Special Tax of Twenty-Four Thousand Dol lars Paid as a Bonus May Have to Be Refunded to the City.

A very important suit has been started by itizens against the Council Bluffs & Omaha Railway and Bridge company. A petition is file in the district court in which the plaintiff, Spencer Smith, is seeking to recover from the motor company $25,000, which was paid to it by the property owners of the city in the shape of a special tax of 42 mills which was levied by the city at the time the motor bridge was projected as a bonus to assist the Omaha & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company, a corporation then or ganized under the laws of Iowa. In a case which was tried in court about a year ago it was developed that an assign ment of all the rights, franchises and privileges of the company had been made, transferring them to a company of the same name, organized under the laws of Nebraska. Why this assignment was made no one knows, but the theory of the attorneys who have made a study of the motor company's affairs, is that the company wanted to be under the invisibilition of the Nebraska laws. they being much more favorable to railway companies and corporations than those of lowa. No public record was made of the assignment, and it is not likely that it would ever have come to light had not the attor-neys who represented the citizens in the former case had the assignment brought into ourt on a motion. Before the bridge had been built the rep resentatives of the company received from the county treasurer $25,000 as the result of this tax and in the following two years re-ceived $29,000 more. The law provides that an appropriation may be made to assist any lowa project, but does not make any such provision with reference to Nebraska insti-tutions. The property owners therefore came to the conclusion that as the corporation to which they had paid their money had never built the bridge as it had promised, it was not entitled to the money. The claims of about 150 citizens were accordingly as-signed to Mr. Smith and suit is now brought or $25,000 of the total amount with interest

1886. There are a great many other property owners who have claims of the same kind against the company, the amount claimed in the petition now on file representing only about half of the full amount. It is very likely that the others will get together and that a supplemental petition will be filed be-tween now and the time when the suit comes to trial, in order that all the citizens who paid any part of the taxes may have the ben-efit of the decision of the court at the same

WILL REPRESENT THE POPE

Mgr. Satolli Clothed with Fuller Authority to Act for the Pontiff.

FIRST APOSTOLIC DELEGATE TO AMERICA

Elevated from the Position of a Simple Emissary to the Dignity of a Resident Agent-What Archbishop Ireland Says, [Copyrighted 1893 by James Gordon Bennett.] ROME, Jan. 14 .- [New York Herald Cable Special to THE BEE. |-Whatever doubt may have existed hitherto as to the meaning and force of the future of Satoili's mission today was set at rest. The pope has made the apostolic delegate in the United States permanent, appointing Satolli as the first apostolic delegate.

This measure had been decided some time past, but might have been delayed. The immediate reason for the papal action was the arrival in Rome of two strong protests from Corrigan against the reinstatement of Dr. McGlynn. One was addressed to the pope and the other to the propaganda. In each the archbishop complained he had not been notified by Satolli of Dr. Me-Glynn's restoration till the fact became public. The protests were the outcome of Corfigan's bitter wrath at the whole course the ablegate. Dr. McDonnell of Brookyn shared Corrigan's views, as also I am informed did Archbishops Ryan and Katzer and other prelates. Dr. McDonnell was mistaken enough to write to a Roman friend that Satolli was an Italian intruder and would be driven back to Europe. The collapse of the Corrigan party is complete. Dr. McGlynn will apply for an exeat and secure a place in a new diocese.

It is understood the pope was indignant when he read Corrigan's protest. A meeting was called at the vatican soon afterwards, Cardinals Rampolla and ...edochowski_were present and they declared to crush out the spirit of opposition once and for all.

One result may be the elevation of Ireland to the cardinalate, the other, perhaps, the resignation of Corrigan or the appointment of a condjutor bishop for New York.

Schemes of Satollii's Opponent.

The opposition to Satolli has been utterly unscrupulous. I have just ascertained that for a month Archbishops Ireland and Riordan, Bishop Keane, and Mgr. O'Connell have been dogged by spies, and their letters have been stolen.

A large number are now in the hands of a man named Dreing of San Francisco, who publishes the Western Witness. A Jesuit father notified Riordan, and advised him to recover the documents, of which a wrong use might be made. Dreing himself wrote to Riordan to say he held the papers and was willing to give them up on certain terms. The archbishop refused to negotiate with him and applied to the San Francisco police, but was informed they could not recover the letters unless he placed a money value on them and would go into court, where

IRELAND'S ESTIMATE.

What the Coming Cardinal Thinks of Pope Lee XIII.

