Rules Governing the Various Contests and Programme of the Departuent Work-Busy Times Ahead for Bellevne

Major Daniel W. Benham, inspector or small arms practice of the department of the Platte, has succeeded in having the rifle competition for the department of the Platte, the east, and of California, called at Bellevue range. This in conjunction with the annual department cavalry competition, will make the season at Bellevue a very busy one.

The department competition will open on The department competition will open on August 1, preceded with three days of pre-liminary practice. This competition will continue four days. The cavairy competition for the three departments will begin August 17, preceded by three days of preliminary practice, and continue six days.

These competitions will be under the direction of Major Daniel W. Benham.

Captain Charles A. Coolidge of the Seventh infantry will be in command of the camp. Each competitor will be required to take with him his riffe, full dress and fatigue take with him his riffe, full dress and fatigue uniform, with overcoat, forage cap, fatigue hat and equipments complete, including his field cartridge belt, bedsack and bedding. Post commanders will see that in addition to the articles mentioned each soldier takes with him all proper and necessary clothing that he may require during his stay at the depart-ment rifle camp.

As commutation of rations is not provided for competitiors while at the place of compefor competitiors while at the place of competition, the department commander directs that each company commander forward to the acting commissary of subsistances of the department ride camp $3 for each enlisted competitor, to purchase vegetables for ess of competitors.

In the selection of competitors due regard will be had not only that the men sent to the competition are of good habits and reliable, but also that their excellence in marksmanship is based upon their proficiency in both individual and skirmish firing, After the selection of the competitors is made they will, at their respective posts, be practiced at least six days at known distance and skirmish firing before being sent to the competition. Report of the amount and the kind of such practice had by each competitor will be made by post commanders to the in spector of small arms practice of the depart ment, when the competitors leave their reective posts.

Major Berham received yesterday from Washington thirty medals to be awarded as prizes to the best marksmen in the revolver match, the rifle competition and the cavalry competition with carbines, ten medals for each competition.

The medals are gold, silver and bronze. The gold are for first prizes, the silver for second and the bronze for third. The medals are circular in form and are about as wide as a $20 gold piece but fully twice as thick. They are attached to solid bars and pins about an inch and a half long upon the same material. Upon the front side of the medal there is an Upon the front side of the medal there is an embosed image of a marksman in the act of shooting. For the cavalry this embosed image consists of a horse and rider, and for the infantry simply a marksman on foot. The workmanship is very fine, and the medals are truly beautiful. On the opposite side of the plate the surface is left smooth so that the name the surface is left smooth so that the name of the winner may be inscribed thereon after the competition is decided. These medals will all be placed in Max Meyer's window for a few days that the public may see the in-ducements held out to the boys in blue to be-Interesting Cases Coming at the Close of the Term. One of the financial institutions of Omnha secured a point in Judge Doane's court yesterday morning.

Several years ago the Equitable trust company of Omaha was organized and commenced the business of loaning money upon real estate. The business has been prosperous and has brought large returns on the investments made by the stockholders. A short time ago the Equitable loan and trust company of Chicago was organized and at once opened a general office in this city for the purpose of loaning money.

The Omaha company thought the Chicago oncern had stolen its thunder and at once sued out a restraining order to prevent the use of the name, "The Equitable Loan and Trust Company," in this judicial district. The case was argued before Judge Doane and he decided that the name adopted by the Chicago company was an infringement and cannot be used in this section of the and cannot be used in this section of the

THREE IN SESSION.

Work Executed by a Trio of County Commissioners.

Three county commissioners attended the adjourned meeting held yesterday afternoon. Mary Shephard asked for transportation to New York. The matter was referred. County Surveyor House recommended that a number of culverts be constructed in the Elkhorn turnpike. Superintendent Mahoney of the poor farm was granted permission to employ a seamstress at the county hospital.

The injunctions restraining the county from paying any money to Ryan & Walsh, the hospital contractors, were presented and referred to the committee on judiciary. A number of final grading estimates were ented and referred.

A protest was filed against allowing the estimate of Peterson Bros. for grading Prosect street. The proter states that the street has been left in a rough and unfinished con-

Ed J. Brennan, who constructed the cistern at the county hospital, protested against the holding out of $50 to repair leakages. The protest was considered, but the money was withheld.

The resignation of Ed Leder as constable of Douglas precinct was accepted and John F. Clapp appointed to fill the vacancy. The bond presented by Clapp was rejected, Mr. Berlin claiming that there is no vacancy in the precinct.

Mr. Timme presented a resolution that the county clerk be instructed to draw a war rant on the railroad sinking fund to pay the interest on the railroad bridge bonds, due July 1. The resolution was adopted.

ERROR IN THE COUNTY CLERK'S RECORD.

Seventy-One Thousand Dollars Worth of Bonds Fell Due Six Months Before Expected

Treasurer Snyder.

A number of the court house on lials were so surprised yesterday that their nerves were unstrung for several hours. Some twenty years ago, no one seeming to remember the exact date, Douglas county voted $250,000 of bonds to aid the Union Pacific railroad and the Missouri river bridge comoany in constructing a railroad and wagon bridge over the river at this point,

The bonds were for $1,000 each, payable in twenty years, and have been drawing interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. Since that time the county has always paid the interest and has reduced the debt by the payment of $92,000 of principal.
The officials have always supposed that the balance of the bonds will become due and payable January 1, 1892 and with that understanding, they intended as soon as the next levy is made to make some provision for taking up or refunding the bonds. They gathered their information regarding the bonds from the entry in the bond register. made twenty years ago. This entry states that these donds, describing them, will be due January 1, 1892.

