Senator Felton of California said: "I am not for Biaine. I do not want things to get so hot here, though, that the horse we bet on will be badly handicapped at the start." It has been said that Felton would second Harrison's nomination on behalf of Califor-nia, but the senator states that he was inmany new industries have been established, giving employment to American labor. The reciprocity section of the bill will be espevited to do so but has declined the honor.

South Dakota All Right,

When interrogated as to his views Gov-ernor Mellette of South Dagota answered be query by a question of his own. Said he "Is it logic to turn down a man who beat Grover Cleveland when the patronarc of the government was against him and put up a man who was beaton by Grover Cleveland when the republicans had the patronarc?" and he immediately added: "It is well to remember that if Blaine is nominated Cleve-land is sure to be nominated cleveand is sure to be nominated on the other

Colonel H. Ciny Evans, a delegate-at-large Colonel H. Ciny Evans, a delegate acting from Tennesseo, discredits the report of a stampede to Blains in the Tennesseo delega-tion. "I am for Harrison," said he, "and I think our delegation is solid for him with one exception. John C. Houck is understood to be for Blaine, but I believe the remaining twenty-three votes will be for Harrison." Colonei James Lewis of New Orleans, the colored veteran of Louisiana, gave similar tidings from the sugar state. "With two exceptions," said be, "our entire delegation will be for Harrison. They were instructed for him and they will follow their instruc-tions. Even William Pitt Kellogg's convertion instructed him for Harrison, although he says he will vote for Blaine." Colonel W. O. Bradley of Kentucky, national committeeman and a delegate at-large, said: "Kentucky is for Harrison. We have twenty-six delegates and every district bonvention except two instructed for Har-rison. Blaine may get these two districts, but I don't think he can possibly get any

Senator Hiscock of New York Talks.

Senator Frank Hiscock of New York, Sonator Frank Hiscock of New York, a delegate-at-large, does not agree with J. Stoat Fassett, as his views, given with great deliberation, will show. "I am for he nom-ination of Harrison. In my juigment the republican party should have bad but one caudioaste before this convention. Mr. Blaine thought so and the president thought so, and Mr. Blaine declined to be a candidate for reasons which were very satisfactory to him and which would have been satisfactory him and which would have been satisfactory to every one else. The delegates have been elected with the understanding that he was not in the fight. Mr. Blaine has never indi-cated any change of his purpose and it would be unfortunate at this late day to change the policy adopted by him—very unfortunate in-deed. I have always been a supporter of

Mr. Biaine, as have many others. "As to how the vote of New York will be divided, I do not desire to make any predic-tions. The other delegates will be here to speak for themselves in a day or two."

Guarded in His Opinion.

Hon. J. C. Burrows, the distinguished Michigan congressman, expressed himself tersely, but carefully: "I am for the man who can carry the election," said he. BUSINESS AND POLITICS.

Colonel Colby Attends to One and Talks Freely of the Other.

Colonel L. W. Colby, of the legal department of the United States government, is in the city for the purpose of taking depositions in several Indian depredation cases. The case which involves the largest amount is that of A. C. Leighton of Ottumwa, Ia., involving about $30,000. Mr. Leighton was at one time a partner of Dick McCormack of Omaha, in the freighting business. In 1865 and 1867 the Sloux Indians stole and killed a arge number of oxen and mules belonging to Mr. Leighton, for which he has never been reimbursed.

Another case is that of Jacob Penny & Son of Omaha. They lost forty oxen and several teams of horses in 1867 as a result of a raid by the Sloux Indians. Aaron P. Hoel of Omaha is also a sufferer seeking relief from the government on account of property lost during the Indian raids of 1866. Henry T. Clarke asks for reimbursement to the tune of $9,000 for eighty-five head of oxen and some mules stolen by the Ogdialla Sioux Indians

Appointment of Ushers.

The appointment of the Minnesota contin-rent of ushers, which means the majority of them, has kept clear of politics to a considerable extent. Sergeant-at-arms Meek appor-tioned them out to one or two local organizations and institutions which selected their representatives. So far as presidential preferences are concerned they are as impartial as could be secured.

