

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Drawing the Lines on the District Court Jurymen.

THEIR FEES WILL BE SLIGHTLY REDUCED

They Will Be Paid According to the Number of Hours Actually Engaged—

On top of the roasting the district court jurymen have been receiving lately from the press and county attorney on account of the somewhat erratic manner in which they have been coming to their conclusions...

The jury men worked over the prospect of losing their money that they were in a body on the Board of Supervisors yesterday and requested them to take some action in the matter...

Grand Excursion to Lake Manawa and Return by the Boston Stage—The Boston Stage and Lake Manawa Motor company will give a grand free excursion to Lake Manawa...

Boys from 6 to 8—1st prize, metal-plate; 2d prize, spiral game; 3d prize, musical tin.

Boys from 8 to 10—1st prize, hook and ladder; 2d prize, horse cart; 3d prize, drum.

Boys from 10 to 12—1st prize, nine pins; 2d prize, Stanley in Africa; 3d prize, base ball game.

Boys from 12 to 14—1st prize, "Winding His Way"; 2d prize, 2d prize, anabasis; 3d prize, dominos.

GIRLS' RACE. Girls from 6 to 8—1st prize, Japanese bureau; 2d prize, doll chair; 3d prize, knife and fork.

GIRLS FROM 8 TO 10—1st prize, scrap album; second prize, walk pocket; third prize, tripod.

GIRLS FROM 10 TO 12—1st prize, photo holder; second prize, card receiver; third prize, card holder.

GIRLS FROM 12 TO 14—1st prize, liver stand for perfume; second prize, cut glass bottle of perfume; third prize, work basket.

LAKE MANAWA IS ONE OF THE most pleasant summer resorts in the west. The past year Mayor Reed has made many changes and radical improvements...

Jarvis 1877 brandy, better than imit'd. L. W. Tulleys, farm and city lions. Council Bluffs, Ia., 103 Pearl street.

Reiter, the taller, 310 Broadway, has all the latest styles and newest goods. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Jarvis 1877 brandy, sold by all dealers Closing Out Groceries. Am going to quit business, and so will clear out my stock of groceries at cost...

Hot weather prices in picture frames at Riley & Sherraden's art store.

Pastures for horses and cattle on George F. Wright's farm south of Council Bluffs; 500 acres blue grass; running water.

Irish wires the latest red best. Dr. Chamberlain, eye, ear, throat, catarrh. Shugart, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Jarvis Wine Co., Santa Clara, Cal. Trains leave for Manawa on 9, 11, 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 o'clock.

For Rent—First class saloon; good location; fine fixtures. Responsible party can get long lease on good terms. Address D 24, Bee office, Council Bluffs.

Jarvis 1877 brandy six gold medals. International Court Association rooms are in annex to Grand Hotel, 129 First street, Council Bluffs, Ia.

DUN'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK

In Spits of All Obstacles Trade is Greater Than a Year Ago.

SPLENDID OUTLOOK FOR BUSINESS

Business Well Sustained and Increasing in Volume—A Week on Wall Street—Features of the Market—Features for the Week.

New York, June 10.—R. G. Dun & Co's. weekly review of trade says: The aggregate volume of trade, in spite of all obstacles, is greater than a year ago, by about 7 per cent measured by the clearings outside of New York...

The iron trade this week is improved, copper is unchanged. Tin advanced by speculation 35 cents per 100 pounds, but lead depressed to four-fifths of a cent.

On Monday evening the union of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will give a social in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Larson will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence, 121 Twelfth street. The remains will be interred in Walnut Hill cemetery.

On Monday morning the union of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will give a social in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association.

County Clerk Campbell's report was submitted to the board of supervisors yesterday. It showed the total receipts to have been $1,841.15 and the expenses $55.30. The board adjourned sine die.

Detectives Dempsey and Savidge of Omaha were in the city yesterday testifying before the grand jury in regard to the case of Pat Lyons charged with the theft of several watches from Mrs. Burborn.

A small blaze took place last evening in a small grocery store at the corner of Twenty-third street and Broadway, the property of Ziegler & Dates. It was extinguished before much damage was done.

