

TWENTIETH YEAR.

INDUCED TO SWEAR FALSELY.

The Sensational Turn Taken by the Kearney Bond Injunction Case.

AN EDITOR ASSAULTED BY A JUDGE.

Beatrice Councilmen Charged with Fraud—On the Track of Horse Thieves—Oxnard Talks About Beet Sugar.

KEARNEY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The railroad bond injunction case is branching out into a criminal case. J. B. McWhetty, one of the men who were indicted by the grand jury for perjury, at the session of the district court, swore out a complaint against John Patterson, E. Fairchild and H. Crosscup charging them with suborning perjury, that he was induced by them to swear falsely, which he did, and that he was driven to do so for the money they furnished him. The preliminary examination will take place Friday morning. Two of the men gave bail for their appearance and Patterson went to jail.

Charges of Fraud.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Papers in a suit of a somewhat sensational nature, owing to the prominence of the parties, were filed in the district court here today. The parties are C. L. Schell, plaintiff, and the members of the city council and J. S. Rutherford, contractor, defendants. Some days ago the board of public works opened paving bids on a certain district and recommended their report to the council, that the two bids made rejected owing to their being made of material furnished by one. Instead of following the suggestion, the council, at a special session, awarded the contract to J. S. Rutherford. After examining the samples, W. H. Duffett, the other and lowest bidder, secured a temporary injunction and applied for a writ of mandamus compelling the council to award him the contract. The writ was denied, as was also the privilege of appeal. Now comes C. L. Schell, the plaintiff above mentioned, who in a lengthy petition, charges fraud and conviction on the part of the council and the officers of the Rutherford paving company, which will furnish the brick for the paving called for in Rutherford's contract. Among other serious charges alleging that the council acted in bad faith and that Nelson charging him with maliciously destroying fences, shade trees, a corn crib, granary and shed on Panzerman's farm. Nelson alleges that he was wronged in his credit and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace thereby to the amount above mentioned.

Getting Back at Panzerman.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Victor Nelson, a farmer in Stockton township, has sued John Panzerman, a fellow farmer, for $2,025. On March 16 Panzerman filed a complaint in the district court against Nelson charging him with maliciously destroying fences, shade trees, a corn crib, granary and shed on Panzerman's farm. Nelson alleges that he was wronged in his credit and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace thereby to the amount above mentioned.

Will Bore for Coal.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Carl Morton is securing a guarantee for the purchase of coal for the city limits. He now only lacks about $100 of the amount he started out to collect. Consequently this enterprise is a certainty.

A First Class Town.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mayor Ireland has filed his affidavit with Governor Boyd announcing the population of Nebraska City to be more than 10,000, which makes the city one of the first class.

Commander Davidson.

Hawkeye Grand Army Chooses Its New Leader. DECATUR, Ia., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Grand Army encampment today elected its commander-in-chief, C. L. Davidson of Hull. Captain Davidson enlisted in August, 1862, when only sixteen years of age, in Company A, Twenty-fifth Iowa Infantry, and was wounded in the first attack on Vicksburg. While on duty on this account he volunteered to take part in the battle of Arkansas Post, which was all through the siege of Vicksburg, battles of Cherokee Station, Bear River, etc., and was mustered out July 5, 1865, having served three years and six months. He has always been an enthusiastic Grand Army man and served as senior vice commander of the department during the past year. He is also a member of the department council of administration in 1888-89 and aide on staff of Commander-in-Chief A. H. H. in 1890. He is also a member of the national Grand Army of the Republic, and is captain of Company E, Sixth regiment, Iowa national guards.

Oxnard Talks on Beet Sugar.

FULLERTON, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Henry Oxnard of Grand Island, manager of the Oxnard beet sugar company, met the citizens of Fullerton and Vance county and addressed them at considerable length on the beet sugar industry of Nebraska. Mr. Oxnard is a pleasant talker and made many friends by his visit. Mr. Oxnard enjoys the proud distinction of being the best informed man in America on the beet sugar industry. He has lectured on the subject of the beet sugar industry, suffer in consequence. He expressed the hope that the legislature should call a special meeting of the legislature, would include a recommendation to renege a cent bounty on beet sugar, 1 cent to the manufacturer and 1 cent to the producer.

