BACK FROM DES MOINES.

Result of the General Conference of the City Officials-Changes in Laws.

Mayor Macrae, Aldermen Pace and Wood, City Attorney Stewart and Surveyor Tostevin returned yesterday noon from Des Moines, where they went to attend a meeting of the officials of some of the leading cities of the state. Most of the time was spent in deliberating upon questions connected with municipal affairs, and a number of steps were taken which will be apt to lead to important legislation in the near future. The question of allowing cities having a certain population to levy a tax of 5 mills or less for city lighting purposes was brought up, but a resolution favoring it was brought up, but a resolution lavoring it was defeated, owing to the decided stand taken by the Biuffs delegation. "In looking around," said Mayor Macrae in speaking of this question, "I find that in speaking of this question, "I find that Council Bluffs is in a much better condition in every way than almost any other city in the state. Many cities are heavily in debt and would like to have a way invented for raising the necessary funds to carry on their running expenses. We are not troubled in that way, and so our delegation opposed the plan with all our might, and induced the Burlington and several other delegations to look at the thing in our way."

This plan did not work, however, in considering the question of allowing cities to levy a tax of 5 mills or less for fire protection, for a resolution favoring it was

On comparing notes the various mayors found that they had all had trouble in recon-ciling the offices of marshal and chief of police, there being considerable friction between the incumbents. A resolution was passed favoring the passage of a law uniting the two offices in one and allowing the chief of police to perform the duties of both, pro-vided his appointment should be left in the hands of the mayor and not the people.

The Bluffs delegation speak in high terms of the way in which they were entertained by the people of Des Moines. On Wednesday evening they were entertained at a banquet an almost unheard of thing in Des Moines which has a reputation of allowing visitors t ook after themselves as a general thing.

Grand Jury Returns Five Indictments Against Kimball and Champ.

CHARGES THEM WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Grand Larceny Also Included-What the Specifications Are-Ball Furnished for the Assurad Attorney Burks Outlines the Defense,

The grand jury, which has been in session for over four weeks, made its second and last report vesterday morning and was discharged. The session has been the longest held in this county for years, the cause of the length being the vast amount of business connected with the Kimball-Champ cases. Five indictments were returned against each of the two men, four being for larceny and one for embezzlement. The warrants were served on them at the office of their attorneys, Burke & Casady, and ball was at once secured, their bond being fixed at $10,-500 and signed by J. F. Kimball, George H. Champ, D. Carrigg, J. J. Shea, C. E. H. Campbell, and James Soguin.

In the various indictments they are charged with embezzing $500 belonging to George Olcott of Charlestown, N. H., and the larceny of $2,833.33 from D. W. Archer, of the Keene Five-cent Savings bank; $1,485 from the Littleton, (N. H.), National bank; $859 from J. C. Teller of Denver, and $143,000 from the Kimball-Champ Investment com-

The defendants claim, with reference to the charge of embezzlement, that the $500 had been fully paid back to its rightful owner before the case was submitted to the grand jury, and that they hold a receipt for the amount. In regard to the Archer claim and the claims of the two banks, they state that the shortage is fully covered in the trust deed to the Manhattan and other individual property which they executed on the day they made their assignment, and that the amounts claimed to have been stolen represented money that was in the hands of the Investment company standing as credits on the books, but not remitted to its owners.

In connection with the case, Attorney Fin-ley Burke, who represents the defendants, spoke as follows: It is evident from the indictment returned that the complaints used before the grand jury are not of alleged wrongs to our own people, but alleged wrongs to eastern capi-talists. The acts are acts of the investment talists. The acts are acts of the investment company, which, in the nature of things, must have been known to the other officers and employes of the company. In one case, that of Teller, the court has already passed on athe case by making an order on the receiver of the Kimball-Champ Investment company to pay the amount out of the assets of the company. The chief charge purports to be made on behalf of the eastern stock-holders, but, we claim that the stockholders.

nolders, but we claim that the stockholders have not authorized such use of their names and it is known that Messrs. Kimball & Champ put in the hands of Mr. Milton Jackson, an honorable man representing holders of $39,000 worth of invest-ment company stock, for their use and can ceted $35,000 so that the effect is to reduce the stock $124,000. We also claim that this overdraft is greatly exaggerated and that there is nothing criminal in it, but a mere matter of the difference of opinion as to the advisability of building a hotel in Council Bluffs and that if a mistake it has been more than provided against by the deeds to the company and transfer and cancellation of stock. The company had a capital of $300,-000. If Kimball & Champ surrendered and canceled $124,000, this reduced the stock by that amount so as to make it a company of $176,000, and this covers any impairment of the balance of stock." of the balance of stock."