ST PAUL, Minn., Jan. 14 .- When asked by the Associated press reporter about the institution of an apostolic delegation in the United States, this afternoon, Archbishop Ireland said:

"Yes, a permanent apostolic delegation has been established for the United States and Mgr. Satolli has been named first apostolic delegate. The decree was issued in Rome last evening. I have had myself this morn-make a delegate apostolic, he has a perfect right to do so. More than this, to doubt the wisdom of the holy see in the appointment of such a delegate, no Catholic who is well informed in his religion would for a moment think of doing. Before the holy see acted there has been room for a difference of opinion, none now exists. For my own part i gladly receive and welcome the news in question."

No official announcement of the appoint appointment of Mgr. Satolii as permanent ment has reached Archbishop Corrigan, nor does he expect any. Speaking as his reore-sentative Father Connelly stated last night that whatever might be said in regard to the result of the appointment of Mgr. Satolli as papal delegate in this country. The bisher was inclined to doubt the appointment and announced that he had nothing to say until apostolic delegate must necessarily be er jecture only, until Mgr. Satolli received the documents from Rome. The appointment, he said, was not en-tirely an ovation as appointments of a like nature had been made in other countrie San Domingo, South America, the papal rep-resentatives occupied a position almost similar to the office which Mgr. Satolli would similar to the office which Mgr. Satolli would hold. There are other delegates from Rome also located in South America and in many parts of the old world. Archbishop Corrigan himself would not be seen. "Archbishop Corrigan," said Father Con-nelly. "accepts the ruling of the holy father as right. There was room for an opinion op-posed to this previous to the appointment. Now, however, there can be but one view of the matter." Father Connelly stated further that Mgr.

Father Connelly stated further that Mgr. Satoll's jurisdiction would have relations solely to the church. The appointment of an apostolic delegate has nothing whatever an apostolic delegate has nothing whatever to do with the government," he said. "The authorities at Washington, of course, would not recognize such appointment. Whatever cases may be placed under the hand of Mgr. Satolli will in no way be connected with af fairs outside the pale of the church."

DEPRECATES THE DISCUSSION.

Mgr. Satolli Deplores Unfortunnie Comment

their dignity and enter into the spirit of the sport. All these games entail the giving of prizes in all shapes, sizes and degrees of magnificence, limited only by the pocket book of the host. What the prizes shall be must be left to the good taste of the givers. A game which is selling rapidly is ring a-peg, an improvement of tiddledewinks. On a circular board is a number of little pers. Rings of bone are to be snamed over these United States, authorizes the publication of the following statement in regard to the pope's action in the case of Dr. McGlynn: "On the very day of the reconciliation of Dr. McGlynn with the church public notice Rings of bone are to be snapped over these by small squares of celluloid. The game is 200 points. A ring snapped upon the outer circle of pers counts five, second circle ten, central peg fifty, etc. was given, with the statement that Mgr. Satolli had absolved from censure and reconeiled Dr. McGlynn by special power by permission requested from and granted by the holy father, and that moreover the abs iution had been given because Dr. McGlynn had willingly accepted the conditions laid dignity. When statesmen have gone wild over "Pigs in the Clover," and politicians have broaded hopelessly over the "Spider and the Fly," ordinary people had better succumb to their instincts and go in to wm. The "World's Fair" is new and quite edi-fying in the amount of information it con-

down by the holy father. "This information should have sufficed to satisfy every one that Mgr. Satolli had power specially delegated by the holy father. Then it is well to make several reflections.

Reasons for Reticence.

First-That as soon as it was understood that these conditions were complied with, every sincere Catholic should have at once feit himself bound in conscience to recog-nize that all had been done in the case that was expedient and in accord with the spirit of the Catholic church. "Second - That the selection of the proper time and the manner to give public informa-tion of the conditions belonged to the au-thority of the church and when the holy father should find it opportune after the re-ception of the documents, which we c imme diately forwarded.

"Third—Every one could see that the im-mediate publication of these conditions was for prudential reasons omitted to avoid the talk that might oppose the good done by doing away with the calamity which had for marked "exit" wins the game and the prize, and a comforting conviction that he does not deserve it on his own merits at all. There is also the "Penny Postman," a hurrying deaden figure, who starts and stops with the doing away with the catamity which had for so long weighed upon a priest by reconciling him with the mother church. If this result had not been obtained, and if this wise silence had been acceptable to any one it must be ascribed simply to premature action.

What McGlynn Agrees To.