The funeral of Mrs. J. M. Orsler will occur from the family residence on Fourth street this evening at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. Stephen Holroyd will officiate and the remains will be interred in Fairview cemetery.

Detective Ed Johnson of Des Moines arrived in the city yesterday noon and left for home on the evening train, taking with him William Coon, who he says is accused of stealing a diamond valued at about $75. Coon was formerly in Columbus, Neb.

The Ninth district convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held at the Broadway Methodist church in this city on the 23 and 24. The delegates will be present from all the unions in this part of the state. Mrs. J. M. Aldrich will be president and quill of the press.

Mrs. Butler, the wife of one of the fellows who is locked up in the county jail for committing a brutal assault on Julius Zimmerli, will be held at the authorities of Omaha that her husband was lost. She was told that he could easily be found when wanted, and went away much relieved.

The summer stevedores of the Grand Army of the Republic is about to issue a call to the Grand Army posts of western Iowa for a reunion in this city July 4, the day when General U. A. Merrick speaks at the Twin City Chautauqua. It is his intention to make that day a memorable one to the old soldiers, as well as to Chautauquans.

D. W. Vreeland of Manawa called at the city marshal's office yesterday and identified the chisel which was found on Dan Curtis, the cleaver, as one that was stolen from his place a few nights ago. His name was found engraved on the blade. It is possible that the charge of burglary may be made against Curtis in addition to that of mayhem.

The following officers were elected by the Railway Employees club at their last meeting: President, L. Kendall of the Milwaukee; vice president, G. W. Jackson of the Union Pacific; treasurer, J. L. Mithen of the Northwestern; executive committee, J. C. Cutter, Northwestern, and J. Christian, Rock Island. The club now has 429 members.

The supervisors voted yesterday to discontinue the office of the clerk of the court who has been engaged in the office of County Clerk Campbell in copying the probate record and making it up to the register, after July 1. The work in this department will be done by the clerk and the clerk expects to get around the action of the board by having an order of court appointing him another deputy.

Charles Loefer and Fred Jones, the two boys who robbed Fred Lamm's cigar store several months ago and stole a lot of cigars, pleaded guilty in the district court yesterday and were sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and given twenty days in which to scrape to pay it. It was supposed that they would both be sent to the county work house, but the parents appeared before Judge Deemer and begged so hard that they were allowed to keep their boys at home, promising so many times to look after their wayward sons in the future that the good judge was obliged to get the better of justice with the above result.

Jarvis 1877 brandy, better than imit'd. L. W. Tulleys, farm and city lions. Council Bluffs, Ia., 103 Pearl street.

Reiter, the taller, 310 Broadway, has all the latest styles and newest goods. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Jarvis 1877 brandy, sold by all dealers Closing Out Groceries. Am going to quit business, and so will clear out my stock of groceries at cost...

Hot weather prices in picture frames at Riley & Sherraden's art store.

Pastures for horses and cattle on George F. Wright's farm south of Council Bluffs; 500 acres blue grass; running water.

Irish wires the latest red best. Dr. Chamberlain, eye, ear, throat, catarrh. Shugart, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Jarvis Wine Co., Santa Clara, Cal. Trains leave for Manawa on 9, 11, 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 o'clock.

For Rent—First class saloon; good location; fine fixtures. Responsible party can get long lease on good terms. Address D 24, Bee office, Council Bluffs.

Jarvis 1877 brandy six gold medals. International Court Association rooms are in annex to Grand Hotel, 129 First street, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Jarvis 1877 brandy, purest, safest, best... The Fire Record.

BENJAMIN HARRISON

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

PRESS COMMENTS.

What the Great Journalists of the Country Think of the Convention's Action.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—The Journal (republican) will say tomorrow in regard to Harrison's nomination: "Harrison may not be so brilliant as a man as Blaine, though his speeches are marked by no oratorical ability, but he is a far more successful politician than Blaine as a vote-getter he is Blaine's superior..."

Like all great popular favorites, Mr. Blaine has many bitter enemies, and like all men who have been prominent in public life for many years, he has too much record to undertake his defense with safety in a national campaign. Both are great men and splendid republicans. Mr. Blaine is the better candidate and the convention is to be congratulated upon its choice."

