It pays dividends annually. These dividends can be used to reduce the premium payments or increase the of insurance. It makes cash loans to its policy holders. It does not cost you any more to have these advantages. If you hold a policy in an "old line" company, I do not want you to discontinue it for the sake of buying one in The Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company, but if you require new or additional insurance, what I do ask is that you take consideration the advantages offered by this company. Apply to the Omaha agency, giving age and amount you will consider, and I will take pleasure in mailing you a specimen contract. Sober men of character, who will not engage in the "pernicious" habit of "twisting" policies, are wanted as

The Commercial Directory company is making the delivery now of their fifth edition of Douglas county reference book. Their work for Omaha alone contains over 36,000 names, with the supplement of South Omaha, making the total close to 40,000. This company is the organizer of the Nebraska State Business Men's association, an association which has been instrumental in advertising Nebraska with the exhibit train more then any other one thing that was ever done for Nebraska. They are comparatively a new publishing company in Omaha, but their salaries and printing bills alone that have been paid out to Omaha the past year amount to over $25,000.

Dr. Larimer, room 203 Karbach block. LOW RATE EXCURSION

To Houston, Tex., and Return. Tuesday, January 3, 1893, my third special party will leave Omaha, bound for Houston, Tex.

Having for sale several thousand acres of the richest land in Harris and Brazonia counties, Texas, lying between the cities of Houston and Galveston, and on the three principal trunk line railroads, I will offer as an inducement for investors, or those desiring only to look at the land, specially low rates from Omaha to Houston and return, good until June 1, 1893, with a limit of fifteen days in each direction, and good for stop over at pleasure within limit.

These lands that I offer for sale are of a rich, black loam, easily cultivated, being rich enough to produce the most excellent results without fertilization Everything that can be grown any-where in the United States grows spe-cialty well here. The ground pays well from the first year.

The price of land ranges from $2.50 to $20.00 per acre on the most favorable terms of payment.

'All these lands lie contiguous to and within five miles of the above men-tioned railroads, with an abundance of water and timber. The climate the year through is excellent. Remember the time we go: Tuesday, January 3, 1893. Leave Omaha at 9:30

Wonderland and Bijou Theater. Commencing tomorrow at Wonderland and and Bijou theater the Burton Stanley Comedy company will begin the third and last week of their engagement, presenting elever version of the well known comedy,
"A Bunch of Keys," under the title of "A Bunch of Jays," which promises to be equally as good and funny as the original play. Mr. Stanley has produced it all over the east, where it proved a big success. The characters are all comedy and are in the hands of a capable lot of players. Preceding this laughable production the usual hourly program of specialties will be introduced and everybody will be delighted to learn that the phenomenal child performer, La Petit Fred die, has been induced to stay another weel His entertainment will consist of a number of new and original specialties, including an excellent impersonation of the great Car-mencita, the Spanish dancer. Freddie leaves no room for criticism in his work, it is perfect, so finished, and the easy manner of all his performances shows that his talents were born in him; no school could make such a perfect little artist. The other specialties are also very strong, including Gus Garholt, an intrepid equilibrist, in a wonderful act of posturing on pyramids of chairs and tables: T. J. McGuire, a clever clog dancer and vocalist; Bogart and O'Brien, the funniest of funny musical teams, late with Haverly's minstrels, and Look over your life insurance policies the greatest of all acrobatic dancers, the Dixon brothers, making a bill of more than ordinary merit. Independent Orders of Foresters. The Independent Order of Foresters held its regular meeting Friday evening, December 23, at its handsome hall in THE BEE building. There was a large attendance, considering the inclement weather that prevailed, and several important matters were discussed. This lodge (or court) is young yet, only having been instituted last summer, but it has made rapid progress and bids fair to rival some of the older fratenal organizations. The principal feature of this association is that all members stop paying at 70 years, and then their money is refunded, besides being insured up to that age. It is is therefore a good business investment, to say nothing of the social advantages. Candidates are coming in fast, and as soon as the peculiar benefits of the order are more widely known, there is no doubt its membership roll will be largely increased,

Alpha camp No. 1, Woodmen of the World, was one of the organizations rendered nomeless by the burning of the Continental block last Tuesday night. The camp was block last Tuesday night. The camp was very fortunate, however, in the fact that the elegant new banner, lately presented it, was saved by the thoughtfulness of Sovereign Fred J. Sackett, and other valuable property was saved by Sovereign J. S. McDonald, thus leaving the total loss less than $100. The camp held an enthusiastic meeting at Patterson's hall Thursday evening, and the board of managers were instructed to replace all missing paraphernalia at once and to lease the hall in Barker block for a period of four months, so the work of the camp will suffer no interruption. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Consul commander, ruption. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Consul commander, W. N. Losses in the Big Fire. Tuesday night's fire in the Continental block was disastrous for several of the secret societies of this city, and they lose several thousand dollars. The fourth floor was elegantly fitted up for lodge purposes and Myrtle lodge, Knights of Pythias, suffers to the extent of about $3,000. To furnish the lodge room the members had paid their dues for some months in advance, and as the carried no insurance the loss will be verkeenly felt, as not an article was saved from the destructive flames. The Order of Red Men sustained a loss of $1,200, with insurance amounting to $1,000. The lodge room was occupied jointly by the Modern Woodmen of America, the Woodmen of the World, the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Commercial Pilgrims of America, these lodges being tenants.
