Council Bluffs Lumber Co., A meeting of the city council will be held next Monday evening. The Married Ladies Social society will hold a business meeting at their rooms, 317 Broadway, at 2 p. m. Greenshield, Nicholson & Co., 621 Broadway, real estate and rental agents. Largest list of property of any dealers in the city.

The 2 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Omeg died Thursday at the family residence in Crescent township. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. William and John Cars, the two toughs who were arrested Wednesday night on sus-pleion of being highwaymen, were given fif-teen days a piece in the city juli yesterday on general principles. Henry DeLong, who had the novel ex-perience of being at the bottom of a ninety-foot well and trying to dodge a heavy mud tub that fell from the top, was more seriously injured than he at first supposed.

He will be laid up for several weeks. The following officers have been elected by the Council Bluffs Medical society: President, J. H. Cleaver; vice president, J. C. Waterman; secretary, H. B. Jennings; trensurer, F. S. Thomas; board of censors, Drs. Macrae, Green and Robertson.

A petition was filed in the district court yesterday by Helen McMillen against Alonzo P. McMillen and others asking for a partition of eighty acres of land which were left to the plaintiff and defendants as heirs by the inte J. P. McMillen. The property is sitnated in this county.

Sloux City has been selected as the place for holding the encampment of the military companies in this regiment, instead of Creston, as was at first announced. The Dodge Light Guards of Council Bluffs will attend, The encampment opens September 10 and

Three of the members of the fire department who so bravely fought the fire at the Deaf and Dumb institute were compelled yesterday to buy new stoes, pantaioons and shirts. They stood on the roof where the heat was great enough to melt the solder and their shoes were burned to a crisp, and the other exterior articles of clothing damaged to such an extent that they had to be thrown

In reply to a communication published in some of the papers the other day with regard to the trouble in the Married Ladies' Social society, bearing the signature of J. P. Williams, the members of the new society say they do not want to be understood as saying anything derogatory to the other division. They are willing to admit that their rivals have done a great deal of good. They want it understood, however, that they them-selves do not claim to be operating the ex-change for the benefit of the poor especially, but in order that its members may have a some practical use for their own benefit.

Dedication Exercises. The dedication of the electric light tower in the middle of Lake Manawa will take place Saturday (this) evening at 8:30 o'clock. All the row boats, sail boats and steamers will be clustered about the great tower and two minutes before the lights are turned on all the blow, the bells will ring and the Fort Omaha military band will play "The Star Spangled Banner." The entertainment and spectacle promise to be the grandest in the history of this widely known resort.

Burglars Succeed in Getting in Their Work and Escape Undetected.

BOLDNESS OF THE MIDNIGHT PROWLERS

Iwo Places Visited in a Single Night Operations Conducted Under the Glare of Electric Lights-Bowman Will Not Be a Candidate,

When H. H. Van Brunt's office on Fourth street, near Broadway, was opened yesterday morning the discovery was made that burglars had been there during the night The front door of the building was unlocked. both safe doors were open, and the cash drawer had been broken open. There was not a cent in the entire establishment, so the burglars were disappointed in their hopes of getting rich in a single night. A fine gold watch had been left lying in a tin box in one of the compartments of the safe, and the box was found broken open and the watch was missing. A lot of notes and other valuable papers which were in the box were untouched. The watch was the only article taken, so far as could be learned. There is no clue to the identity of the guilty parties, but as the front door of the office has a Yale lock it is supposed that the burglary was mitted by some one who was acquainted with the premises. A burgiary was also committed at the fruit store kept by Carmen & Thile at the corner of Main street and Willow avenue. The thieves entered by prying up the cellar door on the sidewalk on Willow Avenue. That an arc lamp not fifty fest away without being caught is a matter of some little surprise, but they did it, and after filling up their pockets with $39 worth of fruit and confectionery they made off without leaving the slightest clue by which they could be

And That Settles It.

