After traveling dearly 600 miles, spending nearly a week of time and going through a mile and a half of red tape, Marshal Templethrough a ton succeeded yesterday morning in getting requisition papers for George Smith, the darkey who has been in the Omaha city jail on the charge of criminal assault. In two hours after the papers were obtained Smith had been transferred to this side of the river. and will have a hearing in police court this morning.

Answers were filed in the district court yesterday in the suits which were brought by the state of lowa to compel the Milwaukee to build depots at Westfield. Piymouth county, Cylinder and Bouton, Dallas county, and to maintain depot and side track facili-ties in Keokuk county. In the answers it is alleged that the commissioners had no au-thority to issue the orders which were disobeyed by the company, and that the requirements would be too great a hardship on the company, in comparison with the banefits derived from them.

An announcement was made vesterday that Governor Boies would address the democrats of this city at the Masonic temple tomerrow evening. Since then it has been learned that suitable arrangements cannot be made and the governor will therefore have to be contented with holding an informal reception in the parlors of the Grand hotel between 7 and 8 o'clock p. m. He will then be driven to the opera house, where a box has been engaged for bim at the testimonial concert to be tendered Frank V. Badollet. He will be accompanied by those representatives of the democratic county central committee, members of the Tariff Reform club who happen to be Saloon Injunction Cases Again Revived With the Usual Result.

JUDGE MACY'S CHAPTER ON THE SUBJECT.

Emphatically Announced That He Would Permit No Foolishness in His Court at the Expense of Iowa Law.

The. L. M. Turner saloon injunction cases were called up in the district court yesterday morning by G. W. Boulton, who has kindly volunteered to prosecute them in the absence of Seebrook, under whose management they were commenced. He asked the court to dismiss all the suits as to the city officials, in accordance with an agreement which he had signed with the attorneys for the officials. His reason for this move, he said, was that the temporary injunctions that had been granted by the court did not seem to have done any good so far as preventing the officials from collecting fine money from the saconkeepers was concerned.

Judge Macy read a chapter from his own ode of morality in response to Mr. Boulton's speech that showed plainly what would be the result of any attempt at tampering with the mills of justice. He said that if the state of Iowa could not enforce its own laws, an of lowa could not enforce its own laws, an investigation would be in order to find out reason why. If this prosecution was com-menced in good faith and was to be prose-cuted in the same manner, well and good; but if he saw any signs that the prosecution was being made for the purpose of increasing somebody's private resources, he would wipe out all the cases from the coloridat the out all the cases from the calendar. He finally passed all the cases on his own motion into the next assignment, which disposes of them for several weeks, and possibly forever.

NOTHING IN IT. Bellamy's Co-operative Plan a Failure at Decatur.

A dispatch to the Chicago Tribune from Decatur, Ill., says: The Bellamy idea of the co-operative boarding house, which was established with great eclat in Decatur at "the Roby" in April, 1889, winked out today when the executive board of which Frank W. Anderson 48 president, and Mrs. Mary W. French is secretary, met and voted to discontinue the institution. Immediately the affairs of the association were closed up and 'the Roby'' became a regular boarding house. The co-operative house started with fifty-two boarders ever two years ago, each paying $3 a week, the weekly re-ceipts bing $156 for quite a while. During the first summer, when people went away on outing journeys, the number of boarders fell off, and later the regulars became less until the executive board had to raise the rate per week to $3.50, which was the price up to the closing of the institution. The number of boarders the last two weeks has been thirty to forty, only twenty-five steady board-

Blair was arrested last Sunday for drunkenness. After he was sobered off some-what he was released on putting enness. After he was sobered off some-what he was released on putting up $15 for his appearance in police court yesterday morning. He failed to show up and the money was de-clared forfeited. He registered at the police station as Robert O. Logan, and when he left he signed that name to the receipt for his ef-fects. In his pocket he had some letters which were addressed to R. O. Logan, and he aiso had a knife bearing the name J. S. Blair. Some of his papers would indicate Blair. Some of his papers would indicate that he has been acting as agent for the in-surance company of E. W. Peet & Co. of Minneapolis. He was slated with being a fugitive from justice.

Looking for Burglars.

Marshal A. H. Lawshe of Red Oak was in the city yesterday on his way home from Grand Island, where he had been looking for three fellows who are wanted at Red Oak for burglary. The crime was committed on the night of August 26, the jewelry and clothing store of Manbeck & Hutchins being entered and robbed of about $250 worth of goods. Five men were captured and taken before the grand jury, and two of them were in-dicted September 8. The other three were released, as the marshal thought there was not sufficient evidence to convict him. The two who are still in jail have "peached" during their confinement, and from them the mar-shal learned that there comrades were to be in Grand Island some time before yesterday in Grand Island some time before yesterday. He also learned that all five were implicated in the burglary. He remained around Grand Island for several days, but was unable to get any track of his men. Yesterday, with the assistance of some of the local police, he made the rounds of several suspected quarters in this city, but without success. He left for home last evening.

Verdict of the Jury.

Coroner Waterman empaneiled a jury yesterday morning consisting of Elins Sears, J. A. Craft and C. E. Stone, and held an inquest over the remains of Ed Stegall, the MEDICAL tent that without consulting the entire association they voted abandon the plan. Nearly all of the patrons of the co-operative house have been wealthy people who are well able to keep up their own establishments, but as a matter of choice and to get rid of the "help nuisance," as they term it, they were instrumental in getting Mrs. Guyton to try the Bellamy olan. Mrs. Guyton declares that there has been no collapse of the plan in Deca-tur. It is simply "a lack of nerve," she says. "And yet," she added, "the boarders who will now pay $4 and $5 a week will get better board, and it will
