Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Ill., June 27.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The hog market was in an unestiness. There were sales at about Saturday's prices and in other instances a reduction of from 5c to 10c was apparent. The average was about 5c lower than for that day, the closing being slightly firmer than the opening. From $5.00 to $5.35 was the range of values for common to choice grades. There was a sale or two of extra at $5.40 and culls sold anywhere below $4.75. The receipts, though larger than expected, were not too large for the demand, shippers and markers both buying freely. Receipts, $3.00.

Holders of sheep unloaded at about steady prices. The better qualities were firmly held and those of low degree were weak but there was not a quotable variation in any grade. From $2.75 to $3.25 for inferior stuff prices ranged up to from $6.00 to $6.25 for extra. There have been few recent sales at over $5.90, the popular prices being $3.75 to $5.50. Lambs were weaker at from $4.5) to $7.00. Receipts, 9,000.

SHORTS BECAME ALARMED IN EARNEST

As a Result of the Combination of Circum stances There Was the Sharpest Advance Since the Bull Campaign in That Line BegarA

CHICAGO, Ill., June 27.-It was a lively day in the pork pit. The shorts became alarmed in earnest, and the result was the sharpest advance since the bull campaign in that market began. Many looked upon the firmness of last week as temporary, and counted on a reaction instead of further advance. morning the market was quoted slow. This was looked upon as a terning point. But there was no turn. All products opened about where they closed on the buige Saturday and began to move higher. This was thought to be under the lead of corn. But corn advanced Mc and stopped, while products kept on higher. The export movement was away beyond the ordinary for the season. The buying by brokers for Cudahy and Armour interests was a feature. Then this country showed some response to the bull market as usual after several days of advancing market. Some stop orders were executed. The same persons who were on the wrong side bid for all products.

orders were executed. The same persons who were on the wrong side bid for all products. Foreign houses were also said to be getting back stuff sold at lower prices. A general stampede occurred before the close and there was a net gain of from $\mathbb{E}$C to $37\mathbb{E}$C for pork, 12\mathbb{E}$C on top of a similar buige Saturday. Ribs ga ned 2c from Saturday was light. The feeling was riffle firmer, but fluctuations were confined within narrow limits. The opening was from $\mathbb{E}$C to $\mathbb{E}$C to $\mathbb{E}$C is a riffle firmer, but fluctuations were confined within narrow limits. The opening was from $\mathbb{E}$C to $\mathbb{E}$C is a lighter than Saturday's closing figures and advanced $\mathbb{E}$C more, held quite firmly and the closing was about $\mathbb{E}$C in his extra $\mathbb{E}$C is a supply than had been expected, together with rainly weather and an unconfirmed report that the Hatch bill was decisred unconstitutional by the judical committee, tended to create a firm tone. If there is any line accumulated with a view of squeezing the July shorts in corn, there was no indication of manipulation today. The market was narrow, winding up with a gain of $\mathbb{E}$C compared with Saturday.

Oats closed from $\mathbb{E}$C to $\mathbb{E}$C higher, after excepting an order at business.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 27.-F. G. Logan & Co. to Duncan, Hollinger & Co.: The business doing on wheat has been light today and the bulk of it local. July opened at 78%c, sold as high as 78%c, closed at 78%@79c. September sells at about 4c discount. Some reports come from New York that the Hatch bill is considered unconstitutional, but this lacks confirmation from Washington, This bill, with the favorable reports our growing crops, has restricted all speculative purchases. Early sales were steady but later prices were quoted higher. Foreign advices regarding crops in France. England and Russia are not favorable for large crops. There may not be much to advise buying on, beyond the low price and the extraordinary low rates of transportation. We cannot recommend selling it. Corn opened very active and strong, but the activity was very short lived. September opened at 48½c, sold to 48½c and closed at 48½ to 48½c. July brought a premium of ½c to 2c; it closed at 50½c. All the accounts we get of growing crops are in favor of better prices. Oats steady with narrow fluctuations, July closed 32½c. September 31½c. Hog products were strong. September pork closed at $11.37; lard, $7.00; ribs, $7.27. With the prospects of a small corn crop we will have higher prices. Meantime we have a good advance, and reactions on realizing profits must be looked for. Chicago, Ill. June 27.—Kennett, Hopkins & Co. to S. A. McWhorter: Cloudy sklessuggestive of wet harvest fields and an unexpected decrease in the visible supply heid wheat firmly all day with a light trade. The news is a repetition of that of the past week, favorable crop news here and abroad. Heavy foreign markets, moderate exports, but increasing inquiries are reported. The markets hold up surprisingly well under the circumstance, possibly due to a belief that prices are low enough even if another big crop is assured. The strength in corn has surprised the trade as rains could have done little harm and estimates are overrun. The trade is gettin; out of July into September. The latter month has been unusually strong. Oats were firm in sympathy. Provisions were strong and active, the high price of hozs having encouraged local buils to advance prices. Armour and Oudahy are said to be enlisted on the long side. large crops. There may not be much to advise buying on, beyond the low price and the excudany are said to be chisted on the long side.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 27.—Counselm.an & Day to Cockrell Bros.: All markets started slow, but hardened perceptibly as the session advanced, with general buying for country account, There was nothing in the news of a character to influence speculation much either way, but an early rumor that the judiciary committee of the senate were expected to declare the Hatch bill unconstitutional, and this cosed oats ½c, wheat ½c and pected to declare the Hatch bill unconstitu-tional, and this closed oats ite, wheat ite and corn ite higher for the day. The prin-cipal interest centered in corn, the leading feature of which was free selling on hard spots by the late buil combine. Shorts in provisions were stampeded by a well man-aged advance, during which the longs realized freely on a scale upward. The advances es-tablished were 35c in pork, lie in lard and 20c in ribs. The market appears to us as being worked for a spot where the local buil crowd can unload their holdings upon shorts and the outside public.

