A Council Bluffs paper is responsible for the statement that the postoffice at Lake Manawa had been discontinued because there was no republican there to serve as postmaster, and the administration would not appoint a democrat. The only truth about the statement is the fact that the postofice has been discontinued because it did not pay. The old postmaster, whose salary was base on the business done, could not support his family on $2.50 a mouth, and there see be no one, either democrat or republican, who was ambitious to be his successor. Those interested in Manawa were urged to recommend some one as postmaster, but as no one could be found, of any shade of political faith, there was nothing to be done but close the office.

Little Roy Riekman Finds His Death in the Old Broadway Reservoir.

VERY PATHETIC SCENE AT THE HOME.

While Searching for Flowers the Lad Sought Brief Pleasure in a Raft Ride and Was Drowned.

Roy Rickman, the eight-year-old son of A. W. Riekman, cashier of the First National bank, met his death by drowning yesterday afternoon.

In company with Ernest, his ten-year-old brother, and Wendell Wright, the son of a neighbor, he left home about 2 o'clock in the afternoon to go to the old reservoir at the foot of Broadway to gather flowers. When the three boys reached the reservoir they separated and Ernest went off by himself, while Roy and the Wright boy stayed together. Roy found an old raft lying in the water, and he could not refrain from getting on board in spite of the warnings of his companion. No sooner had he gotten on the raft than it commenced to drift out from the bank. After it had gone a few feet Roy became frightened and jumbed off on the side toward the bank. The water at that point was about four or five feet deep. He tried to swim to shore, but his companion knew that he could not swim, and he set off on a run to a saloon near by, where he got a man named Neiby to help

Neiby dove for the body, and finally drew it up, but not until it was too late. The boy was just gasping when he was landed on the bank, and in a few seconds he stopped breath-

The father of the dead boy was at once called by telephone, and he set out for the scene of the tragedy. He took the body in a arriage and brought it to the house at 105 South Seventh street. Drs. Macrae and Barstow were summoned and every possible effort was made to resuscitate the boy, but of no avail.

The scene at the house after the lifeless form had been brought in and deposited on a sofa in the room was a most pathetic one Mrs. Rickman threw herself upon the body, weeping as though broken hearted, and not a dry eye in the room saw the grief of the stricken mother.

The case is one of the saddest that has happened in this city for years. The unfortunate boy and his parents are all well known, and a host of friends extend sympathy to the bereaved friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence.

Little Events That Make Life in the City Enjoyable. A pleasant reception was given last Thursday evening by the members of the Council Bluffs Boat club to its friends. A large number of invitations were issued, and it would have been well attended had it not been for the weather, which was very threatening. Those who were present, however, enjoyed the affair hugely. Neighbors Are in Favor of Lynching

Mrs. Williams' Crowd. William M. Anderson and A. J. Weldon filed a complaint vestorday against an outfit. that has been doing an extensive thieving business of late in the western part of the city. The outfit is located a short distance south of the motor bridge near the river, and is presided over by a woman who goes by the name of Williams, Shaw, or Young, as the case may demand. Anderson lives near the corner of Third avenue and Thirty-fifth street, and Weldon is building a house near by. A day or two ago Anderson went home and found his door unlocked. He thought at the time that it looked as though he had had visitors during his absence, and the next day he was certain of it when he went to change his clothes and found his best suit missing. About the same time Weldon found a lot of lumber and shingles that had been lying around his new house were gone. Anderson and Weldon suspected that the Williams out fit was responsible for the theft and they decided to make an investigation. Weldon discovered some shingles at the Williams house, and he had a search warrant issued. Constable Evans, who served the warrant, found the shingles and confiscated them, but no trace was found of Anderson's Sunday

It is reported that a large load of chickens igs and vegetables was taken across the ridge at an early hour yesterday morning to pigs and be disposed of. The neighbors are very much worked up over the doings at the Williams shanty, and threats of tar and feathering are freely made.

