THE CITY.

The temperature yesterday as reported by the local signal service office was as follows: At 7 a. m., 38°; at 10 a. m., 41°, and at 1 p. m., 45°.

For 25 cents you get a large quantity of good and pure powder, either in white, flesh or brunette of Spanish Court Face Powder, sold by all druggists.

Herman C. Flebbe of Lincoln and Lavina Smiley of Elk Creek were made happy by being united in marriage by Judge Shields yesterday afternoon.

The customs house received three cars of sugar yesterday for Fremont and six cars of lead and silver ore from Mexico for the Omaha and Grant smelting company.

George Snowden, who was run over by a motor at Sixteenth and Howard, is getting along nicely and is in a fair way to recover. He was injured internally, though not as seriously as was at first feared.

"An ounce of prevention is worth two or three pounds of cure."

Original saying slightly changed but none the less true.

Don't wait to be taken down with "la grippe" but use Haller's Sure Cough Cure, the most thorough prevention of this dread disease, when taken in conjunction with Haller's Sarsaparilla and Burdock, that has ever been introduced.

April Weather Predictions.

If a peck of March dust is worth a king's ransom, and April showers bring forth May flowers, is it not right to predict that every day in every month the electric-lighted, steam-heated, vestibuled limited trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will continue to run on the short line between Omaha and Chicago. The electric reading lamp in every berth of their palace sleeping cars is their own patent and cannot be used by any other company. Ticket office, 1501 Farnam street, Omaha.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Payton comedy company will produce "East Lynne" at the Grand tonight. This is one of the most charming plays ever presented on any stage. The prices are very popular, being 10, 20 and 30 cents.

The attraction at the Grand next Sunday will be Duncan Clark's big burlesque company, the performance being given entirely by ladies.

Edward J. Bloom, who is now managing Herrmann, the great magician, was last in Omaha two years ago the coming June with Duncan B. Harrison in "The Paymaster." In Dubuque, just before reaching Omaha, Harrison fractured his ankle by a jump he made on the stage in the tank scene. The stage hands had failed to put the usual amount of water in the tank, and when Harrison made his famous jump he struck the bottom with a thud and was assisted out of the water more dead than alive. When the company reached Omaha Harrison was barely able to hobble about on crutches and was without an understudy. Ed Bloom, his manager, was the only available man, and after twelve hours' preparation went in and played Harrison's part, and few people knew that it was not Harrison himself. These, however, who were "on" were treated to the unusual spectacle of a Dutchman playing the part of an Irish military officer.

Magic City People Well Pleased with the New Election Law.

WHAT HONEST PEOPLE HAVE GAINED.

They May Vote Without Any Disreputable Interference—Result of the Election—Notes About the City.

"I felt like a gentleman yesterday when voting," said a prominent First ward citizen. "It was so different from past elections. There was no dirty, drunken set hanging onto me, with a breath as offensive as a charnel house vent, pulling and hauling me and trying to get me to vote for some incompetent man or ward bum. I am better pleased than ever, and I believe I voice the sentiment of every good citizen when I commend the new Australian election law."

A leading professional man, unasked, wanted to be quoted as being surprised with the efficiency and success of the new election law. The ward bum, the rowdy gang, and the election disgrace were eliminated, and for the first time gentlemen, and ladies too, could vote without feeling polluted.

"The election was an absolute success in this city," said one man, "and if a success with our conglomerate elements, where our past elections have been as much farces as they were disgraceful, what must the law be in other places? It has everything to commend it and little or nothing objectionable. It simply lifted the election out of the gutter, lopped off the business of cappers and political prostitutes and made an election decent enough for gentlemen to participate in, and the result is the index of the real sentiment of the voters."

"It was so good that too much praise cannot be given it," said another.

"We shall have better officials hereafter, for a gang of plotting bums cannot get together and so manipulate the primaries and caucuses that decent men must either vote in approval of their infamous doings or stay away from the polls," said another.

The City Election.

Owing to the little opposition, except for councilmen and the large number of defective ballots, all of which were cast out, the number of ballots cast does not count up very high. The following is a list of the candidates and the persons elected: City clerk, John J. Ryan; board of education, James H. Bulla and James D. Jones; councilmen—First ward, William M. Wood; Second ward, Andrew B. Haley; Third ward, Frederick Bowley; Fourth ward, John S. Walters. John J. Ryan: First ward, 205; Second ward, 196; Third ward, 191; Fourth ward, 49; total, 641. Mr. Ryan had no opposition.

A. O. U. W. Banquet and Ball.

The wives and daughters of South Omaha Lodge No. 66, Ancient Order United Workmen, have completed arrangements for the reception with a banquet and ball for the members and invited guests, to be given in the lodge rooms, Twenty-sixth and N streets, Tuesday evening, April 14. Supper.

The ladies have made every effort to give an entertainment at once creditable to themselves, pleasant to guests and worthy of Lodge No. 66.

A Social Success.

The maple syrup social and musicale given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church drew nearly all the friends and patrons that could be served. And the musical treat as well as the spread were even better than the patronage. The ladies are quite as much delighted with the liberal patronage as those present were with the social enjoyed.

Notes About the City.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Eli H. Doud is quite ill.

Miss Maggie Langston is in Beatrice visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Jeremiah T. Dean and son have gone to Fremont to visit friends.

John P. Thomas will build a large flat on Twenty-fourth street near S street.