On the Track of Horse Thieves.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Frank Taylor has traced the thieves who stole his fine bay team to the Loup country. An accurate description of the two men has been telegraphed to every point north of Grand Island. Taylor offers $250 reward for the apprehension of the thieves. A party of armed deputies and farmers are still in hot pursuit, and the thieves cannot escape them. Taylor says he will have the men at any cost.

Sons of Veterans Organized.

RYNDLSON, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A camp of Sons of Veterans was mustered in at this place last night by Captain James Walker of Oklawaha. The officers elected are: P. E. Walcott, captain; Ira Richardson, first lieutenant; Albert Marks, second lieutenant; delegate to state encampment, George Mackey; alternate, Charles F. Parker.

Nobrara's Canning Factory.

NOBRARA, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Nobrara canning factory changed hands today. Sioux City parties having purchased it. The plant will be considerably enlarged to suit the new owners, heretofore tomatoes having been the only product put up. About $100,000 worth of improvement will be made at once.

Hotel Destroyed.

DAVID CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Last night about 12 o'clock the Commercial hotel was completely destroyed by fire with most of the furniture. It was a large three-story frame building owned and occupied by S. H. Yonker. Loss about $10,000; insurance on building, $2,000; on furniture, $1,000.

The Nobrara Ferry.

NOBRARA, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Nobrara ferry boat, which was left in bad shape when the Missouri river ice went out, unable to do any business, was launched yesterday and the temporary inconveniences to travel and freight are now passed and damage to the proprietor is about $1,000.

Greatness Thrust Upon Him.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—As an instance of a man having greatness thrust upon him the case of Colonel George P. Marvin, editor of the Beatrice Daily Democrat, superintendent of the speed ring, aquator governor of Nebraska, councilman from the Fourth ward, etc., etc., is remarkable. Not only was Marvin elected member of the council as a democrat from the strongest republican ward in the city, but yesterday evening he was appointed chairman of the council ways and means committee, elected president of the council, and during the temporary absence of Mayor Fogt, colonel of the militia, and in the little of mayor pro tem of Beatrice by his multiple titles. The democrats of Beatrice are grooming Colonel Marvin for the presidency.

The county board of supervisors has finally concluded to take steps toward the creation of a county physician, and in the direction of the board of supervisors and county physician, Dr. Fred Broder. An order was given by the board Wednesday for the building of a suitable building for this purpose at once. The immediate purpose of the hospital will be for the proper care of the indigent sick and aged.

The property owners along North Sixth street, from Ella street to Jefferson street, have petitioned for the paving of that thoroughfare. A like petition is in circulation for paving Market street from Fourth to Seventh streets.

The mother of Mrs. Dr. Clausen, while returning to her home in a buggy a few evenings since, was pursued by a savage dog about three miles out of town, and for the street of her horse would have doubtless been seriously bitten by the savage beast.

Stru k by Lightning.

BEAVER, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The grain house of Kendall & Smith at this point was struck by lightning during the storm of last night, and the side of the building splinters. The storm was one of the worst that has visited this section of the country for a number of years, and this morning the crows and ravines are racing in the air. The lightning struck the grain house and the farmers will be unable to do any farming for a few days.

Getting Back at Panzerman.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Victor Nelson, a farmer in Stockton township, has sued John Panzerman, a fellow farmer, for $2,025. On March 16 Panzerman filed a complaint in the district court against Nelson charging him with maliciously destroying fences, shade trees, a corn crib, granary and shed on Panzerman's farm. Nelson alleges that he was wronged in his credit and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace thereby to the amount above mentioned.

Will Bore for Coal.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Carl Morton is securing a guarantee for the purchase of coal for the city limits. He now only lacks about $100 of the amount he started out to collect. Consequently this enterprise is a certainty.

A First Class Town.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mayor Ireland has filed his affidavit with Governor Boyd announcing the population of Nebraska City to be more than 10,000, which makes the city one of the first class.

Commander Davidson.

Hawkeye Grand Army Chooses Its New Leader. DECATUR, Ia., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Grand Army encampment today elected its commander-in-chief, C. L. Davidson of Hull. Captain Davidson enlisted in August, 1862, when only sixteen years of age, in Company A, Twenty-fifth Iowa Infantry, and was wounded in the first attack on Vicksburg. While on duty on this account he volunteered to take part in the battle of Arkansas Post, which was all through the siege of Vicksburg, battles of Cherokee Station, Bear River, etc., and was mustered out July 5, 1865, having served three years and six months. He has always been an enthusiastic Grand Army man and served as senior vice commander of the department during the past year. He is also a member of the department council of administration in 1888-89 and aide on staff of Commander-in-Chief A. H. H. in 1890. He is also a member of the national Grand Army of the Republic, and is captain of Company E, Sixth regiment, Iowa national guards.