The question whether Hon. Thomas Bowman's refusal to run as a candidate for renomination for congress from the Ninth Iowa district was the genuine article, or was intended as a temporary makeshift, bas been asked frequently ever since his declaration was published several months ago in the daily papers. There were not a few, in the democratic as well as the republican ranks, who thought that as the campaign season came on Bowman would reconsider his de-cision and enter the race again. Later developments go to show that he still holds to his determination not to run. Thursday afternoon he and E. H. Merriam, a well known member of the local democracy, were seated on the curbstone of the courthouse yard talking politics, and a republican, who is acknowledged to be truthful, was sitting not far away, where he could hear without being seen.

"No, I don't like the way they do in congress," said Bowman; "it's too much like going to school. You've got to be there at rollicall, and then you can go away for awhile, but the first thing you know you've be back for rollcall. I don't like it and I don't intend to run again.'

"But, Tom." rejoined Merriam, "you're he only democrat in this district that we can put up with the gnost of a show of - if I care," was the rejoinder; " shan't run.

And there the matter stands. This declination is considered by his friends to be final, and they are now hustling about to find some one else who will pose as a succep before the shearers. Senator William Groneweg is being mentioned as a possible candi

Trouble for a Machine Man. Howard Spark, a young man who has been employed as agent for the Singer Sewing Machine company in Council Bluffs, is in trouble as the result of a dispute he had with the manager of the office over a question of commissions. He was arrested vesterday afternoon on an information issued from Justice Swearingen's office charging him with larceny and forgery. In brief, the story of Manager Tarpy of the machine company is as follows: All the agents who sell machines have blank leases, which are made out and stened by the pur haser and the agent, specifying the terms upon which the machine is bought and the times at which the payments be come due. If a machine is sold for cash no lease is required, but the cash is turned with the order. When Spark took cash orders he failed to turn in the cash, but in stead made out faise leases and forged the names of the purchasers to them. How long this went on is not known, but in some way the fraud was detected and Spark was ar

Spark, on the other hand, claims to be in nocent, and declares that the fling of the in formation against him is a piece of spite work, done for the purpose of getting even with him for claiming some commissions for sales that were made in the office and would be therefore coming to the cierk in the of

The information alleges that the names of the women which have been forged to the fictitious leases are Sarah Olinger, Julia Barry, Sarah Ward and Minnie Gibson. Besides these four, Tarpy claims to have found another since the information was Spark was unable to give was sent to the county jail until this afternoon, when he will be given a hearing.

Raking Over the Ashes. Only the ashes and the still hot walls of the burned portion of the annex at the Deaf and Dumb institute now indicate the fury of the tempest of flame that raged there thirty hours ago. Superintendent Rothert has put all the force at the institute at work clearing away the debris and repairing as fast as possible the wreck. The work of clearing away was begun in fact before the fire was fairly extinguished and immediately after the dispersal of the crowds drawn to the scene by the fire, and by 10 o'clock yesterday morning everything had been the card away and the confusion incident to the catastrophe abated. The kitchen was only damaged by water, was cleared out in time to get supper after the fire, and before midnight temporary means had been provided to pump water for domestic use and to obtain a pressure in case of fire. It is feared the loss will be much greater than was at first supposed and may reach $30,000 much depending upon the condition of the boilers and heating apparatus, which is still too hot to handle and inspect. The building destroyed was erected by Contractors Wickham Bros., and their recollection is that the cost was $10,000. Ed Wickham Bros., and their recollection is that the cost was $10,000.

Gone With a Handsomer Man, Louis Armbruster's joys and sorrows in life have been shared during the past seven years by a botter-half, but all is changed since Fred Kruse put in an appearance. Armbruster's wife has cloped with Kruse, taking with her two bright little children, were a source of happiness to the father and wronged husband.