Editor Bruce McCulloch has removed to Twenty-third street, between H and I streets.

Judge Patrick S. King is visiting friends in Wymore and Judge Breen is officiating as police judge.

The trustees and building committee of the Presbyterian church will meet in the church this evening.

Mrs. Frances I. Gilbert has taken out a permit to build on J street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets.

Yesterday Frank Mernisk and Miss May Mernisk, both of Omaha, were joined in matrimony by Justice A. L. Sutton.

W. H. McCreary, cattle buyer for Swift & Co., who has been sick in Chicago for three weeks, has returned and brought his wife with him.

The police are looking after A. Ebben, who borrowed Dell Edward's overcoat election day and then skipped the field with the borrowed garment.

The new boiler, 150 horse power, and three new engines of eighty horse power each, are being set in the new department at the Cudahy packing plant.

President John L. Miles, S. Cotner of the Nebraska Savings bank, Omaha, and State Bank Examiner A. P. Brink are in the city on banking business.

The person having found the German singing book at Albright will confer a favor on Mrs. Louisa Schmeling by returning it to the South Omaha branch office of THE BEE, 2023 N street.

Cigarmakers International union No. 67 held an important meeting last evening in the old Turner hall, Twenty-sixth street, between M and L streets. The officers-elect were installed.

The postponed social given by the congregation of the First Christian church will be held Friday at the residence of C. M. Hunt, Twenty-fifth and E streets. Friends and strangers cordially invited.

In the matter of the application for an injunction restraining the sale on the chattle mortgages and for the appointment of a receiver for the Drovers' Journal Judge Wakeley dissolved the injunction and denied the application for a receiver. The sale will be made at the Drovers' Journal office Thursday forenoon, the 30th, at 10 o'clock.

An absolute guarantee goes with each bottle. Insist upon having it and don't take "something just as good."

"PLEASANT IMPRESSIONS."

An Eastern Capitalist's Tribute to Omaha's Greatness.

The second of the Pennsylvania railroad company's tours will arrive in the city Friday afternoon instead of today, as announced in the itinerary. The party will arrive from Denver, via the Burlington, at 2 p. m., and will leave at 6:30 p. m. over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul for Chicago, arriving there at 8 a. m.

Apropos of these tours, the following expression in a private letter to a gentleman in this city from Mr. John M. Collins, a Philadelphia capitalist, who was with the last of these tours, and who remained in the city several days, may be of interest:

"We had a safe and comfortable journey home, retaining the most pleasant impressions of Omaha, its size, its beauty, and its solid progress, independent of all 'booms,' not omitting to note its superiority over some other western cities by reason of its growing manufactures."

What a debt of gratitude the world owes to such men as Drs. Ayer and Jenner—the latter for the great discovery of vaccination, and the former for his Extract of Sarsaparilla—the best of blood purifiers! Who can estimate how much these discoveries have benefited the race!

CAUGHT AT THE CAPITAL.

An Omaha Burglar in the City Jail at Lincoln.

J. E. Boughton has been arrested by the Lincoln police as a suspicious character, but will be brought back to Omaha to answer to a more specific charge. Boughton is supposed to be the man who burglarized Karbach's cigar store at Fifteenth and Howard last week and helped himself to about $70 worth of cigars.

The stolen property was planted in various parts of the city, and a portion of it was recovered in the Ainscow block at Fourteenth and Leavenworth.

Boughton skipped immediately after the burglary. Officer Keyser will go to Lincoln and bring back the fugitive.

De Witt's Little Early Risers. Best little pill ever made. Cure constipation every time. None equal. Use them now.

Death of Schuyler Wakefield.

Rapidly the pioneers of Omaha are passing. Yesterday at 11 a. m. Schuyler Wakefield, who resided at 1184 North Seventeenth street, breathed his last.

He came to Omaha in 1871, and the following year he was elected assessor of the Fifth ward, in which capacity he served until the time of his death.

The deceased was born and brought up at Bellvidere, Ill., and enlisted in 1862. At Vicksburg Mr. Wakefield lost a leg. He has been one of the prominent and much esteemed Grand Army of the Republic workers of Omaha. Mrs. Wakefield and four children mourn the loss of a faithful husband and kind father.

The funeral services will be observed at 2 p. m. Friday at the family residence, 1184 North Seventeenth street.

Custer post, Grand Army of the Republic, will have charge of the funeral ceremonies. The interment will take place at Prospect Hill cemetery.

The deceased was fifty-three years old when he died.

As a Rule,

It is best not to attempt to remedy costiveness by the use of saline or drastic purgatives. When a cathartic medicine is needed, the most prompt and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. The effect is to restore the regular action of the bowels, without weakening them. Being sugar-coated, these Pills retain their medicinal virtues for a long time, and are easy to take.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"In 1858, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."—H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark.

It would not pay the tailor to make up poor material; therefore, in buying misfits you are always certain to get cloth that will give good satisfaction and long service. Then the tailor takes far more care with his work than is bestowed upon factory work, where the idea is to slight the garment as much as possible in order to turn out work cheap. Another great advantage is that, among our fine misfits, you will find the half and quarter sizes, and really better fitting goods than can be found in establishments that deal in ready made clothing. Then by buying misfits you are really putting in your pocket what the tailor looses, for you get as good as the tailor would make you for just about half what the tailor would charge.

All alteration done free of charge to insure a good fit.
