CHILI CONGRESSIONAL PARTY.

Correspondent at Iquique Says the Situation Has Been Grossly Misrepresented.

THAT PLACE BY NO MEANS DEMOLISHED.

Itata Incidents Occupy Public and Official Minds-Sentiment Against the Action of the United States Government.

New Youn, July 11 .- A correspondent at quique, Chili, date of June 13, writes as follows: The situation of the congressional party in Chili has been grossly misrepresented to the people of the United States through the medium of correspondents in the capital city of Santiago, also by those who have been traveling on the government transport Imperials that accompanies the torpedo cruisers Lynch and Condel. To a person visiting this port fully posted, as he Imagined, on affairs through the medium of dispatches published, nothing could be more striking than the scenes at the port of Iquique on June 10. Although expecting to find the town in ruins, I found there were scarcely any signs of the demolition. Certainly five blocks of buildings were burned through the persistent refusal of Balmaceda's officers to put the firemen to work to extinguish the flames. The unbiased Opinion of foreign residents is that the de struction of these buildings was the work of Cotonel Soto, and the attacking war ships had orders to in no wise use loaded shells that might cause unnecessary loss of life. In the attendant excitement there was a few charged projectiles fired, but beyond damages caused to the clock tower of the plaza and the breakage of the walls of a building, no other damages were caused by the war ships in the bay. The town is in excellent order, the municipal orders have restored all damages to property, and nearly all building sites of the burned streets are now occupied by either houses in course of re-erection or completed. The majority of the houses were of wood and plaster, and their reconstruction does not occupy any length of time.

The Itata incidents occupy the public and official minds. Public sentiment condemns in a marked measure the action of the United States government in the matter. It is con-ceded that the German captain of the Itata acted wrongfully in carrying off the United States deputy marshai, but for that offense the United States government should not have sought redress. Letaining the arms and ammunition at this critical period is deeply deplored by the leaders of the party. It was expected that with these munitions of war the daily increasing force of volunteer soldiers would have been armed and a move-ment made to the south to cast the die for victory or failure. But the determination of the congressional cabinet to deliver the Itata and in no wise offend the United States, has in a measure retarded the movements of the belligerent forces. The ultimate release of the Itata by forces. The ultimate release of the Itata by the United States government is earnestly hoped for, and in that hope there is no doubt that the belligerents have the sympathy of all foreigners throughout Chili.

The farcical bombardment of Iquique by The farcical bombardment of Iquique by the torpedo cruisers Lynch and Condel on June 9 is a fair example of the methods of parfare as conducted by Balmacedas' navaitorces. Throwing shells from a vessel seven miles from shore is simply a waste of good material and at that distance the alleged ruin of Iquique was accomplished. As soon as the corvette Abtao and the old Huascar were seen to be coming out of Iquique harbor the seen to be coming out of Iquique harbor the torpedo cruisers got under way, and, although superior modern vessels in every respect to the last named ship, they retreated south to attack the defenseless port of Tocopilla. There a force was landed and the customs and municipal documents destroyed, and after the crews had annoyed the residents the two cruisers went to Valparaiso. Telegraphic communication between Tocodilla and the north was cut off by the sailors from the cruiser. The commander of the that he had succeeded in bombarding Iquique and Tocopilla, and had so scared the officers of the congressional ships that they retreated nto port. He pronounced the fleet as use-less and badly disorganized. Beyond requir-ing docking there is not a single ship in the possession of the insurgents that cannot be depended upon. I can confidently state these facts from personal observation. The only purpose to be gained by the Balmaceda fac-tion of these untruthful reports is to impress foreign nations that he maintains supremacy over the insurgents. The revenues of the port of Iquique, amounting to $2,000,000 Doutbly, are in the hands of the congressional party. This sum is far in excess of any revenue that Balmaceda receives, and while the receipts continue there is no doubt that the congressional party will be able to procure sinews of war and maintain their sit-tiation.

The yarns told by various British ship masters as to their acts of self-sacrifice and protection granted to those who went on board their ships during the bombardment of Iquique are highly coiored. I find that with but few exceptions payment for services rendered—and a good round sum, too—was obtained from the unfortunates who were on the vessels. The crews, cooks and stewards of the vessels united in fleecing every one that they knew would stand the extortions. With regard to the present state of interne-cine strife, it is almost impossible to predict the time or manner of its termination. But looking in an impartial light upon the sub-lect it appears at this moment that the con-gressional party is far in the ascendant.