Armbruster and his wife were married seven years ago and have resided in Omaha a greater portion of the time. They came to South Omaha a few weeks ago and he se cured employment in one of the packing houses. The family lived at the Wisconsin house on Twenty-sixth street and appar-ently all was peace and joy with them. It was here Mrs. Armbruster met Fred Kruse, for whom she evinced a strong affection and he reciprocated with all arder of a man who was bent upon destroy ing the happiness of a family. The husband had perfect confidence in his wife's fidelity and never suspected her treachery nor that of Kruse, who he regarded as a friend. One day last week Kruse and Mrs. Armbruster suddenly and mysteriously disap peared and there whereabouts have not as yet been ascertained. The forsaken husband is causing a complete search to be made for them and says as soon as they are located be will have the pair returned to Omaha and prosecuted.

Mrs. Armbruster, the runaway wife, is a comely brunette, 25 years of age, with blue eyes, and is an American woman. Kruce is a German and is Mrs. Armoruster's senior by a few years. The two little girls taken by their mother are aged 6 and 4 years. The police are or, their track and expect to tocate them in a small lows town.

MAY TRY STEAM HEAT.

School Board Members Discuss Various The first item of business taken up last night by the Board of Education was a report from the committee on buildings and property touching the contract for brick work and for heating and ventilation for the Central school. The committee had the bid of George H. King recommitted at the last meeting for the purpose of consulting him regarding the putting in of the Holbrook system of heating and ventilation instead of the Fuller & Warren system. The committee reported that Mr. King had agreed to make a reduction of $300 in his bid on the brick work if the Holbrook system were adopted Mr. King offered to do the brick work at $22 200 with the Holbrook the brick work at $22,200 with the Holbrook Mr. Gibson was in favor of adopting the Holbrook system because it was a steam sys-tem and Mr. Holbrook was willing to guar-antee that his system would beat the building with less coal than any other system. The Holbrook system will cost $700 more than the Fuller & Warren system but many of the members were convinced that steam heat ought to be given a trial and as Mr. Holbrook had offered to place his apparatus in the building and have it thoroughly tested before asking for a cent of pay the board thought it a good opportunity to try steam heat in a large building. A resolution off-red by Mr. Martin to adop: the Holbrook system for the Central school was carried by a vote of 8 to 1.

The contract for grading the Center school grounds was let to B. Straden & Co. at 9 5-8 the construction of the Hartman school, a sixteen room building on South Fifteenth street. The secretary was instructed to tabulate the bids and have them referred to the committee on buildings and property. The bids on the brick work ranged from $19,500 to $22,000, and from $43,000 to $45,000 for the building complete. When the bids for heatbuilding completed When the bids for heating and ventilation were opened it was discovered that there were no bids excepting for steam heat. The board in advertising called for bids on both steam and hot air but it seemed that the plans had been drawn only for steam heat. Several members of the board wanted to know how this happened. The acciditect said that there had been no applications from hot air men to had been no applications from not air men to have the plans suited to their apparatus and he supposed there would be no bidders ex cepting those who wanted to put in steam. The board decided to reject the bids and readvertise so that both the hot air and steam men might get in.

Prof. George M. Tarner of Auburn, N. Y. was elected teacher of chemistry in the High school at a salary of $1,500, and Miss Mary Alice Landis was elected teacher of German and French at $330 per annum. On recom-mendation of the committee on text books the board decided to purchase Charles De Garma's primers for the primary grades, also 300 Scudder's short histories of the United States and 300 Egglestons, a first book in American history.

Mr. Points from the committee on teachers recommended that the following be elected as assistant teachers: Fannic A. Reid, E. I. Ure, C. O. Dayrand, Ellen M. Crandall, and that the following calets be elected as assistants to be assigned to duty by the superintendent: Minnie P. Baker, Cordelia Johnson, Sadie Schlesinger, Julia M. Davis, Alice Jordan and Mary McMahon.

