

COLUMBUS DAY CELEBRATION

It Will Be Properly Observed by Nebraska Citizens.

BOYD ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION

Pardon of Adams County's Ex-Treasurer Requested by the New England Veteran Association—Work of a Darling County Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 7.—[Special to The Bee.]—Governor Boyd this afternoon issued the following proclamation in reference to the observance of Columbus day in the state of Nebraska:

"The president of the United States having appointed Friday, October 21, 1892, as the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, by his proclamation a national holiday, and recommended its observance by all the people of the United States, and in response to the wishes of the National Educational association, do hereby designate and appoint Columbus day, namely, Friday, October 21, 1892, as a public holiday and recommend that it be observed by the different schools throughout the state of Nebraska; that business be suspended on that day; that the civic and patriotic organizations take part in the celebration and that the day be devoted to the inspiring of the youth of the state with the true appreciation of the history, grandeur and destiny of this nation.

"This work is specially committed to Hon. A. E. Conroy, superintendent of public instruction."

Supreme Court Matters. At the September term of the supreme court the several judicial districts of the state will be called on the dates as follows: First district, September 22; Second district, September 23; Third district, September 27; Fourth district, October 4; Fifth district, October 11; Sixth district, October 18; Seventh district, October 25; Eighth district, October 27; Ninth district, November 1; Tenth district, November 3; Eleventh district, November 5; Twelfth district, November 10; Thirteenth district, November 15; Fourteenth district, November 16; Fifteenth district, November 17.

The case of Calvin and Eliza Burkholder against Jane E. Clark and others was filed with the clerk of the supreme court this morning. It is a case of partition of land.

Another case filed in the supreme court this forenoon was that of the Home Insurance company of New York against J. W. Winn & Co., from Johnson county.

Clerk Campbell and his assistants shut up the shop this afternoon and visited the state fair.

Gossip at the State House. The state house was visited by over 1,000 people today. The sight-seers filled the corridors and all the big rooms and were enthusiastic at the splendors of Nebraska's capitol.

There has been an unprecedented demand for passes to the state penitentiary. Most of the visitors to the state penitentiary are signed by Governor Boyd, for in this manner they can obtain the autograph of Nebraska's distinguished chief executive.

Receiver Gibbons of the defunct Commercial and Savings bank of Kearney filed his August report with the supreme court today. He reports that the assets of the bank upon notes the sum of $1,008.54, he also sold the burglar-proof, time lock safe to the Exchange bank of Kearney for $100, which $100 was paid down. No disbursements for the month were reported.

It is stated that there is a strong probability that the state penitentiary will close its doors last week for reorganization on a sound financial basis. The receiver has not yet been appointed, but the judges of the supreme court have the matter under consideration.

Assistant Attorney General Summers went to Fremont this morning, returning this afternoon.

T. J. Fitzmorris of the Bee was a caller at this house today.

Church Hoop appeared before Governor Boyd today with petitions from the New England Veteran association of the state for the pardon of John S. Patton. Mr. Paul the soldier in a New Hampshire regiment and bears the scars of honorable service.

Feel from a Brick Wall. J. M. Humphrey, a brick mason living with his family in this city, has been at work for some time in the state penitentiary. Monday he had the misfortune to fall, and in doing so received a severe concussion on the back of his neck, resulting in the almost complete paralysis of the lower half of his body, and rendering him practically helpless.

For a time it was feared that he would not recover, but the treatment he received at the state penitentiary has resulted in his being able to be removed to this city. He was brought home at 10:30 this forenoon on a cot in the baggage car. His wife met him at the train and he was taken to the patrol wagon. He will probably recover.

Robbed a Pooler. Hood's saloon on Eleventh street, better known as "The Abbey," was the scene of a robbery last night. A syndicate of sportsy gentlemen have been doing a fine business selling pools on the state fair and while selling combinations last night a big walrus of a man picked up the desk, which stands near the rear entrance of the room. An unknown individual elbowed his way through the crowd, grabbed the roll of money and slid out the back door. The robbery was so cleverly done that no one could give a description of the robber and he is consequently still enjoying his liberty.