The communication of the J. B. Bruiller lock company of Kent, O., offering to locate its plant here was read, and the secretary instructed to ask the company to send a representative here to confer with the association. It was resolved to continue to advertise the city by distributing circulars, etc., as it was productive of good practical results. The treasurer's report for June showed the receipts to have been $1,079.83, expenditures $300.50, balance on hand $719.03.

Before adjourning it was resolved that a committee of three be empowered to act for the Real Estate Owners association in reference to securing the next republican national convention for the city of Omaha. To this end they are advised to comp with the party leaders throughout the coun-try and work with all other committees of offizens and organizations having this end in view. Messrs. Scott, E. A. THIRD WEEK OF THE GREAT CASH CLEARING SALE.

Still further reductions, and prices will go down till all the stock is disposed of that we do not wish to take into our new store. Never before have we made such sacrifices. The reductions we quote may seem extraordinary but they are real, and out of town friends may come to Omaha, and get all we promise them. We have had already a large out of town trade and they have confessed it has paid them well. On Monday we place on sale, 10 copies of the Encylopædia Brittanica, the outside covers badly damaged by water. These will be placed on sale Monday at 10c a copy. The price of the English edition is twenty-five pounds sterling; also a few copies in better order we will sell at 23c and 80c; and Encyclopædias in perfect order, at $1.18. Also, a lot of stationery at astonishing prices. In our Ladies' Underwear, department, what is left of our Ladies' Lisle Thread Vests, at 131-2c; they are the very best quality and worth 40c. In our Dress Goods department amongst the plums for this week, are the balance of our 35c Suitings reduced still further, namely, to 11c. This ought to close them out entirely. Some short lengths in Henriettas, Serges and Checks, all wool goods that sold at $1.00, this week 39c. A lot of 34-inch 50c check suitings at 20c. It only takes 3 yards to make a dress. 62 1-2c Camel's Hair Cheviots, at 39c. 78c Brilliantines at 48c. In our Silk Department, we offer what is left of our Colored Satins at 21c; they were 75c a yard. This is simply giving them away, and a few pieces of $1.00 India Silk at 50c, and some $1.00 Black Silks at 75c. In Shawl Department. A lot of $4.75 Henrietta Shawls, full size, in Cream. Pink and Blue, at $1.83. A lot of silk fringe Shawls, with embroidered corners, the price of these were $6.50, in this week's sale we place them at $2.00. A lot of Ladies' gold and silver capes, worth $7.00, will go at $3.00, and a lot of $8.00 Black Silk Surah Waists, will be let out at $5.00. A full line of Bathing Suits, will also be placed on sale. In Handkerchief Department some splendid bargains amongst a very beautiful lot of Silk Embroidered Handkerchiefs, at the astonishing price of 25c, they are 50c goods. In our Black Goods Department, a lot of Novelty Black Dress Goods, at 65c. The price of them is $1.25, and they are beautiful goods, and a lot of nun's Veiling and Serge, at 421-2c that were 65c and 75c. In Flannel Department a lot of plaid and striped flannel at 121/c, the price of these was 40c; this is the cheapest thing in the sale. And some astonishing bargains in all silk Sashes and Ribbons.

SILK DEPARTMENT.

The magnitude of our sale has reduced our stock very much and left us with some odd lots which we are fully determined to close out. To effect this we make still further reductions, some of which we quote below.

AGAINST PRISON LABOR.

Mr. Brennan Writes a Letter on Convict Labor at Lincoln.

To the Board of Public Lands and Buildings, Lincoln, Neb.: I notice in the Lincoln papers that the addition to the state penitentiary at Lincoln is being built by the prison contractor with convict labor, while house roll No. 519 as passed by the legislature provided that a large sum of money be appropriated for the erection of a cell house

by days labor. Now if that appropriation and house roll No. 597 appropriating another large sum of money for an addition to the public building at Beatrice means anything it is that the work should be done under the direction of your honorable body by honest, free labor at nonest free men's wages. Section 3, of house roll 147 as amended by myself

Sec. 3. That said building shall be erected by

Sec. 3. That said building shall be erected by day's work under the direction and supervision of the board of public lands and buildings, who are hereby authorized to employ such architects, superintendents, foremen and workmen as may be necessary.

