MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. Crafts' chandeliers, 304 Sapp block.

For Sale—My house, Mrs. J. Lyman. A team belonging to Dr. Hancock dashed out of the barn last evening with a buggy attached and ran for about half a mile.

All persons, old or young, male or female, who are willing to canvass for funds for Russian relief fund in the Fourth ward are requested to come to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following parties: Grant Pilling and Anna W. Lewis of Grove township; Leven E. Harr of Fullerton, Neb., and Anna L. Van Drait of Oakland Ia.; Beate Stafford of Shelby, Ia., and Ella V. Allbaugh of Chicago.

The solicitors for the Russian relief fund in the Second ward are Mrs. O. H. Lucas, W. C. Easton, R. H. Rowley, A. C. Lockwell, Enderton, E. Ditty, Miss Jeanie Kelly. The committee will report at Mrs. G. H. Brown's on Myrtle street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Stephenson's class in the First Baptist church will give an entertainment in the church Thursday evening for the purpose of raising funds to carry on a work of charity that has been going on by it in the way of taking fruits and flowers to the sick through the city. A fine musical and literary program has been prepared, and the entertainment should be well patronized.

Harry Kealey did not have the money to pay his way into the show at the opera house last evening, but he was bound to see the show anyway. He accordingly climbed in at a window, and was taken to the police station and spent the night in the city jail on a charge of vagrancy.

A suit for a divorce was commenced in the district court yesterday by Francis M. Wolf against Eva A. Wolf. The petition alleged in the petition that the parties were married in Lewistown, Fulton county, Ill., in 1884, and lived together until two years ago last January, when Mrs. Wolf deserted her husband. He demands a divorce and the custody of their 6-year-old daughter, Ethel, who has lived with him ever since her mother's departure.

George Frederick Westrip, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Westrip, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. He became afflicted with curvature of the spine fourteen months ago and it was considered necessary to perform a surgical operation upon him. It was successful, however, and from that time to the day of his death he never left his bed. The funeral will occur Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 705 Myrtle street.

Alderman L. A. Caspar was made the victim of another surprise yesterday morning in honor of his birthday. While he was at breakfast his employees, to the number of sixteen, filed in, headed by the foreman, and stood before him. His first thought was that a strike was on foot, but in a few seconds he was considerably reassured by one of the strikers, who presented him with a magnificent gold pocket watch chain, engraved on one side with the name of the recipient and the date, while the other side was set in rubies and diamonds.

The announcement that J. D. Crockwell had secured an exact duplicate of the baby carriage presented little Ruth Cleveland having been questioned by competitors, he produces the original order, corresponding to a photograph of the manufacturer's themselves, fully corroborating Mr. Crockwell's claim. The elegant carriage was sold yesterday to Mr. Teal, master mechanic of the Sioux City & Pacific, as a present to his daughter, Mrs. August Boreheim.

Immense Stock of Spring Goods Just Received—See the Display. All this week we have been receiving consignments of spring goods, and next week we shall have on display all the latest novelties in dress goods, hosiery, etc. Come in and see the new fabrics. NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

A. O. Graham Named as the Democratic Candidate for Mayor.

HE HAD EVERYTHING HIS OWN WAY

Maerz was Not in the Race at Any Stage of the Game—How the Successful Ones Engineered the Convention.

The democrats held their city convention yesterday afternoon. All day Sunday had been spent by the candidates in preparing for the fray, and the liveliest interest was manifested by both republicans and democrats to see how those maneuverers had changed the state of affairs since the caucuses on Saturday night. All sorts of rumors were afloat with reference to the nominations that might be made, and there was just enough apparent reliability about them to give a relish to the prospect. Half an hour before the time for opening the convention rolled around the delegates, candidates and spectators began to arrive, and the super-courtesy room, where the convention was to be held, for the late comers were just being occupied by the candidates and their wire-pullers when the convention opened at 7 o'clock.

Shortly after 7 o'clock the convention was called to order by W. H. Knepper, who called J. J. Shea to the chair as temporary chairman. John H. Mithen was appointed temporary secretary, and a committee of six was chosen as a committee on credentials, composed as follows: J. R. Detrick of the Third, J. R. McPherson of the First, W. H. Knepper of the Second, Ernest Thompson of the Fourth, W. C. Morris of the Fifth and C. Graves of the Sixth. After the report of the committee had been made the chairman appointed as a committee on resolutions, consisting of Dr. T. B. Lacey, W. H. Knepper and William Maloney. The report of this committee was read, and the temporary organization was made permanent, and the report was concurred in, in spite of Chairman Shea's statement that he should feel at liberty to call any other delegate to the chair at any time he might think his presence was needed on the floor.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for mayor. There were fifty-three votes cast. The result of the informal ballot was as follows: A. O. Graham, 28; Josiah Danforth, 5; S. B. Wadsworth, 19; D. Maerz, 3. On the first formal ballot Graham received 33 votes, Wadsworth 19 and J. E. F. Perkins 10. The second formal ballot was held, and the result was as follows: A. O. Graham, 37; S. B. Wadsworth, 13; J. E. F. Perkins, 3. The result of the third formal ballot was as follows: A. O. Graham, 43; S. B. Wadsworth, 10; J. E. F. Perkins, 3.
