IGNIS FATUUS' GREAT RACE.

Omaha's Speedy Stallions Pulled off a Nice

SIDE WHEELERS IN HOT CONTEST.

Furse Yesterday.

Free-for-All Pace That Was Worth Watching-On the Independ-* ence Kite-General Speed Ring News.

There was a fine crowd in attendance on the closing day of the Union Park races. The track was in superb condition. The starter was A. W. McElroy of Chicago and the judges E. M. Green of Calhoun, Marve Beardsley and Billy Paxton of Omaha. Timera, Fred Fowler and Goodley Brucker.

A word in commendation of Starter Mc. Elroy will probably not come amiss here, He has officiated in all the meetings on this course this summer, and so exceptionally fine has been his work, both as to the discretion in deciding nice and difficult points and the promptitude which has marked his efforts in getting the races off in accordance with the published schedule, that the management has been unstinted in praise, even to the extent of extra compensation. One distinction marks the work of Starter McElroy and that is that any track that has been fortunate enough to secure his services has manifested a desire to secure him for future engage-ments. So far as Union park is concerned it is safe to say that as long as attainable the services of McElroy will be secured.

Started by the Stallions,

The first event, free-for-all stallion race, purse $400. Entries: Guelph, blk.s., by Princeps, C. A. Turner, Beatrice, Neb.: Golden Wing, s.s., by Starlight, R. J. Moore, Dunlap, La.: Frank F. blk.s., by Darwin, W. J. Perry, Omaha: Ignis Fatuus, b. s. by Editor, Nat Brown, Omaha.

There was but little delay in getting the trio off. Ignis Fatuus quickly assumed a lead that his competitors were unable to over-come. Time: 2:26½. The second heat was a repetition of the first, Ignis Fatous proving Side Wheelers Contest.

Second race, free-for-ail pace, purse $400. Ftarters: Wilkle Russell, b. s., by Mambrino Russel, King Hill stock farm, St. Joseph Mo.; Prince T. r. g., by Clement, A. Thompson, Omaha; Almont Bashaw, b. s., by Almont Rover, Frank Burns, IGa Grove, Ia.

The horses were sent away very nicely on the second scoring, Wilkie Russell opening up with a burst of speed that made every man on the grounds possessing a watch take a flash at it. The speed of the big stallion on the first quarter prepared every one for a fast mile. Prince T also evinced that he was in good fettle, and the last half was paced in even quicker time than that made by Wilkie, still it was not speedy enough to chop down the lead Russell had captured on the first half. As it ended Wilkle beat the Prince out by a length and a na!f. Time—2:17!4. There was some disappointment expressed at this time, many old devotees of the track claiming that their chronometers registered 2:10, but the official timers claimed that their time corresponded and that it was as given above.

McElroy sont the horses off in a line in the second, but unfortunately, and to the manifest disappointment of the crowd, Prince T. broke almost immediately on the word go. It was a bad break and by hie time he steadled down a gap of 200 yards separated him from his flying competitors. From this on, however. Thompson drove him steadily, and by the time the leaders rounded into the stretch he was well up, but it was too late to enter in the brush for the finish, and this was left to Bashaw, and he did it well. Wilkie, though, outfooted him clearly, and came under the wire a nose the best of it. Time:

The third heat was a rosebud. The start couldn't have been more even had the horses been started standing from a chalk line, and up to the three-quarters this position was maintained without a break. In rounding into the stretch Wilkie made a break, and, run ning several lengths, got the best of it, heading Prince T. and coming on and under the wire a scant neck to the good. Time: 2:18½. Wilkle.

The second hear was an exciting one, Missouri Chief winning, beating Harry P by a nose. Dr. Tilton took third and Guy Sheridan fourth. Time: 2:301

The third heat was started in the dusk, and after a desperate struggle, Harry P came in first, Saturn L second and Dr. Tilton nird. Time: 2:20%. Owing to darkness the race was postponed until 10 o'clock this morning

Against Time.

Sandwiched between the free-for-all for stallious and the free-for-all pace, was a trial mile by Hershon, to beat his mark of 2:304. He went the mile in 2:204; the first half in 1:13, a 26 gait, and was finishing strong, but made a bad break in the stretch. Hershon is a bay stallion, and in the language of the fancy, a "little bute." He is a full brother of Neva Seely and considered a most promising performer. Hershon is by Herschal, he by Belmont, dam by Squire Talmadge, he by Hambletonian 10; second dam by Hulsey Hamoletonian, he by Hambletonian 10. This is his first season. He is full of Hamble is his first season. He is full of Hamble-tonian blood, and Hambletonian blood heads the list.

