SWORN STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas.

George H. Tschick, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending July 25, 1892, was as follows:

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 25th day of July, 1892.

Andrew Carnegie is saying nothing, but he is probably not saying word.

Vain ambition is consuming a few little political leaders hereabouts just now.

Jerry Simpson expresses sorrow that Frick was not killed. That is just about Jerry's size.

Who are the democrats going to nominate for congress in this district? Why this lack of self-sacrificing patriots?

ETNA and cholera are quilting down. Now, if Allen Root would let up proportionately everybody would sleep better.

AGAIN we commend to indulgence in the fond delusive hope that 1892 will witness some street paving in this city.

A poor fellow tried to sleep in a third-story window of an Omaha hotel last night. He hasn't done anything since.

SENATOR CAMERON'S attack on Justice Shiras may be charitably attributed to the joint effect of green apples and the dog days.

INGALLS is in Europe leading himself for the campaign. And when he returns his discharge will knock a great hole in the democracy's camp.

It is perfectly proper to say "Nebraska politics are." There are more brands of politics in this state than can be contained in any singular number.

THE Queen and Salisbury are trying to down Gladstone and the liberals in a royal game of freeze-out. But they cannot do it, for the G. O. M. holds all the trump.

The stability of the Omaha Athletic club was never more apparent than it is today. It is an organization embodying the best principles of manly sports and it deserves success.

THE New York Sun's favorite argument every day is "Cleveland and the democratic party are dead wrong, but Stevenson is O. K. Down with the force bill and negro domination."

JAMES W. HYATT, ex-treasurer of the United States, told a great fish story the other day and was immediately proposed as a democratic candidate for governor of Connecticut. The nomination was perfectly logical under the circumstances.

IT would be interesting to know Holman's constituents. If they were not the most narrow minded, stingy, mean, selfish, ignorant, opinionated and disagreeable people living they would not continually reflect such a nuisance and tiresome growler as Holman.

THE best place on earth just now is home; not a fashionable summer resort where starch and misery reign, but your own cottage where there is coolness and pleasure produced by the abandonment of superfluous clothes and the liberty of doing as you please.

THE movement to increase the number of students at West Point is wise. This great institution is probably doing better work now than ever before and independent of its military features the education is one of the best and more young men ought to receive its benefits.

GENERAL GEORGE A. SHEPARD, the eloquent tariff orator, has spent the past year in Europe and is filled full of striking facts and figures. He makes the assertion that one English farmer out of thirty-eight is a pauper. How does that sound to the comfortable farmer of this country?

MRS. LEASE and Mrs. Diggs, the two women warriors of the people's party of Kansas, have been fighting recently, but declare that they have now buried the hatchet. It is not learned what the cause of the quarrel was, but it probably arose from Mrs. Lease's chickens getting over into Mrs. Diggs' yard.

BUSINESS is quiet, but those who complain of this should remember that in midsummer trade is always dead and every quiet, so that the experience of Omaha is not exceptional. If the reports of the commercial agencies are to be accepted as trustworthy, this city is doing a fair share of trade for this season of the year.

BLOW FOR BLOW.

The attitude of a portion of the Canadian press in relation to the demand of the United States for a fulfillment of treaty obligations on the part of the Dominion government is essentially unwise and impolitic.

The suggestion that it is the duty of the Dominion government to return blow for blow is ridiculous. In what respect could that government retaliate upon the United States with results that would compensate for the loss of the valuable privileges that are accorded to the Canadian people?

The figures presented show that the United States is carrying on an enormous foreign trade, which is increasing rapidly every year.

COMPETITION IN THE SUGAR MARKET. It is evident that the sugar trust, like all other combinations of capitalists for the purpose of controlling the market and keeping up the prices of commodities, is destined to meet with formidable opposition that will sooner or later defeat its plans.

THE blow for blow which some of the more hot-headed Canadian papers counsel would fall with hardly perceptible effect upon the American people, and then only upon a small part of them, while it would be felt with great severity by every Canadian interested and by the whole people of the Dominion.

Mr. Powderly has written a letter to the Journal of the Knights of Labor which shows how little sympathy the workmen, if he fairly represents their views, have with the efforts that are being made by the democratic press to create a sentiment against the republican party on account of the troubles at Homestead.

THE IRIGATION QUESTION. The prospect of legislation at the present session of congress for the irrigation and reclamation of arid lands is not so favorable as could be desired.

OMAHA will give hospitable entertainment to the Shriners and Knights Templar who will visit the city next month. That is now practically assured.

OUR FOREIGN COMMERCE. It is shown by the report of the bureau of statistics for the past fiscal year that although the merchandise imports of the entire country were less by $17,000,000 than for the preceding fiscal year the imports at New York were within about $1,000,000 of last year's total.

THE exports aggregated $1,030,300,000 as compared with $884,400,000 last year. New York's share of this was $413,000,000 against $346,500,000 last year; New Orleans, $131,200,000 as compared with $109,100,000; Baltimore, $68,800,000 as compared with $64,400,000; Boston, $87,100,000 as compared with $77,000,000; Philadelphia, $58,500,000 as compared with $33,600,000; San Francisco, $40,700,000 as compared with $40,100,000; and Galveston, $35,300,000 as compared with $33,700,000.

to what shall be done with the vast area that can be reclaimed available for settlement by irrigation presses for answer. Either the government must provide for the reclamation of the arid lands or they will have to be ceded to the states to be reclaimed under conditions which will insure that result.

The Pacific coast exports show slight increases over those of the preceding year, amounting in the aggregate to more than $3,000,000. At three ports, New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco, the imports exceeded the exports.

