COMPLAIN TO THE STATE BOARD

Trains of the Omaha Line Said to Be Operated in the Interest of the Rival City of Claremont-Lincoin News.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 22 .- [Special to THE BEE.] -Another complaint was filed before the State Board of Transportation today, by W. M. Martin, representing the citizens of Laurel, a village on the line of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad. The complaint alleges that Laurel is a town situated at the junction of the defendant road and the Pacific Short Line; that the town has been established for more than a year and that at the present time it has twelve or more separate and distinct business bouses with parties doing business in each; that the town has a population of from eighty-five to 100 people; that it is seven miles north of Concord, two miles south of Claremont, six mites west of Dixon and seven east of Beiden; that the town of Claremont was started by the defendant road shortly after the town of Laurel was commenced and the plaintiff claims that the town was started for the sole purpose of injuring and destroying the town of Laurel; that at the present time all the business houses that were ever built at Claremont excepting the elevator have been removed to Laurel, the postoffice having been disconinued at the former town and established at Moreover, as if the above evidence of the town's decay was not sufficient, the petition goes on to say that the land upon which the town was platted has been vacated, fenced and cultivated in crop this year. Since September 1 the railroad has not stopped its cars at Laurel junction, but has placed a gate across the track and employed a flag-man. Martin and his fellow townsmen beman. Martin and his fellow townsmen be-lieve that this is simply another part of the scheme to kill the town of Laurel. They ask the State Board of Transportation to compel the railroad company to erect a depot at Laurel, put in a side track and make it a regular station on its line.

Ben Duncan, one of the men who robbed A. U. G. Miller during state fair week, was found guilty, the jury remaining out but twenty minutes. Miller lived at Auburn and came to Lincoln to see the state fair and any other attraction that the city might offer. He fell in with Duncan and several others and all proceeded to celebrate the success of and all proceeded to celebrate the success of the fair. Finally Miller got so full that he was easily made a victim. The men went through his pockets and secured plunder to the amount of about $600. He made com-plaint to the police and most of his missing property was found in the vicinity of the Mat Newbury dive. Newbury was also ar-resced for complicity in the robbery and will be tried later. be tried later.

Wants a Receiver Appointed.

Frank Anderson, one of the owners and proprietors of the Peoria hotel at the corner of Ninth and Q streets, comes into district court with an application for the appointment of a receiver for the piace. He alleges in his petition that in last June he and Adolph Helmer borrowed $500 and went into partnership in the hotel business. Since that time Heimer has conducted things with a high hand and the plaintiff has practically been frozen out of the management as well as in any participation in the profits. He wants a receiver appointed and the business

Divorced and Remarried,

A romantic incident occurred at Judge Lansing's court room this afternoon. Ten years ago Fieming and Catherine Demster were married at Nebraska City. Two chil-dren came to bless this union, but after-wards they quarreled and separated. A di-yorce made the separation permanent as they supposed; but they met again in this city a month ago. Time had softened their characters and taught both of them patience.
Mr. Dempster again proposed marriage and for the second time he was accepted. The couple was reunited by Judge Lansing this afternoon and have entered upon the eujoyment of their second honeymoon.

Dr. Somers received yesterday a letter complaining of the defective plumbing in the Walnut Hill school. The communication stated that one of the teachers had said that the closets and sinks were in very bad shape, because they could not be properly flushed. On this account a stench pervades some of the rooms. Besides this the ventilation is bad, many of the windows cannot be opened at all. Several children have been sent home sick lately, and quite a number are complaining of the unwholesome smells.

The letter was referred to Plumbing Inspector Duncan, who immediately investigated the complaint. Mr. Duncan reported hat the basement, first and second floor

CRUSHED BY A MOTOR.

Stenographer Waring's Boy Badly Hurt Is Jumping from a Walnut Hill Car. Frank Waring, the 10-year-old son of Stenographer Waring, was run over by a motor train at Hamilton street bridge at noon yesterday and quite seriously injured. There are many boys in that vicinity who have been making it a practice to jump on and off the motor trains as they cross the bridge. Young Waring was engaged in this pastime today when he missed his footing and fell under the wheels of the motor. The train was stopped as soon as possible, but not until the lad's arms had been badly crushed. He was also badly bruised about

Death of Mrs. Clarke. Mrs. Henry T. Clarke, wife of Henry T. Clarke, one of Omaba's best known capitalists and business men, died at the family residence, 2509 Cass street, last evening. She had been ill for some months, but only lately did her sickness take a serious turn. She was suffering from an affection of the lungs, complicated with heart trouble.

Mrs. Clarke was born at Greenwich,
Washington county, N. Y., in March, 1834, thus being 58 years of age. She was married in September, 1858, coming to Omaha with her husband. Since that time she has made her home here, rearing a family of neven children, now all grown, who, with her husband, mourn the death of a loving, indeigent mother and a kind and affection-ate wide.

Dangerous Holes to be Filled, The janitor of the Mason school informed a BEE reporter yesterday that there were a lot of staguant pools immediately south of the building that are very offensive and are a menace to the health of the children and the people in that part of the city. These pools are upon lots that ought to be filled. There was a boy drowned in one of them about a year ago and the holes were ordered filled, but the owners, some of whom are among the wealthiest men of the city, seem to have paid no attention to the order and there the holes remain, filled with polsonous miasma arising from pools of stagmant water.
