

kin as captain for the Athletics, and say they are totally unfit for the position. Mickey Welch not with an ovation at Holyoke on Fast day. Darryl O'Brien looks like a scared monkey without his muscles, and says that he will not return to the Athletics until he is paid an attack of typhoid fever. Kuehne is still unassigned, but he expects a good engagement soon. John Kelly seemed to have gone back on the Association, his first love. Gray, the Phillies' catcher, needs more exercise than he is likely to get. Ralph Johnson is doing some fine work at bat and in the field for Cleveland. The Boston Association club has fourteen ex-players' league on its roll. Joyce of Princeton made the first home run for 1891. Who'll make the last. Davis of Cleveland has been the assistant of all the League outfielders last season. The Phillies are running up a record of whitewashes against the amateur clubs. It is not expected that Ward's men will get down to perfect form much before May 1. In an exhibition game at St. Louis last week Denny Lyons made four home runs. George Smith returned Monday. He was a trifle heavy, but began to practice at once. Tommy Barron still sports his marvelous waistcoat. Where in the world did he get it? The Cleveanders have six pitchers: Beatin, Gruber, Knausa, Young, Lawson and Scoward. Doug was spiked in the Boston-Harvard game Tuesday and will be laid up for some time. Sharrott and Huxley will make a good battery for the Phillies. Also for the New Yorkers. Denny did some great work in his first practice game against the Princeton last Saturday.

THE AMATEUR BALL PLAYERS.

Neway Gossip from Nebraska and Iowa Towns.

THE MAKE-UP OF VARIOUS TEAMS.

Missouri Valley's Pride-Fremont's Prospects-Affairs at Crete, Grand Island and Council Bluffs.

Commencing with today The Bee will give a description of the amateur baseball teams of the most notable towns and cities of Nebraska and of the adjacent Iowa towns. A greater interest than ever is being manifested in the great national sport in the west, and as The Bee is ever ready to enhance the interests in amateur ranks, this method has been adopted as the most potent and satisfactory. These amateur clubs are not the preparatory schools, in many instances, for the big professional arena, and scores of fine players will get their first taste of notoriety through this source, and may find it stepping stone to great things in the future. Amateur sports, while outside of baseball, are almost exclusively the only party sports embraced in the whole athletic category, and are always deserving of patronage and encouragement.

Missouri Valley's Ball Tossers. MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., April 17.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The Missouri Valley baseball association was organized in the spring of 1888, and since then has been successful in its career, mainly. Their record is one of which they and the citizens of Missouri Valley are proud. In 1889 they won 24 games, losing 7. In 1890 they won 30, losing 8, two of which were with league teams—one with Lincoln and one with Omaha. This season they have a stronger team than ever and will probably claim the pennant for amateurs for Iowa and Nebraska.

Their victories in 1890 were notably June 29, with Crane brothers, 6 to 1; July 27, same team, 9 to 3; July 30, with the City Steamers, 3 to 1; July 22, with Lincoln Giants, 5 to 2, and on Sept. 2 to 3 to the City Steamers, 22 with Nebraska City, 6 to 3; August 24, same team, 6 to 5; at Marysville, Mo., September 9, they defeated St. Joseph, 11 to 4; 9 to 5; September 13, they played the Omaha league team, holding them down to a score of 5 to 1, in favor of Crete. A similar result was shown in a game with the Omaha City club on the same date, 9 to 0. In 1891 the club has not yet begun its season, but it is expected that it will be stronger than ever, with the following make-up: C. H. Deur, pitcher; H. A. Gray, catcher; W. J. Rusk, treasurer; W. M. Hannon, secretary.

The club will contain Frank Boymer, pitcher; Elmer Geist, pitcher; J. L. Graves, catcher; Jack Casack, catcher; Frank Walters, second base; "Nellie" Erickson, third base; R. C. McGovern, left; J. F. Burant, right; and Elmer Geist, right. They also have a few players who are not on the list, but who will see some play in the coming season. W. J. Rusk, treasurer; W. M. Hannon, secretary.

Last year the Dorseys played a good many hotly contested games with clubs of neighboring towns, and were usually accorded a good patronage. One game with the Schuyler Quills resulted 9 to 7 in favor of Fremont, and was a hard fought game. The other contests were had, both here and at Wahoo with the Dorseys of that place, the Fremont Dorseys winning the series, in one game.