AN ARTICLE in the Engineering Monthly by G. E. Curtis of the Smithsonian Institution entitled "Facts About Rainmaking" is a very thorough exposition of the theory of General Dryden.

WHERE THE FUN COMES IN. Philadelphia Record: "Old Skinfitt is an awful hard man to get money out of."

FOR THE PRESS. Detroit Free Press: A word or two. "How do you do?" "A word or two."

PHILADELPHIA Times: Whatever may be the case in ordinary matters, it is certainly true that the arts do not lie in the batting side.

WASHINGTON Post: "Listen to Our Wall of Owe" would be a very proper title for the platform of the Omaha convention.

LOWELL Courier: The reason why southern planters are unable to hold their cotton is that it is sure to be sold to the north.

PHILADELPHIA Ledger: The report as to the formation of a paint trust is not a highly colored rumor after all.

SOLUTION OF THE TARIFF PROBLEM. Sam Waller Foss in Yankee Blade: He is here with his load of statistics.

THE Crop Calls for Help. Chicago Tribune: There is a great demand for harvest hands in the northwest.

THE Situation Summed Up. Colonel John A. Campbell in New York Herald: The presidential situation at this time may be summed up thus: Mr. Cleveland is not as strong in the state of New York as he was four years ago.

A Poor Breed of Watchdog. Kansas City Star: Mr. Holman of Indiana is fighting the appropriation for the World's fair with characteristic energy.

Alas and alack! Here's awful news for Cleveland and his co-laborers. A dispatch from Duluth announces that the hot weather up that way is fairly making the wheat blow.

west, and the sullen purple tinges of the Cleveland rainbow of distress have melted into the sanguineous red which tells of hope.

Discovery Day. President Harrison by a proclamation issued Friday calls for the observance of October 21, this year, as the 40th anniversary of Columbus' great discovery.

Fomented by Democratic Anarchists. The miscreant who shot Frick may never have committed the crime if not for the anarchist elements of the democratic party.

Richfield Springs is crowded to suffocation. Cape May is brimful of young women this year, and they are pretty young women.

Pretty Miss Nellie Sands of New York is smashing hits at Narragansett Pier. She plays first fiddle in the orchestra of a winning smile.

Miss Letitia Poutney Perot, one of Philadelphia's society pets, at present is away from her home as queen of the beauty of maidens who are passing the summer at Atlantic City.

The brunette beauty of Richfield is Miss Kate Hanney of New York. Miss Hanney is a model of a girl, tall, lithe and athletic as a statue.

At a fashionable seashore gathering last week a lady guest appeared in a demure-trimmed dress of black summer satin.

Lowell Courier: High church steeples are going out of fashion. It is proper that they should, as they have long been a vane device.

Yankee Statesman: "If I want you I'll wire you," is what the florist said to the short-stemmed rose.

Washington Star: "You know you owe me a living," said the young man. "I'll answer the world," but you can't collect if you are too lazy to bustle around and prove your claim."

Philadelphia Record: "Marfa, do you think the young man of yours is too good?" "Why, I like him best when he's not," "Why, what do you mean?" "Well, you see, I'm fond of him when he gets into each evening."

Philadelphia Times: Whatever may be the case in ordinary matters, it is certainly true that the arts do not lie in the batting side.

Washington Post: "Listen to Our Wall of Owe" would be a very proper title for the platform of the Omaha convention.

Lowell Courier: The reason why southern planters are unable to hold their cotton is that it is sure to be sold to the north.

SAM WALLER FOSS IN YANKEE BLADE: He is here with his load of statistics. From your locality gleaned.

WOODBURY'S FACIAL SOAP. For the skin, for the complexion, for the hair, for the eyes, for the nose, for the mouth, for the throat, for the chest, for the stomach, for the bowels, for the bladder, for the kidneys, for the liver, for the lungs, for the heart, for the brain, for the nerves, for the muscles, for the bones, for the joints, for the feet, for the hands, for the face, for the body, for the soul.

ing of people will assemble to hear the eminent advocate of protection.

Mr. R. E. Doran, editor of the Valparaiso Visitor, said yesterday that politicians were becoming quite active down at the neck of the woods.

A BLOODY DUEL, A FIRE and a Lively Saloon Fight. CRENSHAW, Colo., July 26.—Yesterday at Hatcher City, Mike Donnelly and W. M. Geringer had a dispute over mining affairs.

During the fight Kid McCoy, a prisoner in the jail, watched the proceedings through the barred windows of his cell. Becoming excited and wishing to get nearer to the affair, he set fire to the building in an endeavor to escape.

Several Will Be Killed. Desperate Fight With an Outlaw to Come Today. NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 26.—Johnson Sloan, ex-postmaster and outlaw, who is under indictment in Putnam county for robbing the mails and who killed a deputy who tried to arrest him and rode into Cookeville, terrorized the town, and drove away the postmaster and sheriff, is now intruded in his house by Harrison, a brother of President Harrison, is there organizing a posse to capture him today.

Cashier Arrested for Embezzlement. BEAUFORT, N. Y., July 26.—Cashier Frank C. Foster has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement preferred by the president of the Buffalo Ice company, in whose employ he was for two years, during which he is accused of stealing $8,000 or $10,000 and falsifying accounts to cover his peculations.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION. The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at the city of Lincoln, August 3, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to the national convention.

THE NOMINATION. The nomination of Dr. Keuper for congress by the Third district democrats is said to have caused a good deal of bitter feeling among the bourgeois in different parts of the district.

There is a prevailing and growing opinion that the republican nominee for governor will hail from Omaha, that is if the republicans of that city can agree upon a candidate who can command the confidence of the party.