Oxnard Talks on Beet Sugar.

FULLERTON, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Henry Oxnard of Grand Island, manager of the Oxnard beet sugar company, met the citizens of Fullerton and Vance county and addressed them at considerable length on the beet sugar industry of Nebraska. Mr. Oxnard is a pleasant talker and made many friends by his visit. Mr. Oxnard enjoys the proud distinction of being the best informed man in America on the beet sugar industry. He has lectured on the subject of the beet sugar industry, suffer in consequence. He expressed the hope that the legislature should call a special meeting of the legislature, would include a recommendation to renege a cent bounty on beet sugar, 1 cent to the manufacturer and 1 cent to the producer.

On the Track of Horse Thieves.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Frank Taylor has traced the thieves who stole his fine bay team to the Loup country. An accurate description of the two men has been telegraphed to every point north of Grand Island. Taylor offers $250 reward for the apprehension of the thieves. A party of armed deputies and farmers are still in hot pursuit, and the thieves cannot escape them. Taylor says he will have the men at any cost.

Sons of Veterans Organized.

RYNDLSON, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A camp of Sons of Veterans was mustered in at this place last night by Captain James Walker of Oklawaha. The officers elected are: P. E. Walcott, captain; Ira Richardson, first lieutenant; Albert Marks, second lieutenant; delegate to state encampment, George Mackey; alternate, Charles F. Parker.

Nobrara's Canning Factory.

NOBRARA, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Nobrara canning factory changed hands today. Sioux City parties having purchased it. The plant will be considerably enlarged to suit the new owners, heretofore tomatoes having been the only product put up. About $100,000 worth of improvement will be made at once.

Hotel Destroyed.

DAVID CITY, Neb., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Last night about 12 o'clock the Commercial hotel was completely destroyed by fire with most of the furniture. It was a large three-story frame building owned and occupied by S. H. Yonker. Loss about $10,000; insurance on building, $2,000; on furniture, $1,000.

WHAT RUDINI HAS TO SAY.

The Italian Premier Not Quite Satisfied with Blaine's Reply.

HOPE FOR A FRIENDLY SETTLEMENT.

Keeping Newfoundland's Grievances Before Parliament—Foreign Labor Troubles—London Scandals Growing Worse.

ROME, April 16.—The reply of Secretary Blaine received attention in the chamber of deputies today. Questions in regard to it were raised by various members. Premier Rudini, replying said the Italian government had not yet received Blaine's note. He was not prepared to make a definite statement to the chamber of the views and purposes of the cabinet until the note was officially received and carefully read and considered. However, he would say that Italy could not admit the diplomatic incident closed until the United States acknowledged its duty of bringing the guilty parties to justice and acknowledged the further duty of indemnifying the families of the victims who were Italian subjects. Italy could not admit that the United States government had no responsibility for acts committed within the jurisdiction of individual states. He felt confident, however, that the matter would be settled without creating political difficulties between Italy and America. In conclusion Rudini gave expression to the hope that notwithstanding the occurrence of some incidents which were greatly to be regretted in the controversy between Italy and America, means of conciliation honorable to both countries would be found.

After the adjournment of the chamber of deputies an Associated press correspondent added that the Marquis di Rudini had said if it was possible for him to give an opinion for publication in regard to the reply of the United States secretary of state, Mr. Blaine, to the (Madrid) note on the subject of the New Orleans lynching. In reply the Marquis di Rudini said, in substance, that the cabinet members of the Italian government were to Rome and which he had seen in the public press of this city were too brief and otherwise inaccurate to enable him to form definite opinions, much less give an opinion for publication, even if he felt justified in adopting the latter course of action. The marquis added that he preferred not to say anything further waiting the receipt of the full text of Blaine's reply, except that he was now and had always been ready to do his utmost to bring about a friendly settlement of the difficulties at present existing between the Italian government and the government of the United States. Though the full correspondence given out in Washington yesterday was telegraphed to London by Reuter's telegraph company and was published in the English papers, only a summary of the contents from London for the full correspondence. This explains the above remarks of the Marquis di Rudini.

