpose of obtaining evidence as to the charges of extortion. They will be brought here. James A. Wright, district organizer of the cutters' union, who has been arrested here this morning from Philadelphia, together with John J. Thomas and Frederick A. Boyd, were also called. They are being held in custody after the morning session of the board of arbitrators on a charge of conspiracy.

Standard Oil Sinner. New York, March 18.—J. D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil trust, and S. C. Dodd, counsel, declined to say anything today about the petition filed with the attorney general by Roger A. Pryor, jr., in behalf of a number of oil companies in Indiana, asking him to bring suit in the name of the state against the Standard Oil company to have its charter annulled on the grounds that it is one of the constituent companies in the trust.

Holding a Jubilee. St. Paul, Minn., March 18.—Special Telegram to THE BEE.—A disaster has been averted here by the fact that a building is being held here on account of the opening of the Wahpeton and Sisseton Indian reservations. It is a very desirable body of land, representing 10,000 acres, which has been reserved to the famous Red river valley, which is really a part of the reservation now being sold by the state and is directed to be sold by the Browns Valley line of the Great Northern railroad from this city.

The Death Roll. Chicago, March 18.—Jerome Beecher, a well known pioneer merchant of Chicago, died here last night, aged seventy-three. He leaves a fortune of $200,000. Seward, Ill., March 18.—William H. Berdon, Abraham Lincoln's law partner and owner of "A Life of Lincoln," died today at his residence here, aged seventy-two. His youngest son, Will, died six hours before.

Severely on Live Stock Exchanges. Savannah, Ill., March 18.—Representative Dixon of Warren today introduced a bill, which, if passed, will seriously embarrass the Chicago live stock exchange. Its aim is to prohibit combinations to prevent competition among persons engaged in buying and selling live stock. It is similar to the Kansas law already enacted on that subject.

Steamship Arrivals. At Mexico by the Albatross from New York. At London by the Lahn from New York. At New York by the Magpie from Liverpool and the Waesland from Antwerp.

Suspected of Burglary. Detective Hayes last night arrested Art Pierson, a "husher," who is suspected of being connected with the Norris & Wilcox burglary last week.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

Hostler's old Prostate. Useful in all forms of Prostate. California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y.

CALIFORNIA SENATORSHIP.

Candidate Feltton Wants the Senate Seat. Sacramento, Cal., March 18.—The senatorial ballot today resulted: Foster, 47; Feltton, 35; Johnson, 3; Blandford, 3; Pericot, 1; White (dem.), 4; Irish (dem.), 1. Feltton's friends then forced an adjournment.

The senatorial bribery charges caused great excitement here. Ex-Congressman Feltton wrote a pamphlet after to Attorney General Hart, demanding that he disclose the actual facts and prevent anyone who might be involved even in implication in the alleged wrong doing. The attorney general replied that the subject is one so well known that any candidate had personally done anything improper in connection with the contest. He also said that the attorney general's investigation was not sufficient to warrant him in filing information of any character against any person.

A committee has been appointed to inquire into the matter.

The Farmers' Alliance. BURLINGAME, Cal., March 18.—Ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas, talking of the farmers' alliance today said: "This movement is building up in the west and it is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they will do so by uniting. The growth of the organization is not either oral or spiritual, but it is a practical thing. It is a movement of reason that will ultimately land us on a solid foundation which will defy all efforts of political agitators to shake it. It is a movement that is not only in the west but in the east. It is a movement that has a deep hold on the public mind, and the evolution of the movement is closely watched by our deepest thinkers and political economists. These farmers have concluded that they are going to save their own lives, and that they