B. F. Clayton is still at work securing contributions to the Russian relief fund. So far he has collected and sent away four cars loaded with corn, and he expects to have six more cars on the way by the last of next week. He expects to have the business settled up by the 25th.

W. F. Sapp has returned from Des Moines. While there he took occasion to feel the legis-lative pulse on the question of temperance legislation, and states that from all he can learn, the chances for the Gatch high license local option bill passing the house of representatives are very slight.

Addie G., wife of J. J. Maurath, died last evening at 7 o'clock, aged 27 years, at her residence, 802 Avenue C. after an illness of one week. Her maiden name was Addie G. Rich, and she was married to the husband who still survives her eight years ago. No-lice of the funeral will be given later.

George Meschendorf had an express wagon stolen from his place about two weeks ago, and ever since then he has been on the track of the missing vehicle. Thursday night he found it in the possession of a man on South Madison street, who claimed to have bought it from Zed Bethers, who is now in the county jail serving out a thirty day sentence for one of the petty crimes which have made his name familiar to police court habitues. An information will probably be filed against Bethers as soon as he completes his present term of imprisonment.

A dog light was arranged for last evening at Coyle's saloon on the corner of Broadway and Twenty-first street. One of the dogs was from Omaha, while the other was a home talent artist. They were both on the field and a crowd of about twenty-live sports of this city and Omaha who were let into the secret had gathered to see the fun, when they were notified by Officer Peterson that the patrol wagon would be on the scene in a very few minutes. The meeting immediately adjourned sine die, but the fight will probably come off Sunday night at some place to be selected without consulting the author-

NO CHANCE TO BUY THE PURE ARTICLE

In the Past Few Weeks Many Retailers Have Found it Necessary to Take Out Butterine License-Local News Notes of Interest.

The people of Council Bluffs have been having a peck of trouble for the past two weeks in getting enough butter for their household uses. It has been almost an unknown article for several days past, and those storekeepers who have been so fortunate as to get hold of any of it absolutely refuse to sell more than a pound of it to any one customer, and will not seil any except to those whom they count as regular custom-ers. What the cause of the famine if no one seems to know, although the bad roads doubt-seems to know, although the bad roads doubtless have a good deal to do with it.

A well known gentleman has been buying butterine lately and paiming it off on the members of his family as the pure stuff. His family are somewhat fastidious in their tastes, and if they knew the deception that is being practiced upon them they would doubtless be afflicted with a severe attack of somewickness. But so long as they do not sca-sickness. But so long as they do not know that it is butterine that appears on their taule morning, noon and night they are well satisfied and it is a matter of conjecture now many other families are being deceived in the same way. Some idea of the butterine trade that has aprung up lately, however, may be obtained from the fact that sixteen new licenses have been taken out by the retail merchants within a few weeks past.

Only a Few Days More.

The Biederman stock will be sold, or more properly, slaughtered and given away, in spite of everything. There is an immense stock of all grades of clothing, much of it the finest made, and Biederman's creditors only ask about one-third his prices. The stock is going fast, but there are plenty of bargains left. There are plenty of 25c and 35c socks at 10c; the best balbriggan underwear made at 40c and neckties, collars and suspenders at 5c and 10c.

A. E. Woodsworth, a farmer living a short distance east of the city, was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon on a charge of insanity, preferred against him by his wife. The husband tells a difhave him around. The husband tells a dif-ferent story. He tarks as connectedly as any one and does not seem to have any of the characteristics of insane people. He de-ciares that the filing of the information is all a piece of spite work on the part of his wife, and thinks it was done mainly for the pur-pose of getting him out of the way, as she owns all the property there is in the family and consequently does not feel the need of and consequently does not feel the need of his protecting care.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodsworth were together in the office of the county clerk and both did a great deal of talking without imparting very much information to the occupants of the office. Woodsworth will have an exami-nation by the insane commissioners this Hazelton May Not Qualify. A legal complication has arisen in connec tion with the appointment of A. S. Hazelton to the position of deputy clerk of the United States court which may possibly result in his having to decline the appointment. Back in 1873 an order was made by the secretary of state that no one should be allowed to hold an office if he held any other office whose compensation amounted to more than $600 per annum. This rule has always been obper annum. This rule has always been observed since that time, but whether it is to be regarded as a fixed rule or merely a custom remains to be decided. Mr. Hazelton is in correspondence with Judge Woolson, who probably did not know that he was a candidate for the city attorneyship when he made the appointment, and whether Mr. Hazelton qualifies for the position or not will depend on the decision of the judge. His friends claim that the old rule will not interfere with his position of the deputyship.

The unfortunate man spent the night in the city jail and during a part of his confinement he was very noisy, saying that all the officers of the state of lowa could not take him against his will. By morning, nowever, he had quieted down and was taken to the cars without any trouble. He amused himself part of the time by writing out orders upon different storekeepers in the city, asking them to send him certain articles of clothing and chargo to the account of a Sioux City firm. "Yes," he said querulously. "Yes," smiled the old man, going down into his pocket; "I thought you might find room for it somewhere," and he laid a crisp new $10 bill on the edi-tor's listless hand and walked out.