WANTS DEMOCRATIC HARMONY. New York, June 10.—The Times will say editorially: "When the republicans are divided by factional hostility as they are today there is a greater chance of success to the democratic party. If Harrison and Blaine are to split one party, there is no reason why Cleveland and Hill should split the other. If you would not drop Blaine and put a western man could carry New York. That would mean the inevitable defeat of Harrison and Cleveland and nor Hill sees this at the convention at Chicago ought to see this and act accordingly."

"The World will say: "Mr. Harrison is a much better representative of party democracy than Mr. Blaine would have been. How strong a candidate he will be we must wait to see. Mr. Blaine has friends of stanch loyalty and long memories, and the issue between him and the president has left them resentful in unusual degree."

Faithful Services Rewarded. The Tribune will say: "Merit wins. The people recognize and gladly reward faithful and effective service. In sixty years no greater respect for Lincoln and Grant, have been rendered by wise administration such as rendered by the people as a reward for their exceptional services to the country. Under no other president have American commerce, industry and the prosperity of the nation been so advanced, and progress and peace are no less worthy of laurels than triumphs in the field of arms."

"The nomination of Whitlaw Reid for vice-president completed the work of the convention. On this subject it becomes the Tribune to speak briefly. The nominee was not sought and cannot insure a more zealous and moral support of the ticket by the Tribune than it would have given to any candidate whom the convention could have chosen. The nomination of Mr. Reid does, however, impose upon this journal special obligations of courtesy and fairness and patriotism, which it will endeavor to discharge as it receives the approval of friends and the respect of opponents."

Sentiment of the Chicago Press. CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—The Inter Ocean (republican) says: "Blaine and McKinley, both of them, are the names to kindle the enthusiasm of the people, but McKinley was not to be lifted into the air and dashed to the earth again by a cyclone, whether natural or manufactured. The deliberation and judgment of the country duly expressed favored the nomination of Mr. Harrison and that is what counts."

"The News Record (independent) says: "The result is gratifying from a standpoint of high patriotic sentiment. Mr. Harrison was not nominated because of his political failure of his administration. None of the partisans complained of any official act of his president. It was the people who according to the doctrinal policies of the party he represented. The objection that was raised against him was the outgrowth of personal dislikes and prejudice. He had not given Tom, Dick and Harry all they asked for. They wanted to run his administration."

The Tribune (republican) says: "It matters little now by what methods he (Harrison) was elected in honor or that his following in the northern states is smaller. He is a strong, but impatient continent from the south, which cannot aid him in November, much as it would like to do so. Mr. Blaine had been the standard bearer. Says the Times (democrat) c: "Last week Blaine threw up the portfolio of state. To-day the republicans were distinguished by attaching him to his car of triumph and without apparent exultation will use his friends for his merit, just as the silver shoght."

DENVER, Colo., June 10.—The Denver Republican will say editorially in the morning: "President Harrison's nomination means another great victory for the republican party. It is a triumph over the tariff, over the interests of the monopolists, over the interests of the southern states, which are controlled by the federal oligarchs and are such human material, which will be the power in the future of the nation. It is a triumph over the tariff, over the interests of the monopolists, over the interests of the southern states, which are controlled by the federal oligarchs and are such human material, which will be the power in the future of the nation."

BLAINE COUNSELS HARMONY. He gives a counsellor to the Public and it is an Excellent One.

Boston, Mass., June 10.—Ex-Secretary Blaine and Mrs. Blaine left for Bar Harbor on the 7 p. m. train over the Boston & Maine road. His departure leaves the evening, Mr. Blaine gave this communication to the Boston Journal:

"The resolution, energy and persistence with which the progress of the convention at Minneapolis will, if turned against a common foe, win the election in November. My personal differences should be merged in the determination every soul here to do all in his power to elect the ticket nominated to-day." JAMES G. BLAINE.

What They Said After It Was Over. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—When questioned as to the result, Chairman Clarkson said: "We were beaten. We were not ashamed of the light we made. We will go on now and go our best."

