

SOUTH OMAHA'S EMPTY PURSE

Efforts That Will Be Made to Replenish the Exhausted Exchequer.

RACING FOR THE Q STREET VIADUCT.

Omaha Street Railway Company Rejected by the Police—The Matter of Reimbursement—City in Brief.

The South Omaha city treasurer says that the fiscal year ending in August showed an overplus in the financial affairs of the city of $7,750. He believes that the shortage will be the same this present fiscal year, making a total of nearly $10,000. The treasurer believes that the only way out of the difficulty is to impose an occupation tax of 25¢ on the saloons of the city.

Levinson's Story. M. Levinson called at this office this morning and denied the truth of the stories that Judge Levi has been circulating about Levinson's cruel treatment of his mother, Mr. Levinson also denies ever having invited her from Europe. A younger son, A. Levinson of New York, sent her. After living with him for four months she wrote to M. Levinson that she was sick with rheumatism and wanted to come and live with him in Nebraska. She came here and stayed with Mr. Levinson for some months and during this time he sent money to help support her children in Europe. When his wife refused to send any more money she began sneering and went to live with her brother, I. Kateky. After she had lived with him two months she became sick. M. Levinson states that he sent her a medical man, Dr. Water, and also paid for all her medicines. She asked for a ticket to go to New York, and he offered to furnish that money, but she backed out and would not go. While she was dangerously sick her brother, I. Kateky, sent her in a carriage to M. Levinson and had her deposited on his doorstep. As the latter was unable to pay in advance the sum required by the hospital authorities before they would take his mother in he was obliged to send her to the county hospital. As a proof that he has not ill-treated her he states that his wife visits his mother daily and always carries with her some of the present, either in the shape of food or clean clothes.

High Rentals in South Omaha.

"Do you know why there are so many empty houses in South Omaha?" asked a citizen today of a Real Reporter. "No," was the reply. "Well, I will tell you. It is all on account of the hoglessness of landlords. It is a fact that no one can truthfully contradict, that rents are fully 25 per cent higher in South Omaha than they are in Omaha, and 40 per cent higher than they are in Council Bluffs. The landlords here paid almost nothing for the ground on which their houses stand and they evidently intend to make tenants pay for both house and ground every year. This average spirit on the part of landlords keeps fully 30 per cent of the persons employed in South Omaha from living in this city. Hundreds of the persons working here live in Omaha and Council Bluffs, where rents ought to be higher, but in fact are so much cheaper that money is saved by living in those cities and paying car fare in addition, to get to work in this city.

Tried to Steal a Train. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made by the Omaha Street Railway company to tear up the asphalt pavement on Twenty-fourth street, between Q and R streets for the purpose of laying tracks to Q street. A gang of workmen with picks and shovels were on hand and there was a load of ties ready for the track as soon as laid. Captain O'Hara of the police force heard the commotion, and when he saw what was up he promptly stopped the work.

Not a Fee Building. The new building of Buck, Eggers & Eggers, on Twenty-fourth street near N, is rapidly nearing completion, and is pronounced the finest business block in the city. At the top of the building are in large letters the initials of the builders, "B. E. & E." without any punctuation whatever. Several persons have asked if Mr. Rosewater had erected the building for the benefit of some department of his great family. One gentleman said: "That man Rosewater is a genius. It won't be long before he has a Bee building in every city in the state."

Tobbed by a Whitewasher. Mrs. Savage, who lives on West side, believes that she has been wronged by a Bohemian who was doing whitewashing for her and her son Alexander has caused the issuance of a warrant for the fellow's arrest. Mrs. Savage says that $30 was put in the drawer of a dresser this morning, and after the Bohemian had finished whitewashing the room she looked in the drawer to see if the money was still there, but discovered that it was missing. She therefore believed that he took the money.

Almost Lost His Nose. Pierce Kisser, an employe in the tin department of the Cudahy packing house, struck a fellow workman named Nathan Evans over the face with a large piece of tin and cut a frightful gash. The wound is just being brought to the hospital and the workman member was almost completely severed. Owing to the frequency of such assaults the packing company will see that Kisser is punished.

Two Cars of Fancy Cattle. Among the offerings yesterday was a bunch of grade Polled Angus heaves that averaged a round 1,400 pounds, for which a shaggy bid $5.75. They were the best cattle that have been here for months, and will sell either here or in Chicago for a high price.

Magic City Miniatures. Robert T. Maxwell will go to Texas next week. Deputy Postmaster James McKinney has returned from Peru. Chase Krigler, who for five years has been with the Howell & Howell coal company, has sold his team to Dick Pearson. The second annual ball of the local division of the National Letter Carriers association will be held in the city hall on Monday night.

