

THEY DID LOTS OF BUSINESS

Senators Got Down to Work and Put in a Very Busy Day.

APPROPRIATION BILLS CONSIDERED

Fortifications Bill Passed After an Interesting Debate—Army Bill Also Passed—Sundry Service Bill Received the Attention of the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—Good progress in the practical legislative work of the senate was made today. Immediately after the routine morning business the committee on appropriations asserted its right of precedence and maintained it up to the time of adjournment. It even refused to yield to the urgent appeal of Mr. Harris, democrat, from Tennessee, to let him return a substitute for the house quarantine bill or to have action upon it.

The fortification bill was the first of the general bills to come before the senate, and it was passed after a rather interesting, though not novel, discussion on the subject of coast fortifications. The army appropriation bill was then taken up and was passed with but a single amendment—increasing the monthly pay of sergeants of the army.

The district of Columbia bill was next in order. All the committee amendments were agreed to except one, that was reserved for action tomorrow, looking to the erection of a $500,000 municipal building in Washington city, and the bill went over.

Mr. Felton, democrat, the clerk's desk and had read resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco, calling upon the government to cede the islands to the United States and urging prompt action on the proposed cession.

The fortifications appropriation bill and the army appropriation bill were passed and the district of Columbia appropriation bill was taken up and passed with the following amendments:

In the House.

The attention of the house today was centered upon one item of the sundry civil appropriation bill. That item was the one appropriating $10,000,000 for carrying on the contracts already existing for the improvement of rivers and harbors. The jurisdiction of the committee on appropriations was called into question. It was contended that the appropriation should have been reported to the committee on harbors, but although Mr. Holman was one of those who made this contention against the power of the committee, which he is chairman, the committee came out victorious and the item was decided to be a proper one.

WHISKY TRUST INVESTIGATION

Its Scope Will Be a Large One—A Few Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—The judiciary committee proposed to outline the scope of its investigation into the whisky charges on Friday and, it is said, will make the inquiry a broad one. Mr. Breckinridge of Arkansas sought to give a tariff twist to the discussion today by introducing a resolution reciting that the whisky trust received "protection" to the extent of $1.50 a proof gallon on the enhanced rates of duty on foreign spirits imposed by the McKinley tariff, and providing that to stop the "gross favoritism, extortion of money and adulteration and counterfeiting of whisky trust, the same tax shall hereafter be levied on compound spirits as on imported alcohol."

The republican senatorial caucus this morning selected as its territory of Arizona on the same footing with the territories of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Utah, which at a previous caucus they decided to admit to the union. Mr. Carey of Wyoming has been persistent in bringing about this result and now will assume the burden of getting the question before the senate for a vote. He is reported to be proceeding upon the theory that there is always a way to reach matters when the senate will do so, and he proposes that the territory admission bill shall be reached or know the reason why.

Confirmations: Postmasters—South Dakota—Alex D. Marriott, Pierre; Orator H. Laeroff, Clarksville.

The republicans of the senate have taken a poll of the members on the question of the repeal of the Sherman silver law, and that there is little probability of a repeal, as only about eight democrats will vote for it and there is a majority of seven or eight republicans against it.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY

Facts and Figures Taken from the Monthly Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—The net gold in the treasury January 31, as shown by the debt statement issued today, was $108,181,713, the lowest figure reached in many years. This amount includes the $100,000,000 gold reserve. In the month of January there was a net increase of the public debt of $2,106,800. The non-interest bearing debt was decreased $722,250; the interest bearing debt showed an increase of $890, while the net cash was $8,877,520, or an increase of $1,000,000. The interest bearing debt at the close of the year 1892 was $106,074,913, and the debt on January 31 was $855,033,960, and the debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $2,588,730; the non-interest bearing debt was $76,411,618, making a total of $963,808,063. Certificates and treasury notes offered by equal amount of cash in the treasury, $607,496,882. Aggregate of debt, including certificates and treasury notes, $1,571,301,615. The balance in the treasury, including the $100,000,000 gold reserve, was $125,265,000. The statement of receipts and disbursements for the month shows that the payments made by the treasury exceeded its income by over $4,000,000.

