D. H. Wilson has filed an information against his wife and Joseph Jordan, charging them with lewdness. Wilson is now in the county jail awaiting a trial on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and the opinion of those who are familiar with the facts of the case seems to be that it is instituted out of motives of revenge.

There were three in the gang, and one of them, whose name was Pat Shannon, occupied the proprietor's attention while the other two went through the money drawer. Jerome was rejected by the court. Hodson finally succeeded in getting bail and was released from the county jail.

The council, as a committee of the whole, took a trip over the city yesterday afternoon in order to look up a number of things that were referred to it at the last council meeting. Among other things, they looked over the ground at what is known as Advent Hill, where the residents want an approach cut so as to rid them of the necessity of using step-ladders when they go from their front yards to the street. An investigation was also made of the property of J. H. Dietrich which was badly damaged by the recent flood.

John Mulhall, a resident of Avoca, was found lying in a very prostrate attitude at the corner of Pierce and Tenth streets, Wednesday afternoon, with the combined weight of an enormous jaw and a section of broken down car wheel on his chest. He was found by the police, and was taken to the hospital. An investigation was also made of the property of J. H. Dietrich which was badly damaged by the recent flood.

Several feet of brick sidewalk was torn up by W. H. M. Harty yesterday morning about his property at the corner of Main street and Broadway, for the purpose of making some repairs. Before he had a chance to replace them he was served with an order from the authorities that nothing but stone or imitation stone would go, as an ordinance had been passed by the council six months ago forbidding the laying of any more brick or plank sidewalks on Broadway, Pearl or Main streets. The ordinance had never been noticed particularly, but an investigation showed that it was really there. Harty refused to put the bricks back or to build a new sidewalk, and last evening the placards still remain to be seen.

Closing Scenes of the County Sunday School Meeting.

DETAILS OF YESTERDAY'S CONVENTION

Primary Class Work Reviewed by Dr. Phelps, Owing to the Illness of Miss Laura Baldwin, to Whom That Subject Was Assigned.

Yesterday was the closing day of the county Sunday school convention. The morning session was opened by an interesting bible reading conducted by J. A. Howard, the missionary for Harrison county. Miss Laura Baldwin, to whom was assigned the topic of "Primary Class Work," had such a severe cold that she could not use her voice and Dr. Phelps, taking her notes, kindly presented her ideas in this department of work in which she is so successful. The primary department of the First Presbyterian church, of which she is the superintendent, has ninety pupils.

Mr. J. C. Rose, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, opened an interesting discussion on the question of how to secure substitute teachers.

A normal lesson on the use of the object method was also given. Colonel Hoagland offered some practical suggestions as to methods of reaching the boys and girls.

In the afternoon Mrs. P. J. Montgomery gave an excellent address on the question of how to secure and hold the young people in Sunday schools. The importance of music, the literary and social wants of the children and other practical topics were discussed by various speakers.

The secretary, Mr. Joseph Wells, presented his report, which showed that there were ninety-six Sunday schools in operation in Pottawattamie county during the past year. These were classified among the various denominations as follows: Methodist, Episcopal, 22; Presbyterian, 7; Congregational, 4; Baptist, 7; Christian, 4; Cumberland Presbyterian, 2; Latter Day Saints, 5; Episcopalian, 3; English Lutheran, 2; German Evangelical, 3; English Evangelical, 3; United Brethren, 1; Protestant Methodist, 1; Seventh Day Adventist, 1; union schools, 31. Number of teachers and officers in charge of these schools, 877; scholars in attendance, 6,342; average attendance, 4,835; and the amount contributed to the church by the schools, 124.

The money contributed to benevolent objects, $705.70. The amount expended in support of these schools is $2,299.11.

On the recommendation of the committee on nominations the following officers were elected: President, D. S. Paine; secretary and treasurer, Joseph Wells; executive committee, O. L. Barrett of Hazel Dell township, E. E. Prestor, Oakland, and C. H. B. Brown of Council Bluffs. The county was also divided into four districts, and it was decided to hold conventions at stated intervals in each of these districts. The convention closed last evening.
