

WHY JUDGE POST SHOULD WIN

Judge Thurston Entertains an Omaha Audience with Indisputable Facts.

ELOQUENT WORDS OF POLITICAL WISDOM.

Senator Switzer on the Supreme Judgeship—Scandinavians Discuss Politics—Major Balcombe Calls Gannon Down.

The republican rally Saturday night was a typical vote maker. It was late, however when the Omaha gentlemen were given the floor.

Judge Thurston's Address.

Hon. John M. Thurston spoke as follows: Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens: I am not here as an orator, but I am here tonight at the request of your committee to say a few words to you about some of the issues of the present campaign.

POST THE BETTER QUALIFIED.

Opinion of Senator Switzer on Post and Edgerton.

A reporter called upon Senator Switzer at his office to get his views on the respective candidates for the supreme court, when, in answer to a question, the senator said:

"As between Edgerton and Post I shall vote, if I am here to vote at all, for Judge Post. After the republicans refused to join in the movement for a nonpartisan judiciary and adopted a platform at Lincoln containing scurrilous charges against the democrats it is, of course, difficult to support a nominee."

Unsound Financial Policy.

"Solely because I think he is the better qualified for the place. I know it is better for some that the republican ticket should have a precedent and will give the republicans prestige next year. I do not so view it, and if I did I think the state would be injured more to have it go out than the alliance party had carried the state than to elect Judge Post. The people of this state certainly are not on the floor in the moneyed interests of the east, when furnishes so much of the capital on which we do business in this state, look upon the alliance party. This party almost ruined Kansas, and last winter, when the legislature was in session, there was a complete blockade on the floor in reference to Nebraska, which was not raised until the legislature adjourned or changed its first ideas. The financial policy of the party that Edgerton represents is unsound, and while his candidacy has no direct connection with the views set out in his party platform, capital so views it, and I think for that reason it is for no other, it would do great injury to the state to give this election over to the alliance. There is no other thing," continued the senator, "which democrats should remember, and that is, that it was by republican votes in this county that we were enabled to elect a democratic governor, and while I think the democrats need expect in the future no favors from either of these parties, at the same time, if we are to consider obligations we owe more to the republicans for Governor Boyd's success than the alliance who opposed him and tried to steal his seat, because the people considered that this state would suffer by those twin delusions, prohibition and cheap money, and republicans flouted Boyd regardless of party affiliations and aided in his election. Therefore, I say, that if we are to count such things, the republicans are more entitled to aid in this emergency than the alliance party."

In Favor of American Method.

I say here tonight that the grand principles of the republican party stand now as they have heretofore stood, in favor of American method and in favor of the American people for the greatest number. [Applause.] It is a nation of workers, it is a nation of muscle, it is a nation in which the man who toils has a patent to American nobility. We have places here for everybody who is willing to work with his head or his hands; everybody except the drone and the drone, and we don't want any more of them than we have to have. [Applause.]

Now I am here for the purpose of asking the citizens of Omaha in voting the state ticket to vote for that man, whoever he may be, who best represents honest government, who best represents the true principles of judicial affairs, and who can best be trusted to interpret the constitution and decide the law correctly. There is no man in this community who is slave enough to live under a judicial system that will interpret laws and constitutions other than in accordance with the strict and settled principles of justice, and I say to you that any man who votes to a place upon the supreme bench of the state of Nebraska a candidate who is supposed to lean towards an unjust and unfair and ignorant, or a false interpretation of the law is submitting himself to the worst kind of tyranny from which there is no escape. [Applause.]

Now, my friends, I have known A. M. Post for the last fifteen years. As a lawyer, he has been to me the best of all the best judgment of all the professional, the business, the working, the intelligent and the trustworthy men of this state of Nebraska. [Applause.] As a citizen he has always been favorable to the administration of the law; as a husband and a father he has been an example of true domestic life; and I say here that he stands before you, whether you have been or are now republicans or democrats, as a man whom you will feel honored in supporting for judge of the supreme court of the state of Nebraska. [Applause.]