Statement from Mrs. Blaine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—The following statement is published by request: 17 MADISON PLACE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1893.—The public advertisements of many biographies of James G. Blaine, pretending to be "authentic and authoritative," compel me to state that no biography or life and works of Mr. Blaine has ever been approved by myself or by any member of Mr. Blaine's family; that no manuscript by Mr. Blaine, or any private letter or paper of Blaine's, or any material for biography has been given to any person; that in the future any "authentic" or "authoritative" biography should be prepared by competent authors it will be authenticated and authorized by myself.

DIRECTORS IN A QUANDARY

How to Pay Salaries Due Training Institute Teachers a Puzzle.

The opinion of the state superintendent of public instruction regarding the legality of expending public school funds for the maintenance of training institutes has placed the president and secretary of the school board in a decided quandary, and how to extricate themselves from the dilemma into which they have been dumped, is a question of serious moment. There is at present due the principal and four teachers in the training school nearly $500 in salaries and it was further decided to expend $75 in preparing for the commencement exercises to be held this evening. Nothing will be done until the full board decides on some action.

Revising Specifications and Contracts.

The Board of Public Works and Engineer Rosewater devoted yesterday afternoon to revising the forms of specifications and contracts to be used in sewer work during the present year. No radical changes were made from those used last year.

AMUSEMENTS

Orstron-Johnson Concert at the Boyd. Those who attended the Orstron concert at the Boyd last evening were well rewarded for braving the cold. The program was one to please, and its numbers were rendered in a musically manner throughout. Miss Augusta Orstron possesses a soprano of considerable power, flexible and definite; behind her voice she has the spirit to interpret, and the result is that whether, as last evening, she renders an aria from Verdi, a Swedish folk song or a negro melody, she is always worthy of listening. Her singing of a folk song boleda was vociferously received, and in response to her audience's demand she gave the most exquisite rendering of "Way Down Upon the Swanee River." All her numbers were received with enthusiasm. Her singing of Flotow's "The Last Rose of Summer" created a storm of applause. Miss Martina Johnson, who is making her first tour of America, and who possesses European reputation, shared the honors of the evening with her partner. Her instrument is the violin, and her work ranks with that of the greatest lady virtuosa. Last evening one of her numbers received the most enthusiastic applause. Her instrument is admirable and in all her playing there is character. J. Donnell Balfie's singing of "The Heart Bled Down," was a feature of the concert. Mr. Frank Porter's letter was heard to fine advantage in "Dreams," by Stelezek.

The company had the support of home talent. Mr. C. A. Jacobson sang "In Police from 'Eranai,'" with some success. The Boyd theater orchestra, under Mr. Butler and its fine organ, in three selections, the flute solo by Mr. Peterson, earning a well deserved encore.

School of Music Recital.

In spite of the bitter cold, the tenth public recital of the Omaha School of Music was well attended last evening. The entertainment constituted the formal opening of the new quarters of the school in the McCague block and a most enjoyable program was rendered.

The Reinecke quartet sang three numbers and as usual their selections were among the most enjoyable features. Mr. Copeland sang Schumann's "Two Grenadiers" in excellent taste and responded to a well-merited encore. Mrs. Wakefield's voice was heard to good advantage in an original song, "The Beautiful Violet," with Mrs. Nye. Miss Frances Rieder sang "The Angel Came" by Cowen, and Howley's "Twas a Dream" was followed by a piano duet by Prof. Marshall and Mr. Roy J. Smith.

One of the most pleasing numbers was Mrs. Nye's rendition of "Absence." Mrs. Nye's singing is her exquisite touch, promising of the young singers of the city. Her voice is remarkably mellow and musical in quality, and she has a fine sense of judgment to discard chromatic effects and sing directly from the heart. Her selection was received with a spirited encore, to which she responded with "Sweet Gleanings." Nye's solo was "Knowst Thou the Land," by Thomas, which she rendered with considerable dramatic effect. The principal charm of Mrs. Nye's singing is her exquisite touch, shading, in which she is surpassed by few vocalists. The program was concluded with a selected number by the Reinecke quartet.

Prof. Reynolds' Exhibition.

The entertainment given by Prof. Reynolds at the Young Men's Christian Association hall this week surpasses anything of the kind ever seen in Omaha. At his entertainment last night his supporters were all getting control over six out of ten of his volunteers. One of the most interesting things that he showed his subjects was a riddle of a man. He is an expert in the art of a complete state of cataplexy upon one of his subjects and a prominent physician after examining him thoroughly and standing on his feet while he is in a state of cataplexy, said that he was the most wonderful case he had ever seen. He has since then had a similar outbreak in Canada. I knew long ago what was about to occur in Hawaii and in Canada. I would not be surprised if a revolution in Canada any time. I have positive knowledge that plans in that direction are being made. Mr. Dickinson talks now being made here. Speeches for Canadian annexation will begin in congress the early part of next week.