Standing upon this record, County Treasurer Snyder a few days ago sent the July interest to Kountze Bros., New York, the holders of the bonds, and at once officially notified Auditor Evans that the interest had been paid. That gentleman felt satisfied, as he felt that he had a county debt off his hands for six months at least. This feeling of security and satisfaction was suddenly dispelled yesterday when a man from the First National bank walked into County Treasurer Snyder's office and coolly remarked, "Can you take up these and pay me $71,000?" Snyder thought it was a joke, and didn't propose to have any fooling, but soon discovered his error, as seventy-one $1,000 bonds, pavable July 1, 1891, were spread out before him. Thunderstruck, the man called Auditor Evans into the room, and a moment later they made a raid on County Clerk O'Malley to secure the bond register. This book shows that the bonds are due next January, but the bonds, on their face, carry

due. The trouble all comes about on account of the error upon the part of the county officials who registered the bonds twenty years ago. At the next meeting of the board some action will be taken to provide for the care of the paper, and no serious trouble is liable to arise, as the commissioners understand that Kountze brothers are auxious to refund the debt and carry it for ten to tweaty years the information that they are five days past due. The trouble all comes about on account

THE BEE FLYER.

It Travels at the Rate of Sixty Miles Per Hour.

THE OMAHA BEE, on Sunday, in the western, northwestern, and many places in the southwestern part of the state, reaches its readers from eight to twenty-four hours ahead of all its competitors. In fact, when the latter reach their destination they are like back numbers. They are not used for reading, but for wrapping and carpet padding purposes. In each of these respects they are quite valuable.

How is THE BEE able to so distance its competitors ! Because it has established a number of horse routes throughout the state!

Claimants Frend by Congress From Exactions of Shark Agents.

It is perfectly natural of course for the claim agents and pension sharks of Washington to try to hold timer business and to continue to exact exorpitant fees from parties who have claims of any kind against the national government, or who have applica-tions pending for pensions or patents.

Claimants have been swindled for years but there is no longer any excuse for their being subjected to the sharp and swindling

Parties who had contracts with claim or pension attorneys prior to the last congress are now at liberty to revoke such contracts and to renew their claims or applications through Tins Bin claim bureau, and thus secure prompt and proper attention at the minimum cost fixed by the law.

The list congress still appendicular capped.

The last congress old specifically cancel and annul all existing contracts between claimants and attorneys in the Indian Depredation Act of March 3, 1891. This is a fact which any one interested may read for himf by applying to the Examiner d The Bee bureau for a copy the law. Possibly the eminent constitutional lawyers and jurists in the senate and house of representatives should have and house of representatives should have consulted these obscure claim agents before passing the act which so seriously curtailed their Shviock propensities. But more reliance was placed upon the record decision of the United States supreme court, case of Mitchell vs. Clerk, reported in 110 United Statet Reports, page 651, wherein the highest tribunal in the land asserts: "No provision of the constitution prohibits congress from of the constitution prohibits congress from interfering with the validity of contracts." The second legal problem involved is that of revocation of powers of attorneys. When and under what circumstances can a claimant recall an existing power and employ another attorney! One of the attorneys quotes Judge Storey: "When an authority or

ceeds to argue that the retaining of an attor-ney on a contingent fee is equivalent to coupling the power with an interest.

This statement is absolutely false from a legal standpoint, but it is an assertion well calculated to mislead the ordinary reader. What is really meant by an "interest" is an interest or right in the thing itself. Thus, if an estate is conveyed to a trustee, with power to sell, this power cannot be revoked because the trustee has an interest in the estate itself; he holds the legal title on the power is coupled with an interest it is from its own nature and character, in contempla-tion of law irrevocable." And then he pro-property. Again, if the owner of a patent assigns one-tenth of it to a second party, and gives him a power of attorney in connection, said power of attorney cannot be revoked be-cause the assignce has an interest in the putent itself. But if a claimant gives a power of attorney to an agent to prosecute his claim on a contingent fee, this power is not coupled with an interest, and can be re-voked at the pleasure of the claimant.

When the agent agrees to work on a contingent fee he accepts as a very serious part of the "contingency" the possibility of having his power revoked. And a fee contingent on the successful prosecution of a claim can in no way be construed as an "interest" in the claim which would render a power of attorney irrevocable.

About one hundred delegates from the state are expected to be present and the total number expected will be about five The Baptist young people organized their first society on November 1, 1889, at Grand Island. From that small beginning the order spread throughout the state until now there are forty-five lodges. The state organization grew to be a national one and this is the first convention of the Baptist young people.

Delegates from Lincoln, Beatrice and Grand Island are going on another train as far as Red Oak at which place they will join the main party. Rev. C. Perren, Ph.D., of Chicago, will preside at the convention and the matter under discussion this afternoon will be the local and state organizations of Nebraska. An effort will be made to have the next convention held in Omaha.

DON'T THINK

That because it's July, and July is usually considered a dull month simply because it used to be dull when our granddaddies kept store, that we intend to "let up" for a minute. On the contrary, we intend to work harder, hustle faster, and make still greater efforts to keep our sales up to the top notch. Athough our stock is in better shape today than it ever was in July, still we find on looking around a number of odd lots; a few suits of one kind, a few of another, several broken lines of boys' suits; fifty shirts, all large sizes, and a lot of another sort, all small; a line of shoes all cleaned out but a few pairs; a line of hats all sold but one size, and so on.