Major Balcombe's Card.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—To the Editor of THE BEE: "Let me tell you another thing," said Mr. Gannon. "A few days ago several prominent local capitalists, W. A. L. Gibson among them, called upon that institution which we call the supreme court of the state, the local Estate Owners association, and tried to make arrangements to bring a $100,000 glucose factory here and the answer was, 'There is too much competition in this state. We have Extract from Gannon's speech at the theater as reported by the World-Herald Friday morning. 'I have lived in the wild, woolly west over fifty-five years, but no man in it, he be office holder or otherwise, has ever before displayed as much brazen audacity as Mr. Gannon, democratic candidate for district court clerk, did when he made the above false assertion as to the support of the law. The only reason why an arrangement was not made with Mr. W. S. Smith to bring a glucose factory here, is that the local capitalists could not be found who were willing to invest $150,000 in this enterprise. [Applause.]"

Scandinavians in Earnest.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Scandinavian mass meeting was held in Washington hall yesterday afternoon. Frank E. Moores made the first address, speaking in English, and was followed by E. M. Stenberg, Theodore Olson and Henry Goll. The first of the addresses was given through with and a good word said for all German and Swedish speakers followed, covering same points as the English speakers. The meeting adjourned with a band march for the whole republican ticket. [Applause.]

Declined to Indorse.

After careful consideration of the vacancy upon their ticket, the independent have decided to go before the people without a candidate for the office of county commissioner. This statement has been approved by the executive committee of the people's independent party, after thorough consideration of the merits of the withdrawal of Daniel Burr from the candidacy for county commissioner, and the fact that it is impossible to fill the vacancy and do better justice to those either candidate of the two old parties than to have the office vacant. [Applause.]

Are You a True Man, or Only a Chump?

Your horse has chafed his neck until it is absolutely raw, and he will not work, or he has cut himself on a wire or a nail. Now do you know that one bottle of Haller's Barb Wire Treatment will absolutely cure every cut, bruise or old sore. Just try it.

IOWA WILL POLL A FULL VOTE

Some of the Final Features of the Present Campaign.

BOTH PARTIES SURE OF VICTORY.

At No Period of the State's History Has the Political Situation Been More Thoroughly Canvassed.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 1.—Special to THE BEE.—One of the most exciting campaigns in Iowa in recent years draws to a close with tomorrow's meetings. The interest manifested by the people of all parties has not been exceeded many times, even in presidential years, and it is expected the vote polled will exceed any former total. The battle has been almost entirely between the two old parties and has been raging fierce and strong for more than two months. For the democrats, Governor Boies has been the chief spokesman and central figure around whom all the lesser democratic lights revolved. He has made a remarkable campaign, and has made a remarkable record. He has been hampered by his alleged slander of the state in his famous New York speech, and also by his attitude on the liquor question. His entire argument has been in favor of the repeal of the present prohibitory law.

POST THE BETTER QUALIFIED.

Opinion of Senator Switzer on Post and Edgerton.

A reporter called upon Senator Switzer at his office to get his views on the respective candidates for the supreme court, when, in answer to a question, the senator said: "As between Edgerton and Post I shall vote, if I am here to vote at all, for Judge Post. After the republicans refused to join in the movement for a nonpartisan judiciary and adopted a platform at Lincoln containing scurrilous charges against the democrats it is, of course, difficult to support a nominee."

Unsound Financial Policy.

"Solely because I think he is the better qualified for the place. I know it is better for some that the republican ticket should have a precedent and will give the republicans prestige next year. I do not so view it, and if I did I think the state would be injured more to have it go out than the alliance party had carried the state than to elect Judge Post. The people of this state certainly are not on the floor in the moneyed interests of the east, when furnishes so much of the capital on which we do business in this state, look upon the alliance party. This party almost ruined Kansas, and last winter, when the legislature was in session, there was a complete blockade on the floor in reference to Nebraska, which was not raised until the legislature adjourned or changed its first ideas. The financial policy of the party that Edgerton represents is unsound, and while his candidacy has no direct connection with the views set out in his party platform, capital so views it, and I think for that reason it is for no other, it would do great injury to the state to give this election over to the alliance. There is no other thing," continued the senator, "which democrats should remember, and that is, that it was by republican votes in this county that we were enabled to elect a democratic governor, and while I think the democrats need expect in the future no favors from either of these parties, at the same time, if we are to consider obligations we owe more to the republicans for Governor Boyd's success than the alliance who opposed him and tried to steal his seat, because the people considered that this state would suffer by those twin delusions, prohibition and cheap money, and republicans flouted Boyd regardless of party affiliations and aided in his election. Therefore, I say, that if we are to count such things, the republicans are more entitled to aid in this emergency than the alliance party."

