Finally the inspector sent for Mr. Borden and toid him that they could arrest the thief at any time. They told Mr. Borden something which astounded him, and the case was dropped very quietly by the old gentleman's request. The facts concerning this mysterious robbery, it is understood, will be most thoroughly elucidated at the trial and is expected to form a part of the government's read.

EICKETT'S DESPERATE FIGHT

Be Succeeds in Resisting Two Men Who Were Determined to Relieve Him of His Valuables-Other Lincoln News Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 29. - Special to THE BEE.]-The burgiars and sneak thieves who infested the city during the heated term seem to have changed their calling and taken to the more hazardous and renerally more iucrative profession of highway robbery. Several instances of highway robbery have been reported from Liucoln to THE BEE within the past few weeks, and another case was reported to the police last night. Fred Richetts, a motorman in charge of a car on the Western Normal college line, was attacked by two men late last night at a lonely spot on the line when there were no passen-

On grabbed his watch chain while the other tried to choke him into submission. Ricketts grabbed his watch with one hand and transferred it to his trousers' pocket, and then picked up a light iron rod with which he turns the switch points and commerced to pound one of his assailants over the head. Both men soon got enough of the contest and sprang from the car. One was badly hurt and was found at Downing's foundry, where assistance was tele-phoned for. The police at once started for the foundry for their man, but before they could arrive there he had recovered sufficiently to get away.

Recovered the Body Today.

The search for the body of little Chris Olseson was continued until a late hour last hight without success. It was resumed early this morning and at 10 o'clock Officers O'Shee and Maguire succeeded in finding it. It had lodged in a piece of still water about fifteen feet from the point where the acci-dent occurred. The water at the place the little fellow was drowned was fifteen feet deep. It was learned today that a young man named Nicholas Gnouden witnessed the accident at the time the boy fell from the wagen wheel into the water. He at once ran to the water's edge, divested himself of a portion of his clothing and swam to the boy's assistance. He succeeded in reaching him before he had sank for the last time and grasping him by the arm started to swim for the shore. The current was too swift for bim, however, and he found that he was sinking. He was compelled to drop the boy gud save himself. The coroner will hold an

Made an Amende Honorable.

Yesterday Detective Pound brought to s city a well dressed young man named B. Fenner, whom he had arrested at O'Neill on a warrant sworn out by Frank Morrissey, a citizen of Davey, in this county. Morrissey charged Fenner with the larceny as bailee of $77.50. After Fenner had been arrested and brought back to Lincoln Mor-rissey suddenly discovered that the accusation was false. He therefore had the case dismissed at his own cost. He also signed a paper to the effect that he had been mistagen and that he wished to state to the public that the charge was made under a misapprehension of facts. He entirely exonerated Fenner and agreed to publish the retraction in the daily papers.

Guilty of Assault,

Every original arraigned at the bar of jus tice at the present term of the district court has been found guilty. James Palin, whose trial for an attempted assault on the person of the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. Shaffer in this city, found that the jury made no exception in his case. The assault upon the little girl was made at Palin's carpenter shop, at the corner of Eighth and P streets, last July. He enticed the little girl into his shop and there assaulted her. The little girl's screams attracted the attention of several men and tney detected Patin in the act. He was arraigned and the case given to the jury. The verdict was rendered soon after and the prisoner was convicted. The penalty is imprisonment in the penitentiary from two to ewenty years. Palin is a married man with several children. Another Criminal Trial.

The trial of Fred Herdlien, accused of shooting with intent to wound, is on trial before the district court today. Herdlien has long been subject to fits of anger, and last April he went on a prolonged spree. After he had sobered up sufficiently to be ugly he ent home and locked his wife in the cellar. a kept her there all day and night and until the evening of next day, when she made her escape. He gave chase, and while pur-suing her around the house a neighboring woman named Mrs. Luckhardt cailed upon him to stop. He at once flew into a passion of rage and went into the house after a gun. Coming out he at once opened fire upon Mrs. Luckhardt and another woman named Mrs. Fred Miller. TOOK ORDERS FROM THE LORD.

Reasons Why a Syracuse Minister Refused to Be Dismissed.

