MILWAUKEE LEADS THE RACE.

Lambs Went Down Before the Brawers at the End of a Hard Fight.

TWELVE INNINGS MADE THE GAME.

Remarkable Close and Desperate Struggle Between the Leiders-Lincoln Lost Two-Other Sunday Baseball Games,

Milwausce, 7: Omaha, 6. Sioux City, 12-5; Lincoln, 7-4. Kansas City, 12; Minneapolis, 6. Denver, 10; Duluth, 9.

ONNELLY'S absence from the team dumped the second game to the Brewers. Another $25 fine would, in a poor measure, offset the loss. That is, if the management wanted vesterilay's game. If it didn't it should raise the Professor's salary. It is high time the ball player is convinced that he has no more right to go on a drunk than the railroad or bank clerk, that he is just as much of an employe as either of the other two and his duties are just as onerous and obligatory, and that he is just as amenable for indecorum or misconduct.

Fine 'em good and hard, and if that don't answer, suspend them for the season. The remedy is plain and should be utilized fearlessly and unsparingly. Colonel Strief was a vast improvement over Saturday, and yet his miserable decision in declaring Spannon out at second in the seventh inning lost Omaha the game. The crowd in attendance was a bis one and about as enthusiastic as you over saw. It cheered and yelled at everything. Foul or three-bagger it made no difference, either was a signal for a burst of dissonant sound. But it was a great battle, if we did losereplete as it was with all the beauties and blemishes, the glories and gaucheries of the game, and people couldn't have helped en-joying themselves if they had tried.

That is, after a fashion. It is tough, very, very tough to see Mil-waukee pulling out game after game that Omaha should have had, and stride off the field with colors flying when they should be trailing in the dust. But you have noticed probably that the sweets of this life are generally mixed up with a good deal of the bitter. And so it is with baseball. But you are anxious for the particulars. Well, from the first man up until the last ne down it was a treat fit for the delectation of the gods. But the Brewers won and that is what Still it is gratifying to be able to state that it was a prodigious task for them. They stacked up a mighty stout game to be sure.

and a lucky one, too, while the Lambs were very ragged and all but distraught at times. They hit the ball, though, mind you, both frequently and hard, but as luck would have it, at critical times it went straight at some one of the Pabst representatives. Eiteljorg and Vickery both pitched in admirable form, the former getting in a small way the best of it. The crowd, it is repeated, was very large and very noisy. The grand stand was packed and the bleachers a solid mass of sweaty faces, while carriages, drags and phaetons encompassed the field.

Omaha bats first. Shannon thinks he sees one coming that suits him, but he is mistaken. He bangs the ethereal a smash that raises a carbuncle as Three times in quick succession the wall

oved pike who was in the box for Cush does this, and Manager Dan goes back to the tranquil city of the bench, where honor is not measured by success, where protension does not trample on merit, where genius is not a jest, goodness not a seeming and devo-

O'Hooligan and Old Cyrus quickly follow uit, and Captain Petit and his stocky athletes try her a whirl.

But they can do no better. Burke pops up a little one to the lad whose tresses form a golden aureole about his brow; Captain Bob gets his base on balls, only to be fired out at second, and George Washington Schock collides three times with the odoriferous zephyrs that came blowing softly from o'er Kountze's addition. In the second the Lambs cracked the ice.

The Deacon slipped his hymnal in his hip pocket, shouldered his club and stepped to the plate. He then caught Mr. Vickery in a tender spot and a two-sacker was the result. Papa's little creeper down toward third let him home, and everybody yelled "hey! hey!" The war-cry of the Omahas.

The next three men, the Commodore, septus Walsh and the Greencastle lad, furnished easy outs. Abner Dairymple—you're all read about Abner in the old fourth reader haven't you's No. Well he's the man who welcomed the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock. But as I was going to say, Abner, he went to the bat, but that is about all he did do. His long fly was taken tender care of by the Commodore. Howard Earl, however, was more success ful. He laced out a pretty single, and or Campion's three cushion punch trotted home Camp following a moment later on Grim's safe one. When Schriver flied to Traf, and Jack threw Victor Emanuel out at first, and the score stands 2 to 1. jiffy the Lambs are retired in the third, and so are the Brewers, and the signs all point to a hot and furious battle.

