

FOR WORLD-WIDE REVOLUTION

Latest Scheme of the Rampant Reds Unearthed by the New York Herald.

ANARCHISTS ORGANIZING EVERYWHERE

Rumors of a Deep Laid Plot to Overthrow the Present Governments and Substitute Entirely New Forms in Their Place.

New York, Jan. 25.—Anarchist leaders are satisfied that the masses in all civilized countries were never so restless as now, says the Herald, and the turmoil aroused in France over the revelations connected with the exposition of the Panama canal deluges convictions among the French people...

Movement in This Country.

Confident as they might be of the sympathy of the French people the leaders know well that something more than this sympathy is necessary to insure success, and they are making appeals for moral, physical and financial support to Europe and the United States...

Organizing in Great Secrecy.

Within a week or two a public meeting will be held, at which it is proposed to appeal to sympathizing workers who have suffered in consequence of the miscarriage of the Panama scheme and show how strong a necessity exists for the overthrow of the government...

Propose a Regular Civil War.

If the revolutionists find that they cannot gain the day except by force, they will take the arms of soldiers and not of assassins. A regular civil war is what they propose, and they are confident that the revolutionists of every shade of opinion will subscribe liberally...

Laid Their Plans Carefully.

The insurgent leaders do not propose to leave anything to chance. Every step they take there will be no bloodshed, and the new era will be peacefully inaugurated. If the armies of revolution are to be organized, the United States will march on Paris, and aided by their colleagues in the French capital, will do battle with the emperor...

DRUGGIST LANYON HELD.

Judge Berka Decides That He Did Sell Liquor Contrary to Law. Yesterday afternoon in police court the arguments in the case against Druggist Lanyon, charged with the illegal sale of liquor, were made before Judge Berka.

Those Pesky Lifts.

Yesterday one of the elevators in the city hall was abandoned while undergoing repairs. A number of screws in the carriage became loose and dropped out. The elevator stands still and will do so until the Crane company makes the necessary repairs.

Will Make Them Hostile.

The next session of the Board of County Commissioners promises to be a lively one, as the three republican members have de-declared that Messrs. Paddock and VanCamp are shirking. They claim that these two men wholly neglect their work on the committees, and that when the board meets they are ignorant of the work that is to be considered. On account of their ignorance they come into the meetings at a late hour and then pose as obstructionists, trying to defeat the transaction of the regular business.

Yesterdays afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Powell, 140 Park avenue, Miss Jennie E. Powell was united in marriage to Mr. James E. Powers, a prominent and popular young attorney of this city.

Will Stop Paying in Advance.

In the future the Omaha Gas Manufacturing company will be paid for its gas when the money is earned and not before. Hereafter it has been customary to allow the bills during the latter days of the month, usually paying several days in advance. The members of the present committee think that this is a bad plan to pursue, and have drafted some of the bills will be paid until gas for the entire month has been furnished.

Stoht's Scheme a Dead One.

Ernest Stoht, who for some time has been engaged in the harmless occupation of constructing—on paper—a union depot at Eleventh and Mason streets, and near a small lot of blue prints, yesterday was called upon to witness his fondest hopes dashed to the ground. Armed with some ideas and a lot of blue prints, Mr. Stoht called upon the city engineer, Mr. DeWitt, yesterday afternoon to give him a permit to build the depot. The scheme was too visionary to be worthy of consideration.

World famous Eli Perkins says: "After people have gone over all the routes to California once, they settle down to the old way. This road will always be the great transcontinental line. It has the best track, the best equipment, the best eating houses, and it teaches the traveler more history and geography than any other line. It shows you historic Salt Lake and the Mormons, takes you through the great Laramie plains, the Humboldt basin and the Grand Canyon over the very stage route that Horace Greeley and Artemus Ward rode."

LOCAL DEMOCRATS COME OUT WITH A VIGOROUS PRONOUNCEMENT.

Local Democrats Come Out with a Vigorous Pronouncement.

INSPIRING CALL TO ARMS ISSUED

Sinking of Self in Interest of Party is the Saplent Suggestion—Chris McGiff Tries for a Home-Made Divorce and Falls.

Drawing inspiration from the triumph of democratic principles in the election of a chief magistrate of the nation the local politicians of the unwashed and untried brand held a select meeting yesterday and promulgated the following electrifying pronouncement: "Every democrat deploras the factional divisions which have heretofore divided the party in this city. The causes which were the inventors of faction have disappeared and it is a fitting and opportune moment to destroy the factions themselves. By sacrifice of personal predilections, and by noble attachment and devotion to the principles of the founders of the republic, the national democracy has triumphed. Let us emulate the conduct of the national democracy of the past as has been the cause of division and contention—keeping in mind only to avoid the rocks and sands upon which we split!"

"Organization is the watchword of democratic success! Without it individual effort is impotent!" "We, therefore, the undersigned, propose the organization of a democratic association in South Omaha, the members of which shall be representatives of the various nationalities or sect, but of the patriotic, honest and well meaning democracy—the purpose of which shall be to unite the harmonious conflicting elements within the party to purify primary elections and to influence the selection of capable and creditable demagogues for public office. It is the desire of the undersigned to create a permanent organization, officers and managed on the lines which have made Tammany hall and the Cook County Democratic club so important factors in achieving national victory."

Attempted to Kill His Wife.

Chris McGiff and his wife parted five months ago. Mrs. McGiff has since been an inmate of a Railroad avenue bawdy in this city. Chris worked in the Omaha street sweeping gang last summer, but since winter holds the sweepings in his icy fetters he spends most of his time in the saloons so important factors in achieving national victory. Tuesday he stopped over and visited the house where his erring wife has sought more congenial company than that of her past husband.

