MCKINLEY AT HASTINGS

Ohio's Governor Is Handsomely Entertained on Short Notice.

MET AT THE DEPOT BY HUNDREDS

In His Address of Twenty Minutes He Convinces the Citizens of That Locality of His Claim to Distinction as an Orator.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hastings had the unexpected pleasure of entertaining for a while this afternoon Hon. William McKinley, Jr., who was traveling by the Burlington to Denver. Efforts had been made some time ago to have the distinguished Ohioan speak in Hastings prior to his departure for the east, but as his available time was engaged the endeavor was of no avail. This afternoon at 3:30 a "rush" Western Union message to James N. Clark, president of the Hastings Republican club, conveyed the information that Major McKinley would arrive in the city at 4:30 and that he would speak at that time.

His were gotten out in an incredibly short time and the news spread rapidly from mouth to mouth. While, of course, thousands who would have been pleased to hear the major knew nothing of his passage through the city, at least 3,000 persons gathered at the depot in ten or fifteen minutes to give him a western welcome. A carriage was provided and to it the governor was escorted when the train arrived. Hastings being a city of about 15,000, a twenty minutes was made. The carriage was driven a little north to a shady place under the trees.

Mr. Clark introduced the speaker, saying that a somewhat unexpected honor was conferred upon him. When Major McKinley arose to respond a host of applause greeted him. He said that it was unexpected on his part also. He congratulated the audience upon the marvelous growth of the west. He did not suppose that it was possible that it had made so much progress.

Not a State, but an Empire. In traveling through the state he had found that it was not only a state, but an empire. He also wished to congratulate the citizens upon the growth of Hastings. Ten years ago it had a population of less than 3,000; now it was more than 14,000, a truly wonderful growth.

CONGRATULATING CROUSE.

Nebraska's Next Governor Being Overwhelmed With Expressions of Confidence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Judge Crouse has been overwhelmed with telegrams of congratulation today from all parts of the country. It was not generally known before the closing of the department yesterday that he had received the nomination, but this morning every one knew it and his office was besieged with visitors who wished to congratulate him.

Judge Crouse said this afternoon that he had not been able yet to make any definite plans for the future, but that he would resign probably September 1. He received some of the telegrams he has received: San Francisco, Cal.—I congratulate you on your nomination. Pray for me. J. B. Brown. Lincoln, Neb.—On fourth ballot, first today, Crouse has been elected. A. J. Paddock. Accept congratulations. H. T. Clarke. Lincoln, Neb.—Accept congratulations. We will carry Nebraska whooping. F. H. Hays. Omaha—We extend hearty congratulations on nomination. There is success in Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb.—You have been nominated for governor. Congratulations. James W. Davis. United States Senate—Sincere congratulations. Lincoln, Neb.—Congratulations. Any command will be honored by me. E. H. Ryan. New York City—Congratulations. W. J. Fiske. Lincoln, Neb.—Accept congratulations. Special ticket. Success ahead. Leave for Washington immediately. E. K. Valentine. Chicago, Ill.—Accept sincere congratulations. Command my services at any time during campaign. GEORGE W. BOILEY. San Francisco—Accept my most heartfelt congratulations on your nomination.

These are only a few of the messages which Judge Crouse has received. Adams County Prohibitionists. JUNIATA, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Adams county prohibitionists met yesterday. E. A. Waldron called the convention to order about 9 o'clock in the afternoon. They elected delegates to state and congressional conventions and then proceeded to place in nomination the state and county officers. C. L. Jones of Hastings was chosen for senator, and after an hour's debating and wrangling over endorsing the republican nominee for representative, the motion was lost and Robert Ash chosen for representative. G. F. Cassas was appointed a committee to meet a committee from Webster county and nominate a state representative. The county attorney was left to the central committee. After much debate the following resolutions were tabled: That foreigners shall be residents of the United States twenty-one years before allowed the right of suffrage, that all foreigners be taxed five as a protection to our labor, and that the system of Pinkerton guards be condemned and suppressed by law. Resolutions were adopted on the death of D. S. Cole of Hastings. The attendance was the smallest for several years, but the enthusiasm was great in proportion to numbers. In the matter of state representatives several of the leading members of the convention argued that the republican nominee was good enough for them.