Again in the fourth Shannon's people take an egg, but Cushman's myrmidons run their score up to three.

er sends one up for Old Cy's benefit, but Earl cracks out one ticketed for the third station, and on Campion's sacrifice runs over the rubber. Grim fouls out, but a sulphurous smelt pervades the air.

Then there is a gladsome change. Grim makes a bad muss of Commodore's grounder, and the Commodore reaches second, Jocko, like Prometheus, is crucified at first, still Twitch reaches third, and home a mo-ment later on a passed ball. Then Vickery has an attack of monkeys in his head and Walsh goes to first on four bad ones. Billy Traffley makes a hit, and it looks interesting But right here Manager Dan sends up a high one to Earl, and hope of tying the score is on

But how delusive is this great sport of Halligan weilds his sapling, and before the fleet-footed Burke can recover the sphere, both Walsh and Traf are safe in port and Jocko, like the goddess of liberty on Bedloe's Island, is perched on third.

My, what a row there is at this.

A three-barger at the right time. You've all seen them in your day, and know what a tingle it sends through one's veins; what berene joys of thought, what pure, sweet, lofty sentiments are its offspring. To cap the climax, Old Cy sneaks in a lit-tle scratch, and Jocko ambles in and gathers up the silver with which the fans strew the sward.

"Old Cy" takes an extra hitch in his trousers and actually steals second, and this makes the cranks scream with delight, just as if "Old Cy" never stole anything before.

Grim throws Griffin out at first, though, and Sut was left. Four runs, however, was plenty, and for a time they looked as big as the new city hali.
The Deacen made a great sprint for Schriver's fly, but it got away from him and the er's fly, but it got away from him and the big backstop reached second on the mistake. Then everybody said "ah"!

Vickery went to first on balls, only to be forced at second by Burke, Schriver reaching third on the play, whence he scored shortly after on Captain Bob's sacrifice to Traf. Then Schoch got his base on four wide ones, but Abner's out ended the agony.

After blanking the Lambs in the sixth, the Browers not only tied the score, but went one batter.

And that, too, after Earl and Campion had both been tossed out at first by Idlejag.

Grim here made a single. Schriver a lucky double, and Vickery a single. The latter bit lot Grim in, and on Twitchell's allowing the day's game by superior batting and field ball to get by him Schrive crossed the plate

That was rough, some more, wasn't it! But they got no more, although Burke got his base on balls, and Pettit followed with a bit. Shock's fly to Traf brought the Lamba

But they were unable to distinguish themselves, and in fact neither side scored again until the ninth, when amidst a deafening up-roar Omaha tied the score, Twitchell havig relieved Eddle in the box in the seventh.

It happened thusly:
Eltellorg was presented with first by Vickery, whose brain again began to work on him, only to be forced out at second by Waish.
Then Traffley swiped her safe for the third time and Walsh went to third. Now for a homer, a three-sacker, a twofer; aye, oven a single!

The bow before the grandeur of Niagara, where seas plunge upon the globe's heart in reverberating thunders: we linger for nours on the beamy lights and velvet shades of the old masters; of Dimenichino, of Giorgione, of Titian and Tintoretto, whose names gitter with the magic tints of Italy and ring with the golden richness of her music. But what are all these alongside a good corking hit in a game of baseball, with two men on bases and one run needed to tie the score, and an other to win the game?

Nothing, absolutely nothing! Manager Dan braced bimself. There was lood in his eye, and a big club in his hand.
"One strike!" proclaimed the heartles "One strike!" proclaimed the heartless olonel Strief, as the ball whizzed by Manager Dan's bellyband, directly over the plate. "Danny! Danny! what alis you!" cried the crowd in improving tones.

The next second, smash! It was his tree meeting one of Victor's most intricate con-

"Hey! bey! hey!" screamed the delighted, elirious thousands.
Walsh scoots across the plate and the score tied, then Traffley comes tearing down the ines like a house aftre. He can make it easily, only he can't. He's afraid of soiling his clothes. Burke and Petit get the ball in and big Schriver nails it, and as Traffley un-dertakes to run across the plate, he nails him,

The crowd shouted murder, but it did no good, the man was fairly out, and that, ob think of it you rauting, roaring, raving fans, when a slide would have won the game. Shannon made second on his masterly stroke, and third on Jocko's sacrifice, but "Old Cy" struck out, and the crowd fell back, limp and lax, yet thankful that the score had been tied.

