

substitute which put the name of Judge Lake in the place of John C. Cowin, but objection was raised to the row.

McKesson charged that the Barry substitute had been changed, and that his only objection to the Barry substitute was that he believed the house ought to choose the attorneys and the house make the laws.

Watson objected and hesitated on roll call, which the speaker held must proceed.

Explaining His Vote. In explaining his vote Davies said that the resolution met the objection heretofore raised by several of the members who had claimed that they did not know to what the evidence was sufficient.

McKesson tried to steal the title. That the resolution was going to pass was apparent when the name of McKesson was called. He made a desperate effort to stay the storm, and under the protection of the speaker he introduced a resolution.

Record to be Proud Of. Porter said that the legislature had thus far made a record of which its members as a whole might well be proud, and had caused a record to be made of its proceedings.

Engaging Counsel. After the announcement of the vote, showing the resolution had been adopted, Kockley explained that the committee had been employed by Judge Wakeley, Judge Lake and ex-Attorney General Leese.

Found, Greene and Wakley. The vote on the amendment resulted in its adoption by a vote of 31 to 17, and a recess of an hour was ordered, during which the members of each party were to assemble in caucus and make their final plans.

How They Voted. Those voting to proceed with the impeachment matter were: Ames, Barry, Beal, Casper, Davies, Dickerson, Dimick, Dobson, Eickhoff, Farnsworth, Felton, Ford, Fulton, Gerdner, Goss, Granger, Haller, Harman, Henry, Higgins, Horst, Irwin, Johnson of Hall, Johnson of York, Johnston, Kockley, Leitch, Lingenfelter, Lockman, McKesson, Miller, McVey, Nelson, Newberry, Olson, Porter, Rhodes, Riley, Ruzgals, Scheidt, Schiefel, Scott, Sinclair, Sisson, Smith of York, Smith of Richardson, Soderman, Stevens, Sutter, Van Housen, Wilson, Woods, Mr. Speaker.

Those voting in the negative were: Brockman, Brown, Burns, Cain, Colton, Cooley, Cornish, Cross, DeWelder, Ellis, Gifford, Goldsmith, Goss of Douglas, Griffith, Hinds, James, Johnson of York, Johnson of Richardson, Kioke, Kruse, Kruse, McKesson, Merrick, Nason, Oakley, Rhea, Richards, Robinson, Schappel, Schindler, Smith of Johnson, Spencer, Sisson, an Duyn, Wardlaw, Watson, Withnell.

the first time in two months every member of the senate was present. Although the senate transacted a great deal of business during the forenoon, it was not until 1 o'clock that the senate was called to order.

Miss Bess Mitchell Doolittle, who is determined in a way to be quite as famous as her husband, is well on her way toward the summit in her endeavor to show that a woman, unaided, can make the circuit of this broad land, aided by the railroads, without setting foot on the ground.

Yesterday Miss Doolittle arrived in Council Bluffs by the Northwestern at 1:30, having left Chicago Wednesday evening according to the itinerary prepared for her by the number of the touring passengers.

At 2:30 Miss Doolittle left Omaha on her swing around the circle, Union Pacific No. 1, being just a trifle late in leaving. Major B. H. Barrows of the Union Pacific's Hierarchy department, Mrs. Barrows and a representative of the Union Pacific, Miss Doolittle for a short ride with her on the "Overland Route" to break the tedium of the journey.

Miss Doolittle is a tall, willowy young woman, a brunette in type, with dark brown eyes, an aquiline nose—a typical American girl, modest and unassuming—but she impresses one with the fact that she is quite able to take care of herself. She is accompanied by a young man, who has never seen the west beyond Omaha everything promises to be new and interesting to her.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 73 and recommended that it be engrossed for third reading. The report was not agreed to, but house roll 73 was sent to the general file. The bill was introduced in the house by Representative Horst and provides that actions on promissory notes must be brought in the county where the original makers of such promissory notes reside or may be summoned.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

Through Omaha on Her Nineteen-Day Railroad Journey.

At 2:30 Miss Doolittle left Omaha on her swing around the circle, Union Pacific No. 1, being just a trifle late in leaving. Major B. H. Barrows of the Union Pacific's Hierarchy department, Mrs. Barrows and a representative of the Union Pacific, Miss Doolittle for a short ride with her on the "Overland Route" to break the tedium of the journey.

Miss Doolittle is a tall, willowy young woman, a brunette in type, with dark brown eyes, an aquiline nose—a typical American girl, modest and unassuming—but she impresses one with the fact that she is quite able to take care of herself. She is accompanied by a young man, who has never seen the west beyond Omaha everything promises to be new and interesting to her.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 73 and recommended that it be engrossed for third reading. The report was not agreed to, but house roll 73 was sent to the general file. The bill was introduced in the house by Representative Horst and provides that actions on promissory notes must be brought in the county where the original makers of such promissory notes reside or may be summoned.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

There was considerable objection to the agreement as first proposed, but it was finally decided that it was the best that could be made under the circumstances.

