

Knights Templar Returning from the Great Denver Conclave.

VANGUARD VISITS OMAHA BRIEFLY

Several Trains Stop Long Enough to Allow the Travelers a Glimpse of the Gate City—Get Ready for the Shriners.

The vanguard of the returning Knights Templar arrived in Omaha yesterday afternoon and evening. They were, for the most part, a tired and dusty company, but very few failed to improve the opportunity to see something of Omaha, the fame of whose marvelous growth had reached their ears in their eastern homes.

These who passed through yesterday, however, are only a part of the returning commanderies, and it is hoped that those who are to follow may be favored with a more adequate view of the Gate City.

The Burlington had three special trains loaded with the excursionists during the afternoon. The first section, consisting of a baggage car and five sleepers, was due at 1:30, but it was nearly an hour later when it pulled into the depot.

The Philadelphia Denver club was due on the Rock Island at 2:30, but it was not until two hours in the city and dine at the Millard. It was nearly 8 o'clock when the train arrived, however, and in order to make time it had to go on without stopping in Omaha.

Union Pacific No. 6 came in three sections. The first section, consisting of a baggage car and five sleepers, was due at 1:30, but it was nearly an hour later when it pulled into the depot.

DECORATE THE CITY.

Omaha Should Dress Up Handsomely to Welcome the Shriners.

Today the first delegations of the Shriners will arrive in Omaha, but they will be but a handful to the crowds that are to come tomorrow and Monday. When the last stragglers leave the depot at 11:30, there will be 20,000 visitors to be the guests of the city.

KNIGHTS LEAVING FOR HOME.

Denver's Visitors, Surfeited with Pleasure, Seek Other Scenes.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 12.—The knights are leaving town rapidly, some going home and others to make tours of the state. There are others remaining, however, to make the city extremely lively. It is estimated that 10,000 visitors were in the city outside the state during the week.

Major Clarkson was seen for a verification of the report. The major said that it had been decided to make the reward $1,000 in order to inspire a more thorough search of the lake by parties who could not be expected to spend the necessary time for the work except for pay.

PERFORMANCES FOR ITS PROMISES

Features of the Administration That Command Attention to Every Citizen of the Republic—Attention Will Be Called to Some Important Events.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The following army officers were assigned to duty: Major General William H. Taft, Major General William A. Wood, Major General William A. Wood, Major General William A. Wood.

When President Polk of the farmers alliance died a short time ago he was succeeded by H. L. Jackson, a man of political acumen. Mr. Loucks has now come to Washington to assume the duties of the position.

Hotel Men Will Spread Themselves. The hotels will be severely taxed to accommodate the guests who will flock in with the Shriners next week.

Will Decorate the City Hall. The officers, clerks and employes of the city hall have raised a fund, and with the proceeds of this fund they will see that the building is illuminated during the holding of the Shriners festivities next week.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

The World-Herald's Statement Concerning the Protection of the Public.

Regardless of facts and notwithstanding its knowledge of the falsity of the story, the World-Herald keeps reiterating the statement that Governor McKinley of Ohio received liberal pay for his speeches at Council Bluffs and Omaha yesterday morning.

Mr. P. L. Perine, who was chairman of the Finance committee, said that the expenses incident to Governor McKinley's visit, was asked for the facts in regard to the matter yesterday.

GLADSTONE'S NEW CABINET

Ho Maintains Absolute Silence on the Proposed Appointments.

SOME RUMORS AS TO ITS PERSONNEL

Gladstone and the Queen Will Have an Exciting Interview When They Meet—Lord Herschell Stated for Governor General of India.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—[New York Associated Press.] Gladstone will be in London on Monday with a complete list of the new cabinet to submit to the queen; but, in pursuance of constitutional usage, he maintains absolute silence on the proposed appointments. It has been impossible to concoct the arrangements made for Sir William Vernon Harcourt at the exchequer and for John Morley, an Irish secretary, but Mr. Gladstone's intentions regarding other ministers are not known, even to some definitely appointed members of his ministry. He has received scores of aspirants for office, and has discussed the composition of his cabinet with his chief advisors without any definite committal to any one his final selection. Being a punctilious adherent of official precedent, he will not formally offer a place to any one until he has actually received the queen's commands to form a ministry.

Surmises are rife regarding new ministerial combinations. Among the most striking reports finding credence in official circles is that of the fact that Lord Herschell will become governor general of India, that Lord Chief Justice Coleridge will become lord chancellor, and that Sir Charles Russell will become lord chief justice. Lord Herschell's transfer from the bench to the tremendous political responsibilities of the viceroyalty of India would be incredible, but for the known fact that he has long desired to be a prominent figure in the political arena. He has the highest opinion of his own qualities as an administrator, and, if the report be accurate, he must have convinced Mr. Gladstone of his worth, but his appointment to the viceroyalty of India would be a great loss to the government throughout the country in view of the critical position of Indian-Russian relations. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone is expected to announce the exact composition of the cabinet will remain unknown.

Victoria Booked for an Exciting Time. The queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the new ministers are not yet known, but she knows, but most of the new she does not know. It is known in the court circle that it is four regarding the cabinet, but that she induced the queen to consult the duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was desirable to have a new cabinet. Most of the liberal ranks included the old whig and the old tory, but the new cabinet will be a new one. One dubious suggestion another as mistress of roser and ladies of the beechamber could easily be recruited from the ranks of the aristocracy. But now Mr. Gladstone has small choice and will find it exceedingly difficult to get persons acceptable to the queen to fill the great offices.

The House of Commons will resume business on Thursday next, mainly to issue writs for the election of members of the House of Commons. The members of the house have already left town and intend not to return until the opening of the session in January. Neither Mr. Gladstone nor any of his colleagues will appear in the house on Thursday. The necessary official announcements will be made in their behalf by the speaker, Mr. St. John Lubbock, a member of the government, who is not required to be re-elected. The prorogation of parliament is expected to take place on August 22.

International Monetary Congress. Arrangements for the meeting of the international monetary congress at London, England, are being made. The selection of Dresden finds approval among the English delegates. In regard to the personnel of the English representatives, Mr. St. John Lubbock, a member of the government, who is not required to be re-elected.