In Favor of American Method.

I say here tonight that the grand principles of the republican party stand now as they have heretofore stood, in favor of American method and in favor of the American people for the greatest number. [Applause.] It is a nation of workers, it is a nation of muscle, it is a nation in which the man who toils has a patent to American nobility. We have places here for everybody who is willing to work with his head or his hands; everybody except the drone and the drone, and we don't want any more of them than we have to have. [Applause.]

Now I am here for the purpose of asking the citizens of Omaha in voting the state ticket to vote for that man, whoever he may be, who best represents honest government, who best represents the true principles of judicial affairs, and who can best be trusted to interpret the constitution and decide the law correctly. There is no man in this community who is slave enough to live under a judicial system that will interpret laws and constitutions other than in accordance with the strict and settled principles of justice, and I say to you that any man who votes to a place upon the supreme bench of the state of Nebraska a candidate who is supposed to lean towards an unjust and unfair and ignorant, or a false interpretation of the law is submitting himself to the worst kind of tyranny from which there is no escape. [Applause.]

Now, my friends, I have known A. M. Post for the last fifteen years. As a lawyer, he has been to me the best of all the best judgment of all the professional, the business, the working, the intelligent and the trustworthy men of this state of Nebraska. [Applause.] As a citizen he has always been favorable to the administration of the law; as a husband and a father he has been an example of true domestic life; and I say here that he stands before you, whether you have been or are now republicans or democrats, as a man whom you will feel honored in supporting for judge of the supreme court of the state of Nebraska. [Applause.]

Major Balcombe's Card.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—To the Editor of THE BEE: "Let me tell you another thing," said Mr. Gannon. "A few days ago several prominent local capitalists, W. A. L. Gibson among them, called upon that institution which we call the supreme court of the state, the local Estate Owners association, and tried to make arrangements to bring a $100,000 glucose factory here and the answer was, 'There is too much competition in this state. We have Extract from Gannon's speech at the theater as reported by the World-Herald Friday morning. 'I have lived in the wild, woolly west over fifty-five years, but no man in it, he be office holder or otherwise, has ever before displayed as much brazen audacity as Mr. Gannon, democratic candidate for district court clerk, did when he made the above false assertion as to the support of the law. The only reason why an arrangement was not made with Mr. W. S. Smith to bring a glucose factory here, is that the local capitalists could not be found who were willing to invest $150,000 in this enterprise. [Applause.]"

Scandinavians in Earnest.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Scandinavian mass meeting was held in Washington hall yesterday afternoon. Frank E. Moores made the first address, speaking in English, and was followed by E. M. Stenberg, Theodore Olson and Henry Goll. The first of the addresses was given through with and a good word said for all German and Swedish speakers followed, covering same points as the English speakers. The meeting adjourned with a band march for the whole republican ticket. [Applause.]

Declined to Indorse.

After careful consideration of the vacancy upon their ticket, the independent have decided to go before the people without a candidate for the office of county commissioner. This statement has been approved by the executive committee of the people's independent party, after thorough consideration of the merits of the withdrawal of Daniel Burr from the candidacy for county commissioner, and the fact that it is impossible to fill the vacancy and do better justice to those either candidate of the two old parties than to have the office vacant. [Applause.]

Are You a True Man, or Only a Chump?

Your horse has chafed his neck until it is absolutely raw, and he will not work, or he has cut himself on a wire or a nail. Now do you know that one bottle of Haller's Barb Wire Treatment will absolutely cure every cut, bruise or old sore. Just try it.

IOWA WILL POLL A FULL VOTE

Some of the Final Features of the Present Campaign.

BOTH PARTIES SURE OF VICTORY.