"Why we did not win? We did not have money enough," said Wolcott of Colorado, tartly. "The other fellows had the most votes."

"No, no," said Governor McKinley to a suggestion of regret that he did not get the nomination. "It's better as it is."

Reid Receives the News. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 10.—At 10 o'clock tonight the telephone in Hon. Whitlaw Reid's country residence near the village brought to Reid and the ex-minister and his family received the information that he had been nominated for vice president by acclamation.

Many prominent republicans called upon Mr. Reid and congratulated him upon his nomination. He also received many dispatches of the same import.

Harrison Club Meeting. An adjourned meeting of the Douglas County Harrison club was held at Koch's hall in Douglas street yesterday afternoon.

BENJAMIN HARRISON

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

PRESS COMMENTS.

What the Great Journalists of the Country Think of the Convention's Action.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—The Journal (republican) will say tomorrow in regard to Harrison's nomination: "Harrison may not be so brilliant as a man as Blaine, though his speeches are marked by no oratorical ability, but he is a far more successful politician than Blaine as a vote-getter he is Blaine's superior..."

Like all great popular favorites, Mr. Blaine has many bitter enemies, and like all men who have been prominent in public life for many years, he has too much record to undertake his defense with safety in a national campaign. Both are great men and splendid republicans. Mr. Blaine is the better candidate and the convention is to be congratulated upon its choice."

WANTS DEMOCRATIC HARMONY. New York, June 10.—The Times will say editorially: "When the republicans are divided by factional hostility as they are today there is a greater chance of success to the democratic party. If Harrison and Blaine are to split one party, there is no reason why Cleveland and Hill should split the other. If you would not drop Blaine and put a western man could carry New York. That would mean the inevitable defeat of Harrison and Cleveland and nor Hill sees this at the convention at Chicago ought to see this and act accordingly."

"The World will say: "Mr. Harrison is a much better representative of party democracy than Mr. Blaine would have been. How strong a candidate he will be we must wait to see. Mr. Blaine has friends of stanch loyalty and long memories, and the issue between him and the president has left them resentful in unusual degree."

Faithful Services Rewarded. The Tribune will say: "Merit wins. The people recognize and gladly reward faithful and effective service. In sixty years no greater respect for Lincoln and Grant, have been rendered by wise administration such as rendered by the people as a reward for their exceptional services to the country. Under no other president have American commerce, industry and the prosperity of the nation been so advanced, and progress and peace are no less worthy of laurels than triumphs in the field of arms."

"The nomination of Whitlaw Reid for vice-president completed the work of the convention. On this subject it becomes the Tribune to speak briefly. The nominee was not sought and cannot insure a more zealous and moral support of the ticket by the Tribune than it would have given to any candidate whom the convention could have chosen. The nomination of Mr. Reid does, however, impose upon this journal special obligations of courtesy and fairness and patriotism, which it will endeavor to discharge as it receives the approval of friends and the respect of opponents."

Sentiment of the Chicago Press. CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—The Inter Ocean (republican) says: "Blaine and McKinley, both of them, are the names to kindle the enthusiasm of the people, but McKinley was not to be lifted into the air and dashed to the earth again by a cyclone, whether natural or manufactured. The deliberation and judgment of the country duly expressed favored the nomination of Mr. Harrison and that is what counts."

"The News Record (independent) says: "The result is gratifying from a standpoint of high patriotic sentiment. Mr. Harrison was not nominated because of his political failure of his administration. None of the partisans complained of any official act of his president. It was the people who according to the doctrinal policies of the party he represented. The objection that was raised against him was the outgrowth of personal dislikes and prejudice. He had not given Tom, Dick and Harry all they asked for. They wanted to run his administration."

The Tribune (republican) says: "It matters little now by what methods he (Harrison) was elected in honor or that his following in the northern states is smaller. He is a strong, but impatient continent from the south, which cannot aid him in November, much as it would like to do so. Mr. Blaine had been the standard bearer. Says the Times (democrat) c: "Last week Blaine threw up the portfolio of state. To-day the republicans were distinguished by attaching him to his car of triumph and without apparent exultation will use his friends for his merit, just as the silver shoght."