Work of the National Committee

The republican national committee will be gin its sessions tomorrow. On it falls the work of arranging all the details for the of the convention. Tomorrow the work of making up the roll will begin. It is the duty of the national committee to make up the temporary roll of delegates entitled to admission to the convention. The roll of states will be colled and where scats are contested each delocation will be given a hearing. There are more contests this year than ever before. In more than eighty cases two persons are fighting for the same seats. The south furnishes by for the same seats. The south furnishes by far the largest number of these disputes. In some of them the seats of the entire state delegations are at issue. The most bitter northern contest comes from the Fort Wayne, Ind., district, where McDonald, a Blaine man, declares the Harrison delegation Blaine man, declares the Harrison delegation were not elected. He will be here to make a contest with 200 followers to back it up. From the District of Columbia Perry Carand Andy Gleason have on a light with Cal-vin Chase and Simon Wolfe. If these men were not contestants the old-timers would think something was wrong.

Harrison Against the Field.

There were some bets made during the evening, of which the largest was $1,000 even on Harrison's nomination against the field. Marcus Johnson, revenue collector at St. Paul, took the Hurrison end of the bet, and Delegate Eustis of Minneapolis, a Blain e man, the other end.

There is no charge in the chairmanship trik tonight. All parties seem to agree on Mcklaley for permanent chairman. He is warmly supported by the Harrison men, and the Blaine people are apparently not opposed to him. The only question in that connec-tion is whether he will have the united sup-port of his own state. In case the Ohio det port of his own state. In case the Ohio del-eration is united for him his selection will be assured.

For temporary chairman John M. Langston Virginia is still the favorite. The selection of temporary chairman will probably be made after tomorrow's meeting.

taken the letter to Charkson as final, has been very miche discussed here. Clarkson and Fassett combat Depew's posi-tion by asserting that Blaine is still not a candidate, but that his party will nominate him and that he will then show obedience to his party. One sensational incident of the day was a telegram from N. E. Southard, cheirman of the Maine state republican com-mittee, notifying General Clarkson that J. Manchester Haynes, the Maine member of the national committee, had resigned and that his place had been filled by the election of Joe H. Manley, ex-postmaster of Augusta. Such was the plain announcement, bearing no great significance on its face, but much in its possibilities. "Manley will be made a member of the executive committee," said General Clarkson. Thus the most trusted of Blaine's personal friends, at 'he very last moment, becomes one of the executive com-mittee, which will have notential influence over the preliminary proceedings of the conis only the legitimate conclusion of the unan is dated May 29, from Galveston. Larimore, and their experience was very thriling and romantic. Mrs. Larimore has written a book, and a very interesting one, giving an account of the frightful experience Score through which she passed. "Mr. Larimore was shot through the leg with an arrow and as he fell in a bunch of sage brush and fainted away the Indiana left him for dead. The redskins took Mrs. Larimore prisoner and carried her and her 2old baby clear up to the Little Big Horn country where after several weeks of great hardship Mrs. Lurimore managed to escape from the Indians and found her way to a trail. She followed the trail for a couple of days and was picked up by a band of trap-pers and in about one month from the time of the attack near Fort Laramie Mr. and Mrs. Larimore were again united. They lost all their property and of course want the govern-ment to make it good." Speaking of the political outlook Mr. Colby

Speaking of the political outlook Mr. Colby said: "I think that Mr. Harrison will be nominated by acclamation." If he isn't he ought to be. A few of the shouters are still talking for Blaine out the brains of the party is for Harrison. We never have had an ad-ministration with which so little fault could be found as the administration of President transform Mr. Blaine has hear idely a by ttarrison. Mr. Blaine has been idelized by the people who were captivated by Bob In-gersell's elequence at the time he gave Blaine the title of the 'Plumed Knight,' and by the the fills of the 'Plumed Knight,' and by the careful manipulation of the Associated Press reports in Blaine's interest ever since. But the thinking men of the party have seen all along that Mr. Harrison was the man for president. He never does anything for effect. His administration has been one of plain, practical business, with no foolishness or ostentation. He is a remarkably able statesman, and the republican party will do the proper thing to nominate him for a second term Colonel Colby will be in Omaha several

It is a curious fart that no one miner out of every hundred, who has had any experience will do anything but put the sticks of giant powder into his bootlegs, says the Great Divide. He knows just about how much giant powder he will need during the shift, and these he receives before he enters the shafthouse to go down. Then he carefully places it in the leg of his boot, and in this man-ner conveys it into the mine. The miners have stopped "crimping" the fulminating caps with their teeth of late years. This is due, probably, to the suicide at Chicago of Lingg, one of the anarchists who was sentenced to be hanged with Spies and the rest. Lingg exploded one of the caps by biting it and blew most of his head off. Now the majority of the miners crimp the cap on the heel of their boot with a knife.