ON THE INDEPENDENCE KITE.

Speedy Horses Lowering Their Individual Records There. INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Oct. 23 .- Today was perfect record breaking weather, clear and warm. The light breeze blowing at noon calmed down about 4 o'clock, leaving it a typical June evening. The only regular races started were the 2:20 trot and 2:30 pace, both left unfinished.

The principal events were the specials.
The most noteworthy of them was Robert Rysdick, who again started against his mark of 2:14. Yesterday he was sent in 2:14%, but as he was in good form today his owner, A. L. Cisrk, decided to again make a dash against their time. In the first score he cast a shoe and bruised his foot. Nevertheless he took the word and made a grand trot without any accompaniment in 2:13%.

Sphynx, by Electioneer, who has been out of training for three years, was sent against his mark of 2:23 and turned the gite with all his old time speed in 2:21. Without a doubt his mark will be below 2:20 before he leaves

Edger's Unbounded Success. EDGAR, Neb., Oct. 23,- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-Today concluded the first annual exhibition of the Edgar District fair. The conditions for fast racing were more favorable than on the two previous days. The mile track was in superb condition, and the weather quite warm. The races were all holly contested and the 2,000 lovers of herseffesh present were at times wild with excitement. The second heat of the free-forall trot was the fastest ever shown in southern Nebraska. The quarters were, 35, 1:10, 1:45 and 2:24.

BALTIMORE

Pleasant Experience at the Grand Opera House Last Night. Fully 1,600 people crowded for front seats at the Grand opera house last evening to listen to words of wisdom and wit from the lips of Daniel Dougherty, one of New York's famous lawyers and orators. The house was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers. Lawyers, doctors, ministers and politicians were there. Mr. Dougherty is more than a pleasant or eloquent speaker—he is one who carries his audience with him to heights sublime or depths pathetic

As a commencement of his address on Orators and Oratory," the speaker started out to tell the difference between a speech and a lecture. "The poet is a master of his time," said Mr. Dougherty, "Not so with the regular speech maker. A speech is made to excite, to urge people on in one certain cause; a lecture is different. It may be delivered twenty times before as many different andiences and is well received. Once spoke, a speech is dead, and one written out and read can scarcely be called a speech at all, because it will not reach the listener's head and heart. Whereas a heart-spoken address will always draw people, perhaps more by mag-netism and sympathy than by logic." Here the speaker gave a very amusing illustration of a New York lawyer who had been called upon to speak at the funeral of a friend. The gentleman in question had prepared a long and cloquent address, but by mistake had left the manuscript at home. When called upon to stand by the coffin of his dead friend his wits forsook him, and from sheer mortification he fainted.

The the speaker told how he, when a young lawyer in Philadelphia, aspired to be an orator and prepared a half dozen speeches for a coming political campaign. He said "In the newspapers I always read a few good speeches and then the article would stop short by saying 'and others' spoke, wanted to avoid being one of the 'and others, out how to get recognition and how to ge the opportunity of delivoring one of my se speeches bothered me. f went to all the political meetings and finally when a promi-nent speaker was detained. I was called upon to address the audience for a few minutes. Thoughts of fame, of below a senator or a cabinet officer flashed through my mind as I advanced to the front and of the noble effort I would make to gain a long-sought for recognization. After speaking one or two well known sentences I broke down and in

So clever and quietly did the speaker portray his first experience before an audience that his listeners were scarcely prepared for the laughable climax. Continuing Mr. Dougharty spoke of speakers in the reign of George III and of those today in Victoria's time. He gave a half descu amusing illustrations of speakers in the English parlia-ment, and said that no matter how halting, how disconnected one of "me luda" speeches in the house was, the next morning in the London Times the speech was poetry itself. Then came an imitation of Gladstone's graceful winning speeches, followed by an exhibition of Parnell's manner, ending with that of an Irish member who spoke his senti ments and wanted the whole world to know These pleasant, amusing litustrations of well known speakers were well received being frequently interrupted by loud apapplause.

EVERYTHING JUST LOVELY.

Proceedings of the American Association Were Painfu'ly Harmon'ous.

WHAT WILL THE NEW CIRCUIT BE?

