Marshal Templeton surprised his three deputies, Barbyte, White and Fowler last evening by taking each one, in the presence of the bystanders about the office, and reliev-ing him of his star. The three deputies were thunderstruck, as they were all con-scious of having behaved themselves even better than usual. They forked over the stars, however, and were agreeably surprised at receiving in return magnificent silver badges with gold stars in the center, and with the initials of each one handsomely engraved in a monogram on the stars. The badges were ordered during the marshal's recent visit to New York, and will be highly prized by the men.

NEW COMPLICATIONS OF YESTERDAY

Case to Set Aside the Assignment Put Over-Household Goods Attached-Humors of More Mortgages,

The case commenced several days ago by the members of the Kimbail-Champ Investment company to have the assignment of the company set aside was brought up before Judge Macy yesterday for a hearing. The defendants thought it would take a month to get their evidence together, but after some very warm arguments had been made a week from next Monday was set as the time when the case will be tried. Judge Macy also made an order restraining Assignce Robrer from in any way disposing of the goods of the firm, and allowing C. C. Towle, the secretary of the corporation, to have tree access to the

The household goods belonging to Kimbal & Champ, which were overhauled by a deputy marshal a day or two ago after they had been packed in a freight car at the Ninth street Union Pacific depot on their way to San Francisco, to satisfy a claim of John Sullivan, were re-attached yesterday by a deputy sheriff on a writ issued from the district court in favor of the Omaha National bank for $17,000. All the property was turned over to the bank with the understanding that Sullivan's claim should be protected. It has transpired within the last few days that both Kimball and Champ have taken

List. Musical Courier: "Hecho expresamento para el Senor General Antonio Ezeta, vice presidente de la republica de San Salvador." This inscription is illuminated on the iron plate of a semigrand piano which has been exciting considerable attention among musical people during its recent exhibition in the handsome warerooms in the Hardman building. Translated it reads: "Made expressly for General Antonio Ezeta, vice president of the republic of San Salvador," and it means that another monor has ofallen on the firm of Hardman, Peck & Co. in having their grand selected from among all others by a person of position and distinction. The piano itself is a perfect gem, a mahogany semi-grand of the same scale, in reduced form, as that concert grand which caused so much sensation in piano and musical circles when played at the Carnegie music hall last season. The case particularly handsome, made of selected wood and emblazoned with the coat of arms of the republic of San Salvador on the fall board, with the name of General Ezeta in the cen-Special care has been taken in its interior construction, every detail has been looked after, the tone is rich, sonorous and musical, the action all that can be desired, and, taken all in all, it is an instrument of which not only Messrs. Among the notables who have patronized the firm and who have been supplied with Hardman pianos, we may again mention this list:

Her majesty the queen of England. H. R. H. the prince of Wates. Her grace the duchess of Fife, Her grace the duchess of Montrose

His grace the duke of Richmond and Gen. Antonio Ezeta, vice president of San Salvador.

Surely this is a collection of names of which any firm might well be proud, and the end is not yet, for we are informed that some important additions to it will be made before long, The popularity of the Hardman pianos in Great Britain can be gauged by the success that the European representatives of the house have had in securing the support of the nobility to the extent indicated above as well as the words of high praise that it has elicited from musicians and musical people in general, Not long ago Emil Bach, court planist to the emperor of Germany, played upon a Hardman grand in concert and was outspoken in his admiration of the instrument, writing to Mr. Adlington, chief of the Hardman men in Europe, a letter of endorsement, which we are promised soon for publication. In addition to the stores in Aberdeen and Glasgow, Scotland, there is always a stock of Hardmans to be found in the tremendous warerooms of Messrs. Cramer & Cramer in London, and many smaller concerns throughout England number the Hardman among their lists. Their representative, Mr. Frederick Throwing Bricks in His Path.

The saloon injunction cases, in which I M. Turner is the plaintiff, are to come up for a hearing in the district court tomorrow, G. F. Boulton having entered his appearance in Turner's behalf. Yesterday Mary Scott, who is a defendant in one of the cases, by her attorney, Frank Trim-ble, filed a motion asking that Boulton be required by the court to show up whatever authority he might have from Turner to act as his attorney. Accompanying the motion was an affidavit stating that the defendant believed that Boulton was an usurper and had no authority whatever to try the case. Turner skipped the country months ago and ras snown no disposition to come back and face the music.

Attorney Trimble states that he is prepared to prove that several suits that were commenced by Turner were settled on the payment of $80 odd dollars into the hands of the attorney who took charge of the cases. The same charge is made freely against Boulton in connection with the cases of the same kind which he has prosecuted in past, and when the war comes to a head it is likely there will be fun by the car load for the disinterested public.

They are charged with having stolen

John Thomas, a relative of one of the boys, arrived in the last evening and wanted to take the boys home with him at once, but as they were slated with being fugitives from justice, and as justice, in the person of Judge McGee, was out of the city, the proper arrangements could not be made. The boys will probably be taken home today.