Charged Made Against the Designer of the World's Fair Fine Arts Building.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25.—A surprising discovery was given publicity today regarding the architectural gem of the World's fair—the fine arts building. The Journal publishes cuts showing that one of the chief features, supposed to be original with the designer, Charles B. Atwood, has a parallel in the famous Giesse Campo Santo. The feature in question is the adaptation of a dome to a Grecian building. In doing this, the designer charged with plagiarizing Benoit's prize design, which received the honors in the Prix de Rome contest at the Paris School of Fine Arts in 1880, one of the strong points Mr. Atwood's design is that there is no dome in Benoit's design. Mr. Atwood followed up this statement with the declaration regarding the Chicago fine art building that he had never seen the original before was a dome on a Grecian building. "Amusement and regret are expressed among Mr. Atwood's professional brethren."

Fatally Injured in a Runaway.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 25.—A team attached to a heavy dray ran away on Grand avenue this evening. At Twenty-fourth street the dray collided with a light buggy containing Richard Plock, proprietor of the outfitting business, and David Guerry, a well known oculist. Plock and Guerry were thrown under the feet of the runaway team and when picked up were unconscious. Police surgeons who were called attended them, thinks both are fatally injured. They were taken to their homes after he hastily dressed their wounds.

Progress of Healy's Trial.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 25.—Nothing of a sensational nature was developed today in the trial of Robert Healy, for complicity in the Homestead poisonings. The evidence did not differ materially from that given on the previous trial. Patrick Gallagher was on the stand for two hours and repeated the story of the poisoning in the office in which the Commonwealth will finish tomorrow.

RAILROAD LINES ESTABLISH A BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25.—Representatives of fifteen railroads and three lake lines participated in a conference today at the Great Northern hotel, the object of which was to arrange details for the establishment of a bureau of information at the World's fair grounds during the progress of the exposition. The result of the conference was the adoption of a resolution agreeing to establish a bureau of information, and a committee, composed of the same rates, be appointed. A. Kiskisken, John Kinsler and Walter H. Hoarford, was appointed to arrange details for putting the plan into execution. The committee will meet at Mr. Hoarford's office next Monday.

Much curiosity is expressed as to the probable result of the meeting to be held in this city, the consideration of the immigrant question. The conference was called by a committee of the Western Passenger association, and has for its object the adoption of an agreement limiting the commissions on immigrant traffic.

Declared a Dividend.

New York, Jan. 25.—Edward Vanetien, president of the Home, Watertown & Ogdensburg railroad, was today appointed general superintendent of the New York Central railroad to succeed Theodore Voorhees, who resigned to accept the vice presidency of the Reading road.

BORROWED HIS DESIGNS.

A MINISTER'S DAUGHTER

Pleasant Part of Rev. Mr. Higgins' Duty.

Beloved Pastor of a Congregational Church.

Charles A. Wurr, One of the Best Known Men of New Haven.

Rev. Dr. L. H. Higgins is the beloved pastor of the Congregational church at Hanover, Conn. He and his family are among the most respected people in New Haven county, and his daughter is one of the many accomplished young women in the town where her father preaches. He is one of the most earnest and straightforward of the many brilliant pastors in the denomination that includes such a large number of Yale's best graduates in that State, and his good judgment is shown in temporal as well as religious matters, and when in September last he came out with the frank and factious statement that follows there was no doubt in the mind of those who were sitting in the church that course to pursue. Said Mr. Higgins: "I regard it as a pleasant part of my pastoral duty to recommend Paine's celery compound wherever there are physical needs. My wife and my daughter, in fact there are four of us, have been using Paine's celery compound for several weeks with beneficial results. General prostration, the result of grip and malaria, seem to have been the cause of weakness. My daughter has taken compound for malarial troubles and general prostration with very satisfactory results. We can't keep house without it."

It is such words as these from thousands of grateful people that more than anything else have spread the fame of this great remedy first prescribed by Dartmouth's noble professor, Dr. Phelps—a remedy that makes well those who suffer from the various ills that result from impaired nerves and impure blood.

Charles A. Wurr is one of the best known young men of New Haven, where he holds a responsible position with B. Shoninger & Co., the organ and piano manufacturers. As a result of overwork, Mr. Wurr's health gave out, and, to use his own words, his "blood became impure, and erysipelas broke out. I consulted a good physician in this city, who prescribed for me a certain saline, but this drove the poison back into my blood about six times."

"I then thought that it was time to be a doctor myself, and bought a bottle of Paine's celery compound. Before I had used it up I felt a change for the better. I took it just at the time that my face was in a fearful condition, and felt better 36 hours after using the same, and in a few days' time I was as well as ever."

We've taken something like three hundred suits of clothes and a hundred and twenty-five fine coats, vests—scratched the original prices off the tickets—so's to forget how much they did sell for—and piled them up in a half dozen heaps on two tables near the elevator.

The suits are in pretty much all sorts of goods—cheviots—cassimeres—worsteds and silk mixtures; cutaways—square cut sacks—round corner sacks; dark and medium colors, in all sorts of patterns. None of them are worth less than twelve dollars—and some of them did sell for as much as sixteen dollars as suit. The coats and vests are in fine fancy worsteds in black only—and if you'd pay fifteen dollars for one you'd pay just about what you'd ought to pay. While once in a while there's a larger size among them—the majority are from 34 to 38. If there's anything to suit you among the lot—and you're mighty hard to suit if there isn't—the price now is—either for a suit to match—or a coat and vest as the case may be $9.50.
