NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Des Moines Secures the Next Iowa Republican Convention After Hard Work.

WHAT DEFEATED COUNCIL BLUFFS

Chairman Mack Cast His Deciding Vote with a View of Future Reward-Evidently He Gained Nothing by the Deal.

The Bluffs delegation to Des Moines returned yesterday after laboring long and hard with the members of the republican central committee in the vain effort to have Council Bluffs selected as the place for holding the next state convention. By a vote of to 5 Des Moines was chosen as the place, but it was merely a matter of tuck that Counoil Bluffs was left. Chairman E. E. Mack of the committee was one of the strongest opponents Council Bluffs had on the committee, but he chanced to be on a train which was several hours late. If it had been thirty minutes later Mack would not have arrived until after the second ballot, and one of the advocates of Des Moines had promised to wheel into line with the Bluffs contingent after voting once for Des Moines.

But, owing to the frailty of human hopes Mack arrived just in time to cast his little ballot for Des Moines, and that place won the prize. Those who voted for the Bluffs were J. M. Kemble of Muscatine, W. H. Norris of Manchester, J. G. Brown of Mar-shalltown, P. L. Sever of Stuart and M. K. Whelan of Estherville, J. F. Wall of Mt. Ayr, so the Bluffs delegates state, had promised to vote for Council Bluffs, but changed

'The ground for Chairman Mack's opposition to us," said I. M. Treynor yesterday, "is the fact that there is considerable opposition to him as a candidate for the chairmanship of the committee for the coming year. This opposition is mainly among those who favored Des Moines in the contest just completed, and he had an idea that by voting with them he could secure their sup-port later on. But he will find out that be has jost the support of the Council Binffs crowd without gaining an iota of strength from the others, and his defeat is certain. As for the man who went back on his promise, the day isn't very far away when we shall be able to even up the score."

ALL THEIR TALK IS ABOUT BLAINE

Pettigrew Intimates That the South Dakot: Delegates May Betray the Trust 1mposed in Them and Vote for the Man from Maine.

New York, May 26 .- Political leaders in this and other states are beginning to flock to this city. Senator Hiscock arrived here from Washington vesterday. Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota registered at the Fifth Avenue hotel last evening. Awaiting him was ex-Senator Platt, who at once took Senator Pettigrew aside and held an earnest conversation with him. Senator Pettigrew was seen later. He at first declared that being a delegate from a state which had been instructed for Harrison he did not feel like expressing an opinion on the situation. On being questioned the following was elicited: "It is true that South Dakota is instructed for Harrison, but it is equally true that this was done with the understanding that Blaine was not a candidate. South Dakota is unquestionably a Biame state. It has declared for Binine at every convention since it became a state. Every man, woman and child is for Blaine. He could poll more votes than any candidate that could be nominated.

A Man to Carry Montana. "He is the only republican whom I have in mind who could carry Montana, and her three electoral votes will be necessary if New York should go democratic." "Could Harrison carry Montana?" was

"Carry Montana? He could not carry one corner of it."
"In the event of Blaine's acceptance, would the South Dabota delegation consider them-selves released from instructions!" "That is a question that is hardly fair to ask," he replied. "I hardly think the repub-licans of South Dakota could hold them strictly to account in such a contangency.

Hiscock Says It's Binine. Senator Hiscock visited Secretary Blame today and subsequently said: "Blaine will accept if nominated. I am sure he will be While not as well as I expected declination. to find him, he is improving daily and I am satisfied he is strong enough to undergo a presidential campaign.

Blaine Would Not Accept.

The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs his paper as follows:
"I don't think Mr. Blaine would accept the iomination if it were tendered him. He told ne two months ago he did not want it. He elt that if elected he would not have the strength necessary to discharge the duties of the presidency.'