At No Period of the State's History Has the Political Situation Been More Thoroughly Canvassed.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 1.—Special to THE BEE.—One of the most exciting campaigns in Iowa in recent years draws to a close with tomorrow's meetings. The interest manifested by the people of all parties has not been exceeded many times, even in presidential years, and it is expected the vote polled will exceed any former total. The battle has been almost entirely between the two old parties and has been raging fierce and strong for more than two months. For the democrats, Governor Boies has been the chief spokesman and central figure around whom all the lesser democratic lights revolved. He has made a remarkable campaign, and has made a remarkable record. He has been hampered by his alleged slander of the state in his famous New York speech, and also by his attitude on the liquor question. His entire argument has been in favor of the repeal of the present prohibitory law.

POST THE BETTER QUALIFIED.

Opinion of Senator Switzer on Post and Edgerton.

A reporter called upon Senator Switzer at his office to get his views on the respective candidates for the supreme court, when, in answer to a question, the senator said: "As between Edgerton and Post I shall vote, if I am here to vote at all, for Judge Post. After the republicans refused to join in the movement for a nonpartisan judiciary and adopted a platform at Lincoln containing scurrilous charges against the democrats it is, of course, difficult to support a nominee."

Unsound Financial Policy.

"Solely because I think he is the better qualified for the place. I know it is better for some that the republican ticket should have a precedent and will give the republicans prestige next year. I do not so view it, and if I did I think the state would be injured more to have it go out than the alliance party had carried the state than to elect Judge Post. The people of this state certainly are not on the floor in the moneyed interests of the east, when furnishes so much of the capital on which we do business in this state, look upon the alliance party. This party almost ruined Kansas, and last winter, when the legislature was in session, there was a complete blockade on the floor in reference to Nebraska, which was not raised until the legislature adjourned or changed its first ideas. The financial policy of the party that Edgerton represents is unsound, and while his candidacy has no direct connection with the views set out in his party platform, capital so views it, and I think for that reason it is for no other, it would do great injury to the state to give this election over to the alliance. There is no other thing," continued the senator, "which democrats should remember, and that is, that it was by republican votes in this county that we were enabled to elect a democratic governor, and while I think the democrats need expect in the future no favors from either of these parties, at the same time, if we are to consider obligations we owe more to the republicans for Governor Boyd's success than the alliance who opposed him and tried to steal his seat, because the people considered that this state would suffer by those twin delusions, prohibition and cheap money, and republicans flouted Boyd regardless of party affiliations and aided in his election. Therefore, I say, that if we are to count such things, the republicans are more entitled to aid in this emergency than the alliance party."

In Favor of American Method.

I say here tonight that the grand principles of the republican party stand now as they have heretofore stood, in favor of American method and in favor of the American people for the greatest number. [Applause.] It is a nation of workers, it is a nation of muscle, it is a nation in which the man who toils has a patent to American nobility. We have places here for everybody who is willing to work with his head or his hands; everybody except the drone and the drone, and we don't want any more of them than we have to have. [Applause.]

Now I am here for the purpose of asking the citizens of Omaha in voting the state ticket to vote for that man, whoever he may be, who best represents honest government, who best represents the true principles of judicial affairs, and who can best be trusted to interpret the constitution and decide the law correctly. There is no man in this community who is slave enough to live under a judicial system that will interpret laws and constitutions other than in accordance with the strict and settled principles of justice, and I say to you that any man who votes to a place upon the supreme bench of the state of Nebraska a candidate who is supposed to lean towards an unjust and unfair and ignorant, or a false interpretation of the law is submitting himself to the worst kind of tyranny from which there is no escape. [Applause.]

Now, my friends, I have known A. M. Post for the last fifteen years. As a lawyer, he has been to me the best of all the best judgment of all the professional, the business, the working, the intelligent and the trustworthy men of this state of Nebraska. [Applause.] As a citizen he has always been favorable to the administration of the law; as a husband and a father he has been an example of true domestic life; and I say here that he stands before you, whether you have been or are now republicans or democrats, as a man whom you will feel honored in supporting for judge of the supreme court of the state of Nebraska. [Applause.]