London, June 27.—(New York Herald Cable—
Special to The Bre.!—New business has been almost at a standstill in the Stock exchange and but little has been done in connection with outstanding accounts in preparation for the settlement tomorrow. Consols are 1-16 to be per cent easier. Foreign government seconfities closed flat and feature ess with a fail of 15 per cent. In Spanish on some beavy Is per cent easier. Foreign government securities closed flat and fe ture ess with a fall of 1½ per cent in Spanish on so me, heavy selling orders from Paris and Berlin. Argent ne issues have been rather freely offered, resulting in a decline of from ¼ to I per cent in government cedulas bonds. A moderate reduction is marked in E-yptians and Greek and most Turkish issues. Venezuela give way 2½ per cent. Itahan is exceptionally better. Home rails have been more or less dui from opening to close on the probability of reduced dividends. The stock is expected to be in better supply tomorrow. Northern leaves off at I's per cent lower, being more especially offected by rejection of the Hull dock bill. Great Eastern and Midland are ½ per cent down and most others are ½ to ½ per cent down and most others are ½ to ½ per cent down. American raflways have been strong. The associated banks' statement was better than expected. Crop reports continue most encour-ging, so that the Lars are petting fidgety. Money is little wanted, with no diminution in the supply of floating capital. Short loans were obtained at ½ per cent. In the discount market bills have been sare quoted at ½ per cent.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Week Opens With Fair Receipts, Stendy Prices and Active Demand.

OMAHA, June 27.—The week starts out with a very fair run of stock. There were 55 cars of cattle reported in and these included several loads of Texas cattle bought by Cudahy at Kansas City and consigned to him direct. The native cattle were only fair as to quality, but with an active inquiry both from local houses and shinping and export buyers the market was active and firm on all dry lot cattle, fair to very good 1,200 to 1,500-1b, steers going at from $1,91 to $4.33. Fair to good light and medium weight steers weighing from 1,000 to 1,259 lbs. sold at from $1,50 to $4.00. There was no improvement noticeable in prices realized for the general run of rough, haif fat and green grades. They were overlooked by buyers and sellers found it tough sledding to dispose of them at stendy prices. The general trade was quite brisk and a comparatively early clearance was effected. Butchors' stock and canners sold pretty much as on Saturday. There were only two or three loads of cows here. Foor to very good stock sold at from $1.75 to $1.05, largely at from $2.10 to $1.00. Builts and stags were in only molerate supply, indifferent demand and rather lower at from $2.00 to $2.63. Calves were about steady, fair to tolerably good study selling at from $2.00 to $2.63. Calves were about steady, fair to tolerably good study selling at from $2.00 to $2.63. Calves were about steady, fair to tolerably good study selling at from $2.00 to $2.63. Corporal Heinzelman Wanted. Corporal Heinzelman of Fort Omaha is a bad egg, if the reports received from the officers at the fort are to be believed, and the police of this city have been notified of soreral shady transactions of his for which the authorities at the fort are exceedingly anxious to set their eyes on Heinzelman's countenance once more. He left the fort on a three months' furlough, and came to this city, where he fell in with a woman. His furlough is up and he and the woman have left, presumably together, for parts unknown. He has a wife at the fort, and it is also said that before going on his vacation he appropriated a lot of jewelry belonging to another party. If he can be recovered he will have three criminal charges to answer to, which will be apt to give him a long term in the penitentiary.