DENVER, Colo., June 10.—The Denver Republican will say editorially in the morning: "President Harrison's nomination means another great victory for the republican party. It is a triumph over the tariff, over the interests of the monopolists, over the interests of the southern states, which are controlled by the federal oligarchs and are such human material, which will be the power in the future of the nation. It is a triumph over the tariff, over the interests of the monopolists, over the interests of the southern states, which are controlled by the federal oligarchs and are such human material, which will be the power in the future of the nation."

BLAINE COUNSELS HARMONY. He gives a counsellor to the Public and it is an Excellent One.

Boston, Mass., June 10.—Ex-Secretary Blaine and Mrs. Blaine left for Bar Harbor on the 7 p. m. train over the Boston & Maine road. His departure leaves the evening, Mr. Blaine gave this communication to the Boston Journal:

"The resolution, energy and persistence with which the progress of the convention at Minneapolis will, if turned against a common foe, win the election in November. My personal differences should be merged in the determination every soul here to do all in his power to elect the ticket nominated to-day." JAMES G. BLAINE.

What They Said After It Was Over. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—When questioned as to the result, Chairman Clarkson said: "We were beaten. We were not ashamed of the light we made. We will go on now and go our best."

"Why we did not win? We did not have money enough," said Wolcott of Colorado, tartly. "The other fellows had the most votes."

"No, no," said Governor McKinley to a suggestion of regret that he did not get the nomination. "It's better as it is."

Reid Receives the News. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 10.—At 10 o'clock tonight the telephone in Hon. Whitlaw Reid's country residence near the village brought to Reid and the ex-minister and his family received the information that he had been nominated for vice president by acclamation.

Many prominent republicans called upon Mr. Reid and congratulated him upon his nomination. He also received many dispatches of the same import.

Harrison Club Meeting. An adjourned meeting of the Douglas County Harrison club was held at Koch's hall in Douglas street yesterday afternoon.

CLARKSON'S LAST RALLY

He Calls the Blaine Leaders Together and They Talk Bitterly.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—After the adjournment of the convention last night, Chairman Clarkson called the Blaine leaders together. The victory of the Harrison party on the vote was bitterly discussed and the advisability of dropping Blaine and taking up McKinley or Sherman was discussed, but without definite results.

Asked if it had been definitely decided to present Blaine, Chairman Clarkson said this morning there had been no change in the commission's plan, however," he said. "Blaine will be presented by Forester and seconded by Wolcott and others. The situation at present is mistifying. At this stage a dark horse could have the nomination if the strategists could unite on the right man, Massachusetts and New York can name the man if they wish. Indeed, almost any two prominent states can have the man. McKinley could probably have the nomination if he wanted it. As to Sherman, I cannot say surely because I think that because of his position on the throne and silver questions he would get no support from delegates of the western and silver states. In the dark horse contingent there are prominent McKinley, Reed and Rusk. I believe it is necessary to have Rusk go the ticket somewhere to attack the alliance and save the state of Wisconsin and possibly other states where the farmers alliance is particularly strong. We can drop Blaine and we have formed in line of battle and a compromise candidate, if there is one, must come forward after the balloting begins."

Chairman Clarkson said, after he reached the convention hall, that the Blaine leaders had decided at the conference today not to change the business of the convention, but to reach a ballot as soon as possible. He understood the conference practically determined to throw the entire Blaine strength to McKinley. It is claimed the full Blaine strength can be transferred except Idaho and a few scattering votes. It is understood that Forester has joined the McKinley ranks and is ready to do whatever is necessary, first to defeat Harrison and second to nominate a new man. He said the Ohio delegates were disposed to buy personal differences and name the man they believed would be the winner.

NIGHT OF HARD WORK. Both Factors Strained Every Nerve for an hour on the 10th.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—The leaders of both the Blaine and Harrison following maintained a sleepless vigil throughout the night, endeavoring to rally every delegate favorable to their respective leaders. The morning opened with the Harrison people outnumbering the Blaine managers no less determined.

