Important Meeting of the Gentlemen's Roadster Club.

PROPOSITIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

Earnest Efforts Being Made to Secure a Track for the Club-Base Ball, Speed Ring and General Sporting Gossip.

An important meeting of the Omaha Gentlemen's Roadster club was held at the Millard hotel last evening. The meeting was called by the board of directors for the purpose of obtaining the sentiments of the members in regard to the future track of the club. The success which has resulted from the efforts of the members during the present season has been in the hignest degree encouraging and has generated a feeling that the organization should make more elaborate preparations for the next year. Charles A. Coe was made chairman and, after some general discussion, representatives of the Omaha Driving association formally invited the club to unite with them in the use of their grounds for the next A resolution was passed directing the board of directors to receive proposals from the driving association, and also from J. J. Brown, who owns the present track at the fair grounns for the use of their grounds for

At a meeting of the board of birectors held later W. H. McCord and W. B. Millard were appointed a committee to obtain pro-posals for grounds and report at a meeting of the club to be held at the Millard hotel next Thursday night.

SPARKS OF SPORT.

Boden-Brennan Setto. A majority of the sporting fraternity, especially those who take particular interest in well managed sparring match, met at Kilgallon's hand ball court, corner of Twelfth and Chicago streets last evening to witness a four-round go between Paddy Brennan and Mike Boden, At 10 o'clock time was called by Referee

Arthur Rothery and the men went to work. It was evident from the start that Boden had a little the best of the game on account of his weight. The four rounds which were fought proved the ability of the contestants in their line of business beyond a doubt. There was some pretty hard hitting, and the exhibition all through was greatly enjoyed by the Brennan worked hard at times to get the advantage over Boden, and got in several well directed hits which were felt by his fleshy opponent. At the close of the fourth round Referee Rothery declared the contest a draw. The entertainment was a complete success and will be repeated soon.

HIS FRIENDS ARE DISAPPOINTED IN HIM

They Think He Has Thrown Away the Chance of a Lifetime-What the Irlsh Members Propose to Do-Parliamentary Gossip.

[Copyrighted 1892 by New York Associated Press.] Loxnox, July 29. - When the members of the cabinet separated vesterday it was practically decided that the speech from the throne at the opening of the new parliament would be limited to a blank intimation that parliament had not met for the transaction of business. The militant section of the conservative party, which wants to combat the opposition a outrance, feel thoroughly exasperated at the abandonment of what they believe to be a strong position both for offense and defense.

Lord Salisbury is to visit the queen Monday previous to the final cabinet council for the consideration of the exact form of the speech from the throne. Powerful influences will in the interval be brought to bear on the queen and cabinet ministers alike to try and induce Lord Salisbury to adopt a bolder policy.

The proposal which is finding large ac ceptance at the Cariton club is that the government will open parliament by announcing the introduction of a franchise reform bill including such a redistribution of seats as will correct the present abnormal system of representation. The conservatives having no reason to fear a "one man one vote" measure, if accompanied by redistribution on the principle of equal electoral districts, of taxation and representation going together, are now fairly alive to the fact that the Salisbury government has lost a chance to carry a redistribution bill favorable to the party.

The 'one man one vote' measure, when passed, will affect 200,000 votes and throw them chiefly on the liberal side. A redistribution of seats, based on recognized liberal prin-ciples, would increase the number of English members by about forty, mostly con-servatives, and the Scotch by twenty, and would reduce the Irish representation by twenty members.

Lacks the Courage.

Many unionists members are now pressing Lord Salisbury and other cabinet members to defy the opposition to make franchise re-form the single item of the queen's speech and the whole business of the session, appealing on defeat. But Lord Salisbury has not the pluck and stamina required for this course. Intimate friends of the prime minister say that he is weary of office and wants a rest. His liver and kidneys are out of order, and any one seeing his pasty face, bent shoulders and languid walk would pronounce him deficient in energy; the sort of man certain to shirk a policy and unfit to grapple with the most momentous crisis in the country's his-

The appeals now being made to him and his colleagues to challenge the liberals on franchise reform have some ministerial support, but the majority of the members of the cabinet appear to rely upon an early breakup of the Gladstone movement through a rupture of the internal forces on which it must rest. It is just barely possible that Lord Salisbury will yet be persuaded to throw down the glove before the opposition. If he does so it will inspire the unionists with rampant courage and enthusiasm which they have never yet shown.

Policy of the Irish Party. The Irish party are not entirely reassured, in spite of the liberal declarations that the home rule bill will be expedited, and until Mr. Gladstone adds the assurance of an immediate dissolution of parliament, if the House of Lords reject the bill, a suspicion will haupt them that the measure will not be hastened. The McCartny-ites and Parnellites are possessed of an idea that if Mr. Gladstone, after passing the "one man one vote" and other measures of the Newcastie program, went to the country and got a British working majority. home rule would become smoke, having him on the hip, they will throw him unless he makes home rule his first and final aim. The McCarthyltes at a meeting on Wednesday at the committee room of the House of Commons, will reaffirm this policy.