Instead of counters the players use tiny postal cards addressed to any number on the cross streets of the postman's beat. But the postal system is decidedly faulty concerning its delivery, for if the postman isn't fortu-nate enough to be stopped at his number he is forced to wander back and forth upon the street until some lacky turn brings him ex-actly to his destination. The first player who disposes of the five postals, which are his share, of course wins the prize. Still another game, which differs materially from the other two only in being perpendicu-"The conditions were in this form: Dr. McGlynn had presented a brief statement of his opinions on moral economic matters. it was judged not contrary to the doctrine constantly taught by the church and as recently confirmed by the holy father in the encylcal Reerum Novarum. Also it is pub-licly made known that Dr. McGlynn, besides from the other two only in being perpendicu-lar instead of horizontal, is the "Princess in the Tower." She is a beleaguered damsel at professing his adherence to all the doctrines and teachings of the Catholic church, has exa window, guarded on the next story by two warriors, whose daggers cover one of the pressed his regret (saying that he would be the first to regret it) for any word or net of pegs by which aspiring knights on the ground his that may have seemed lacking in the respect due to ecclesias-tical authority; and he thereby in-tends to repair, as far as he can, any offense which may have been given to floor are to climb to her relief. How Weather is Made.

Prognosticating professors are becoming as numerous in Council Blaffs as successful predictions are scarce. Prof. McCov. who claims rank as a weather prophet, explained yesterday with frosty breath, as he rubbed his half frozen ears, that he must have made a mistake in predicting that January 14 would be warm and cloudy. Another prophet without bonor in his own ountry, Prof. Hopkins, an old chum of Fos country, Prof. Hopkins, an old chum of Pos-ter, the prognosticator, and who has lately taken up a residence in this city, exposed his peculiar gifts to the crispy atmosphere yesterday. He predicted that next Thurs-day, January 19, would be the coldest day of the whole winter, and that the cold weather would continue up to the 22d, when it would moderate until the 28th, when another cold snap would come and stay till the end of the month. As Prof. McCoy says Thursday next will be clear and warm, it seen possible that one or the other will hit som where near, as the day is very liable to it either cold or warm. Prof. McCoy al takes the opposite view of the followin weather for the menth. The two disagrawith startling unanimity on the opening

Trouble Among Justices.

A lively little fracas took place yesterday afternoon between the two new justices of the peace, Ovide Vien and John Fox, in the former's office. Fox had heard that Vien intended to write to his (Fox's) son in Nebraska and tell him that he was drinking heavily. Fox went immediate', to Vien's office, and without waiting for him to try to binder, and without waiting for him to try to prove his innocence, doffed his ermine and challenged. Vien to come off the woolsack long enough to get thrashed. There wereu a number of bystanders and although they did their best to induce the two judges not to come to blows, their at-tempts were futile. A number of choice epithets were hurled back and forth. Fox told Vien that if he ever did as he had said he would, he would shoot him, and afterwards told a friend of his that if Vien was found upon the street some fine morning with a bullet hole through him, people might know who it was that had done the deed Altogether things are assuming a gory hue around the corner of Main street and Broadway, and Justice Field, who has so far taken no part in the combat, is thinking seriously of arresting both his rivals and thus secur ing a monopoly on the justice business.

this country as papal delegate-a term which indicates a temporary message and somewhat limited powers. Objections were at once raised in certain quarters against him, his authority was questioned and denied, his recall demanded and his mission declared a failure. To all clamoring of this nature the pope gives answer swift and effective. He declares that we sha, have a permanent apostolic delegation in the United States. So well satisfied with the delegate. Ruler Needed Nearer Than Rome.

"Leo XIII. is a man of firm character. Opoos ition strengthens his resolve. All that has occurred since Mgr. Satolli's arrival demonstrates the more plainly the need of a resident ablegate as the representative of the pope, clad with well defined powers. For Catholics Rome is the supreme tribunal; but Rome is rather far away. A hand near by is needed that will at any moment reach out and bid the sea be placid. If some men had been seeking in most effectual ways to make evident to all eyes the necessity of a delegate in America, they could not have adopted in proof of these more effective arguments than the methods they have been in fact pursuing. God be thanked for all that has been

"The Catholic church in America is now thoroughly organized and has put on the mantlings of perfect stature. She has in her own territory a superior court-a branch of the appellate court of Rome-deriving from this latter its life, but capabe in itself of immediate acting. This is home rule for American Catholics, so far as Catholics away from Rome can have home rule. In addition to our energies and inspirations we shall have in all our undertakings the direc-tion and impetus so directly as never before of the sovereign head of the church. Catho lics will have a more practical realization of what church unity and papal supremacy mean. Rome authority kindles at times into a speculative theory or an idle beau ideal; present authority is a living fact; it tests one's obedience, while at the same time add ing new power for well doing.

