troit from Amherstburg which stated that the body of a well dressed man was taken from the river at that point yesterday morning. The description of the man was showing to Emil Heyn of Detroit he was at once overwhelmed with grief, being convinced that the body found was that of his brother, as the description tallied perfectly.

The news in Omaha yesterday of George Heyn's drowning in the Detroit river and the finding of his body at Amherstburg, created some excitement, although it was supposed that he had met with some tragic death, as he had been missing since May 25. He was last heard of on that date at Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Heyn had been nervous and despondent for some time past, and on May 23 went from Omaha to Milwaukee for special treatment for his nervous troubles. Whether or not he went to Milwaukee is an uncertainty, but two days later he was registered at a Buffalo hotel. His business affairs are in good shape.

Mr. Heyn was 36 years of age, a native of Hannover, Germany, and was one of the best photographers in the city, having come to Omaha about fifteen years ago. He came here from Detroit, Mich. He was very popular and much liked by all who knew him. He was a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and his life was insured for $30,000, which amount will go to his wife and three children. His funeral will take place in Detroit Wednesday. Mrs. Heyn and her sister, Mrs. G. Heyn, who is now here, will leave tonight for Detroit.