Chairman Clarkson said he had received a large number of telegrams this morning from prominent men throughout the country, who heretofore had been urging him to formalize the opposition in support of the president, requesting him now to make every effort to bring about a reconciliation of the warring factions by a union of some man satisfactory to both elements, McKinley, Rusk and Allison have all been suggested in these telegrams.

Increased bitterness was shown between factions this morning. It was discovered that ten of the Kansas delegates, one-half of the entire delegation, were working for a stampede to McKinley, and this has stirred up considerable strife in the delegation.

Says Hill Hasn't Withdrawn. THOY, N. Y., June 10.—An afternoon paper prints an interview with Hon. Edmund Murphy, who declares there is no truth whatever in the published statement that David E. Hill has withdrawn his name as a candidate for the presidency.

Said It Was an Unmitigated Lie. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Hill declined to affirm or deny the story that he had sent a letter of withdrawal. His secretary, however, said it was a misgumption.

Movements of Ocean Steamers. At New York—Arrived—Galicia, from Liverpool; Bohemia, from Hamburg. At Hamburg—Arrived—Rhetna, from New York; Fuerst Bismarck, from New York.

At Brow Head—Passed—Umbria, from New York. At Liverpool—Arrived—Culle, from New York.

G. W. PANGLE, M. D. The Good Samaritan. 20 Years' Experience.

READER OF DISEASES OF MEN AND WOMEN. PROPRIETOR OF THE WORLD'S HERBAL DISPENSARY OF MEDICINE.

I treat the following Diseases: Catarrh of the Head, Throat, and Lungs; Discharge of the Eye and Ear; Pimples; Herpes; Itch; Scabies; Skin Diseases; Nervous Debility, Mental Depression, Loss of Manhood, Seminal Weakness, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy, Paralysis, White Swelling, Scrofula, Fever Sores, Cancers, Tumors and Fistula in any removed without the knife or drawing a drop of blood.

Special Attention given to private and Venereal Diseases of all kinds. Those who are afflicted with these diseases can cure without the use of the knife or drawing a drop of blood. Tapeworms removed in two or three hours, or in 10 days. Heretofore a life or death.

Will save life and hundreds of dollars by calling on or using DR. G. W. PANGLE'S HERBAL MEDICINES. The only Physician who can tell what ails a person without asking a question. All correspondence strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address all letters to G. W. PANGLE, M. D. 555 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

CALIFORNIA'S FINEST PRODUCTION.

JARVIS 1877 BRANDY

RICH, RIPE AND MELLOW.

Aged in our cellars. Has been awarded six gold and four silver medals, at different world's expositions.

Indorsed by the Medical faculty everywhere as being the purest, safest and best stimulant. Ask for it. Take no other. Beware of imitations.

JARVIS WINE CO. GROWERS, DEALERS AND DISTILLERS, Santa Clara and San Jose, California.

OMAHA MEDICAL AND SURGICAL

Special Notices. Eye & Ear Infirmary for the Treatment of Chronic and Surgical Diseases. Best facilities, apparatus and Remedies for successful treatment of every form of Chronic and Surgical Diseases. For circulars on deformities and chronic eye diseases, etc., write to the proprietor, E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

FOR SALE—Extra fine, thoroughbred, Jersey cows, gold color, registered stock; 14 months old, 725 N. 1st street. If you have anything for sale or trade see E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—Dwelling in all parts of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—Two of the best Carriage flats on Fourth street.

FOR RENT—Furniture, fixtures, lease and goodwill of business in a good location in Nebraska city; will trade for stock of merchandise. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A comfortable living room dwelling, near Fairmount park. Room, $1.00; 2nd room, $1.50; 3rd room, $1.00. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling on 12th avenue, price, $2,500. Small monthly payments. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling, 182 1/2 Fifth avenue, price, $2,500. Small monthly payments. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A large, three-room dwelling, near Fairmount park, with a good view of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling, near Fairmount park, with a good view of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling, near Fairmount park, with a good view of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling, near Fairmount park, with a good view of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.

FOR RENT—A new four-room dwelling, near Fairmount park, with a good view of the city. E. H. Shoaf, Broadway and Main street.