New Glory for American Catholies.

"So far as the country at large is concerned the American people will welcome the recognition that a religious element of the land so important as the Catholic has this new glory added to its record, this new 3.000 strength infused into its life. Moreover a 1,200 closer acquaintance of the workings of the papacy will be interesting; it will dissipate many an old time prejudics. The past will appear to all of us in its true light, harmon-izing magnificently with the expectations of 500 Izing magnificently with the expectations of modern diplomary and accelerating the march of all that is useful, good and ele-vating in modern progress. The clouds of old foggism said to hang around the throne of Peter exists only in the befogged region of religious prejudice or the darkened re-cesses of narrow and blindfolded minds. They exist not in the vatican. The most far-seeing liberal mind in the world today is that of Leo: the most gentle and generous 3,500 that of Leo; the most gentle and generous heart is his. Neither Catholics or Protest-4.800 ants of America know him sufficiently.

NO LONGER QUESTIONED.

Archbishop Corrigan Pleased to Welcome the Pope's Representative.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14-On the announcement that the pope had established a permanent apostolic delegation in the United States and had established Mgr. Satolli as the first delegate. Archbishop Corrigan pre-pared the following which his secretary.

Father Connelly, gave out this secretary. "The sovereign pontiff as the vatican counsel defines, criouxs immediate episcopal jurisdiction over the entire flock of Christ. The primacy of the apostolic see carries with 23 24 it from its very nature the right to appoint 30 35 a representative in any diocese of the world To deny this is to deny the faith. Conse quently, when the holy father is pleased to Catholics. Finally Dr. McGlynn has of his own free will declared and promised that within the limits of a not long period of time he will go to Rome in spirit and intention which are becoming to a good Cetholic and priest. "Then it is well to note how deplorable Upon the board is a large circle and around it is that that reconciliation should have been discussed as it has in newspapers in such manner that private and lay persons have dared to pass upon it with harsh re-proach and ill-considered censure. That anyone should have dared to doubt the pope's authority in America as in foreign countries is a sentiment as utterly erroneous and scandalous.

Superior to Man Made Bounds.

"The action of the church and of the holy see with things belonging to it is su-perior to every man-made boundary, univerwork so far accomplished by the ablegate and as a personal recognition of Mgr. Satolli's sal and proper to every country where there are Catholics. For this reason it seems exmerits he names him the first apostolic ceedingly opportune to recommend due re-spect in every case to ecclesiastical author-ity, and before all to all Catholics as well as to the council at Baltimore, inasmuch as it is forbidden to treat ecclesiastical matters and questions though the medium of journalism. Much more deplorable is it that persons both ecclesiastics and laymen, (who (who wish to appear as sincerely Catholic), make bad use of journalism, with vio-lent and mendacious attacks, beyond all bounds of respect and charity, against ven-erable prelates, whose virtue and learning, whose rectitude of character and unques-tioned and unquestionable lows there are the tioned and unquestionable love towards the church and the supreme pontiff accompanied by sincere love of country, make them de-servedly the objects of the special prediction of the holy father and of universal esteem and veneration."

His Authority Made Permanent.

Mgr. Satolli, the papal ablegate received at the Catholic university today the following cable message from Dr. O'Connell, the American secretary of the propaganda, who accompanied Mgr. Satolli to this country and recently returned to Rome.

ROME, Jan. 14, 1893-To Mgr. Satolli-The apostolic delegation is permanently estab-lished in the United States, and you are con-firmed as the first delegate. O'Connell. Information was also received here confirming the announcement that Rev. F. Z. Rooker, of Albany, N. Y., had been formally appointed secretary of the apostolic delegation, and stating further. that he had left Rome for New York and was no doubt the bearer of the papal bull creating the delegation and confirming all the powers of Mgr Satolli.

Archbishop Ryan's Opinion.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 14 .- When shown the announcement tonight that Mgr. Satolli's appointment as papal delegate had been confirmed, Archbishop Ryan remarked: "Such delegates exist in other countries time and attention to the Rescue home and the Omaha City mission. For the time without interfering with the machinery of the church government, and we must hope it will be the same with us."

At the recent conference in New York, he declared, the archbishop sdid not vote against receiving an apostolic delegate, but simply postponed giving an opinion until they would consult with their suffragan bishops.