Received with Great Enthusiasm. ATINSON, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Joseph Barbery, "our Joe," republican nominee for state treasurer, came home tonight from the convention. The entire population of Holt county for miles around were at the train with the exception of the federal government, which has the power to go in every house in the land and take every fair son to fight and, it may be, die for the defense of that government and yet the arm of the federal government is not strong enough to reach the foreigner who seeks to enter our markets. We also in the United States have the right to enjoy the privileges which have been wrought for us ourselves. Governor McKinley's speech was frequently interrupted with applause and laughter, and at its termination he again boarded the train for Denver.

CITY COUNCIL.

Matters of Importance Discussed and Disposed of Last Night.

When the council convened last night, the first thing that it did was to go into committee of the whole, with Mr. Chaffee in the chair. Then the members tried to figure out who were the lowest bidders on venetian blinds for the windows of the city hall. This was something that they could not do. To settle the matter the comptroller was instructed to advertise one week for new bids. Those bids will compel the bidders to state the price per square foot, and a tin blinds of quarter sawed oak, with two-inch slats, to match interior finish. The protest against the further enlargement of Prospect Hill cemetery was discussed at length. The city attorney was instructed to draft and present to the council an ordinance preventing the further enlargement of the boundaries of the cemetery. The city electrician ordinance was disposed of by the appointment of a committee of three, of which the city engineer shall be a member, to draft an ordinance, together with rules and regulations, to be reported back to the council within two weeks. The hydrant and back-siphonances were reported back to the council, to be considered in regular session next Tuesday night. When the committee arose and the council got back into regular session, George W. Powers asked to be allowed to conduct a clear story in the rotunda of the city hall. His application was referred to the committee. President Davis gave permission to absent himself from the city for one week. An ordinance looking to the paving of Seventeenth street, from Farman to Harvey, with Trinidad sheet asphaltum, was read twice and referred.

DROWNED IN CUT-OFF LAKE.

Bert Altman Loses His Life While Bathing. Bert Altman, a compositor in the office of the South Omaha Daily Stockman, was drowned while bathing in Cut Off lake near Swinell's ice house last evening. Mr. Altman went out to the lake early in the evening in company with some friends, and the party went in bathing opposite Courtland Beach. It was after dark when Altman, who was swimming about fifty feet from the shore, was seen to throw up his arms and sink. Nothing was thought of the incident for a moment, but when he failed to come to the surface his friends hastened to aid him. But it was too late, and they were unable even to find his body. Altman was about 30 years old and had been a resident of South Omaha for about four years. He was a young man of exemplary habits and manners. After much search a large circle of friends. He was a member of the First Methodist church and took an active part in the work of the young people's societies. He also belonged to Typographic Union No. 309 of South Omaha. He has no relatives in the city, but his parents reside in Tacoma, Wash.

Arrested the Town Board.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 6.—Warrants were issued by Justice Joseph French this morning for the arrest of the entire town board of Superior on a charge of embezzlement. The members of the board are John Walker, Martin Kerstedt and Frank Desmond, and all live at South Range. The warrants charge that on May 31, 1891, the above mentioned members, then constituting the town board, appropriated $400 to their own use and also smaller sums at various subsequent times. Last year's tax was $70,000, which was collected, and none of it is now visible, and there is no town improvement to show where it has gone.

Long Pine's Chaletiques.

LONG PINE, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The closing of the sixth annual session of the Long Pine Chaletiques was celebrated by a grand final concert given under the direction of Mrs. J. K. Keilley of Weeping Water academy. A program consisting of vocal and instrumental music and recitations was carried out with credit to the director and performers. This closed the most successful assembly ever held upon the local Chaletiques grounds. It has been a grand success both as to the enjoyment of all who attended and the financial results. The management finds that after paying all

ASSAULTED BY ROBBERS

Two Desperate Thieves Overpower a Motorist at Lincoln.

