year ago, as crop reports grow more favorable. It should not be forgotten that if ex ports of products, which for two weeks have been 7.6 per cent lower at New York than last year, should be restricted by advances in price, the outflow of gold would be likely to continue and before long to affect speculative markets. Imports continue extraordi-narily large at New York, and for five weeks, being 30 per cent greater than for the same time last year, such a movement would en sure further gold exports unless other conditions change. Boston reports money stronger with in-creased demand. Trade in dry goods is rendered larger than usual and there are liberal western orders, particularly in women's dress goods. At Cincinnati manufacturers of women's