At 2:30 Miss Doolittle left Omaha on her swing around the circle, Union Pacific No. 1, being just a trifle late in leaving. Major B. H. Barrows of the Union Pacific's Hierarchy department, Mrs. Barrows and a representative of the Union Pacific, Miss Doolittle for a short ride with her on the "Overland Route" to break the tedium of the journey.

Miss Doolittle is a tall, willowy young woman, a brunette in type, with dark brown eyes, an aquiline nose—a typical American girl, modest and unassuming—but she impresses one with the fact that she is quite able to take care of herself. She is accompanied by a young man, who has never seen the west beyond Omaha everything promises to be new and interesting to her.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 73 and recommended that it be engrossed for third reading. The report was not agreed to, but house roll 73 was sent to the general file. The bill was introduced in the house by Representative Horst and provides that actions on promissory notes must be brought in the county where the original makers of such promissory notes reside or may be summoned.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

At the request of Senator Thomsen house roll No. 85, providing for the relief of George W. T. Smith, a state militiaman whose health was irreparably injured during the Pine Ridge campaign, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

Efforts of Mr. Brigham to Run a Third Party.

Mr. Robinson has been connected with the Atchison road ever since it has been in existence. He first joined it in 1891, at which time he was employed in the construction department. In 1875 he was made general engineer of the road and in 1884 was promoted to be general manager of the system.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

Mr. Robinson is down east and nothing doing, but he is in regard to a probable appointment as president of the Union Pacific road.

embuzzling $35 from James K. O'Neil, a photographer. The offense complained of took place on March 7.

The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

German Drama at the Boyd. The Omaha drama of his city and her progress, aesthetic as well as material, may glory in the flattering reflection that she is taking on some of the airs and variety of cosmopolitanism, for have we not had Strindberg in French opera in Omaha, and now we have now launched our own drama of German drama with a company of repute in a repertory of substance and flavor undeniably Teutonic?

Best Cure For All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it.—J. C. Woodson, F. M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

La Grippe. Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete.—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25¢ a bottle, 6 for $1.50. Prompt to act, sure to cure.

Every Man whose watch has been rung out of the bow (ring), by a pickpocket, Every Man whose watch has been damaged by dropping out of the bow, and Every Man of sense who merely compares the old pull-out bow and the new will exclaim: "Ought to have been made long ago!" It can't be twisted off the case. Can only be had with Jas. Boss Filled and other cases stamped with this trade mark—

AMUSEMENTS. BOYD'S NEW THEATRE. In Opera 5 Nights. Monday, March 27. Matinee Saturday only, 2 p. m. Sharp.

DAVENPORT. Supported by MELBOURNE MCDOW. A new and original comedy under the management of Marcus H. Mayor.

CLEOPATRA. Sale Open Saturday Morning. 1st 6 rows parquets $2.00. 1st 2 rows balcony $1.50. 2nd 2 rows balcony $1.00. 3rd 2 rows balcony $0.75. Lower boxes $1.00. 1st 2 rows balcony $0.75. Balcony boxes $0.50. Admission to $0.50.

BOYD'S NEW TO-NIGHT. Germania Theater Company of St. Louis. In the Following Repertoire: This (Friday) Evening, March 25, THE PASSING REGIMENT. (By Fritz Frieden.) Saturday Evening, March 26, ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME (By Toller Enfall). Sunday Evening, March 27, FAUST. As performed in the K. Schopenhauer in Berlin and the Reg. Theater, Vienna. The costumes, scenery and properties used in the performance of "Faust" were used in the original European production last season.

FARNAM ST. THEATRE. POPULAR PRICES. 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c. TO-NIGHT. MISS ROSABEL MORRISON. Presenting the great play, "THE DANGER SIGNAL." Matinee Wednesday, any seat in the house 25c.

FARNAM ST. THEATRE. POPULAR PRICES. 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c. 4 NIGHTS. BEGINNING NEXT SUNDAY, MARCH 26, CHAS. A. GARDNER. FATHERLAND. New songs and dances. Tyrannus Quartette. Matinee Wednesday, any seat in the house 25c. WONDERLAND and BIJOU THEATRE. ALL THIS WEEK. COLLEEN BAWN. AND AN HOUR OF SPECIALTIES. Last appearance of Geo. Wallace, Harry Barlow, Nellie King and George Barlow. Every lady visitor receives a handsome silver-plated napkin ring. POPULAR PRICES PREVAIL. Sealed bids will be received by F. E. Colby at 10 o'clock on the 21st inst. for the erection of a brick opera house block according to plans and specifications on file at the office of Mr. Louis & John's architects, room 613 City Block, Sioux Falls, S. D. F. E. Colby's office Omaha, S. D. F. E. Colby, Committee.