HE MADE A VERY DETERMINED FIGHT

After Being Relieved of His Cash the Company's Guardian is Unconsciously Thrown from the Moving Car.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special to THE BEE.]—One of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated in Lincoln occurred shortly before midnight last night. Michael Kelley, a motorist on the Lincoln street railway, was overpowered by two men and after a desperate struggle robbed of $35 in cash and a number of minor articles. He was in charge of car No. 298 and was making his last trip for the night. His car runs on the Union college line and after leaving the corner of Summer and Twenty-seventh streets he had entire charge of the car. After leaving Union college with the empty car he started in to clean the commutator while the car was running along a level piece of track. In order to do so he went down on his knees and raised up the trap door in the bottom of the car. It was while in this position that two unknown men sprang on the car and assaulted him. He fought desperately, his clothing being nearly torn from his body in the struggle. The men robbed him of the money and then threw him from the car. He followed up his car and came up to it a half mile further on. His application was referred to the committee. President Davis gave permission to absent himself from the city for one week. An ordinance looking to the paving of Seventeenth street, from Farman to Harvey, with Trinidad sheet asphaltum, was read twice and referred.

Death of a Pioneer.

In the death of D. L. Peckham, which occurred last night at his home at 1117 L street in this city, Lincoln loses one of its earliest pioneers. Mr. Peckham had been a resident of Nebraska since 1850 and had moved to Lincoln immediately after the capital had been located here by the state capital commission in 1857. He erected one of the first business places in the embryo city and commenced business as a contractor, and has erected many of the largest and finest blocks in Lincoln. He has long been a sufferer from an abscess in the region of the heart and his death was painless. He was 55 years old and left a wife and three children to mourn their loss.

Five Accidents Yesterday—Some of Them of a Serious Nature. J. W. Rubel met with an accident yesterday afternoon which may cost him his life. Rubel is a carpenter and is employed upon one of Swift's new buildings now in course of erection. He was working upon a scaffold about fifteen feet above the ground, and by a mistake lost his footing and fell. The entire right side of his body was badly bruised. THE EXPENSES OF THE SEASON THERE REMAINS A NEAT PROFIT.

Now that the Chaletiques has been placed upon a paying basis, no longer is there any doubt as to its permanency.

Those who now own lots will proceed at once to build summer cottages, some of which will be constructed this season, and instead of camping only a few days during the Chaletiques will live during the hot months on the grounds, where every place is delightfully cool. Much credit is due the president, Rev. George Hindley, for the successful outcome of the season, and all the friends of the Chaletiques will be pleased to know that he has been re-elected to the office which he has held during the year.

No Clue to Cole's Murderer.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There are practically no new developments in the investigation of the murder of D. S. Cole. The report that more than one woman would possibly be implicated is confirmed but still it is doubtful if enough evidence can be obtained to warrant arrests. The adjournment of the coroner's jury until Wednesday evening is the result of the fact that no one will ever suffer punishment for the crime. The funeral will be held at 4:30 tomorrow.

Foreman Mahoney's Body Found.

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The body of Thomas Mahoney, foreman of the B. & M., who was drowned in the Blue while bathing last night, was recovered at noon at about fifteen feet from where the party of swimmers had gone into the water. It is presumed he had started to return and was taken with cramps. An inquest was held this afternoon. He would bring that death was caused from drowning. The body when recovered was drawn out of shape. Mahoney's parents at Council Bluffs have been notified of the accident.

Want More Stradament.

Appearance indicate that there are several property owners on Twenty-fourth street who are satisfied with the stradament asphalt laid on that thoroughfare and are anxious for more of it. The west half of the street from J north to A street has not been paved, the city stopping the company at J street last winter, and has not since permitted any more paving to be done. A petition is being quietly circulated among the property owners, asking the council to permit the Stradament company to finish the street. A petition protesting against permitting the company to proceed will also be laid before the council and that body will again tussle with the Twenty-fourth street paving problem.

Mysteriously Hurt.

A stray shot from an air gun is supposed to be the cause.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY.

Head One Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura. Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your Cuticura. It cured him. He is now a healthy, happy baby. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears. Most of his face and small pieces on different parts of his body. There were six teen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to his cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his fingers from coming out of the cradle. We would not have known our Cuticura had not been used. We feel safe in recommending it to others. GEO. B. and JANET H. HARRIS, Webster, Mo.
