NO NO CONFIRMATION CAME.

City Council Takes Another Whack at Voting for Furay's Successor.

GIBBON AND FURAY PUT ON FILE.

Questions of Lighting and City Hall Furniture Given a Few Brief Moments—Then the Fireworks.

The council held a special meeting last evening and Major Furay is still a member of the Board of Public Works. He is simply a member, however, despite the exertions of seven republicans and President Lowry, who did their level best to confirm his appointment by the mayor, but eight democrats and Mr. Bruner outvoted them, and the appointment was finally placed on file along with that of W. A. L. Gibbon. According to the president, a new appointment of Mr. Gibbon will now be forthcoming, and when it does come—well, uncertain things are especially doubtful in these anti-election days.

Seventeen members were in their seats when President Lowry rapped the special session to order to take another whack at the electric light question and the matter of furnishing new furniture and fixtures for the city hall.

At the start Mr. Elsassor was imbued with the idea that there was $50,000 on hand to pay for street lighting, but Mr. Davis informed him that only $8,000 was available for establishing new lights this year.

Mr. Chaffee declared that the city was too straggling toward the outlying portions. The residents of the suburbs ought at least to get a light.

He moved that the location of new electric lights in place of the old gasoline lights be left to the gas inspector, and the motion prevailed.

The committee on public buildings and property sent in the following tabulated report on bids for supplying new furniture for the city hall:

Ketchum Furniture company, Toledo, $34,731.50; A. H. Andrews & Co., Chicago, $37,287.25; Conant Bros. Furniture company, Toledo, $11,072.50; John F. Coats, Omaha, $25.70.

Mr. Davis thought the bids had not been correctly opened nor had the committee done its work right, as there was so much difference between the highest and lowest bidder. Mr. Osthoff insisted that all was right, but explained that the Conant company had not planned for the entire building. He said that the furniture would be seen before the contract was let.

confer with the county commissioners reported that the county officials would pay $4,143, or one-half of the cost of eighty-two election booths, the city and school district to pay each one-fourth. The report was adopted after the council had individually and collectively expressed their confidence in the commissioners to do the square thing when it was found that it would be necessary to purchase eighty-eight booths instead of eighty-two.

Mr. Davis denied that the iron booths constructed for by the council were incomplete as had been published. Mr. Osthoff gave it out as his four-ply opinion that the report was a newspaper fake, and Mr. Speech said that there were some shows to each booth and they were complete in every detail.

Mr. Donnelly reported that the committee to whom was referred the mayor's appointment of W. A. L. Gibbon and Major Furay as members of the Board of Public Works was unable to make any report owing to unsettled points of law.

It was moved to place the appointments on file, but Mr. Morearty wanted them sent back to the mayor.

Mr. Chaffee raised the point of order that Major Furay had been confirmed, and could not be removed by the council, or mayor unless charges were preferred, but President Lowry couldn't see it that way.

Mr. Gibbon's appointment was placed on file. Mr. Davis moved to confirm the appointment of Major Furay, and the motion was seconded by Morearty and Elsassor, just as the council was about to vote.

On the call of ayes and nays both voted against it, however, and the confirmation was made under the name of Mr. Gibbon. Mr. Chaffee, Davis and Bechel changed their votes before the announcement was made, so as to be entitled to move a reconsideration, which they did in short order.

NAMED ITS COUNTY TICKET.

Independent People's Party Has Its Champions in the Field.

ORATORY INDULGED IN AT THE MEETING.

Many Speakers Express Their Views Before the Convention—How the Ticket Was Finally Made Up.

Clerk of the District Court.....H. E. EASTON
County Clerk.....J. C. DEEVER
County Judge.....H. R. B. WELLS
County Treasurer.....J. H. LAMAR
County Surveyor.....EDWARD KNIGHT
County Commissioner.....DR. C. W. CRAM
State Senator.....J. A. HERRIN
State Senator.....G. W. KING

The independent county convention met yesterday afternoon in Gate City hall for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of county treasurer, county clerk, sheriff, coroner, superintendent of public instruction, county commissioner, county surveyor and clerk of the district court.

Long before the hour appointed for the convention to begin, its work the halls and stairways leading to Gate City hall were lined with prominent independent workers. John Jeffcoat, chairman of the county central committee, was there with the usual supply of earnestness and convincing argument.

Dr. Cram walked up the stairs under a new silk hat and began, declaring that he would not be a candidate for coroner, but his friends declared that he was altogether too modest.

