Death of the Anti-Options Bill Landed a General Advance.

Excitement Began in the Day Wheat Jumped Two Cents at Once, Followed by Corn, Oats and Provisions—Shorts Were Numerous and Could Make Little Headway.

Chicago, Ill., March 2.—Wheat jumped up over 2 1/2 c. on advanced over 1/2 c. pork 60c, lard 40c—all apparently the result of the death of the anti-options bill. Traders showed a disposition to operate more freely than for months and the market was more responsive to a presidential inauguration.

The boom began a few minutes after the opening, as soon as the facts became apparent that the death of the anti-options bill had landed and the demand for wheat, especially from shorts, was increased. The market was more responsive to a presidential inauguration.

Crop reports were encouraging to holders, and the Cincinnati Price Current reported that the belief in damage was increased and the average position less assuring than a week ago. The export clearances from the Atlantic ports and New Orleans also showed a large increase.

Trading was light for everything in the market for hog products, but more active for the pastings of the stocks of provisions on hand, indicating that the quantities were less than in the past. The fact of small receipts of live hogs at the yards was also an element of strength and so was the fact in which the market was actually held by holders and parties who bought during the last few days of the week.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Cattle Trade Active at Steady Prices—Hogs Dressed at 100.00. Receipts today were again rather liberal, the four days supply for the week, 12,482 head.

The run of cattle was again liberal, close to 200 cars, making yesterday and today nearly 11,000 head. The market was very active, but rather depressing influence on the trade, but as there was a more favorable tone to eastern advices and the shipping and export demand was unusually good for a Thursday, the market was not so much depressed.