I see no reason why your honorable body cannot and will not give the erection of the Beatrice house to Mr. Mosier, to be done by convicts as well as the penitentiary and pay convicts, as well as the penitentiary, and pay him for such convict labor the same price as is given honest, skilled stone and brick masons, plasterers and carpenters.

The reason that the legislature passed these bills was that the state might get good, well built buildings and no more such build-ings as the soldiers' home at Grand Island, that already has had to be braced, tied and roofed, and is now in a dangerous condition.

I confess that during the session of the legislature I could not see how Mr. Mosier and his gang of hired lobbyists would be repaid for the time and money spent in getting this appropriation passed, especially as his contract with the state compels him to build free of cost to the state a large number of cells in this building, but now if you are to allow him to put his convicts at work on these building and pay Mr. Mosier for them at the wages paid free labor, besides paying Mr. Mosier for the keeping of these convicts, I see clearly that Mosier, Dorgan & Co. were ot so terribly disinterested as they claimed

I therefore, together with all honest laborers, respectfully request that these buildings be built by the legislature. Yours respectfully, JAMES C. BRENNAN.

WILL BE A BIG ONE.

"Had you known anything about the inside political movements in the white house in 1864 you would have known that my letter to Lincoln, quoted in your defense, was written because of a suddenly developed effort in this state to divide the lines drawn by the bitter Cameron and Curtin factional war for and against Lincoln. The Cameron followers claimed to be the special supporters of Lincoln and attempted to drive Curtin and the administration into hostility to the president. My justly assumed devotion to Curtin was the protext for declaring me as either restrained in my support of Lincoln, or likely to be in opposition. The moment I saw the statement in print I wrote the letter you quote to dismiss from Lincoln's mind all ap-

Instead of seeking the truth, you flung your ignorance and egotism with estentatious indecessey upon the be-reaved household of the res, untombed Hamlin, and when brought to bay by those better informed than yourself, you resent in the tone and terms of a ward-heefer in the wharf-rat district battling for constabulary honors. The Jacksonian club met last night in a hall over 1216 Farnam street and took action with regard to appointing committee workers for each ward. "We are organized and in the field," said a prominent member of tae club, "and if the republicans do not get a move on themselves they will not know they are in the race this The Jacksonian club is a very cosmopolitan sort of organization. The membership fee is but $3, and all reputable, wide-awake democrats are admitted upon the payment of the initiation fee. The idea is to consolidate the rank and file of the democratic party in a systematic fight for democratic success in future elections. The club meets semi-monthly in the ball over 1216 Farnam street.

Summarily Disposed Of and and Dismissed." It is in part as follows:

false is your statement of only a minor truth about the action of the Pennsylvania delegation at Baltimore in 1864. You say Cameron cast the solid vote of the state for Hamlin, Had year desired to be truthful, you would have added that Cameron cast the solid vote of the delegation for John-son before the close of the first buildt.

Nicolay Has Another Inning. WASHINGTON, July 11.-Mr. Nicolay today printed a response to Colonel McClure's open letter of this morning. Mr. Nicolay says he does not propose to allow Mr. McClure to retreat in a cloud of vituperation from full conviction of having made a misstatement of history. He then sums up the points of evidence on the question in controversy. Mr. Mc-Clure's statement, in which he says that Mr. Lincoln instructed him (McClure) to oppose Hamlin's nomination is proved to be a misstatement by Lincoln's own written words, which he quotes as follows: "Wish not to after the interview with him he was as positive that Hannibal Hamlin was his favorite as that he was alive. The fact is further proven, says Nicolay, by the action of the Illinois delegation, which was a unit for Mr. Hamlin.

all opinion calculated to influence the Baltimore convention of 1864."

It is again proven to be a misstatement, says Nicolay, by the action of Simon Cam-eron, chairman of the Pennsylvania delegadelegation. delegation.

It is proven to be a misstatement, continues the letter, by Colonei McClure's own action in the Baltimore convention, when at the first vote for vice-president he voted for Hamlin for vice-president. If Colonei McClure did this willingly, says Nicolay, he betrayed Lincoln's alleged confidence and instructions. If he did it rewillingly he proved structions. If he did it unwillingly he proved himself a political cipher, a pretended agent to manipulate a national convention, who had not influence enough in his own delegation to control his own vote. The first roll call was decisive in showing Johnson's strength against the Pennsy!vania vote and it showed that McClure contributed nothing for