Their finances are improving. Still tweaty-six of their number will require monetary assistance to enable them to stick day by day to their duties in parliament. The payment of members will be early proposed. A bill dealing with the matter can pass without the assent of the House of Lords by putting the vote of money on the

BEMIS PARK AND THE BOARD. Controversy Between the Mayor and the Commissioners Over Improvements. The Board of Park Commissioners and

Mayor Bemis are just now inculging in a dispute over the manner in which Bemis park shall be improved. The work of cutting a roadway along the ravine on the north line of the park has been begun in accordance with the plans prepared by Landscape Gardener Cleveland, Mr. Bemis objects to the way the road is to be cut. He says that the commissioners are encroaching upon his lots so that there will be no room for sidewalks between the roadway and the lot line, and that this is contrary to the understanding between himself and the board when the park was offered to the city. He holds also that the ravine should be filled up, making it level, which the placs adopted by the board do not contemplate. Dr. Miller, Mr. Lininger and others of the board hold that they never agreed to fill the ravine. They say that the understanding was that the park should be improved, but the board agreed to to specific plan of improvement at that time. The plans prepared by Mr. Cleveland, they The plans prepared by Mr. Cleveland, they say, will preserve most of the natural trees growing along the rayine, which is very desirable, and to fill up the rayine would kill the beautiful trees and spoil the appearance of the park. Since the plan adopted does not provide for filling the rayine the roadway has to be cut along the hillside, and this the feature of the work to which Mayor. is the feature of the work to which Mayor Bemis objects.

The board met yesterday afternoon and discussed the matter at length. Some of the members spoke as though they would be in favor of giving the land back to the Bemis company rather than to attempt to improve it in the way the mayor claims it should be im proved. rest of the Invention Before Several Prom ment Omaha People. Mr. E. W. Applegate, lately chief operator at the Western Union telegraph office in this city, has invented an incandescent electric amp which has several very excellent points of superiority over others now in use. He has discovered a chemical composition for a filament which enables him to dispense with the use of platinum, and this, together with an improved method of construction, greatly reduces the cost of production. At the same time the Applegate lamp gives 50 per cent more illumination with the same or even a less current.

An exhibition of the lamp was given at the BEE office last evening in the presence of a number of prominent gentlemen and its lightgiving power seemed to be clearly demonstrated. The inventor also claims that his filament will not blacken or cloud the globe as do those now in use and that it will give a much longer service with illumination constantly at its full power. He is also able to use the globes after the filament is burned out, which again effects a considera

Experiments made with arc lights have produced valuable comparisons. At present twelve inches of carbon will run such a lamp but one night. By actual test four inches of the solidified chemical used in the Applegate lamp will burn thirty days, and imoreover it will do away with the flickering now so com-

FRENCH-CANADIANS AROUSED.

Fair Treatment Demanded or Else They Will Become American Citizens. OTTAWA, Out., July 29. - Le Canada of this city publishes a remarkable editorial in which it says that an effort is being made to demoralize the Freden-Canadians and make them "hewers of wood and drawers of water." It adds: "After a century of struggles, of sacrifices and of progress under the English flag, are we going to allow our-selves to disappear slowly out surely in order to give way to English colonists! Will we submit to that humiliation! No, surely not. Before allowing curselves to be en-gulfed on the soil of our ancestors by a foreign antagonistic eighent we will place our-seives under the American flag and work for the glory and grandeur of that grand country.

been made. Charles Unitt of the Ninth protested gates from that ward on the ground that some of the signers were democrats and one was under age. The protest came too late, as the tickets had been printed.

A vote of thanks was tendered the city council for offering the use of the election booths for holding the primaries, although the arrangements previously made precluded the use of three of them. The ward committeemen were given the ward books, poll books and primary tickets for use today, and arrangements made to open the polls promptly at noon. Local Political Notes.

Lowry on the Situation. YORK, July 29 .- The Times says: Colonel Thomas Lowry of Minneapolis was at the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday. He said that the split in the people's party in his state, which had resulted in the nomination of two tickets by those who had formerly been allied with Lenatius Donnelly, would prevent the people's party from becoming dangerous to republicans. "How can the republicans support Knute Lowry was asked.

"Oh, he went on the stump and explained himself satisfactorily two years ago," answered the coionel.
"What is the probability that some of the northwestern states will be carried by the ocrats!" he was asked. "I don't believe they will carry any with

Arranging Excursion Rates. KANSAS CITY, July 29 .- The Transmissour Passenger association met ve terday. There were but two subjects upon the call, but both were important. One was the consideration of the Grand Army of the Republic rate to Washington for the national encampment there, and the other, the Knights Templar Denver rate. The first subject was settled by authorizing the association roads to meet the rate of one fare for the round trip made by the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis, a non-association line. That rate is a wideopen one with stop-over privileges and without limitation of any kind. T It was determined that protection against the Santa Fe'. $12 would have to be found in the regular way-that is, through a regular application