Captured a Pair of Crooks. John Sharp, the colored barber and all-around crook, arrested here the other day, was taken to Grand Island last night. A woman who claims to be his wife was also arrested and taken with him, as she is believed that she is implicated. Sharp is wanted at Grand Island for complicity in a number of burglaries committed in that city during the state soldiers' reunion last week. The gang cleaned up several hundred dollars at half a dozen different stores during the week. Chief of Police Otto was notified of the fact that the members of the burglars' syndicate had undoubtedly come to Lincoln to work the town during the fair. The Lincoln police believe that they have broken up a dangerous gang by the arrest of Sharp.

From the Police Court. The police were called to Jessie Williams' alive after 3 o'clock this morning, where a fight among the inmates and visitors was in progress. Jessie and one of her girls were arrested and brought into police court this morning. The man was discharged, but the girl got ten days.

A man who gave his name as J. Frankfort was sentenced to ten days imprisonment for getting crooked. He is suspected of having stolen some jewelry from his possession, and which don't look as if it belonged to him.

Thomas Wade came up from the village of Adams last evening to see the big fair, but he wandered into a notorious dive across the tracks, and was taken there by the police a few hours later. He was reprimanded by the judge and released this morning.

Two rival Lincoln fruit vendors were fined $1 and costs for violating the peace. Abraham Bayless, a colored boy, will break stone a few days for the benefit of the city. He was drunk and disorderly.

Buried Under a Clay Bank. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 7.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A most mysterious case of death occurred at Bleckel & Son's brick yard this afternoon. Five men were engaged in hauling dirt from a clay bank to the brick machine when without warning, the mass of clay weighing at least two tons broke loose from the top of

BRASS BANDS BLOWING FOR A PRIZE

Two Hundred Musicians Participate in the State Association's Annual Contest—Thirty Thousand People on the Ground Yesterday—Fair Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 7.—[Special to The Bee.]—This morning dawned cloudy with heavy thunder, threatening rain, but the lack of sunshine did not prevent a rush to the fair grounds at an early hour. The day's program began with a grand musical carnival by the State Band association. The following bands were massed in front of the offices of the president and secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, and took part in the entertainment. Kennard, Syracuse, Douglas, Unadilla, Humboldt, Tobias, Overton, Madison, Hemingford, Indianola, Lovell, Genoa Indian band, Archer and Citizen's band, Aurora. Two hundred musicians were in line. At 6:30 this evening the association gave a grand musical parade on the principal streets of the city, after which they went to Burlington Road.

Last night class A contest came off at Government square, and tomorrow evening class B will contest for honors at the same place. Class A includes all musical organizations, while class B admits brass bands only. The prizes will be awarded at band headquarters in the city at 5 o'clock Friday morning.

The Omaha train which arrived at Lincoln about 10:30 this morning brought in a large crowd from the metropolis, including nearly all the Omaha city officials, who are here as the guests of the State Agricultural society. The attendance from all parts of the state is very large today, even greater than yesterday. As early as 12 o'clock the grand stand began to fill, and by 1:30 it was crowded to suffocation.

The Thirty-fourth Illinois State Veterinary association held its annual reunion on the grounds of the fair, the members present from a number of states.

The Nebraska State Bookkeepers association will hold meetings this evening and tomorrow evening at the bee and money hall. Superintendent Whitcomb says the present exhibit is the best ever made in this country. Many different species of bees are on exhibition, and the latest devices for extracting honey and the actual process are on exhibition. Candy and cake made from honey are also on display, and the exhibit is well worth a visit.

The grand sweepstakes premiums on show were awarded this afternoon. The cattle and sheep premiums were given to the people who see the cattle, worthy of entry in this class, and they were not disappointed.

This is republican day, according to the program, and the fair is a democratic day, but politics does not seem to cut any figure. The meeting of various societies and organizations, the races, and the big show generally, occupy the entire time, to the exclusion of politics.

The Territorial Pioneer Association of Nebraska met at the bee and money hall this afternoon, but owing to the absence of the president adjourned until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

The attendance increases rapidly. A moderate estimate places the number at 30,000 today, and tomorrow, should the weather remain favorable, will bring the largest crowd ever at a Nebraska state fair. The officers of the association are feeling good today and all exhibitors are happy. While the fair is a democratic day, the republican cause, however, is being advanced by the fair.