Mr. Cram walked up the stairs under a new silk hat and began, declaring that he would not be a candidate for coroner, but his friends declared that he was altogether too modest.

It was generally conceded that the county precincts would be permitted to select the candidate for county commissioner.

Mr. J. Norton and wife and Mr. E. M. Norton of Cedar Rapids are at the Sturtevant house.

Manufacturers Will Meet.
A meeting of the manufacturers of Omaha, to be held at the Board of Trade rooms Monday, September 21, at 10 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of discussing matters of importance to the manufacturers of this city.

WESTERNERS IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)—Mrs. J. J. Bliss of Omaha, who is here buying millinery and notions, is at the St. Stephen.

SUSPECTED OF BURGLARY.

"Sleepy" Huggert is under arrest for burglary. He is suspected of being the party who burglarized Storz & Her's bottling works in the north part of the city some time ago. The prisoner has been arrested several times heretofore, but has always managed to escape conviction.

HE WILL SIGN CHECKS.

Detectives Savage and Dempsey gathered their old friend and regular customer, Thomas Johnson, into the fold again yesterday afternoon.

Johnson has been absent for about six months, but immediately upon his arrival

ROOSTING THE RAILROADS.

Then touching upon the state board of transportation Mr. Root said: "Those men on that board remind me of three old setting hens with no eggs. Look at the antics they have cut before the people of Nebraska. They have made consummate asses of themselves. The independent party wants nothing to do with them, only to sit on them good and hard."

The speaker then rambled along over a variety of subjects, declaring that all the railroads and telegraph wires should be owned by the government. He said that while the superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio road got $20,000 a year, the engineers who handled the trains got but $1,500, and yet the engineers were of vastly more importance to the public than the superintendent.

"If all the railroad presidents in the United States should die tonight," said the speaker, "the consequences would simply be a lot of funerals, and the roads would move on just the same; but if the engineers should all die every train would stop at once and stand there until competent men could be found to man the engines."

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS.

The committee on credentials came in at that moment and the flow of oratory was shut off.

Mr. Hubbard from Waterloo made a vigorous kick for a more liberal recognition of the county precincts. Delegates from the county precincts were given the power to cast the full vote of all the delegates from the county.

James Kinney offered a resolution intended to cut off all effort at fusion with the two old parties in making the nominations. The resolution was adopted by a large vote.

Mr. V. O. Strickler was also proposed in opposition to the resolution, saying that it was a trick and a gag and should be kicked out of the hall. The resolution was indignantly defeated.

JUST A TIPPLE.

A committee on resolutions consisting of Deaver, Brigham, Jeffcoat, Root and Hubbard was appointed.

And then the elephant broke loose. Some of the delegates wanted to hear from the committee on resolutions before any nominations were made. Mr. T. B. Minihan made a ringing speech in which he claimed that there was no need of having anything to do with the old parties. They should be utterly ignored.

Mr. Strickler said: "I would like to ask

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican County Central Committee.

CLEAN MAN FOR THE SUPREME BENCH.

Some Slight Opposition to the Adoption Easily Adjusted—Delegates to Be Chosen by Ward Committees.

The republican county central committee met at the Millard hotel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Chairman M. P. O'Brien, Secretary M. Keiffeld, and twenty-eight members of the committee present.

The county representation of sixty-three delegates was divided as follows: Omaha, forty-five, divided evenly between the nine wards; South Omaha 5, to be selected one from each ward and one at large, and the remaining thirteen to be divided among the three city wards.

The following resolution was introduced by Mr. J. W. Carr and it was very favorably received:

Resolved, That we denounce all interference with the free and independent election of the judges of the supreme court; and

Resolved, That we are opposed to all suggestions of fusion with the democratic party, and believe with clean, untrammeled candidates and a candid platform of principles we shall carry the state for the republican party and make assurance of republican victory in 1892 doubly sure.

The resolution brought Mr. Southworth to his feet with a protest against its adoption. He was proud that he worked for a corporation, and kicked because it had been frequently charged with doing political work in corporate behalf. He declared that his company had never been mixed up in any political lobbying. He was positive that the resolutions were drawn in favor of a certain candidate, and he was opposed to them for that reason.

Mr. Van Dorn argued that inasmuch as the committee was to appoint the delegates to the state convention, and therefore do away with a county convention to be held for that purpose, the resolutions were properly in place before the county central committee.

Mr. Southworth pursued the resolutions again and said that he found only two or three lines objectionable and wanted the following clause stricken out: "and whose past career is the best proof of his absolute freedom from taint or suggestion of bias in favor of corporate interests."
