

SOWING IN VIRGIN SOIL

Seeds of Patriotism Planted in the Minds of Omaha School Children.

EISHOP NEWMAN TALKS OF GEN. GRANT

Picture of the Great Captain Drawn by One Who Knew Him Well—Flowers and Songs, Marches and Recitations by the Schools.

Under the auspices of the various Grand Army posts Decoration day programs were rendered in the principal schools of the city yesterday afternoon.

The face school was aglow with all the colors of a June garden yesterday afternoon. The red, white and blue of flags, flowers and bunting blended in harmony with the ribbons and roses that adorned the summer costumes of the hundreds of visitors who had assembled to witness the Memorial day exercises of the children.

A short program of singing and recitations was given in each school from 2 o'clock to 3 and then the whole school marched out to join in the exercises outside. The principal program was in room No. 4, under the direction of the principal, Miss Emma Whitmore.

The regular program was opened with a salute to the flag by the school, after which Miss Jane Brock recited "The Blue and the Gray." The eighth grade sang the beautiful song, "Cover Them Over with Beautiful Flowers," with Miss Horton as accompanist, and Master Fayette Lord recited the Memorial day ode.

The marching proved as interesting to the visitors as any part of the exercises. There were 800 pupils in line from battalions of infantile zouaves to the squads of older pupils who brought up the rear.

Three hundred bright pupils took part in the exercises at Leavenworth school. They presented a patriotic scene in white dresses, with flowers in their buttonholes and the emblems of liberty in their hands.

The exercises were under the direction of Miss Minnie Wood, principal of the school, and after marching the youngsters into the hall, she had them sing in concert, "America."

Mr. Edward Rosewater and County Judge Eiler, who had been extended an invitation to be present, made short addresses to the children. Before Mr. Rosewater was introduced, the principal of the school asked her scholars how many of them knew "The Star Spangled Banner."

Memorial day was observed at the Hickory street school in a becoming and interesting way. The school building, inside and out, was ornate with flags and banners, while streamers and bunting streamed from all the tree-tops and other available points on the premises.

At Other School Houses. Pacific school was addressed by Captain D. G. Rhodes, U. S. Grant post 113. The rooms were handsomely decorated with flags, flowers and tricolor drapery.

SOUTH OMAHA. Trouble Experienced by the Poundmaster in Arresting a Vagrant Cow. In his rounds yesterday Poundmaster Phillips met a cow with a brindle tail and nearly the whole population in the vicinity of Brown park. He attempted to take the cow into custody, but she resisted and was joined in her resistance by the whole neighborhood.

Mr. Phillips was determined and after successfully goinging brickbats and clubs hurried at him by the women and children he triumphantly secured the cow and was about ready to proudly proceed on his way when a bullet whizzed through space in close proximity to his head. A dozen of that neighborhood fired the shot from ambush and made his escape before the poundmaster could get near enough to where he was concealed to identify him. The cow was taken, however, and is now in the city pound. An arrest will probably follow.

Organized a Base Ball Club. A number of the young gentlemen employed in Swift & Co.'s office have organized a base ball club and are now looking for scraps and home runs. The nine is made up as follows: Murphy, catcher; Thompson, pitcher; Dunlavey, short stop; Young, first base; Funtousser, second base; Canningham, third base; Crowe, left field; Fleming, center field; Mullin, right field. James Rafferty is managing the club and is anxious to meet some of the amateur clubs. Thomas Murphy, the club's catcher, is an old-time ball player and won fame as such in the Black Hills. Several other members of the club are good amateurs and will put up a fine game.

Used Up at a Dance. Tuesday evening Gottlieb Schaado sustained very serious injuries in a general fight at a dance in the Third ward and he was removed to St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha for treatment. The Fake Factory, with its usual enticement for printing news that does not occur, came out last evening with the startling statement that Schaado was dead and the police were searching for his murderers. The true facts in the case are that the injured man is improving and no fears of fatal results are entertained, as the injuries received by Schaado are not of so serious a nature.

Created Excitement and Smoke. A vat filled with tar took fire at Cudaby's packing house yesterday afternoon and created quite a ripple of excitement for a few minutes. The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done. The vat was located near one of the new buildings in course of construction on Thirty-third street.

Bashy Injured. S. W. King, a B. & M. brakeman, is nursing a badly mangled foot. He caught it between the bumpers of the engine and a freight car in the yards yesterday. A physician is necessary to amputate the large toe of the injured foot, which is the left one. Mr. King will be laid up for some time by reason of the accident.

Notes and Personal. Theodore Thompson has gone to Milo, Ia., on a business trip. Jacob Jetter is suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. A. H. Fuller of Swift & Co. is in San Francisco, Cal., on business. Mrs. Marion Bules and children have gone on a visit to Moberlytown, Mo. G. W. Webb of the firm of G. W. Webb & Co. is in Minden on business. Judge A. L. Sutton is making preparations to spend the season at Newport. J. W. Oliver, a captain of Lexington, was a South Omaha visitor yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cleveland's infant son died late Thursday evening. The funeral occurred yesterday afternoon from the family residence at Twenty-seventh and Armour streets. The eastern approach has been repaired and travel over the Q street viaduct has been resumed. O. D. Bratton of the Union Stock Yards National bank has returned from his visit to New York City. Mrs. S. S. Hadley and Miss Minnie Perkins of Cedar Rapids are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Brant.

The postponed meeting of the Young Men's Republican club will be held this evening at Wordeman's hall. James Smith returned last evening from Des Moines, Ia., where he attended the state shooting tournament. Mr. Smith captured several prizes. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Twenty-fifth and N streets, died yesterday and will be buried today at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's cemetery.

The South Omaha club and the Commercial Avenue club of Omaha will play ball Sunday afternoon on the former's grounds. George B. Goetschall will pitch for South Omaha. Postmaster J. M. Glasgow, Ed Johnston, J. B. Watkins, E. M. Smith, George W. Mason, Colonel E. P. Savage and C. C. Stanley will form the South Omaha party that will attend the Minneapolis convention.

Mrs. L. R. Patton, Rockford, Ill., writes: "From personal experience I can recommend DeWitt's Sarsaparilla, a cure for impure blood and general debility."

Dr. Cullimore, oculist, has building for Friday and Saturday. Miss Alice Isaacs will sell one lot of trimmed hats at $1.98, and one lot at $2.98; also one lot at $4.98. These hats are a special bargain to make room for a new lot of summer goods that are coming in.