Preventive for Croup. We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 35 cents, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by druggists.

Was in Trouble. Joseph Sexton is a Cook county, Ill., lawyer who has been prospecting in the bi-chorial of gold fields in Blair, but who has relinquished his research in consequence of coming to Omaha and to work on a base

VELASCO'S HOUR OF TRIUMPH.

Glory of Deep Water Will Be Celebrated in True Texas Fashion.

ALL THE WORLD IS INVITED TO COME.

Grand Oyster Roast and Free Ship Excursion to the Guests of the Lusty Young Giant of the Gulf.

VELASCO, TEX., Nov. 28.—[Special Correspondence of THE BEE.]—On the 15th of next month this infant city will celebrate the accomplishment of deep water.

For twenty long years the great West has wished and waited for a deep harbor on the Gulf coast of Texas. Today they have their wish at Velasco, the mouth of the Brazos river where it empties into the Gulf of Mexico, private money and western enterprise has accomplished what government money, expended under the direction of government engineers, entirely failed in.

Captain Eads put to shame the silk-shirted, kid-gloved, sleek and well-fed engineers of the United States at the mouth of the Mississippi river, and now again Mr. E. E. Corbell, who is Captain Eads' chief, has heaped more shame upon them at the mouth of the Brazos river. They reported that the jetties at the Mississippi's mouth would fail of what Captain Eads promised. Every schoolboy knows the triumph of brave Captain Eads.

They reported that at the mouth of the Brazos a channel 150 feet wide and 100 feet deep could not be maintained. In two years a channel seventeen and seven-tenths feet deep and 250 feet wide has been opened without dredges, and the scour of the river is not only maintaining it, but wearing it deeper every day.

It Did Not Cost Uncle Sam One Cent either. Now we are rejoicing and we ask all the 13,000,000 people of the west to come down on the 15th of December and rejoice with us.

The railroads will sell you round trip tickets for one fare, good for thirty days, and will take the best care of you. Our deep water on our landlocked harbor belongs to you. Every producer in the west has a "dollar and cent" interest in Velasco. Every taxpayer in the union must be its friend, because it is a public work which has been accomplished without digging into his pocket for the cost.

A city is building already. The great ocean's commerce of the world has rushed through the channel made by the jetties into Velasco and is demanding business and employment. Cotton, sugar and lumber from the coast, coal, silks in large ships which could not get into the Gulf ports without expensive lighterage charges, are demanding that Velasco take their cargoes and give them quick and efficient service. Wheat, flour and meats.

Velasco is only 135 days old, but its commerce is established; every department of trade is inviting, begging some one to take the business. Three hundred and thirty-two acres have already been established, but the business of a city of 15,000 or 20,000 people would not be enough to answer the demands.

In 135 days at private sale $715,000 worth of lots have been sold. On the 16th and 17th of December there will be a public auction of every other block in the city. These blocks have been reserved for this sale. You can at that time buy lots which are across the street from great brick business blocks which are being piled up as fast as men can handle brick and mortar.

All railroads will give information as to how you can get it by writing to the Velasco Commercial club.

Come down and see us grow, whether you buy a lot or not. You may need a tonic and three days with us where the roses are blooming in every yard and oysters sleep in every creek, will repay you for the trip. We will welcome you. Remember the dates of the harbor opening with oyster roast and ship excursion, December 15. The auction sale of December 16. We will give our right hand in welcome to all who come.

O. W. CRAWFORD.

JUDGE DUNDY SUSTAINED.

United States Supreme Court On the Subject of Attorneys' Fees.

When Judge Caldwell of the United States circuit court here in Omaha a year ago, he made a ruling which stunned some of the attorneys before the Omaha bar. The case in point was a foreclosure suit which had been transferred from the state to the federal court. The attorney sought to obtain a fee in the case, Judge Caldwell held this to be unreasonable and unjust. He ruled that attorneys in such cases were not entitled to fees. There was a score or more of similar suits pending in the court at the time. Judge Dundy of the district court, sitting with Judge Caldwell at the time, declined to concur in the ruling of the latter. It will be remembered that the former said at that time that his court had, for years, allowed the customary attorney's fee in foreclosure cases and such ruling had been affirmed by Justices Miller and Brewer during successive terms of court in Omaha. He saw, he said, no reason for changing his mind on the subject.

Last night Elmer Frank, clerk of the district court, received notification from Washington that the supreme court had passed on the matter and that the ruling of Judge Dundy and Caldwell, and that the old practice of this court had been sustained.