British Press Praise Blaine.

LONDON, April 16.—The Times commenting on the American-Italian correspondence, says: "The American union was nearly rent asunder a generation ago on the question of states' rights. Now that old sectional feuds are almost forgotten it would be the extremity of folly to re-ignite the conflict. Italy appears to have adopted this far-sighted policy. The Marquis Imperiali's admissions give Blaine an easy logical victory, and he has naturally made the most of Italy's misdeeds in receding Blaine's position. It is gratifying to see that justice would not be done the 'lynchers'."

Call it Inconclusive.

ROME, April 16.—In political circles some disappointment is expressed with Blaine's reply to Rudini. It is characterized as vague and "inconclusive" and as insisting merely on a status quo.

American in the German Army.

BERLIN, April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The papers here have just printed a brief statement of the career of P. O. Swannan B. Clarke of the Tenth United States cavalry has been detailed to serve with the Westphalian hussar regiment No. 11. This is the first instance of a United States army officer being detailed to serve in a German regiment, and the fact that he is permitted to join the Westphalian hussars shows the kindly feeling of the German government and that the German authorities here, in part of the military authorities here. Lieutenant Clarke is a kinsman of Lieutenant General Von Versen the commander of the third army corps. General Von Versen who is himself a cavalryman and who is famous in that branch of the service, often sends him to the front. The secretary of war gave his consent to the proposition. "The matter was laid before General von Kattenberg, the Prussian minister of war, and he gave his consent and accordingly the detail was made. The Westphalian hussars are stationed at Danneberg and there Lieutenant Clarke will join them."

German Socialists.

LONDON, April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Herbert Spencer, the general strike does not command the sympathy of the socialists in general, and the feeling is very strong in Germany in favor of an eight-hour strike in May. Some well known socialists intimate that Rebel has ceased to be a socialist in sympathy or opinion, and is too much of a realist to be an aristocratic surroundings. The socialist feeling in favor of a great May day demonstration has gained strength in proportion to the severity of the government's measures and establishing new regulations for crushing social democracy.

Colded in the Channel.

LONDON, April 16.—The Dutch steamer Caland, from New York for Amsterdam, collided with the British steamer Glamorgan in the channel last night, sinking the latter. The crew of the Glamorgan was rescued. The Dutch steamer had her bows badly stove and was otherwise badly damaged.

Growing Worse and Worse.

LONDON, April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It has transpired that Captain Verney, the liberal member of parliament who fled to escape prosecution for abducting young girls, was betrayed by a French woman recently arrested and convicted in London for procuring young men in England for immoral purposes in Paris. The French woman gave the authorities valuable information implicating prominent men, both American and English, as patrons of her traffic. An American in Paris whose name has not been given, is said to have been the worst of the seducers. Captain Verney, a member of the House of Commons, and a wealthy associate of Mr. Gladstone.

The Newfoundland Question.

LONDON, April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Newfoundland question has been lost sight of by the public recently, but agents of the colony and its delegates here are working like beavers to keep its grievances before the government officials. Mr. Emerson has introduced a bill to amend the last phase of colonial feeling. He says the colonists continue to be bitterly opposed to the coercive bill now before parliament. They denounce it because it was introduced without the sanction of the colony, because it is a direct contradiction of imperial pledges to the colony, and because, if passed, it would be an enforcement of power without the consent of the governed and without regard for the rights of those directly concerned, contrary to the very principles of government which such an act would be a violation of. Delegates will do everything in their power to bring about a settlement of their demands without raising a question of the right of the colony in relation with other powers. It is evident, however, that they expect opposition and are prepared to meet it by making a strong case for the colony's rights. Delegates will do everything in their power to bring about a settlement of their demands without raising a question of the right of the colony in relation with other powers. It is evident, however, that they expect opposition and are prepared to meet it by making a strong case for the colony's rights. Delegates will do everything in their power to bring about a settlement of their demands without raising a question of the right of the colony in relation with other powers. It is evident, however, that they expect opposition and are prepared to meet it by making a strong case for the colony's rights.

Funeral of the czar's Aunt.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—The funeral of Princess Olga Fiodorovna, mother of Grand Duke Michael, cousin of the czar, took place today. The princess is said to have committed suicide owing to the death of her husband, who was killed in the Russo-Turkish war, from which he was dismissed in consequence of his marriage to the countess of Nuremberg.