Then the battle grew flercer still up to the last half of the twelfth, when after Earle had died at first, Twitchell plugged Campion in the back, and on Grim's two-bagger he scored and won the game

Lincoln Reversed Last Sunday's Story and Lost Two Games.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 28 .- The grounds used for Sunday ball games were in miserable condition today, all but the infield being covered with water or mud, but in spite of it Lincoln and Sloux City played two games, the visitors taking both. Darnbrough's wildness, together with an error by Flanagan and two hits, gave the visitors a lead in the second inning of the first game which was never recovered. Score:

Fremont a Winner. FREMONT, Neb., June 28 .- (Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-The game between the Fremonts and the Shamrocks of Omaha, this afternoon, was a fine exhibition and was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. The Fremonts won another victory, playing even with the visitors, who last Sunday pre-sented them with one of their two defeats of the season. Fremont played its two new men, Conners short and Patterson second.

Good Game at Nebraska City. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 28.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The second game of ball between Nebraska City and Plattsmouth was played flere this afternoon. The grand stand was packed. Considerable money was placed, but the fellows who bet on Plattsmouth went home with long and sad faces. It was a clean, fair and exciting shutout. The Plattsmouth kickers were given everything they asked for, but the trouble was they didn't know how to hit the balls pitched by Miller, the colored phenomenon. Nine innings were played and Plattsmouth only got two base hits off of Miller. Gadke caught splendidly for the home team. The Plattsmouth battery was Perrine and Creigh-

During the last half of the second Stroble of the home team swiped the ball over the fence very close to the foul line and Umpire Shannon called it a fair ball. Plattsmouth kicked in vain and finally put on their coats and started for the gate. It brought one man home and gave good courage to the Nebraska City boys.

good courage to the Nebraska City beys.

The game proceeded and Plattsmouth strucgled along to the finish without winning a score. Billy Schafers umpired the last seven innings.

Perrine was pounded hard, but the outfielding of the visitors was good. Miller fanned out strikers in one, two, three order, The result was. The result was:

SPEED RING.

Today's Entries at Sheepshead. SHEEPSHEAD, BAY, N. Y., June 28 .- The card for tomorrow at Sheepshead Bay is an exceptionally brillight one and promises one of the best day's sport of the meeting. The event of the day will be the great Trial stakes for two year olds. All the cracks hereabouts are entered and if the track is in good condition the field will be a large one, for the inducement to win is certainly a liberal one. The entries and weights for the several events are as follows:

First race, all ages, a sweepstakes, with 81,000 added, futurity course; Kenwood, Worth, Stryke, 122 each; Kitty T, 106; Eclipse, Dr. Hasbrouck, Monterey, Judge Post, Sextus, III each; Odetto, 119; Volunteer II, 124; Belle D 83.

Again Today. Omaha and Milwaukee will come together again today, and you bet your life if the Brewers get three straight they will have a story to tell when they get through. Shannon spent a few moments last night talking in a sort of fatherly way with the Lamps, and each went to bed to dream of a hard afternoon's work with victory at the end. Don't miss this game. Yesterday's was a burd, but if you want to see a burd with two sets of wings, go out this afternoon. The clubs will play something in this position: Griffin.... McCauley Twitchell. Walsh Traffley .. . Dalrymple Cannon Defeats Rhinow. Berlin, June 28 .- In a Gracco-Roman con test here today Tom Cannon, the American wrestler, easily vanquished the German. Rhinow. The match lasted only five minutes, to the great chagrin of the German spectators. Christol, the French athlete, proved to be a tougher opponent, but after an exciting struggle of thirteen minutes Cannon was again victorious. Cannon maintains that he was not defented by Abs, who, he says inercly remained on the defensive. He has issued a challenge for another trial, but it is multiply that Abs, will Rhinow. The match lasted only five minutes. other trial, but it is unlikely that Abs will respond.

Evansville's New Race Track. EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 28.—July 3 and 4 a new mile race track will be opened here by a series of races, for which there are nearly a hundred entries. PROROGUED FOR THE SUMMER, Adjournment of the Italian Deputies Amid Terrible Disorder.

TWO MEMBERS ALMOST COME TO BLOWS

Premier Rugini, Thoroughly Aroused, Declares that the Government Will Adhers Firmly to the Dreibund.