Morningside. Morningside is an addition of about fifty acres. Twelve acres are in public parks. There are 164 lots. This makes a trifle over 3 lots to the acre when most additions are platted from 5 to 7 lots to the acre. About 70 lots have already been sold, which leaves less than 100 lots in the addition. One hundred lots are a goodly number to choose from. Yes, but they are going, and if you see a site that suits you and think you can buy it later on you are liable to want it when you can't get it. You can buy cheaper now than you can next year, when improvements are more nearly completed. Notwithstanding times have been hard, lots are selling in Morningside, and the great number of inquiries bespeak a large number of sales this fall. Times are getting better, and everybody is looking for a general and widespread boom. Property will advance in all good to Nearly every lot that has been sold in Morningside has been to parties who wanted it for a home. The streets are ordered paved and in another year the whole addition will be a beautiful

We cannot publish the fact too often, that this addition was only platted last year, and that all improvements have been made since then. The grading is not completed, but is being done as lly as possible. The land to be cleared and grubbed and the streets laid out, and from what has been done in the first year you can judge what another year will do for the place. The park commissioners are new improving Graham and Cook parks. These will make two as pretty parks as there are in this part of the country. One has eight acres and one four. They are not large enough to become resorts for people of questionable character, being re-moved from the center of the city. They will always be beautiful natural parks, where neighboring children can play with perfect safety, and away from the evil associations of city streets and alleys. Some of the lovliest views seen to be seen anywhere, are to be had from the elevated sites in Morningside. When driving through the ad dition go up by the water works tower and see the beautiful view of Omaha. From the tower of the McGee house the view is unsurpassed. We will not at tempt to describe it. You are welcome to look at it, and invited to do so when in the addition.

Not all the pretty building sites of the addition, however, are on the hill tops. Some of the lots facing Graham and Cook parks in the shady glens are ideal spots for homes. When you visit the addition we may not be able to see you. If you will call at the house of H. E. Gould, corner Morningside avenue and Judd street you will be shown the addition, or i you will call at the office of Cooper & McGee, at 16 Main street, they will gladly show you the addition. And if you don't want to buy don't think you are not welcome to visit the addition and have it shown to you. We like to have everybody see it, because everybody likes it and talks of it.

Council's Cut Doesn't Go. The County Board of Supervisors dis cussed the matter of the reduction of the taxes made by the city council last spring for the Union Pacific Railway company Attorney General Stone and County Attorney Organ were present as counsel, and their adulce to the board was that they leave the state assessment where it was at first After considerable discussion it was decided not to concur in the reduction made by the council. This reduction, it will be remem bered, was made by the council last spring from $805,000 to $435,000 on the 1889 taxes and another large cut on the taxes of 1890. The county attorney was also called in fo

It seems some of the notes made by former engineers are in the hands of L. P. Judson, who refuses to let any one else have them. Some of the supervisors were in favor o ejecting Judson to the office, so as to get or the good side of him, especially considering that the emoluments of the office were by no means burdensome, but F. Stimson was finally elected by a vote of four to one, and problem with him will now be to get hold of those records. Still in Sight.

County Clerk's Side of It. County Clerk Campbell was seen Fri day in regard to the trouble between him and Bailiff McFadden over the reduction of salary recenty made by the Board of Supervisors

"I brought the question before Judge Deemer and Judge Smith at the close of the last term of court, and them that if either of would make an order to that effect, I would pay McFadden during his vacation, but I would not co it without any authority of that sort. I knew that it had been the custom of my predecessor in office to pay the head baliff during vacation the same as the head bailff during vacation the same as at any other time, but I also knew that there could be no reason for paying a court officer when there was no court. Neither of the judges would make the order, so McFadden didn't get his pay. McFadden was there when I brought the matter up, and he know just as well as I did why I refused to pay him the money that he didn't earn."

Good Morning-side,

Victim of a Mistake, One of the parties who was arrested on Friday night on the suspicion that he belonged to a gang of alleged pickpockets called at this office last evening and made a statement to the effect that his arrest was thoroughly unjustifiable, and that in spite of the fact that he had papers and letters on his person showing that he was apparently a hardworking and respectable man, no atten tion was paid to his request for an attorney, and he was treated as though he had com-mitted a crime. Two of the officers made a claim that the party in question had been ar-rested by them twice within the past three years, which claim they failed to prove. The judge discharged the prisoner.

CUTTING AND SLASHING RATES

Fears That Another War Will Be Inaugur" ated in the East.

FREIGHT AGENTS BECOMING UNEASY.

The Alton a Thorn in the Side of the Central Traffic Association-Sensitive Railroad Officials-The World on Wheels.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 12.-Rumors of cut rates from Unicago to eastern points were flying in flocks today. In addition to the 5cent cut on provisions and the absorption of the leing charges on dressed beef shipments, which came to light yesterday, it is now claimed that the rate on oats has been secretly reduced 3 cents per 100 bounds by at least one of the lines in the Central Traffic association. Furthermore, it is claimed that this line is the Nickel Plate, and that the reduced rate applies via the Lackawanna and the Lehigh Valley. Whether these charges can be substantiated or not remains to be seen. General freight agents are more or less uneasy, but hope that by prompt measures a serious demoralization of rates may be averted. Strange and unaccountable as it may seem, there are certain roads which, after maintaining rates through the dull period of the year, almost invariably begin slashing the moment they are assured more traffic than they can handle at full Home Visitors Excursion.