WHEAT IN THE NORTHWEST

Figures Compiled by the Northwestern Miller Showing Stocks in Store.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 1.—The Northwestern Miller has taken the pains to look up the interior wheat stocks of the northwest, that is, wheat which is tributary to Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior, and states that they amount to between 22,000,000 and 25,000,000 bushels. These figures do not include stocks already stored at Minneapolis, Duluth or Superior, but consist only of grains stored in country houses. Bradstreet's this week reports the stocks at 9,520,000 bushels. The total wheat stock of Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior now is 40,000,000 bushels, and with the interior stocks adds the total wheat stock to between 53,000,000 and 56,000,000 bushels. On February 1, 1892, the aggregate northwestern stocks were 35,800,000 bushels, and in 1891, 22,250,000 bushels.

HIS ULTIMATUM ANNOUNCED

Cleveland Declares for the Repeal of the Sherman Silver Law.

EITHER THAT OR AN EXTRA SESSION

Speaker Crisp Notified of the Dictator's Desires in the Premises by Don M. Dickinson—Other Features of the Situation.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE

318 FORTY-SEVEN STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.

Mr. Cleveland has sent his ultimatum to congress on the silver question. Don M. Dickinson brought the ultimatum. It was that the silver purchase act must be repealed or there will be an extra session. Mr. Dickinson, always picturesque and burdened with information for Mr. Cleveland's inner circle, made his appearance early in the day and left a trail of information, speculation and rumor behind him.

He had just come over from a conference with Mr. Cleveland and was due to be back with him tonight. He was on the floor of the house for an hour before the session opened, and was accorded much attention in view of the close relation existing between him and the president-elect. The Tammany men in particular clustered about Mr. Dickinson and Colonel Fellows, Bourke Cockran and Amos Cummings each took turns in exchanging views with him on the silver question.

It soon developed that Mr. Dickinson's mission was an important one. He had come to say with authority from Mr. Cleveland that something must be done toward the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law before the present session of congress ended on March 4, or else Mr. Cleveland would summon an extra session within thirty days after his inauguration. This was the most decisive step on silver yet taken.

Details of the Plan.

Mr. Dickinson called on Speaker Crisp and made known to him the message of importance for him as soon as the house got down to it. Mr. Crisp left the chair and went to his private office. They were together for half an hour and Mr. Crisp was told that the wiping out of the obnoxious silver purchase law was the best business to which Mr. Cleveland desired to give his attention.

As Mr. Dickinson left the speaker's office he said to the Bee correspondent: "You may say that either one of two things will happen, the present congress will repeal the silver purchase act, or an extra session will be called within thirty days from March 4. It is of more consequence just now than the other questions combined, and until it is settled other questions will have to wait."

"How about Hawaii's request for annexation?" "It should be granted. The next war, if there is to be one, will be on the ocean and we have need of those islands. Then Mr. Dickinson turned his attention to Senator Carlisle, who was in waiting. For an hour they were together in the marble room of the senate.

Aside from Mr. Dickinson's expressed statement concerning silver, and the extra session there were many interesting reports connected with the silver question. Mr. Dickinson with various congressmen, brought out the fact that the incoming administration is not only anxious to annex Hawaii, but expects to make the annexation of Hawaii a prominent feature of the early days of the administration.

Expects a Resolution in Canada.

Mr. Dickinson himself is an ardent annexationist and in this it is believed he voices the views of the administration. In the case of the foreign relations commission with whom he talked, said afterward to THE BEE correspondent: "That outbreak in Hawaii repeated last Saturday will soon be followed by a similar outbreak in Canada. I knew long ago what was about to occur in Hawaii and in Canada. I would not be surprised if a revolution in Canada any time. I have positive knowledge that plans in that direction are being made here. Speeches for Canadian annexation will begin in congress the early part of next week.

Cleveland's Private Secretary.

