The thermometer of the city yesterday showed a temperature of 65° during the warmest part of the day, a fall of 25° within twenty-four hours, and a high of 85° for all who were fortunate enough to have kept them in their possession during the summer. It is not the warmest, but the just passed were the warmest, taking them as a whole, that have been seen here for ten years.

The twelve men who were arrested for making a raid on a dwelling house near the Northwestern roundhouse were discharged by Judge Metcalf yesterday morning, the woman who made the complaint refusing to prosecute. The officer who made the arrest could not even tell enough about him to convict them of vagrancy and minimum of their hands suddenly taken a notion to visit a sister in South Omaha.

A rumor was circulated in the city yesterday morning to the effect that during the night the Manawa had been burned to the ground. An investigation showed the report to be unfounded, and it probably arose from the fact that the Manawa had been burned during the night. It was in the same direction from the city as the Manawa, which saw it got a wrong idea as to its location.

Etta Miller, who was charged with having stolen a watch from George Ruby, was before Judge Metcalf yesterday morning for a trial. The prosecuting witness fell down when it came to proving a case of larceny, as she admitted upon the stand that he had given the woman a watch, to wear and only had her arrested because he thought she had run off with it. The court discharged her and taxed up the costs against the state.

An old man from the incoming Union Pacific train yesterday afternoon was noticed by the depot policeman and was supposed to be insane. He was unable to tell where he wanted to go. NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Officers Succeeded in Breaking Up a Gang of Counterfeiters.

THREE OF ITS MEMBERS UNDER ARREST. Green Goods and Had Money Dealt in Extensively—One of the Gang Makes a Confession. The Chief of a Brutal Husband.

A dangerous gang of counterfeiters has been broken up near Creston. That no gang was operating has been known for some time past, but all efforts to locate its members were fruitless. They were engaged in an extensive green goods business in addition to the manufacture of the worthless stuff.

Deputy United States Marshal Richards succeeded in running down Frank Murphy and brought him to the city yesterday morning, depositing him in the city jail with the charge of handling counterfeit money offered against him. Murphy, who is a hard looking customer, admitted, when arrested, that he had tried to pass some bad money, but said he was drunk when he did it.

At Creston he passed one $5 bill off on an unwary storekeeper and tried to pass another one but they were refused.

When he was brought before the commissioner he stoutly maintained his innocence, but it did not last long. He was long to convince him that enough was known about him to make things very unpleasant for him. He then decided to make a clean breast of the thing. He admitted belonging to the gang, and gave away the names of two of the other members of the gang. Richards at once sent a telegram to Creston asking the police of that place to arrest the two whose names were implicated by Murphy's confession.

Another telegram was soon received from Creston stating that the two were under arrest and would be sent to the Bluffs on the evening train. All three will be held in hearing before the commissioner tomorrow.