Rome, June 28.-There was another scene of wild disorder in the chamber of deputies today when the foreign policy of the government came up for consideration. After a few preliminary skirmishes Admiral Brin, ex-minister of marine, who was speaking yesterday when the sitting had to be suspended on account of the tumult in the chamber, rose to proceed with the foreign interpellation, but he was met with such a storm of radical protests that he was only able to repeat the text of the interpellation. Promier Rudini then arose and declared in the most emphatic terms that the government would adhere firmly, stoildly to the dreibund, adding that Europe might rest assured that these alliances would be maintained and that European peace would long be preserved. With this the whole house, with the exception of the extreme left, rose and cheered long and heatelly.

After further bickerings some deprecatory allusion made by Signor Martonro elicited the anger of the radicals, who sprang from their seats, gesticulating violently and drowning the voice of the speaker with then Signor Cavalotti made a rush at Signor Martonro and would have struck him but for the interference of friends, who parted the two men. The scene at this point defies description Every member stood shouting, disputing and menacing in the wildest manner. Finally the president, finding himself unable to pacify the members, donned his hat and suspended the sitting.

When the sitting was resumed Signor Cavalotti, the senior member of the chamber, Signor Bovio, a radical, and the president of the chamber appealed for concord and all three were enthusiastically applauded by the whole house. Finally parliament was pro-rogued for the summer holidays.

The Opinione says that Premier Rudini's statement in the chamber of deputies today is interpreted to mean that the renewal of the dreibund is an accomplished fact.

Story of a Saturday Night's Shooting in New York. NEW YORK, June 28.-Darwin J. Meserole. he twenty-three-year-old son of General J V. Meserole, who shot and killed Theodore Larbig at Comstock's flat in Brooklyn or Saturday night, was today committed to the Raymond street jail by Justice Tigle. Mrs. Comstock was also committed as a witness. Larbig was a traveling salesman for the Phillips insulated wire company of Provideuce, R. L. He was forty-three years old and leaves a wife and two children. Mrs Comstock comes from the same city. She was widowed some time ago and under the protection of Lurbig came to the City of Churches to live. The deceased fitted up the flats where the nurder was commit-ted and when not traveling lived in it with Mrs. Comstock. Young Meserole rented a part of the floor on his return from Europe a month ago. A sudden friendship spring up between Mrs. Com-stock and the voing mr. They went to stock and the young man. They went to Coney Island yesterday and were met there by Larbig. The latter grew indignant, but did not allow his temper to get the best of him until Mrs. Comstock re-turned to the flat. While Meserole was seated on his bed after returning from the island Larbig started in to abuse her. She rushed into Meserole's room and Larbig foiowed her. A general fight ensued and in the meleo Meserole drew his pistol and shot Larbig dead, The body was removed to an undertaker's today. Mrs. Comstock is thirty years old and is said to be handsome.

BIGGEST FARM IN THE WORLD. Organization of a Company Whose Operations Will Be in Florida.

seen organized with a capital of $1,000,000 for sultivating a farm of 112,000 acres in Florida, This will be the largest farm in the world, and upon it enough could be raised to supply the city of New York with food. The name of the company is the Sebastian land improvement, sugar and investment company. provement, sogar and investment company. The farm lies between the Indian, San Sebastian and St. John rivers and is drained into the St. John. The farm has a muck soil similar to that in the valley of the Nile. Most people think of Florida as a sind heap, streaked here and there with hammock land, but the presence of this great tract of most fertile land of a soil rarely found in tropical countries proves the general idea erroneous. The company does not propose to raise cereais or garden stuff, but sugar cane and coccanuts, especistuff, but sugar cane and cocoanuts, especi-ally the latter. This will be in the nature of any the latter. This will be in the nature of an experiment, as eccesables are not indegenous to Florida. The company is composed of New York and southern capitalists. The land was fought from a syndicate of young men of New Orleans headed by Mr. W. Wallis, who has some stock in the farming enterprise and will be received.

Since that time bright sunshine has prevailed and no rain has fallen except in the extreme northern part of the state, where heavy rains occurred Wednesday night. This rain delayed harvest and plowing in that sec-tion, but elsewhere the weather has been all tion, but elsewhere the weather has been all that could be desired and harvest has been pushed under the most favorable circumstances. By touight the entire crop in the southern and central sections will be out. The wheat prospect is better than was reported last week, being less than was expected. Corn is growing rapidly and is being cleaned as fast as possible. A few more bright days will put the crop in excellent condition.