There has been no warrant issued so far for the arrest of any of the party, as it is hard to tell who should be arrested. The neighbors, however, do not care particularly whether one of the company meets with punishment, or all of them, but if nothing is done by the authorities in the matter the threaten to take the matter into their owi hands and lynch a few of them just for luck

Pension, Indian Depredation, Land Patent and Other Claims to Be Prosecuted.

READ THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS

All Claims Arising in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and South Dakota Will Be Handled by The Bee Bureau.

About thirty days ago a new departure was inaugurated by the San Francisco Ex aminer, now the leading paper on the Pacific coast. Its proprietor, Mr. Hearst, son of the late Senator Hearst of California, who has a very large fortune at his command, conceived the idea of establishing a bureau of claims at Washington, manned by the abiest lawyers and specialists conversant with the routine work in the various departments and bureaus of the government. The object of Mr. Hearst in this undertaking is clearly set forth in the prospectus taken from the Examiner to be published in a later issue of The Bee When the announcement of this new departure was made negotiations were at once entered into between THE BEE and the proprietor of the Examiner to join hands and mutually share in the enterprise. These arrangements have now been perfected and agreements entered into by which THEBER be comes a co-worker of the Examiner in the territory where The Bee enjoys so extensive a subscription patronage.

Under this arrangement all applications for claims, either for pensions, Indian depredations, land or mining claims, patent or postal claims in the states of lows, Kansas, South Dakota and Nebraska will be taken in hand by The Bee Bureau of Claims in O naha an through it forwarded to headquarters at Washington where the Examiner bureau will prosecute them to a final and speedy con-

The Bue takes pleasure in offering to all its patrons and particularly to subscribers to THE WEEKLY BEE, the services of this new bureau which, we have no doubt, will prove of great advantage to them, both in prosecuting new claims to a successful issue and in expediting all claims entrusted to THE BEE bureau.

The Conditions.

As a condition precedent to any person availing himself of the services of the bureau, THE BEE will require that the applicant shall send in a subscription to THE OMAH WEEKLY BEE for a year. A remittance of $1 will entitle the person sending it to one year's subscription and also a membership in the Claims Bureau association composed entirely of subscribers to The Bee.

All persons now subscribers of The WHERLY BEE who will send us one new subscriber will be entitled to membership in the association in their own names and the new subscriber will also receive one certificate of membership besides his paper.

Subscribers of THE DAILY BEE who send in subscriptions to the weekly will be entitled to the same privileges as those of THE WEEKLY BEE No service will be undertaken for any person who is not an actual subscriber of The BEE. The Terms.

The terms under which claims will be prosecuted will depend entirely upon the amount of service rendered in each case. We can safely assure all patrons of the bureau that the charges will be very much lower than rates charged by the regular claims lawy mand claims agents at Washington. It go without saying that the Examiner and THE BEE are in position conjointly to expedite business and do service at more lib eral rates than any other medium for the prosecution of claims. In he matter of fees and charges THE BEE desires only to clear expenses. The bureau is intended for the relief of the people from the rapacity of legal sharks. In many cases fees allowed attorneys are irrevocably fixed by law, and in such the question is decided. In other claims such a charge will be made as seems to cover the actual expenses involved in collection We make no effort to solicit your patronage, as does the ordinary agen who seeks your claim for a financial consideration. Such is not our purpose. We offer to one and all the services of a well equipped bureau, where a claim of any nature can be sent, or information in regard thereto be obtained. If your claim is worthless or illegitimate you will be so notified without fear or favor. If the claim is genuine it will receive prompt attention and efficient prosecution. If unsuccessful, no charge will be made; provided, however, that claimants must defray their own ex penses in the preparation of affidavits, depositions, and other evidence outside of Washington. We will furnish the necessary legal papers and bear the Washington expenses nly in unsuccessful ciaims. When claims are allowed, a reasonable fee will be charged to cover actual cost. All letters will be promptly answered and all information concerning form of applications for claims, terms, etc., will be given with as little delay as practicable. No letter will be answered unless the sender encloses requisite stamps for reply. No information concerning any particular claim will be imparted until the applicant has become a member of The Bee Claims Bureau associa-