Some of the lines in the Central Traffic association interested in the home visitors' excursion to Michigan, Ohio and Indiana points, hope that the western roads will yet be brought to join them in making reduced rates September 22. Although they have boycotted the Alton they expect that road to come to their relief. The Wabash will make reduced rates from St. Louis, and they think the Alton will meet its competition to Chicago from St. Louis and Kansas City, in which event the other lines would undoubtedly follow suit.

To Avoid a Car Famine.

The westerns roads are considering an agreement which, if adopted, will probably prevent a blockade by cutting down the time for holding loaded cars at one point from six days to forty-eight hours. In case they are not disposed of in that time it will be the duty of some authorized agent to seize and unload them. This applies only to grain. By so doing it is hoped to avoid a car famine. The Atchison has already—given notice—that on Monday next it will begin storing delayed grain at Kansas City, and that, too, at owner's expense, provided the property is delayed more than forty-eight hours.

Statement of Blind Freight Pool. The August statement of the Southwestern blind freight pool shows that the total ton-nage, east and westbound, between south and western Misso uri river points and the eastern boundary of the Western Freight association was 248,569 tons, against a tonnage of 157,665 for July and 220,604 for August last year. The percentages were as follows: Atchison, 2,374; Alton, 1,472; Burlington, 1,472; St. Paul, 715; Rock Island, 948; Maple Leaf, 1,918; Ft. Scott, 547; Wabash, 590; Missouri Pacific, 964. The revenue derived from this traffic in August was $500,-676 against $304,001 for July and $701,004 for August, 1890.

In the Hands of a Receiver. Dallas, Tex., Sept. 12.—United States District Judge McCormick today ruled upon the application for the possession the Texas Trunk railroad, presented by Charles Dil-lingham, that Sheriff Lewis and James Maroney would have to turn the road over to Dillingham. The order dispossesses the re-ceiver, Maroney, recently appointed by Judge Burke of the state court and Sheriff Lewis, who holds the road on writs of at-tachment. This is a victory for Judge Pardee in appointing Dillingham as receiver. Notice of appeal was given.

Attached the Money. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Counsel for Joseph A. Davidson obtained an attachment against the Mexican National Railroad company upon a claim for $105,900. The company has $70,000 in either the City National bank or the Western National bank. As there may be deposits in other banks the sheriff served notice of attachment on all in the city.

Commenced a Libel Suit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.-The Ohio & Mississippi Railway company begun suit against newspapers here to recover $100,000 damage: for the publication of an article to the effect that the company is deep in the mud, owing to incompetent management.

Commissioners Investigating the Peccadilloes of the Coppers. At the meeting of the Fire and Police Commissioners last evening, the case against Officer Vance Fields, charged with assaulting Judge Doane's son, was to have been tried. Owing to the officer's illness the hearing was continued for one week.

Charges were preferred against Officer Cliff Rouser for being absent five days without leave. The officer pleaded guilty to the out leave. The officer pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined three days' pay. Charges against Officers White and Von Mugge were fled by J. W. Harrls. The complainant charges Von Mugge with intoxcation and refusing to render assistance to Frank Harris on the night of August 7, when assaulted by a gang of printers. Harris also alleges that he desired to go to the police station to file a complaint, and that Von Murge charged him with being drunk and disorderly and placed him under arrest. The next day in police court the city prosecutor refused to file the complaint of the officer against Harris. The case will be heard next Saturday evening.

Southern Farmers' Alliances Ready for a Third Party. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 12.-Colonel Polk, president of the National farmers' all'ance, in company with Frank McGrath, the Kansas president, returned from Holton last night. President Polk this morning talked freely of the political situation. "If the southern people are driven into the people's party," he said, "no power on earth can prevent them from carrying every southern state. But the question is, will they be driven into the third party f" "Four months ago," answered Colonel Polk, "I would have said that a new political party was not likely to follow. It now seems impossible to prevent it. The alliance with us is in such a condition that it can be changed in one day into a political party. It was organized as a non-partisan institution and has been conducted as such. We don't look for any more concessions from the demo-crats than from the republicans."

"Will the supreme council, which meets in Washington in February, declare for a third "That I cannot tell, but a third party seems to be inevitable, and in the south our organ-izations are prepared for it. The south is a unit on the sub-treasury plan. Whether the supreme council in rebruary decides that a third party must be placed in the field or not, it will be a go anyhow, and it will recieve thousands of votes in the south. The democrats have it in their power to stop the movement by acceding to the St. Louis demands. Nothing short of that will avail and if it is not done the south is lost to them."

Mr. Hallam made only a fair Valentine, his acting being a particular drawback, although ie sang the role splendidly. Mr John Brand was out of his element as the Duc Des Ifs, and showed little knowledge of the part.

The Cogulelicot of Mr. Drew was not up to