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23. - Although the American association completed its labor today for the present, the most important question, as to what cities will constitute next year's circuit, still remains undecided A committee consisting of Barnie of Phila delphia, Schmeltz of Columbus and Von Der Abe of St. Louis, was appointed with power to investigate the feasibility of a ten or twelve club circuit. This committee will make its report in about ten days at the call of Chairman Barnie.

There is little doubt that an eight-club organization is what the association wants. No one was given a throw-down today, how-Applications were heard from Buffalo Kansas City and Minneapolis. If a twelve-ciub circuit is resolved upon it is said the first two mentioned cities will be admitted. Speas of Kansas City took a very independent stand today and non-admission ap parently will not be a source of worry to either him or Huch of Minneapolis. If they are left out of the American association they will attempt to revive the Western associa

The first announcement made after the gathering of the delegates was by President Phelps that the Chicago club had deposited i per cent of its capital stock as a guarantee f loyalty and its good faith. The election of officers came next and was quickly dis-posed of. President Phelps was re-elected by acclamation. Julien Hart of Boston was unanimously chosen vice president, and Edwin Sutherland of Washington was appointed as attorney for the association. Appointing of committees came next. The most important of all, the schedule committee, will consist of President Williams of Chicago, Barnie of Philadelphia and Von Der Ahe of St. Louis. On account of Chicago receiving the highest vote Mr. Williams was selected as chairman of the schedule ommittee. The association then took the question of percentages for the visiting clubs and de-cided to go back to the old principle—the home club to take everything. This means that each club must be self supporting, and of course the small crowd towns will suffer. Another important resolution, and one intended to cater to the good will of the ball players, was introduced by Williams of Chi-cago. It was to the effect that each club file a bond with the president guaranteeing to its players full and prompt payment of salaries as called for by the contracts. In case the salary is not forthcoming on pay day the president shall collect it under the bond and pay the players. The amount of the bond must be equal at least to the total amount of the sainry list and be worth not less than $85,000. This resolution was adopted with no dissenters. The following players were blacklisted:

Doian, Reilly, Radboarne, King, Ehret, Raymond, Ely, Knauss, Burt and Inks, "King"
Kelly's name was not on the list.
Barnie, Scheltz and Chapman were appointed a committee on rules to report next spring. A new unique rule was introduced the way of an amendment introduced by Gus Schmelz, that whenever a game be begun and not completed it must be taken up when left off and finished on the next schedule date before the regular scheduled game is played. Unanimity of opinion also prevailed regarding this resolution and it was passed. In fact there was no lack of harmony broughout the entire proceedings.

REPUBLICAN ENTHUSIASM.

oters Turn Out in Great Numbers to Listen to Reason.

The republican voters of the First and Secnd wards held a rousing rally last evening at National ball, corner of Thirteenth and Williams. The great hall was well filled and here was enthusiasm to spare. Ed Cornish was chairman and addresses were delivered by D. H. Mercer, Hon. E. Rosewater, Frank E. Moores, W. F. Bechel, H. B. Irey, Henry Bolin, Judge E. N. Stenberg, John Steel, E. K. Long, C. S. Eigutter and Judge Berka. All but the first two are candidates on the city or county ticket, and they outlined their policy and pledged their earnest effort, if elected to bring about reform in local govern ment. Judge Berka made a speech in Bohe-mian. Mr. Rosewater talked for half an hour touching on both state and local poli-tics, and urged the overthrow of the boodlers and the election of none but clean, able, representative men. The audience was attentive throughout, and seemed in close sympathy with the ideas advanced. The ward band interspersed several lively airs through the programme.

North End Rally.

A rally for the republicans of the Sixth. Eighth and Ninth wards was held at Goodrich hall last night. The hall was well filled and the platform was occupied by a number of candidates. These were W. W. Keysor. candidate for district judge; C. H. Marple, for regent of the State university : J. W. Eller, for county judge; F. J. Sackett, for county clerk; Halfdan Jacobsohn, for councilman from the Eighth ward, A. G. Edwards, for councilman from the Ninth ward, and J. D. Pilcher, for justice of the peace.

J. L. Carr was chosen as chairman of the meeting and Will Gurley was the first speaker. He discussed the candidates on the republican, state and county tickets from top pottom and spoke highly of all of them. The meeting was enthusiastic and heartily applauded the points made by the speaker. W. W. Keysor followed Mr. Gurley and made a good impression on the audience. He occupied but a few moments and spoke directly to the point. In the course of his remarks he advanced the idea that the republicans of this district were certainly entitled. licans of this district were certainly entitled to more than three of the seven judges and ridiculed the idea of a judge being nonpar-tisan merely because he had been nominated by a nonpartisan convention.