Major Balcombe's Card.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—To the Editor of THE BEE: "Let me tell you another thing," said Mr. Gannon. "A few days ago several prominent local capitalists, W. A. L. Gibson among them, called upon that institution which we call the supreme court of the state, the local Estate Owners association, and tried to make arrangements to bring a $100,000 glucose factory here and the answer was, 'There is too much competition in this state. We have Extract from Gannon's speech at the theater as reported by the World-Herald Friday morning. 'I have lived in the wild, woolly west over fifty-five years, but no man in it, he be office holder or otherwise, has ever before displayed as much brazen audacity as Mr. Gannon, democratic candidate for district court clerk, did when he made the above false assertion as to the support of the law. The only reason why an arrangement was not made with Mr. W. S. Smith to bring a glucose factory here, is that the local capitalists could not be found who were willing to invest $150,000 in this enterprise. [Applause.]"

Scandinavians in Earnest.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Scandinavian mass meeting was held in Washington hall yesterday afternoon. Frank E. Moores made the first address, speaking in English, and was followed by E. M. Stenberg, Theodore Olson and Henry Goll. The first of the addresses was given through with and a good word said for all German and Swedish speakers followed, covering same points as the English speakers. The meeting adjourned with a band march for the whole republican ticket. [Applause.]

Declined to Indorse.

After careful consideration of the vacancy upon their ticket, the independent have decided to go before the people without a candidate for the office of county commissioner. This statement has been approved by the executive committee of the people's independent party, after thorough consideration of the merits of the withdrawal of Daniel Burr from the candidacy for county commissioner, and the fact that it is impossible to fill the vacancy and do better justice to those either candidate of the two old parties than to have the office vacant. [Applause.]

Are You a True Man, or Only a Chump?

Your horse has chafed his neck until it is absolutely raw, and he will not work, or he has cut himself on a wire or a nail. Now do you know that one bottle of Haller's Barb Wire Treatment will absolutely cure every cut, bruise or old sore. Just try it.

IOWA WILL POLL A FULL VOTE

Some of the Final Features of the Present Campaign.

BOTH PARTIES SURE OF VICTORY.

At No Period of the State's History Has the Political Situation Been More Thoroughly Canvassed.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 1.—Special to THE BEE.—One of the most exciting campaigns in Iowa in recent years draws to a close with tomorrow's meetings. The interest manifested by the people of all parties has not been exceeded many times, even in presidential years, and it is expected the vote polled will exceed any former total. The battle has been almost entirely between the two old parties and has been raging fierce and strong for more than two months. For the democrats, Governor Boies has been the chief spokesman and central figure around whom all the lesser democratic lights revolved. He has made a remarkable campaign, and has made a remarkable record. He has been hampered by his alleged slander of the state in his famous New York speech, and also by his attitude on the liquor question. His entire argument has been in favor of the repeal of the present prohibitory law.

POST THE BETTER QUALIFIED.

Opinion of Senator Switzer on Post and Edgerton.

A reporter called upon Senator Switzer at his office to get his views on the respective candidates for the supreme court, when, in answer to a question, the senator said: "As between Edgerton and Post I shall vote, if I am here to vote at all, for Judge Post. After the republicans refused to join in the movement for a nonpartisan judiciary and adopted a platform at Lincoln containing scurrilous charges against the democrats it is, of course, difficult to support a nominee."

Unsound Financial Policy.

"Solely because I think he is the better qualified for the place. I know it is better for some that the republican ticket should have a precedent and will give the republicans prestige next year. I do not so view it, and if I did I think the state would be injured more to have it go out than the alliance party had carried the state than to elect Judge Post. The people of this state certainly are not on the floor in the moneyed interests of the east, when furnishes so much of the capital on which we do business in this state, look upon the alliance party. This party almost ruined Kansas, and last winter, when the legislature was in session, there was a complete blockade on the floor in reference to Nebraska, which was not raised until the legislature adjourned or changed its first ideas. The financial policy of the party that Edgerton represents is unsound, and while his candidacy has no direct connection with the views set out in his party platform, capital so views it, and I think for that reason it is for no other, it would do great injury to the state to give this election over to the alliance. There is no other thing," continued the senator, "which democrats should remember, and that is, that it was by republican votes in this county that we were enabled to elect a democratic governor, and while I think the democrats need expect in the future no favors from either of these parties, at the same time, if we are to consider obligations we owe more to the republicans for Governor Boyd's success than the alliance who opposed him and tried to steal his seat, because the people considered that this state would suffer by those twin delusions, prohibition and cheap money, and republicans flouted Boyd regardless of party affiliations and aided in his election. Therefore, I say, that if we are to count such things, the republicans are more entitled to aid in this emergency than the alliance party."