Accompanying the visit of Mr. Dickinson today came the report that the private secretary to Mr. Cleveland had now narrowed down to three gentlemen, viz: A. W. Lyman, formerly of the New York Sun and now editor of the Helena (Mont.) Independent; Walter Wellman of the Chicago Herald; and Mr. Edward Fleming, editor of the Buffalo Courier.

While it is said the president-elect has brought the selection within these three names, he has stated that he would not designate the choice until after he has completed his cabinet selection. Mr. Cleveland stated to a gentleman who called upon him yesterday and who is in Washington tonight, that it was his intention to tender ex-governor I. P. Gray of Indiana a place in the new cabinet. Mr. Cleveland said that he had not yet decided which portfolio he would tender the ex-governor, but he is reported to not for the fact that the hoosier was totally ignorant of all that relates to the affairs of the government.

The president-elect inquired about the judicial appointments of ex-governor Gray in a manner which led one to believe that the inquiry was for the purpose of ascertaining his fitness for the interior department or the postmaster generalship. He left the impression, however, that the getting of such statements from original sources does not lie with him.

FIGHTING OVER A CHILD

Lincoln Humane Society Determined to Protect Lizzie Hendrickson.

FIRST ROUND FAVORABLE TO DANIELSON

Another Writ of Habeas Corpus Secured Before the Alleged Victim Could Be Removed from the Court Room.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]

Some ten days ago the Humane society began an action in the county court to secure possession of a 12-year-old girl named Lizzie Hendrickson, who it was alleged was living alone with an elderly farmer near Raymond, named Nella Danielson, and who was not properly cared for the child. The case was heard before Judge Long, who handed down a decision last evening giving the child into the custody of the society. This morning Danielson applied to Judge Theobald for a writ of habeas corpus claiming that he was the foster father of the child, and was raising her as his own daughter.

After hearing testimony in the matter, the court this afternoon gave his decision, giving the girl into the custody of Danielson. Before the pair could leave the court house, however, the agent of the Humane society again applied to the county court for another writ of habeas corpus. The writ was allowed pending a hearing, and the girl again taken in charge by the deputy sheriff. The case will be heard again tomorrow.

McCann Bound Over.

Mike McCann, the obstreperous huckster who went gunning for Daniel Hancy, another huckster, the other day, had a preliminary hearing in police court this morning. The witness detailed a scrap that had taken place on the morning before the shooting, in which Hancy had run McCann away from the spot he had stand with a whip. About 3 o'clock McCann returned, and gave Hancy to get down off his back. When he came down McCann pulled out his gun and began aimed pointing at Hancy, and the girl stepped over to Hancy and taking hold of his head, held the gun within a few inches of his head and fired twice. At the conclusion of the hearing, McCann was held in $1,000 bail for the district court, which he furnished.

In Federal Court.

Amasa Hall and Wesley Johns, the two youngest men who stood guilty to the robbery of the Emerald postoffice last October, were sentenced today. Hall, who was the ringleader, got four and a half years in the government penitentiary at Leavenworth, while Johns got off with a year in the Lancaster county jail.

Pardee to Succeed Lamar.

It is reported tonight upon good authority that the president has selected as the successor of the deceased Justice Lamar of the United States court, Judge Don A. Pardee of the United States circuit court at New Orleans. It is known that the name of Judge Pardee is one of the southern members of the federal bench which most favorably considered by President Harrison for this appointment. This announcement may be premature, inasmuch as inquiry made at the attorney general's office failed to confirm the statement that the nomination of Judge Pardee had already been made out at the department of justice.

Miscellaneous.

Assistant Secretary Chandler has affirmed the decision of the commission in the case of H. Lyman against George E. Burrell from Blackfoot, S. D., dismissing the charges.

City in Brief.

The city council held an executive session last evening on the excise commission vacancy. Doolittle has removed to Chicago, but the council has declined to accede to the mayor's request to declare his office vacant. They have become anxious to fill it and have invited to the mayor that he would oblige them greatly if he would appoint H. F. Hitt as successor to the excise ward, in return for which they will declare Doolittle's office vacant. The mayor peremptorily refused, but told them if they would give him the appointment of Charles O. Gilbert from Huron, application for confirmation act of March 3, 1891, decision below confirmed, re-fuse Gilbert's reinstatement of entry; J. Campbell W. Graham against Alphonso Sylvester from Mitchell, affirmed, canceling Sylvester's entry; Orson E. Cook from Grandfather, affirmed, canceling timber claim.