A Narrow Escape.

Persons subject to cramps will be interested in the experience of J. P. Miles, West-Verde county, Pa. He was taken very severely and called in two doctors who prescribed for him but failed to give him relief. A druggist of Butler, Pa., then gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in twenty minutes he was all right and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

Unpleasant Episode in Mr. Brace's Last Motor Ride.

W. A. Brace, residing on Twenty-first and Nicholas streets, last night accompanied the feat of alighting from a moving motor train. Having done so he will remain in bed for several days. He will devote his spare time to nursing a badly bruised foot.

Brace was a passenger on an outgoing north Twenty-fourth street train. At Eighteenth and Cumine street he stepped off the rear end of the motor and was caught by the front platform of the trailer. After being rolled along the track for a distance of several feet, a wheel of the trailer passed over his right foot, bruising and cutting it in a frightful manner.

The man was taken to Swanson's undertaking shop and a physician called. The wounded foot was dressed and Brace was conveyed to his home.

DEEP CUTS

Have you had the pleasure of taking a good long tramp through the different parts of Omaha lately? If you haven't you can hardly realize the amount of work that's being done in every direction. Real estate is "moving." Take it on Douglas up above, say, 17th, you'll see cuts thirty feet deep. Looks as if a man would want a balloon to get home with. If you went up there yesterday for the first time in six months you'd swear you never saw the place before. (You'd be tempted to swear at the mud, too, perhaps.) Take it again on Harney west of 28th. Where was wont to be the trysting place of numberless bullfrogs in a pond 'way down in a deep hollow, and where one old fellow used to sing "go round, go round, go round," every evening after seven, you'll find it all filled in and a nice, wide street extending 'way west. The frogs have simply moved, you can't kill the "croakers" in Omaha yet. Go in any direction and you'll see marked improvements—but when you're out walking you'll need an Overcoat to keep you comfortable. Our tremendous sales of these garments for the past few weeks have greatly reduced our stock, several lines being practically wiped out. Particularly is this true in medium priced goods. It's too late to replace them; we do better for you, we mark down several lines of finer grades to the prices you want to pay. In fact, the story this week is Deep Cuts

IN OVERCOATS

AT $10.50

An immense big line of extremely fine Kersey Overcoats in black, brown, tan, bronze, slate, stone, drab and steel, with set velvet collars or self collars, with fine cassimere linings, full satin sleeve linings and canton flannel pockets. These garments are regular fifteen dollar ones, but we've made a quick price on them, ten-fifty.

AT $12.00

The garments that we have today reduced to twelve dollars are without doubt the best garments we have ever sold at this price. They are made of an extremely fine heavy Kersey. They are lined with fine cassimere, have fine heavy satin sleeve linings, self collars and canton flannel pockets. The value of these garments you'll appreciate better when we tell you that not a garment was ever sold for less than sixteen-fifty until this week.

AT $13.50

We are offering several hundred regular eighteen dollar Overcoats. These garments are made of very fine Kersey. They are lined with either the finest kind of Farmer satin or plaid cassimere; have set velvet collar, heavy full satin sleeve lining, and are gotten up with all the attention to details that you get at your tailors. These garments come only in black, blue black and blue.

Go in any direction and you'll see marked improvements—but when you're out walking you'll need an Overcoat to keep you comfortable. Our tremendous sales of these garments for the past few weeks have greatly reduced our stock, several lines being practically wiped out. Particularly is this true in medium priced goods. It's too late to replace them; we do better for you, we mark down several lines of finer grades to the prices you want to pay. In fact, the story this week is Deep Cuts

AT $10.50

An immense big line of extremely fine Kersey Overcoats in black, brown, tan, bronze, slate, stone, drab and steel, with set velvet collars or self collars, with fine cassimere linings, full satin sleeve linings and canton flannel pockets. These garments are regular fifteen dollar ones, but we've made a quick price on them, ten-fifty.

AT $12.00

The garments that we have today reduced to twelve dollars are without doubt the best garments we have ever sold at this price. They are made of an extremely fine heavy Kersey. They are lined with fine cassimere, have fine heavy satin sleeve linings, self collars and canton flannel pockets. The value of these garments you'll appreciate better when we tell you that not a garment was ever sold for less than sixteen-fifty until this week.

AT $13.50

We are offering several hundred regular eighteen dollar Overcoats. These garments are made of very fine Kersey. They are lined with either the finest kind of Farmer satin or plaid cassimere; have set velvet collar, heavy full satin sleeve lining, and are gotten up with all the attention to details that you get at your tailors. These garments come only in black, blue black and blue.