In Favor of American Method.

I say here tonight that the grand principles of the republican party stand now as they have heretofore stood, in favor of American method and in favor of the American people for the greatest number. [Applause.] It is a nation of workers, it is a nation of muscle, it is a nation in which the man who toils has a patent to American nobility. We have places here for everybody who is willing to work with his head or his hands; everybody except the drone and the drone, and we don't want any more of them than we have to have. [Applause.]

Now I am here for the purpose of asking the citizens of Omaha in voting the state ticket to vote for that man, whoever he may be, who best represents honest government, who best represents the true principles of judicial affairs, and who can best be trusted to interpret the constitution and decide the law correctly. There is no man in this community who is slave enough to live under a judicial system that will interpret laws and constitutions other than in accordance with the strict and settled principles of justice, and I say to you that any man who votes to a place upon the supreme bench of the state of Nebraska a candidate who is supposed to lean towards an unjust and unfair and ignorant, or a false interpretation of the law is submitting himself to the worst kind of tyranny from which there is no escape. [Applause.]

Now, my friends, I have known A. M. Post for the last fifteen years. As a lawyer, he has been to me the best of all the best judgment of all the professional, the business, the working, the intelligent and the trustworthy men of this state of Nebraska. [Applause.] As a citizen he has always been favorable to the administration of the law; as a husband and a father he has been an example of true domestic life; and I say here that he stands before you, whether you have been or are now republicans or democrats, as a man whom you will feel honored in supporting for judge of the supreme court of the state of Nebraska. [Applause.]

Major Balcombe's Card.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—To the Editor of THE BEE: "Let me tell you another thing," said Mr. Gannon. "A few days ago several prominent local capitalists, W. A. L. Gibson among them, called upon that institution which we call the supreme court of the state, the local Estate Owners association, and tried to make arrangements to bring a $100,000 glucose factory here and the answer was, 'There is too much competition in this state. We have Extract from Gannon's speech at the theater as reported by the World-Herald Friday morning. 'I have lived in the wild, woolly west over fifty-five years, but no man in it, he be office holder or otherwise, has ever before displayed as much brazen audacity as Mr. Gannon, democratic candidate for district court clerk, did when he made the above false assertion as to the support of the law. The only reason why an arrangement was not made with Mr. W. S. Smith to bring a glucose factory here, is that the local capitalists could not be found who were willing to invest $150,000 in this enterprise. [Applause.]"

Scandinavians in Earnest.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Scandinavian mass meeting was held in Washington hall yesterday afternoon. Frank E. Moores made the first address, speaking in English, and was followed by E. M. Stenberg, Theodore Olson and Henry Goll. The first of the addresses was given through with and a good word said for all German and Swedish speakers followed, covering same points as the English speakers. The meeting adjourned with a band march for the whole republican ticket. [Applause.]

Declined to Indorse.

After careful consideration of the vacancy upon their ticket, the independent have decided to go before the people without a candidate for the office of county commissioner. This statement has been approved by the executive committee of the people's independent party, after thorough consideration of the merits of the withdrawal of Daniel Burr from the candidacy for county commissioner, and the fact that it is impossible to fill the vacancy and do better justice to those either candidate of the two old parties than to have the office vacant. [Applause.]

Are You a True Man, or Only a Chump?

Your horse has chafed his neck until it is absolutely raw, and he will not work, or he has cut himself on a wire or a nail. Now do you know that one bottle of Haller's Barb Wire Treatment will absolutely cure every cut, bruise or old sore. Just try it.

IT'S ALL HERE.

