THE COUNT'S MITTENS. Mounted Patrolman Haze Objects to Count Pulaski, the titled premier of the city pound, tarried behind bolts and bars for about forty minutes yesterday morning despite his most vehement protestations. It is alleged by Mounted Officer Andy Haze that the count has exceeded the bounds of propriety in that he called a damsel fair to see and represented himself to be none other than the aforesaid officer. Everything might have been well, but the count's actvances were not regarded with favor, and the aggrieved re-cipient fied a complaint against the innocent much about Pulaski impersonating an officer, but what riled him was to have somebody else go sparking on his reputation and then get left. If the count had been successful, Haze might have been pleased with the implied recognition of his supposed proficiency in that line, but dark, seep and dismal defeat rendered the situation too galling for the offense to be overlooked.

Thus, it was that a compaint charging Pulation and the situation too galling for the offense to be overlooked. 6,000 Thus it was that a complaint charging Pu-liski with impersonating an officer was filed. and the count taken into castody. "I have refused to approve of ordinance No. 252, providing for the issuing of $30,000 bonds for paving intersections on Twenty-fourth street," said Mayor Sloane to Tun Fourth street," said Mayor Sloane to Tur Ber. "My reasons for so doing may be realify understood. In the first place had it not been for contention about paving ma-terial between property holders on Twenty-fourth street, that street would have been paved before this time. We have now a contract binding on the county to farnish some $17,000 to pay for paving intersections, free from all conditions on which we can be free from milconditions, on which we can let contracts depending on receiving it in time to make payments, and I for one do not feel justified in saddling $30,000 more bonds on the city, when the desired improvements can be made on funds furnished by the county, and which are so fixed that any action taken on or contract made on the faith of this contract as it now is, will be binding and the money will be ready as soon as needed."