In addition to the above indictments were returned as follows: E. G. Tobin, who stole $17 from the pocket of J. Y.- Hendricks of Shenandoah at the Kiel house, larceny in a building; William Criss, who stole $32.50 belonging to Mrs. Anna Pralor, larceny; E. R. Rowe, embezzling $164 belonging to W. A. Edwards & Co. of Des Moines; William Probatele selling mortgaged property. It is Probstele, selling mortgaged property. It is claimed that Probstele mortgaged a couple of billiard tables to N. Schurz, which after wards turned out to be the property of the nue Licked Up This Morning. This morning an alarm from box 125 called a part of the fire department to Twenty-eighth street and Woolworth avenue. When the firemen arrived there they discovered three-story frame dwelling, owned by E. E. Leavenworth, a mass of flames.

It was almost a waste of energy on the part of the firemen to endeavor to do any thing more than keep the fire from spreading to adjoining buildings, and as it was Mr Leavenworth's house was completely destroyed, entailing a loss of $6,000.

The house has been vacant for three months, and it is supposed the fire was started by tramps who have used the place as a lodging house. odging house, Bad roads delayed the firemen from making a prompt response to the alarm.

Cleaned Them Out. At 2:20 fire was discovered in a row of frame houses at North Thirtieth and Garfield avenue, owned by Mrs. Bechel. Two one-story cottages, occupied by laborers, and a two-story frame, occupied by Ed Brooks as a general store, were totally destroyed. The loss will reach about $3,500 to $4,000.

Steamer Ashore. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 5.-The steamer ashore at Brigantine shoals is the Venezuela of the Red Line, from La Guayra, bound for New York, with a crew of forty-five and eieven passengers. Her cargo consists of coffee and hides. She is under command of Captain J. Zahumers. At the time the steamer went on the shoals she was under full steam, and during the heavy snow storm the captain was unable to sight land. It is doubtful if she can be floated, and if not, the passengers will be landed on Brigantine beach tonight by the crews of the life saving station. The Venezuela is owned by Bolton Briss & Dallett of New York City.

Union Poelfic Trainmen Have Their Claims Rejected by Mr. Dickinson The conference between Assistant General Manager Dickinson of the Union Pacific and the joint grievance committee representing the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was short and inconclusive. A press committee ap pointed by the employes makes the following statement: "The committee called on Mr. Dickinson at the appointed hour and was kept waiting thirty minutes before gaining an audience. The committee last week submitted a new schedule of wages, and at the conference Mr. Dickinson made a statement purporting to give the aggregate increase of wages under the proposed schedule, According to his own statements his figures were based on the service of three of the busiest months of the year. Careful estimates made by the committee indicate that the aggregate increase will not exceed 60 per cent of the sum named by the assistant general manager.

"The committee proposed discussing the now schedule article by article, but Mr. Dickinson positively refused to entertain a proposition for an increase of wages until the schedule was withdrawn. That would have left the committee without a cause,

Will Appeal to Clark. "Its members felt aggrieved at the scant courtesy shown them as the representatives of two great organizations of railroad men, and they left Mr. Dickinson resolved to appeal to General Manager S. H. H. Clark. Telegrams have been sent to E. E. Clark, grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and S. E. Wilkinson, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and they have started for Omaha. General Manager Clark has also been wired, and we expect he will meet our grand officers in this city next week."

Members of the committees think a conference with the general manager will be reached by next Wednesday. At one time Mr. Clark was expected in Omaha this week, but it was given out at his office yesterday but it was given out at his office yesterday that he contemplated a trip south from St. Louis. and the date of his arrival in this city was said to be very uncertain. The committees are confident that Mr. Clark will promptly respond to their call to come to Omaha, but they will vouchsafe no reason for their faith beyond smiling assurances that they "know he will be here."