AT MANITOU.

Summer Wanderers from Omaha Not Numerous at the Resort.

Manitou Springs, Colo., June 27 .- | Special to Tile Bug !- Manitou is to the people what a sugar barrel is to the files on a bright summer day-decidedly attractive. There is an absence of flies and an influx of people at Manitou that is refreshing. These June days are of the leafy June that poets prate of-cool mornings, warm enough at noontime to remind the outdoor wanderer that it is summer, and evenings full of moonlight and coolness.

The walks, drives and trails about Maniton are so numerous that old timers of several season's experience find some new beauties whenever they go out. The country is a paradise for the lively young woman or the brawny young man who delights in exploring As yet the Omaha citizen in Maniton and Senor Montt Talks a Little.

NEW YORK, June 28 .- Senor Pedro Montt, who is on a mission to this country from the congressional party in Chilli, has been informed by Senor Errasurih, the minister of foreign affairs of that party at Iquique, that a committee of the government has appointed General Luis Perriro its confidential agent at Buenos Ayres. This is a relative position to that filled by Senor Montt to the United States. Senor Montt still declines to say anything with respect to his mission in this country, out to an Associated press reporter tonight he said that his dispatches contained a denial of the reports from Santiago by the way of London to the effect that the revoit is making no progress, that provisions are scarce and that the army is discontented. Senor Montt said the fact of the occupation of the Lobas islands by the Esmeralda is in itself proof revolt is making progress. visions are not scarce, he says, and the army, being composed of volunteers, is not discon-tented nor is the party of the soldiers in arrears.

Beneficial Rains. St. Paul, Minn., June 28 .- The storms of yesterday and today were general through out the northwest, which will do the crops inestimable good. At a few points the rain did some damage, but in the majority of cases it was heavy and not accompanied by severe winds. Spring wheat prospects in central Minnesota owing to the rains are fair to good and ahead of an average in every way except as to lateness. In southern Minpesota the harvest will be earlier than usual, many fields having already headed out.

South Dakota reports the present conditions of spring wheat 20 per cent better than last year. Rain will be needed again in

In North Dakota there has been plenty of rain, the water still standing in the lowlands. Weeds have been developing fast. Wiscon sin reports the past few days more favorable for growing crops, which are thin and back-

TWO MOONSHINERS BAGGED,

Arrest of a Pair of the Most Notorious in in the Country.

ONE THE LEADER OF THE MULLINS GANG.

Desperate Criminals Extensive Career Cut Short by a Courageous Revenue Officer-Details of the Capture.

WHERLING, W. Va., June 28.-Harvey M. lins, the leader of the notorious Mullins gang of moonshiners, who have been making whisky and committing murders and other crimes in McDoweil county for several years, has been arrested, together with Plice Cooper, one of the gang. For years illicit distilling has been conducted on Muilius mountain, and the gang, numbering twenty-five, all of the most desperate character, have been enabled to silude arrest, although several posses of officers have attempted to get them. In every case the officers have been driven back at the muzzles of Winchesters. Numerous coldblooded murders have been committed in the vicinity, all attributed to this gang, and a number of their men are under indictment for murders. Mullins himself is said to have killed five men, although a mere boy, and is under indictment for murder in West Vir-ginia and Virginia. He is also under indictnent in both states for moonshining and his capture is one of the most important as well as one of the most laring pieces of work on the part of officers in recent years. Last full a desperate attempt was made to capture the gang by United States deputy marshals, but they were repulsed after a sharp fight, in which the marshals had several horses killed and some of the men nar-rowly escaped with their lives. A short time later a man named Cox was shot and killed by the gang while riding along the road, having been mistaken for a marshal. The day after Mullins' capture two gentlemen riding along the road near where the capture was made were fired on from the woods by Mulins' gang, but es-caped. It is supposed they too were taken for deputy marshals.

Mullins' capture was made by Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Beadler, who took a posse of men with the determination of breaking up the gang. He took warning from the fate of other officers and instead of an attack made a still hunt and hid in the woods for several days being at last re-warded by ambushing Mullins and Cooper, both being armed. Mullins attempted to shoot when told to surrender, but was knocked down with a clubbed rifle and hand-cuffed. Cooper surrendered when he found he was covered by rifles. They will be taken to Parkersburg before the United States court tomorrow, after which an attempt will be made to capture the rest of the
