TORE DOWN THE FENCE.

Irate Women Refuse to Submit to a Neighbor's Perverseness. Mrs. Corvin, Mrs. St. Germain, Mrs. Charon and Mrs. Bailey were arrosted yesterday morning for the malicious destruction of a fence, and they are very indiguant about it. These women live on lots which they purchased from the Barkers, on Eighth street between Arbor and Bancroft. In front of this addition is an addition owned by James

Phillips of New York. Eighth street cuts through Phillips' addi-Eighth street cuts through Phillips' addition in such a way as to leave a strip of land seventeen feet wide between the lots occupied and owned by these women and the highway shutting them off from the street. Mr. Phillips, who is a wealthy man, came to Omaha and proceeded to surround his strip of land with a wire fence very high and very tight and served notice that if the residents crossed his land they would be presecuted for tresserved notice that if the residents crossed his land they would be prosecuted for trespass. Mr.-Charon, the owner of some of the lots, made offers to purchase the land which shuts him in his lot with no means of entrance or exit. Mr. Philips, who knows a good thing when he sees it, said they might have it for $5,000, and at that figure he sticks. The land is worth about $600 and for any use to which it can be not it is worth. for any use to which it can be put it is worth

The longer the women looked at the fence the madder they got, and Friday night they arose in their might, tore down the wires and palled up the posts. For this they were

This Man Has Been in Jail Too Often to Deny Any Charge.

The grey-headed old reprobate, Mike Kenny, ambled blithely up to the police judge'sdesk yesterday morning to be charged with being drunk again.

"Why, I just got out," he chirped, "and I sin't had time." ain't had time."
"Got drunk on free air, eh!"
"He was begging at the matron's house," interpolated a sergeant.
"Who, me!" asked Mike in surprise.

"Who, me?" asked Mike in surprise.
"You deny that fact, do you!"
Mike rummaged around for a minute for a loophole and then said: "O, ro; I don't deny nothin'. How long!"
"Ten days."
Etta Jones, Emma White, who is black, and Bill Hansen were charged with fighting and a blackthorn stick, a bloody paving block and Hansen's bandaged head were introduced in evidence. Hansen got the worst of the engagement and was given a $25 fine as a plaster to his wounded feelings.