DECEIVED BY EMPLOYMENT AGENTS. Laborers Sent on a Wild Goose Chase—Hardships Suffered. WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 5 .- Twenty-five laboring men passed through here on foot today on their way from Oklahoma to Kansas City. They tell a pitiful tale of deception by an employment agent and subsequent hardship and suffering. When the announcement was made in the news papers that the Rock Island was extending its line through Oklahoma to Texas, Employment Agent Payne of Kansas City advertised for men to work on the line. Twenty-five men answered the advertisement and on pay ment of $15 were promised transportation to the place of work and employment when they should reach there. The completeness with which steam has superseded sail in the ocean carrying trade may be seen from the fact that of 1,238 vessels which carried cargoes of grain from this port during the year 1891, only fifteen were sailing vessels. There were shipped from New York during 1891 68,222,528 bushels of American grain to feed the hungry mouths of Europe. England Gets the Most. Great Britain has the lion's share of the world's carrying trade, and no less than 792 ship loads left this port under the British flag last year. MILLS DECLARES HIMSELF.

He Outlines His Policy at a Dinner Given by the Reform Club. New York, Feb. 5 .- A dinner was given Feb. 5. - By Mexican Caple to the New York Herald-Special to THE BEE. |- Judge onight at the Reform club to Roger Q. Mills by President Emory Anderson and Thomas G. Shearman, Ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild, Francis L. Stetson, Congressman A. P. Fitch, Everett B. Wheeler, Louis B. Ahumada and Rodriguez," he said, "in strict Windmiller and other well known Cleveland accordance with the Chilian law. The only democrats were present.

Mr. Mills was the speaker of the evening, and for the first time indicated in a public speech the line of action to be followed by himself and friends in the present congress regarding the tariff. His first were in reference to the check tariff had received in the the house of its friends at a time when to waver was dangerous. He declared his intention to oppose the proposed hide-away and stand-still measures that some demo-cratic leaders advocated. He scouted the idea of going back to the tariff of 1873 and accepting that as a final settlement. He said the democrats had been fighting that tariff for years and he was for carrying on war, eternal, un-compromising war. At the close of his speech Mr. Mills said: "I will follow wherefighting that tariff for ever the flag points to fair trade; I will fol-low wherever the flag goes, no matter who carries it, and I will fight wherever the battle

Her Husband Was Faithless. CRESTON, Ia., Feb. 5 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE |- Mrs. C. W. Myers, living in the northeastern part of the city, took an ounce of laudanum last evening with sur-cidal intent because of the faithlessness of her husband. A physician was summoned and a hypodermic injection of apomorphic was given. Twenty minutes later the poison was ejected and she became con-scious. An overdose of the poison saved her life. C. W. Myers is traveling with Taylor's Creston circus. Last season when circus came into winter quarters here Myers put up at the local boarding house with a woman who claimed to be his wife Two weeks later his real wife appeared. The first woman then skipped and Myers lived with his wife here for a couple of months, when he left town.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers for the liver. Teams and Tools.

Good teams and the most approved implements are essential factors in arming, and both should be provided before the busy season opers. No farmer worthy of the name will begin his spring work with weak, crow-bait teams, or old style, shackly machines. Pherefore, let working animals be put in good condition for the heavy labor will soon be required to perform, and all farm machinery be prepared for use when wanted. Now, also, is the time to purchase or engage such new tools and implements as may be needed. Farmers who give these matters timely attention will be likely to make progress in the right direction.

A CELEBRATED CASE

MASTER ELMER BALLARD RE-LATES HIS OWN STORY

Which proves to be one of the most interesting of the best series-Catarrh dangerous with children.

In the practice of medicine many intricate restions present themselves for solution One of these remarkable cases is found in the person of Master Elmer Ballard who resides with his parents at 2576 Spaulding street, this Master Elmer is twelve years old and for the bast seven years he has been a sufferer from headaches, a constant piercing pain just over the eyes, extending to the back of the head, it was so severe that it seemed as though the little fellow would lose his reason; he was examined by many physicians, and was under their constant care, trying if possible to gain some relief, as his suffering was gradually westing away his young life.

MASTER ELMER BALLARD. Master Bailard is a very bright child for one of his are, and in his own words we give his description of his terrible suffering. He says:
"I have suffered so much that life seemed a burden to me. I don't remember how the trouble began, but it manifested liself in racking head pains. The pains seemed to center over my eye. Every day I had these headaches, and they WOULD DRIVE ME CRAZY AT TIMES.

WOULD DRIVE ME CRAZY AT TIMES.

