He paid up the rent that was due and made arrangements for the re-opening of the store at once under the name of the assignment of the store and the name of the assignee of the company, in New York. Mr. Nevin states that the company is solvent and will pay up every cent of its in-debtedness as soon as possible, so that it is probable that the company will be reorgan-ized in the near future.

Jewelry, and He Pawned It. Harry Bargman, a sewing machine agent was arrested vesterday at the instance of Miss Fannie Goldstein.

The young lady claims that Bargman paid considerable attention to her for a while, and after gaining her confidence began to borrow small articles of jewelry. At one time Bargman induced Miss Gold-stein to loan him her gold watch and chain.

A diamond ring soon went to keep company with the watch, and then a plain gold ring followed. One hundred dollars is the value of the jewelry. Atter obtaining possession of the plunder Bargman suddenly ceased paying attention to Miss Goldstein and went to Lincoln where he was married to a Miss Blooming. Upon the return of Bargman to the city demand was made by Miss Goldstein for property, but as it was not forthcoming the arrest followed. Bargman claims to have pawned the property to a man named Miles.

ABUSED BY A BRUTE.

Pitiable Condition of the Fami'y of D. O'Connell. The wife and children of D. O'Connell, liv ing at 2224 South Seventeenth street, are in very straightened circumstances. O'Connell is reported to be a worthless fellow, who will not work and who frequently abuses his family. Mrs. O Connell has been sick for a long time and unable to support her children. For a day or so past the family have had absolutely nothing to eat. The cruel husband threatened to beat his sick wife if she told the neighbors of their condition. Yesterday the little ones cried so pitifully for bread that the mother could stand it no onger. She sent word to the neighbors that they were starving. Food was immediately sup-plied and aid from kindly disposed persons is asked.

I believe he dabbled a little afterwards in state and national polities. At any rate I know he had a job for four years in the government employ, and then, like others in public position, when there came a change of administration he lost his place. He was accused, I am told, of talk-ing too much about the turiff and was charged with attempting to ruin the country in sondry Ing too much about the tariff and was charged with attempting to ruin the country in sundry and divers ways. In point of fact, however, I am convinced that, notwithstanding all we hear of civil service reform, he was discharged for purely partisan reasons and because some one else wanted his place. He did a great deal of hard work and was much perplexed and troubled, but I know that his greatest trial was his allenation of many personal and political friends in making ap-pointments to office. It was impossible to avoid this, and it will continue to be impossi-ble in all cases so long as the applicant for office and the man who is charged with the responsibility of appointment occupy such entirely different points of observation, and just so long as public duty may sometimes stand in the way of personal friendship.

TRIAL OF REV. BRIGGS.

Charged with Heresy by the New York Presbytery.

NEW YORK, May 11.-The committee of the New York Presbytery appointed to consider alleged heresy in the address of Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs before the Union theological seminary on January 20 last submitted reports before the meeting of the presbytery this afternoon. The majority report openly accused Dr. Briggs of heresy and radical divergence from belief in the church as stated in the confesssion of faith. It was signed by Rev. Drs. Birch, Forbes, Lampe and Prof. Stevenson. The minority report was presented solely by Rev. Dr. Mclivain. Mr. Walter Edwards, a lawyer, who was also on the committee, declined to sign either report. He agrees with the majority report as to its first article, "sources of divine authority," and agrees with the minority report on the other two recommendations.

When the presbytery met today Dr. Hast-ings offered a resolution declaring that the presbytery of Chester, Pa., in making the original overture, had violated the rights of Professor Briggs, that gentleman not being in that presbytery's jurisdiction, and that the presbytery of Chester had violated the constitutional rights of the presbytery of New York, which had sole jurisdiction over Professor Briggs. On roll call the resolution was rejected, 57 for and 44 against. Professor Briggs then read a protest declaring the appointment of a committee by the New York presbytery to consider his inaugural address as a violation of usage and a breach of justice and sound discipline because of the following facts: 1. He had had no intimation of and no opportunity to meet the motion for the appointment of the committee. 2. The comnittee was appointed in his absence, caused by ill health, and was also appointed with-

It would not pay the tailor to make up poor material; therefore, in buing misfits you are always certain to get cloth that will give good satisfaction and long service. Then the tailor takes far more care with his work than is bestowed up I factory work, where the idea is to slight the garment as much as possible in order to turn out work choap. Another great advantage is that, among our fine misfits, you will find the half and quarter sizes, and really better fitting goods than cra be found in establishments that deal in ready made clothing. Then by buying misfits you are really putting in your pocket what the tailor loses, for you get as good as the tailor would make yeu for just about half what the tailor would charge. All alterations done free of charge to insure a good fit.