The editor kissed the bill reverently and credited the old gentleman with five years' subscription. Dr. J. H. Hill of Buffalo, who died last Saturday at the age of 70, had been in practice forty-three years. In 1852, when choiera and smallpox were raging, he was health physician for the city, and treated 1,000 cases of the former disease. Of the latter he lost only one out of ninety-nine. He was the first practitioner in Buffalo to operate for cataract. He was connected in an official cataract.

THEY WILL HELP THE FIGHT

Chicago Roads Glad to See Kansas Wholesalers Fall Out.

PRESENT RATES WILL REMAIN IN FORCE

While the State Jobbers Are Litigating to Gain Nominal Advantages All Will Pay the Regulation Tariffs-Ticket Troubles Discussed,

CHICAGO, Ill., March 11 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The traffic managers of the roads interested in Kansas business held a meeting here today to consider the new rates on low class freights ordered to be put in effect March 16 by the Kansas railroad cominissioners. This meeting was called several days ago and the railroad officials were not aware of the fact that some of the Atchison grocers had obtained an injunction restraining the Rock Island, Santa Fe and Missouri Pacific from putting the new rates in effect until they read the news in the papers yesterday morning. None of the roads bad any official information as the scope of the injunction and consequently an adjournment was taken until the particulars had been received. Fuil confirmation of the news was on hand when the meeting reconvened in the afternoon and there was general rejoicing. It was decided to stand by the Atchison grocers in their fight against the Kansas commisioners and lend them all the aid possible As a result, the rates now in effect, which are the new commissioners' fifth class rates, will be the tariff until the courts here decide the matter.

From the general passenger agent of a big western road who returned yesterday from a visit to New York, it is searned that the immigrant agents at Ellis Island, N. Y., are now anxious for a compromise on the question of commissions. The Santa Fe's reduction on second class rates to California has alarmed them. To show their generos-ity they express a willingness to reduce their commission one-half, making $8 the tax from Chicago to the coast and $5 from Chicago to the Missouri river.

Chairman Finley today haned down a ruling in relation to the liability of roads in the Western Passenger association for the redemption of tickets issued by their con-nections. The decision was called out by the refusal of the Omaha to redeem a mileage book issued by the Chicago & Northwestern, and which had fallen into the hands of a broker at St. Paul. The ticket, which was issued in favor of L. E. Mulford, was presented for transportation over the Omaha road by an agent of the association who had purchased it for $30.43 and received a rebate order on a Chicago broker for $20.90. The passenger signed the name of "Leo Nutford," but the ticket was not accepted by the con-ductor. For this the Omaha was called upon to redeem the ticket at the rate of 216 cents per mile, but declined to do so on the ground that the mileage had been regularly issued by another road. Chairman Finley rules, however, that under the agreement the road accepting tickets, whether of its own issue, or that of a connecting line is liable for its redemption; otherwise it would be possible for both roads to evade the redemption

Copies of a bill introduced in the lowa legislature have been sent to the managers of the interested roads in this city. The bill provides that the railroad companies of the state shall be required to furnish reports of the gross earnings of their respective lines within the state every year for taxation pur-poses. It also provides for the classification of the roads and the fixing of maximum rates according to the classification. The date of making changes in rates pursuant to change in classification is fixed at July 4, following such change. Any failure on the part of the roads to make the reports required of them will subject them to a fine of $100 per day for every day the reports are withheld.

A detailed statement of the earnings and expenses of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul for the six months ended December 31, was issued today. It shows gross earnings of $17,553,035, an increase as compared with the same period in 1890 of $2,336,615; oper-ating expenses $10,494,135,an increase of $857, 614; net earnings $7,058,890, an increase of $1,429,010.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 11. - The freight agents of roads in the bituminous coal trade held a protracted meeting here today and discussed the situation. The roads represented were the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, Norfolk & Western, Chesapeake & Ohio, Erie & Allegheny Valley, Western New York & Pennsylvania and Rochester & Pittsburg. The trouble among the bitumin-ous coal men is likely to be settled soon. The importance of making some arrangement regarding prices was generally recogn zed.

Enrlington's Plans. Excelsion Springs, Mo., March 11.-Information has been received here to the effect that the Burlington has fully determined to complete its line from Bogard to a point on the Hannibal & St. Joseph, north of Liberty, a distance of sixty miles, at once. This will give the Burlington fifty miles the shortest line to Chicago. The last survey, which runs through this city will be chosen. and it is stated that they will begin securing the right of way immediately.

KILLED SEVENTEEN WOLVES.

Successful Tinchel Conducted by Ottertail County, Minnesota, Farmers. St. Paul, Minn., March 11.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-The great wolf hunt, which has been the talk of Ottertail county for the past fortnight, came off today. Over 1,000 men formed the lines, enclosing an area 144 square miles in the northern part of the county, and walked toward the center, each man covering six miles in a straight line.