C. H. Marpie was the next speaker and nade a short speech which was direct and to the point, speaking of the duties and im portance of the office and pledging himself to heir proper performance. F. J. Sackett was the next speaker and spoke at some length on his ideas on the way in which the office of county clerk should be There was a call from the audience for Pat O. Hawes and that gentleman mounted the platform. He said he had been hiber-nating at a joint not far from Omaha for some ame, but it was evident that the operation had not had the desired effect He spoke first of Halfdan Jacobson of the Eighth ward, candidate for councilman, al-iuding to him as an honest and capable man and a good republican.

The judge then branched off on a general discussion of the ticket. He said that poli-tles had been completely eliminated from the campaign in Norraska.

"Governor Boyd is not governor," he exclaimed; "they democratic nominees for regents of the state university are not candidates; Charles Ogden, the very beau ideal of democracy in this city was not nominated. There is no democratic party. It's an Osthoff party! From Grover Cleveland via Jim Boyd and Charles Ogden down to little Osthoff!"

This sally was greeted with cheers and

This sally was greeted with cheers and yells.

The judge want on, speaking at some length, telling humbrous stories and keeping the audience in good humor, and discussing the political situation from all sides. He was loudly cheered as he sat down.

Sioux Falts, S. D., Oct. 23 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-This afternoon at o'clock the United States grand jury presented an indictment against eleven officers of the Louisiana Lettery company located at New Orleans, La. Among the officers indicted are General Beauregard, Paul Conrad, the president of the company, and Joseph R. Horner, secretary, while the remaining eight are directors. The indictment carries with it in each case eighteen courts which means that there are eighteen indictments against each of the eleven officers. The consolidated indictment was brought under the directions of the attorney general at Washington who has been seeking a state favorably inclined to the ottery law passed last winter by congress and settled upon South Dakota from the fact that the first conviction ever obtained was for the state. The several warrants were issued this afternoon and mailed to the United States marshal in Louisiana, who will make the arrests and at once bring the defendants to this court to make their plea on the specific charge that they had transmitted ottery advertisements through the United

The entire proceedings have been carried on with the utmost secrecy and the court threatens the arrest and the prosecution of my persons who make the names public or in any way permits or assists in having the news published. The attorney general at Washington requested that every safeguard which could be provided be secured to prevent the fact from being made public. The Bes correspondent called on the district at torney, the marshal and the clerk, but they lenied any knowledge of the indictment However, the facts as related are true.

The extreme penalty in cases of conviction is five years' imprisonment and $5,000 fine.

Jacob Haight, county judge of Hydo county, a veteran of the war and heretofore respected citizen, when wanted in the United States court this afternoon to answer to the indictment brought by the grand jury charging him with perjury, could not be found. A bench warrant was issued, but before the officer could find Haight the latter stumbled into the room as drunk as he could be. Haight was determined to have his trial occur on Sunday, regardless of the protestations of the presiding judge, A. J. Edgerton. The matter was adjusted by an eviction from the room and the setting of the trial at 9 a. m. tomorrow. Haight, Harvey, a county commissioner, and Henstock, a farmer, all from Hyde county, connived to defraud the government out of $1,000. Each one swore to a bill of damages. They alleged to have suffered in being evicted from the Crow Creek reservation on September 17, 1885, by an executive order of President Cleveland. Harvey's trial was finished at noon and the jury are still closeted, but stand eleven to one for conviction.

Horribly Mangled. Theoro, S. D., Oct. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—T. P. Kaylor, who has been canvassing the Hills selling electric pells, was instantly killed about 5 o'clock this evening white hauling wood from a canyon near here. Kaylor was coming down a steep incline with the wagon wheels locked when the chain broke. Kaylor jumped and was caught in the running gears and horribly mangled. The wagon was demolished and both horses injured, one seriously. Mr. R. Burroughs, owner of the team and wagon, was walking behind at the time of the accident and quickly summoned aid. Kaylor's parents reside near Bristot, Tenn. mill camps near here, met with a very pain-

Frank Rood, a teamster at one of the saw ful accident this afternoon which may cost nim his life. He had led a teum to the water. Not returning with the team search was instituted. He was found near the stream unconscious with his head baday bruised and cut and internally hurt. He has regained consciousness, but remembers only of leading the horses to the water and starting back.
