OPENED WITH GREAT POMP,

Norfolk's Rugar Beet Factory Inspected by Thousands.

GRAND RECEPTION IN THE BUILDING.

All Nebraska Counties Well Represented and Much of the Adjacent States-Details of the Successful Entertainment.

Nonroug, Neb., Aug. 18.-|Special Telegram to fue Bee, |-Today was a red letter day for Norfolk, a day long to be remembered by her citizens, and to be recorded as one of the principal events in the history of the city. The occasion was the formal opening of the largest sugar factory in the world, Norfolk's pet enterprise. While the machinery is not in operation, and will not be for about thirty days, the general secretary of the institution, Hon. James G. Hamilton, took this time for entertaining his many friends and admirers throughout the state as well as all who are interested in the sugar beet industry in the west.

It was necessary to have the reception prior to the completion of the factory as he was desirous of using one of the large rooms of the building for reception purposes. Preparatory to this event Mr. Hamilton extended a general invitation through the columns of THE BEE as we I as through many other prominent papers of the state to all who were interested in the culture of sugar beets to meet with him at the factory today.

His invitation was promptly accepted by about four thousand of the leading agriculturalists and bulness men of the states of Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota. Committees were sent from various towns throughout northeastern Nebraska to investigate the raising of sugar beets and the magnitude of the factory and machinery which is necessary. All agreed that they had no idea of the magnitude of the plant and the amount of money it has taken to build it. Mr. Hamilton had previously engaged the Musical Union band of Omaha, under the leadership of Prof. Irone, which arrived on the 2 o'clock train and led the immense procession from Norfolk avenue directly to the factory, where everything was wide open. Visitors were permitted to examine all parts of the factory and machinery. At each part of interest wer stationed able instructors to explain to the throng the use of each piece of machinery. After passing through the factory they were all invited into the reception room, where the .chestra discoursed the most exquisite music and the old as well as the young, the lawyer, banker and horny handed farmer danced as they did forty years ago. This reception room being 116 by 130 feet, gave space for nearly one hundred couples.

On the ground floor Mr. Hamilton had a large dining hall prepared and in it was served a most sumptuous repast to the multitude. The hall was profusely decorated with stars and stripes, flowers and appropriate mottoes, such as "A Hearty Welcome,"

"Corn is King but Sugar is Queen," etc.
The crowd was cared for in a style that no one but Mr. Hamilton knows how, and everyone went away speaking only words of praise for Norfolk and the beet sugar indus-try and predicting many things for the city. Today work was commenced on the Norfolk electric railway.

Death Blow of the Boycott.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18 .- A stunning blow to the eyeott against the Alton railroad has been dealt by the Burlington. General Passenger Agent Eustis of the latter company today ent a communication to Vice Chairman F. C. Donald of the Central Traffic association otifying him as a member of the board of ruling that the Burlington would be compelled to break its agreement with the board o far as it relates to the Detroit, Lansing & Northern, the Chicago & West Michigan and the Chicago & Grand Trunk roads. Mr. Eustis claims to have discovered that all these roads have been ticketing passengers without reserve over the Alton, and for the protection of his company he must therefore esume the payment of commissions to comete with those lines. What the Burlington has done the other roads, it is declared, will be forced to do, and it is admitted, even by the representatives of the western lines, that the boycott has received a serious set-back, and possibly its death blow. Some of the nes in the Central Traffic association have been discouraged in observing the orders of the board. Some lines, in view of the run affairs have taken, will hasten to make their peace with the Alton road.

When the Burington consented to discontinue the powers of commissions in eastern territory it made certain conditions, which were accepted by the board of ruling. Among these was an agreement that eastern lines should pro rate with the western connections and bear their proportion of any reduced rates brought about by the boycott. The board has failed to carry out this part of the contract, several of the eastern lines refus-ing to pro rate the loss entailed by the cut rates west of Chicago. If these roads maintain this position a few days longer the Bur-lington will, it is reported, vacate its entire agreement with the board, and apparently the boycott will be at an end.

Camp Sherman Notes.