The board then took a turn at the question of taking rooms in the city hall. Mr. Elgut-ter offered a resolution to have the board take possession of the rooms on the east sucoof the fifth floor in the city hall building. with the understanding that other rooms should be furnished the board when the city library moves out. But the board was not in a frame of mind to consider the question and the resolution was laid aside until next

THE SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Mrs. Nettje Rhett, a Teacher in the Omaha View School, Commends Drs. Copeland & Shep-

Teaching school is a toilsome and exacting employment. The work is far from healthful. The dust of the schoolroom and the physical and mental strain induce catarrhal troubles, headaches and nervous exhaustion. Quite a number of teachers are now being treated by Drs. Copeland & Shepard for these and kindred complaints. Among them is Mrs Nettie Rhett of the Omaha View school, who briefly says:

who briefly says:

"I went to Drs. Copeland & Shepard to get relief from a severe and persistent headache. The pain affected the frontal rezion—the eyes, temples and forehead. On top, a so, there was pain, burding and a sense of pressure. I had also a very annoying catarri, with the usual hawking and splitling to clear the nose and throat. My system was worn out and I was weak and nervous. I rested poorly at night. In fact, my nervous system seened broken down and exhausted. I have received great benefit from Drs. Copeland & Shepard. My headaches are entirely gone; also the catarrial trouble. I am steadily gaining strength and nervous force and the treatment from these physicians has been highly beneficial to me in every way."

"WHAT DO THEY DO?"

A Question Often Asked and Very Easily Answered It is often asked, "What Go Drs. Copeland and Shepard do?"

and Sheparl do?"
They do this:
They make a specialty of treating people affected with diseases of the nose, throat and lungs, and chronic diseases.
They require a small fee for a month's treatment—so small as to be within the reach of everybody—and they save to their patients the cost of a drag bill by furnishing medicines free. cines free.

Drs. Copeland and Shepard are regularly graduated physicians and have a bill of health as clean as that of any physician in this city. Their training, their years of experience, their constant study of this character of diseases spiendidly equip them for their work.

This is enough for those who care to think about the matter. Drs. Copeland and Shep-ard want to reach every man, woman and child in this city who has a disease of the nose. throat or lungs, or any chronic allment, and especially those who have been given up by other physicians, so that they may furnish the relief and cure that they feel certain of being able to effect.

ESPECIALLY TO LADIES.

Catarrh, picinly speaking, is a loathsome disease, and especially so to women, as it not only unfits them for their duties, but it makes contact with their friends and the people they meet very painful to them and very humiliating.
Miss Millie Gunderson, of the Merriam Hotel, 25th and Dodge streets, contracted ca-tarrh in childhood. This well known young lady says:

MISS MILLIE GUNDERSON. "Ever since I was four or five years old I have had catarrh. Dryness and irritation of the nose and throat with hawking and spit-ting in the vain effort to clear them were al-ways present. I often choked up and felt phierm dropping from up in my head into the throat. My sides and chest were sore and painful. A coaded ton rue and tainted breath made my case very dis greeable. Since my treatment with Drs. Copeland and Shepard I have entire freedom from all my former troubles. I am now entirely weil and can thank these physicians for curin; me of a dis-gusting d.sease." gusting d.sease."

OTHER DISEASE 3.

Their Practice is by No Means Confined to Catarrh.

Drs. Copelan 1 & Shepard treat all diseases Drs. Copeian 1 & Shepard treat all diseases, while they give special attent on to troubles of the eye, car throat and lungs, their work is by no means confined to these specialties. Special hospital experience has fitted them in a notable degree for all medical practice.

They are successful in treating citarrhal troubles, but no less successful in treating rheumatism, nervous diseases, skin diseases of the kinneys, affections of the heart and disorders of the brain. In nervous diseases, shind diseases of the great diseases and the special diseases of women and children, some of their most remarkable results have been accomplished.

their most remarkable results have been accomplished.

Drs. Copeland & Shepard are special ists, but the genume specialist is first an experienced skillful and accomplished physician and surgeon, and the broader and more extended he field as a specialist the wider is his experience in general medicine and surgery. The imposition of quacks and bocus specialists has to some extent led to a mistaken impression on this point, which it is worth while to correct, and the sick and afflicted should bear in mind what is stated above that the confine specialist is first and above all a regularly trained, thoroughly educated and experienced physician and surgeon, and that while he gives especial attention to certain lines of practice and is skillful in them, he is skillful, too, in every department that makes up the practice of medicine and surgery.