Will Strike on May Day.

LONDON, April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A Madrid dispatch says that the workmen in the larger towns have determined upon a general strike on May 1, and have resolved to defend themselves against any force sent to attack them. Their demand is an eight-hour working day.

Fifty Manubris Killed.

LONDON, April 16.—A dispatch from Ranchester, British Columbia, says that a party of 500 Manubris, killing fifty of them.

Influenza Raging at Hull.

LONDON, April 16.—The influenza is raging in epidemic form in Hull. The death rate, which is usually 10 per 1,000, has reached 40 per 1,000.

FROM GEORGIA TO ALABAMA.

Delightful Trip of the President Between Atlanta and Birmingham.

PROFUSION OF FLAGS ALONG THE ROUTE.

An Immense Concourse of People Greeted the Chief Executive at the Latter Place—Off for Memphis.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 16.—The presidential party left here this morning for Birmingham, Ala., on the Georgia Pacific road. A great crowd assembled at the station. The president addressed the crowd briefly from the train. He expressed his enjoyment at the trip to Atlanta, saying humorously that when he saw the city before it was under unfavorable circumstances and he did not think he would like it, although he and his companions were making a great effort to see that Georgia prospered and developed. He was glad that he looked in the face of a community that was so full of energy and that was so full of life. "Let us do our duty," said he, "and while exacting all our own rights, let us bravely and generously give to every other man his equal rights before the law." [Cheers.]

From Atlanta to Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 16.—The presidential party had a delightful six-hour trip over the Georgia Pacific from Atlanta to this city. The president and his party were met at the station by a great concourse of people, and the evidences of enterprise to be seen on every side. A feature of the train was the prominent display of flags at all the stations, particularly at Tallapoosa, known here as the "Yankee City under a southern sun," because much New England capital is invested there. At that point Mayor Head introduced the president to the people and the president made a brief speech. The local postmaster then presented hickory canes to the president and postmaster general, and other persons presented flowers to the ladies of the party.

Geestemunde Returns.

BERLIN, April 16.—Returns from Geestemunde are still incomplete, but sufficient to show that Bismarck must resign to the indignity of a supplementary ballot unless, as is not probable, he retires from the contest. The poll has been a light one owing to the great abstention of national liberals. Prince Bismarck is certain of election on the second ballot, as he now has only 1,000 votes less than the Freisinnige and Gaelp voters are almost certain to support him, or at least abstain from voting rather than give the seat to the socialist candidate.

Excitement at Pine Ridge.

A FEW CHEYENNE SAID TO HAVE MADE UNFRIENDLY DEMONSTRATIONS. RAPID CITY, S. D., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Parties arriving from Pine Ridge report some excitement and anxiety there over the fact that a party of Cheyenne agency Indians are now at the Wounded Knee battle field and yesterday stopped a missionary and school teacher on their way to the reservation. They were allowed to proceed. Boss Farmer Smoot, who met the missionary, brought in the news. Stockmen from the reservation now in the city say there is little probability of trouble except with a few unruly bucks, and they are making arrangements to join in the general spring roundup which begins on the ranges east of Cheyenne May 15.

No Trouble Feared.

RAPID CITY, S. D., April 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Dr. McGillicuddy of this city, who has just returned from the east, was shown the dispatch from Pine Ridge announcing the presence of Cheyenne agency Indians at Wounded Knee, and their apparent disposition to make trouble. He is inclined to attach little importance to the matter, and said: "Of course there is considerable bad feeling among a certain portion of the bucks, extending into the upper Missouri districts, but those beligerently inclined are largely in the majority. My belief is that by throwing in a large number of troops late in the fall the government precipitated the Indian troubles. It is a mistake to suppose that a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones and Mayor Lane, and were greeted with deafening cheers. He thanked them deeply for the pleasant demonstration and spoke of the development of the region, which could not be comprehended until seen. He told how he had a number of years ago witnessed with some incredulity a similar effect today, hence I say that Senator Pettibone's suggestion of placing troops along the Cheyenne river, if carried out, will result disastrously. The Cheyenne and Indians look for the Messiah on July 1. Extreme caution must be practiced. The Indians, much to my surprise, have almost all returned to their homes, and are generally suspended. Addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jones