The march occupied about six hours. The ground was plowed and it made rather hard work for the hounds to run, but they dashed from one side to another as the crowd shouted. The jack rabbits fitted around like white specks; the dogs rushing into the ring added to the excitement. Occasionally a welf would make a dash and get through the lines, not, however, without a jab from someone's spear. A wall went up when a bear was spear. A wall went up when a bear was spear a charge the live and escape. seen to charge the line and escape. A shot-gun would have stopped him, but they had been forbidden owing to the danger on account of the great crowd.

The wolves continued to dash around until at intervals one would receive a fatal thrust. The circle grew smaller and the wolves ugher. They would make an occasional dash at the line, but only to receive a death wound. At last the slaughter was over and seventeen wolves were killed. The bear got away. The rabbits were too numerous to count.

The wolves were impaled and held aloft on the spears, making a sight never to be forgotten.

The hunt was a great success.

MR. CLEFELAND'S VIEWS,

He Outlines What Should Be the Policy of the Democratic Party. BALTIMORE, Ma., March 11.-Ex-President Cleveland expressed his views about national politics today to a reporter of the Baltimore Sun at Spetisa Island, Md., where Mr. Cleve-and had come to shoot ducks. "What, in your opinion," he was asked. should be the main issue of the democratic party in appealing to the voters of the country !"

'All evidence," replied the ex-president, "of what the people want and what they ex-pect of the party would seem clearly to indi-cate that tariff reform must be the issue if we are to go into a winning fight."

"What do you consider the best plan of attacking the tariff in congress?" "My idea is that the general bill will be the best method, but I am willing to defer to those who are on the ground and have the battle in congress to fight. I hope the Springer free wool bill will pass, and am also in favor of any other measures which will lighten the burden of taxation now rest-ing on the people. In fact, I favor any measure in the direction of genuine tariff reform."

"What are the prospects of the democratic party's ultimate success?"
"I have out one opinion on that subject.
If the party is true to itself, true to its principles and fulfils its pledges to the people it cannot fail."

The national committee will be requested to organize the party in Georgia, North and South Carolina and Vir-ginia for united action with the alliance and n this way offset at least the action of the Cansas democrats in trying to turn enough states into the people's party column to throw the election of the next president into the house of representatives, which the dem-

TIT FOR TAT. Story of Two Omaha Lawyers and Their

Talk for Fees,

"Speaking of lawyers' court room quarrels and the friendliness which they afterwards display outside the court room," says a writer in the Cheyenne Leader, "I am always reminded of the experience of S. F. Nuckolls, a groceryman here in the early days, and the first delegate to congress from the territory. There existed a very bitter fend between Nuckolls and another man, and the matter got into court. One of the mon retained A. J. Poppleton and the other J. M. Woolworth, both of Omaha, and now two of the biggest lawvers in Nebraska. Each client instructed his lawyer to rake the other party to the suit over the coals in the live-liest possible manner. As to the suit they didn't care much who won it provided the other party was shown up to the queen's taste. Nuckells in telling the story said: 'When my lawyer got up I settled comfortably back in my seat ready to enjoy myself thoroughly. As the lawyer warmed to his work he gave my opponent such a tongue lashing that he seemed to flay him alive. When the lawyer sat down I thought it was proven to the satisfaction of everybody that the other fellow was the meanest skunk that ever infested the earth. When the oppos-ing lawyer got up I wondered what he could have to say. I didn't have long to wait. He sailed into me and belted me all over the earth. Before he got half way through he pictured me as the meanest scoundrel this side of Jericho and I sneaked out of the court room until the storm was over. After he was through speaking I came in again and sat down beside my lawyer. I took it for granted that the lawyers had as much personal feeling in the matter as their clients had. I was therefore very much surprised to see Poppleton hand a note across the table to Wootworth, who opened and read it and then simply smiled back. This note he twisted up and throw under the table. I had the greatest curiosity in the world to find out what was in it and after court adjourned remained behind. The note contained these words: "What will we charge these two words: "What will we charge these two damned fools?" I was mad. I took the note and hunted up my friend, the enemy, and showed it to him. Then he was mad and we both went to the court house, had the suit withdrawn, settled the costs, renewed our broken friendship and beat the two Omaha lawyers out of big fees."

III0 South Ninth street:

"For a long time I suffered much from head-ache and pain through my eyes. The pain was constant and very distressing. Using my eyes in reading or at work greatly increased my suffering. I also had pains in my back and sides which are greatly improved. I was greatly troubled with indigestion, pain in stomach and bloating. These symptoms are steadily improving and I am feeding better in every way. Another annoying symptom that caused me much discomfort was constant dropping of mucus from the nose into the throat; also soreness and irritation of the nostrils. All these have disappeared, and I have good reason to believe that in a reasonable time I will be completely cured."
