Discount Rates Hardened Materially During the Past Week.

RESTRICTED TO OUTSIDE MARKETS.

New South Wales Loan Not Unqualifiedly Successful -Much Difficulty Experienced in Placing the Large Amount.

London, Sept. 20 .- Discount rates hardened during the past week, being quoted at 214 per cent for three months. The demand for gold continues for Germany and New York, and the drain is regarded with much uneasiness, as some check upon the withdrawal of bullion for the United States has been placed by the Bank of England, which has raised the selling price of eagles to 76s 9d per ounce. The demand has been mainly restricted to the outside market, but the fact that £240,000 was drawn from the Bank of England for New York yesterday is held to preclude a further rapid outflow. A rise in preclude a further rapid outflow. A rise in the bank rate is therefore within prospect.

The New South Wales loan of £4,500,000 was issued on Thursday. Over £4,000,000 was taken at 95 per cent and a syndicate afterward took up the balance. The qualified success of the loan will discourage colonial issues. The stock exchange is now doing a splendid business, the transactions of the past week being the largest reported for some time past. As usual the energy of the American department yitalized the other the American department vitalized the other departments making affairs lively throughout the house. Croakers about a reaction after the recent rapid advance were disappointed. The markets generally will re quire some time to adjust themselves to the new level of values, but during the present period of advance every sign of a relapse has been met by fresh buying, which has sus-

The animation in American railway securities has shown no symptom of lessening. The volume of dealings during the week was immense on both home and New York or-ders. Prices opened rather low yesterday. but active buying was resumed when the amount of gold going to New York became known. It is reasoned that the flow of gold to the United States in payment of wheat imports will heighten the tendency to speculation and otherwise give an impetus to Wall street dealings.

The week's variations in prices of Ameri-

Strange to say, no damage resulted. Hugh Lyon, a farmer living five miles from Unadilla, was bitten by a rattlesnake, but his life was saved by prompt medical attendance. The Grand Island Times has been closed on a chattel mortgare. Bion Cole, its editor, claims to have sunk $2,800 in the enterprise. A man calling himself "Rev. C. H. Scott" went from Friend to Palmyra as a candidate for the pastorate of the Baptist church. He preached several sermons and created a favorable impression. He borrowed of Mr. H. O. McCart about $86 worth of magic lantern slides for the purpose of illustrating a lecture which he proposed giving. He disappeared shortly afterwards, taking the slides with him. Part of them were found to have been left as security for a hotel bill at Grand Island and the balance were recovered from the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association in that city.

Miss Estella Wisner, living in McPherson county, had a narrow escape from drowning in the Dismal lust week. Wishing to cross the stream to get some plums she mounted a horse and started to ford the stream, making the trip in safety until the north bank was reached, where, the bank being steep and slippery, the horse missed his footing and fell upon her, both lying in the water. The horse struggled to his feet and made a mad rush for the bank again, she clinging to him, her foot having become fastened in the stir-rup, when he sgain slipped and fell with her in the water in the same position as before. Her brother, E. E. Wisner, had reached her by tuls time, and, releasing her, carried her apon the bank. She sustained no injury beyond the wetting and scare.

Significance of Dummy Clocks. New York World: There are few who have not seen the ordinary sign of a jeweler-an immense imitation of a watch hanging over the front of the

But it is safe to say that the number who have detected anything curious in these small signs is very, very small. At 8:18 p. m. on April 14, 1865, Abra-nam Lincoln was assassinated in Ford's theater, Washington, by John Wilkes Booth Since that fatal night every one of these watch signs that has gone from the factory of the only man who makes them has shown the hour of 8:18.

The man in question says: I was then working on a sign for Jeweler Adams, who kept a store on Broadway across running in while I was at work and told me the news. "Paint those hands at the hour Lincoln was shot, that the deed may never be forgotten," he said, pointing to the sign I was making for him. I did so. Since then every watch sign that has gone out of here has been lettered the same as that one.

A Woman with a Distinct Power. Mrs. John Winston, an Indianapolis woman, has received an endowment that gives her advantages over her sisters which cannot be calculated. has a voice with an echo, and when she speaks to her husband or children, what she says is repeated three or four times The power of a curtain lecture repeated three or four times with a single effort when delivered at 2 o'clock in the morn ing, must be apparent. A man would either reform or take to the woods. And what superiority Mrs. Winston must feel at a sewing circle when her turn at the neighborhood gossip comes. For a woman to have the equivalent of four tongues is certainly a rare advantage over her sisters who have but one, if it is hung in the middle.

The Latest Conundrum Why is Haller's Sarsaparilla and Burdock like the most popular soap of the day. Because they both cleanse the skin and leave it both soft and velvety.

A Curious Sentence. The following curious sentence, "Sator arepo tenet opera rotar" is pretty bad Latin, but may be freely translated: cease from my work; the sower will wear away his wheels." It has these peculiarities: First-It spells backward and forward the same. Second-The first letter of each word pells the first word. Third-The second letter of each word spells the second word, and so on with the third, fourth and fifth.

Fourth-The last letters, read backward, spell the first word; the next to the last, the second word, and so on Fifth—There are just as many letters in each word as there are words.

The Polks. The undertaker who furnished Mrs. Polk's coffin performed the same service for President Polk forty-three years The casket was of what undertakers call the "monarch" style, which is reserved for "state occasions." It was of red cedar, with copper linings and silver trimmings, supported by Norman columns covered with black broadcloth. It is said that President Polk's will will be declared void by the courts, which will thus defeat his intention of entail ing his property on his male heirs for-ever. In case the will is broken the property will go to the children of Colonel M. T. Polk, representing his brother, Marshall Polk; the children of his brother, Colonel William Polk, who reside in New York and North Carolina; the children of his sister, Mrs. Walker, living in Columbia, Tenn., and of his sister, Mrs. Richmond, residing in West Tennessee.

Just how an alterative medicine cleanses the system is an open question; but that Ayer's Sarsaparilla does produce a radical change in the blood is well attested on all remeay for blood disorders.