This statement was made to me this after-noon by Senator Stanford of California. It was made without reserve and with the ful nderstanding that it might be sent to the It has been said that when California is cached in the call of states the chairman of the delegation will rise and in stentorian tones announce that "California casts he cighteen votes for James G. Blaine." The s what the delegation did four years ago at Chicago, even after Biance's cablegram declaring he would not accept, and it has been thought that the program would be repeated at Minneapolis with a view to stampeding the convention for Blaine. California for a Winner.

I asked Senator Stanford if this were probable.

"Mr. Blaine," said he, "is very popular in our state. He has always been popular there, but I don't believe our delegation will vote for him unless his name be formally pre-sented to the convention. I don't think they will try to stampede the convention by vot ing for Blaine under any other circum-stances. The delegation is uninstructed and will vote at Minneapoits for the man who is most likely to be elected. Our people are well satisfied with Mr. Harrison. His administration has been wonderfully clean and redent we have had since Lincoln's day. think the California people are generally of this opinion. [CONTINUED PROM PIRST PAGE.] Presbyterian general assembly today the committee on colored synods reported in favor of the formation of colored churches with a view to forming these into presby teries, and when two or more presbyteries exist they may form a sypod. Hev. A. L. Phillips was appointed to work among the negroes for the carrying out of this plan.

It was decided to continue the present policy of aid toward candidates studying for the ministry.

The report of the committee on publication was received. It endorsed the recommendation of the executive committee that $20,000 be raised by the churches this year for publication. Majority and minority reports were re-ceived from the committee on answers to presbyters regarding the revision of the directory for worship. The reports were for and against revision, respectively and were docketed.

The conference declined to co-operate with the Reformed Presbyterian church in extending missionary labors in Italy, it being considered that the missionary fields of the church were already extensive enough.

The committee on systematic beneficence submitted a report. It showed that for all causes $348,750 had been contributed during the year, an increase of $50,745 over the pr ceding year. Home missions were taken up and Rev. W. H. Leavell moved a reference of the whole matter ad interim to the committee. A long discussion ensued, after which the motion Pending further action the assembly ad-

ANNOUNCEMENTS. The Topeka Capital has the following to say of the Dedd Opera company which comes to the Farnam Street theater next Sunday: "The Dodd Opera company commenced a limited engagement at the Crawford last evening, appearing in "The Mascot" to a large audience. This clever opera still affords pleasure and interest to the public antords pleasure and interest to the public and is well presented by this company. Miss Amy Leslic, who has been seen here in a number of popular roles, is an excellent Bet-tica, singing and acting the character with notable success. Mr. Mack Charles' imper, sonation of Pippo is equally good. The comedy roles of Prince Lorenzo and Farmer Rocco are very capably taken by Mr. Dan Young and Mr. R. C. Chamberlain, who extract a great deal of fun from the librette and add many agrocable pleasantries of their own originality. Miss Anna Wells, a protty giri, gave a very delightful surprise by intro-ducing a skirt dance. She is graceful and dances with wonderful case. of praise. Beautiful potted begonias, fuchsias, lilies and other choice plants and flowers will be presented to all the ladies visiting Wooder land matines and night performances, Fri-day, May 27. The souvenirs are very handsome, and little Eva will present them with her compliments. The actual cost of each article is 25 cents wholesale.

The lows State band, led by Prof. Freder ick Phinney, will give two concerts at Boyd's new theater on Sunday next, afternoon and evening. Special programs have been arranged, and owing to the proximity of Decoration day several soul-stirring, patriotic airs will be introduced. Each program is en-tirely different from the other, and out of re-spect for the day two or three religious numbers, such as 'Rock of Ages,' and selections from the oratorio of "The Messiah" will be rendered. Two better programs to suit all manner of tastes and preferences could not have been conceived, and they will be rendered in a faultless manner by Prof. Phinney and his band.

The next theatrical attraction at Boyd's new theater is "The County Fair," which comes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, evenings of next week. Mr. Percy Weadon, representative of "The County Fair," is in