The balance of the Fechheimer, Goodkind & Co. stock, which our buyer recently purchased in New York, has arrived, been assorted, marked and placed on sale in our Men's Clothing Department, where the whole immense stock is now ready for your inspection in all its entirety. This is without doubt the finest assortment of Strictly Fine Suits every shown by any one firm in the west, comprising as it does all the popular fabrics in almost every conceivable shade, color and pattern. Particular attention is directed to the cut, style, shape and fit of these garments, which no Tailor in the land can excel, and which gained for the manufacturers a reputation for making fine clothing which extended from one end of the United States to the other. We have selected from this grand assortment an immense quantity of the very Finest Suits which we have assorted into two separate and distinct lots, which represent more style, tone, service and actual value than any clothing concern in this country ever gave before.

AT $14. AT $18.

We give you your choice of several hundred very fine Suits in both Sacks and Cutaways, in all the popular fabrics, in all sorts of shades and colors, in about thirty choice styles. These suits are worth fully twenty dollars of any man's money, and are sold for that price all over the country (occasionally you'll see a $22 card on them). We give you your choice of several hundred as fine suits as any Tailor in this country can make. They've got the materials in them. They're made right. They're correct in style and coloring, and unless you're a "freak" no "suit to order" can be gotten up that will fit you any better. The "ready made" price is usually twenty eight dollars and the "custom" price forty.

In order that our Furnishing Goods men may not get "lost in the shuffle," we will offer until they're gone 100 dozen ELEGANT SILK SUSPENDERS, actual value $1.00, at..... 45c

THE WINDOWS ON BOTH STREETS TELL INTERESTING STORIES.

Nebraska Clothing Co.

Drs. BETTS & BETTS, PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND SPECIALISTS, 1409 DOUGLAS ST., OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

He Was a Member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 1.—Rev. G. P. Riley, who was refused fellowship in the Wesleyan Methodist general conference because he had joined the Grand Army of the Republic, a secret society, stirred up a lively scene at the closing session of the conference.

Small in size, great in results; DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best pill for constipation, best for sick headache, best for sour stomach.

Charged with Bigamy. Lewis Carter, who lives at Nineteenth and Huron streets, was arrested by Officer Keyser yesterday forenoon on a warrant charging him with bigamy. The crime is alleged to have been committed last July.

No griping, no nausea, no pain when DeWitt's Little Early Risers are taken Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill.

Luther R. Wright will be named upon the ticket as candidate for county judge at the election Tuesday.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. D. Kemp of Norfolk, is at the Casey. John J. King of West Point, is at the Casey.

Dr. Bailey, 1515 1/2 Douglas St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Bailey, 1515 1/2 Douglas St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Bailey, 1515 1/2 Douglas St., Omaha, Neb.

MOORE'S TREE OF LIFE, PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND SPECIALISTS, 1409 DOUGLAS ST., OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

IT WORKED WONDERS. The following is an extract from a letter of Rev. J. W. Carter to Rev. J. T. Mumford:

"It has benefited my wife so much I want her to continue the use of the medicine. Taking into consideration her age (69 years) and the long standing of her liver and kidney troubles, the Tree of Life has worked wonders in her case."

NEUROUS DEBILITY AND SEXUAL DISTURBANCES yield readily to their special treatment.

HYDROCELE AND VARICOCELE permanently cured without pain or detention from business.

STRICTURE Guaranteed permanently cured, without operation, by the use of our exclusive, caustic or dilatation. Cure effected at home by patient without a moment's pain or inconvenience.

TO YOUNG AND MIDDLE-AGED MEN A Sure Cure The awful effects of early venereal disease, which brings organic disease of the blood and body, with all its dreaded life, permanently cured.

DRS. BETTS & BETTS, 1409 Douglas St., OMAHA, - - NEBRASKA.

THE ADELINA PATTI 10c CIGAR 10c

Is The Best In the market. TRY IT AND BE CONVINCED.

POND'S EXTRACT, WILL CURE PILES, CATARRH, SORE EYES, LAMENESS, SORENESS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, BURNS, HEMORRAGES, INFLAMMATIONS.

WILL CURE PILES. I have long known its value in relieving piles. It is the prince of remedies in all forms of hemorrhoids.

CATARRH. I have been a constant sufferer from Catarrh of the bladder for many years. Pond's Extract has cured me.

SORE EYES. It has cured my eye in a few days. I had a large swelling on my eye, which had been to the bone.

LAMENESS. I have been