STRACUSE, Neb., Sept. 29 .- | Special to THE BEE. |-For two or three months a church row has been brewing in the Congregational church of this place. About the 20th of last March Rev. T. W. Spanswich, a traveling evangelist, was called to the position of shepherd of the flock at this place, to take effect April 1. His work here as an evangellist previous to that time had apparently done much good, seventeen additions being made to the church in about three weeks. About June 1 it began to leak out that the reverend gentlemen was a little too free in his language with certain sisters of the church, and even his conversation with the townsmen was characterized as unbecoming The talk became so loud that a church ceeting was called August 5 to consider his ismissal. His friends railed to his support on this occasion, and scoured the country far and near in his behalf, but it was of no avail, and he was regularly dismissed, notwithstanding the fact that in the roll call of the church he voted for himself to remain.

At this point he insisted that the Lord had called him to the territory, and that he should leave only on an order from the same should leave only on an order from the same authority. At this stage of the game Rev. Mr. Bross of Lincoln state superintendent, appeared on the field of action and was invited to attend a private investigation at the residence of one of the church members. At this meeting some startling disclosures were made against Rev. Mr. Spanswich and the superintendent decided not to recommend him to further charge in this state. He at him to further charge in this state. He at once left for parts unknown, but it is since fearned that he is in Cumberland. Wis., conducting his evangelistic work. He asked for a letter from this church, which was de-nied, thereupon nineteen of his retainers called for letters of dismissal, which were granted. This man is the one referred to in The Omaha Bee on April 4 by a clipping from the Clay Center Gazette Democrat stating that a similar occurrence had transpired at Grafton, this state. His action here has split the church and ten years will not repair the damage he has done the church at this place.

How a Beatrice Jeweler Was Relieved of Several Dollars,

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 29.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-A man giving the name of W. Strong put in an appearance in this city Tuesday evening and struck one of the down town groceries for a small bill of goods and offered in payment of goods and offered in payment therefor a $30 check, with George R. Scott's name signed thereto. The man was a perfect strapger and professed to have just sold a load of wheat to Scott, who oper-ates a big elevator here, and George had hurriedly gave him this check. The grocer, knowing Scott's signature and form of checks, declined to accept it on the plea that he hadn't sufficient money on hand to cash the balance, but if Mr. Strong would wait a few moments he would go out and borrow sufficient money from a fellow merchant.

The fellow grew a triffe suspicious and concluded he would come in in the morning. Later he tried the same game on a butcher and others, but with poor success. In the meanwhile Scott had been notified and parties started out on the trial of the forger. Nothing was heard of him until today, en it was learned that he had beeeded in passing the check on U wnen S. Miller, a jeweler, in payment for $2 re-pairs on a watch, Miller giving bim $28 in change. The check was given on the American bank and its fraudulent nature was only discovered today when G. I. ADDRESSED TO IRISHMEN.

Justin McCarthy Issues a Manifesto to the Sons of Erin in America and Australia, Dublin, Sept. 29 .- A meeting of the national federation was held today at which Mr. Justin McCarthy presided. The feder ation approved the issue of a manifesto addressed to Irishmen in America and Australia. The manifesto says:

"We address you on the national cause as an auspicious time. Our demand for justice has been advanced by the power of the people to another stage that is decisive and is all but final."

Continuing, the manifesto says: "The prospect now before us is full of cheer and should inspire renewed and redoubled effort, for it shows the sure way to victory as the result of the general election at which the supreme question was home rule. The electors of Great Britain and Ireland, after six years' experience with a government hostile-to home rule and devoted to coercion. have established an administration founded on the principle that satisfaction must be given to the just demands of Ireland with-out loss of time."

After denouncing the tyrannical action of the conservative government, the manifesto proceeds to comment upon the parliamentary prospects of home rule. The leaders of the government, it says, are pledged to promote and to use all their strength to pass a bill satisfactory to the Irish members of the House of Commons and to the Irish people. It adds: "We are convinced of the sin-cerity of the liberal leaders, not only because of the course pursued by the liberals since Mr. Gladstone adopted home rule, but also because their interests demand such a permanent settlement as Ireland can cordially

"We do not forget the declarations of Mr. Balfour, that, no matter what the bill is, the House of Lords would be against it. We also bear in mind Mr. Gladstone's warning that bear in mind Mr. Gladstone's warning that if the House of Lords rejected a measure deliberately adopted by the country they would do so at the peril of their chamber. "Far from hearing with disquiet of what the House of Lords will do, we feel perfect confidence that the Irish cause will win the day. Success is near. In the meantime we need the help of the people to maintain the movement with vigor."