The work of starting off the national guard camp has been completed. Baggage rooms and quartermaster's building are already placed on the grounds and nearly all the wells are in, and the work is being rapidly advanced in all departments. Applications for quarters are already pouring in with increased rapidity. Four car loads of tents have already arrived from Chicago and the rest will come this week. A very conservative estimate places the average daily attendance at 50,000, comparing applications this year with appl cations and attendance last year.

Bands desiring to attend and take part in band contests should make application to Department Commander Teeter at Lincoln for transportation. Each band will be allowed to play pieces of their own selection, and the awarding committee will be selected from experienced musicians from localities having no band in the contest. All bands will be expected to be subject to detail for duty. Bands will be required to remain in camp until Friday evening. Ample quarters will be supplied all bands in attendance, and in a section of the camp set apart for bands.

An abundant supply of straw will be placed in each tent as pitched. This is in accord with action taken by the reunion company at a meeting held this evening. Senator Manderson writes: "I know this reunion will be a grand success," Thayer says: "I have never seen the like of the enthusiasm now manifested," The following is a list showing post appli cations for quarters up to last Sunday, and was submitted to the reunion company this evening to show the necessity of greatly enlarging the camp accommodations:

CHICAGO ISN'T READY.

Conditions Not Right for Organizing the Alliance There. CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE BEE, CHICAGO, Aug. 18,

Already the people's party in Chicago is arge enough to harbor disagreements. The local managers do not favor the announced attempt to establish branches of the citizen's national alliance and industrial union in this city. W. F. Rightmore, secretary of the alliance, will arrive from Kansas tomorrow for the purpose of rallying voters in each ward, and organizing societies. He will receive no assistance or encouragement from the resident leaders of the people's party, for the latter believe it is not time yet to begin work in the large cities. Samuel Leavitt, associate editor with Colonel S. F. Norton of the Sentinel, the party organ, said last evening: "In the country the people's party is growing tremendously, but from the very nature of things the same interest cannot be manifested by city people. The country must be saved not with the as-sistance of the large cities but in spite of them.

The grand finale of the exposition will be neld this fall under the auspices of the interstate exposition company in the old exposi-tion building on the lake front. There will be a concentrated effort to make this last the growning show of the nineteen that have been held annually in the big yellow building.

A great many of these men no doubt contemplated getting into the United States and no doubt many of them did get in.

Localities on the Mexican Coast Devastated by the Elements. San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 18.—The steamer Newbern, which arrived today from Mexican points, encountered a severe storm in the gulf of California and along the Mexican coast on August 7. The captain of the vessel was obliged to take up anchor and go to sea. The cruiser Democratia and steamer Altala also put to sea and anchored off the Velando Islands. The Pacific mail steamship Colima was compelled to lay off and on until morning. At San Jose del Cado, in lower California, the full effect of the storm was seen. several days the storm lasted and in the meantime hundreds had been rendered home-less, two persons killed and a number—badly niured. On the morning of the third day he rain ceased and the water in the street began to recede. The scene presented was one of desolation and ruin. Men, women and children were found huddled together, and every small house in the town was found to be destroyed, with but few exceptions. Many cattle were killed at Magdalena bay. and a number of small craft were blown ashore and damaged. Westerners in New York. NEW YORK, Aug. 18.-[Special to THE BEE.]-Mr. C. W. Barringer and wife of Huron, S. D., are at the Astor house. Mr. S. P. Hurt of McMahon, Ia., is at the

Washington Officials Still Considering Omaha's Public Building Designs,

INFLUENCE OF PERSONAL FEELING

Suggestions Concerning the Appearance of the Projected Structure Might Otherwise Be Received By the Supervising Architect.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BRE, 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 18. This afternoon at 5:30 o'clock Assistant Secretary Crounse and Secretary Foster had long conference in reference to public oulding matters. But the Omana building was not discussed. Mr. Crounse will confer with the secretary in reference to that subject tomorrow morning.

The secretary has not yet had the plans formally presented to him but when they reach him he is likely to promptly attach his signature as he will want to stand by the supervising architect in his first great effort. If Mr. Edbrooke had made a great many plans there might be some prospect of inducing the secretary to listen to suggestions for changes, but Mr. Edbrooke's first one of any account is for Omaha and he would feel hurt if his designs were "turned down" for this season and it is likely that Tun Bee's suggestion for a cross will not be taken up.