"Then my whole head was stopped up. My nose emitted a yellowish matter that was bad smelling and very offensive. My throat was choked with matter also, so that I could scarcely breathe when I lay down for sleep. My hearing and smelling became poor, my throat was sore. I was restless and could not sleep. I lost all desire to cat, and when I ate always suffered from after effects. In this condition my parents took me to Drs. Copeland. Shepard & Mansfield. After a thorough examination they said they could cure me, and they did. My parents are highly clatted over their success. and I am only too glad to recommend them to all who might be in my condition."

THE EYE AND EAR.

What the Discharge fr m the Ear Can el by the Caterchal Trouble Ind c t s.

Catairh Dangers wi h child en.

"In the extension of catarrh to the ears," said Dr. W. H. Copeland to the writer, "next to the rinzing and buzzing noises so often described, the symptom most frequently met with by the specialist is the discharge or suppuration from the ear."

"And it is indeed," continued the doctor, "a symptom that demands prompt and skillful attention. Especially in the cases of children should the appearance of this discharge from the ear be taken as a warning sign. It is met with often in connection with catarrhal conditions following scarlet fever, measles or diphtheria. In these discases it should be remembered that the delicate inner inling—the nucus membrane, as well as the outer lining—the skin is inflamed and irritated. From the throat and nasal passages, the condition becoming sub-acute or chronic long after the acute symptoms have passed long after the acute symptoms have passed long after the acute symptoms have passed away, the catarrhai process extends along the Eustachian tubes to the ear. Sometimes it affects the bones of the ear, causing their destruction or necrosis. A peculiar fetth odor from the discharge indicates that necrosis has set in. Sometimes the brain itself is reached, and abcesses of the brain ensue. You must remember that the middle ear is separated from the brain only by a thin and delicate partition.

"The reason I say there is so much danger

"The reason I say there is so much danger from suppuration of the ear in children is, that often in childhood that partition between the mildle car and the brain amounts to hardly more than a delicate membrane, and how easily the brain may be effected and death ensue in a few days' time may be readily appreciated,

"None but the physician know how baffling and exasperating are these cases of suppuration in older people, or how frequently they lead to fatal results, producing mastold atcesses. The case of the late Roscoe Conking is still fresh in the memory of the profession. The worst feature of the disease is the stealthy and insiduous manner of its attack. The suppuration may continue for years without serious results, and in other cases with hardly a day's warning an absecss may form and death follow."

A JUST VERDICT.

Drs. Copeland, Shepard and Mansfield can cure catarrh.

The signed statement of Mr. A. G. Hollander of 1309 S. 3rd street, is con-

"Is this Mr. Hollander?" asked your corre spondent of an elderly gentleman as he was entering the New York Life building the other evening.

"Yes, I am Mr. Hollander." "Well, I understand you have been treating vith Drs. Copeland, Shepard & Mansfield.

"That is true." "May I ask you if you have been benefitted?" "You may ask and I will answer you very emphatically I have received great benefits while under their professional care.

emphatically I have received great benefits while under their professional care.

Some years ago my trouble began with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, at first it did not e use much alarm until I contracted a cough that was so severe that it racked my whole system. Sharp shooting pains would take me in the chest and extending back to the shoulder blades.

My ness was constantly stopped up first one side then the other, roaring noises in the ears, dut, heavy headaches over the eyes and in the back part of my head. I was always hawking and spitting, trying to raise the substance that seemed to be constantly filling up my throat.

I could not sleep at night and what little sleep I did get seemed to do me no good, for upon arising in the morning I would be as tired as when I went to bed. I was gradually losing fiesh and as my cough was so much worse. I decided to consult a physician, but I was not through with one for several others treated me but each falled to find the right cause of my trouble. In reading the paners I read of a friend of mine who had been cared by Drs. Copeland, Shepard and Mansileid and decided to call upon them, I did and can say they have done more forme than I could hope for and can heartily recommend them to the public.

NOTHING IS BETTER than the best; it is what you pay for, and expect to have. Take railways, for instance; the best line to Chicago and the East is the Burlington Route; it has the best sleeping cars, the best reclining chair cars, the best dining cars, the best road-bed, and the metropolitan system of checking baggage direct from one's residence or hotel, which was inaugurated three years ago, is the best. Everything in connection with the Burlington Route is of the best, than which nothing can be better. Trains leave the Union Depot, Omaha, at 9:50 a.m., 4:30 p.m. (The Vestibuled Flyer) and 9:20 p.m. (The Omaha and Chicago Limited), and run through solid.
